1. Rowton met with LIRING/4 at the Diana Restaurant (Calle Mississippi) from about 1815 until 1900 on 15/4/68. L/4 asked Rowton whether he had heard anything from LIRING/3 and stated that she was beginning to worry since he had promised to let her know of an address in Chiapas to which she could write. Rowton pretended not to know precisely where and for how long L/3 intended to be away, commenting that he felt it unfortunate that he had been out of town three days before L/3 had left and did not have the benefit of a final discussion. Rowton alleged that L/3 had not told him very much in the letter he had left with L/4 for him just before leaving, and, in fact, had not mentioned anything about Raúl Moreno driving him and Francisco Lara to Chiapas in his car. In a further effort to ~~xxxxxxxx~~ dissuade L/4 from believing subsequently (when she finally learned of his arrest) that Rowton was responsible for the tragic development, Rowton alleged that he had urged L/3 not to cross the border but only to guide Lara to a safe crossing point and return immediately to San Cristóbal.

2. L/4 stated that unfortunately she herself knew very little of the final arrangements. She explained that L/3 had told her that he had persuaded Raúl Moreno to drive him and Lara to Chiapas because of the self-inflicted leg wound that prevented Lara from walking any great distance. She added that L/3 in his last telephone conversation with her told her that Raúl Moreno had finally "chickened out" and returned to Mexico City. (L/4 made no mention of Carlos Persaval and Rowton assumes that after Raúl Moreno backed out of his previous commitment, probably even before they left Mexico City, L/3 turned to Carlos Persaval and persuaded him to drive them to Chiapas in his car, and subsequently to accompany them across the border). L/4 continued that she was happy that Rowton had dissuaded L/3 from crossing the border becasue she was well aware of the dangers involved if he fell into a trap or was picked up by the Guatemalans. She added that she didnot particularly like Francisco Lara anyway and felt that he was too well known to escape detection.

3. In reply to Rowton's query, L/4 stated that Sandoval of the "thirteenth" (Yon Sosa Group) had telephoned her several times to ask if he could help her in any way, but did not apparently have any news. Rowton suggested that L/4 keep in touch with Sandoval just incase he might have learned something from FAR or Yon Sosa contacts. L/4 gave Rowton Sandoval's address as Lerma 54, apt N, but commented that she felt a little embarrassed to see him alone in the absence of L/3. Rowton then suggested that perhaps it might be more discreet to send I/3's 16-year-old son (who was staying with her at the time) around to enquire. L/4 agreed that this would be best and indicated that she would do so the next day. L/4 also stated that she felt she could get in touch more or less naturally with Raúl Moreno through Sergio Valdez to determine what had happened during the trip to Chiapas.

4. Rowton then asked L/4 to revisit the LIRING offices the following morning to study the lay-out of the back room (LIRING/9's office) and to use the typewriter again. L/4 stated that she finally found out that the typewriter in the main office was a German one but had not as yet been able to determine the exact name. She added that the one in the Mexican/Cuban Cultural Relations Office on Calle Hamburgo was a Remington and not the same as the one in the LIRING office. Rowton also asked I/4 to pick up as many blank forms and letterhead paper as possible.

5. L/4 commented that she had become quite close to Catalina Cepero during the past month and could count on her as a pretext for future visits to the office. I/4 added that on the previous afternoon Catalina had told her that the salaries of Cubana de Aviación personnel had been reduced and that her husband's salary had been cut from 450 dollars per month to 300 and that the LIRING office informed her that gasoline was being rationed for all mission personnel. Catalina also told her that packages destined for Cuba were not being delivered by Cubana de Aviación and that the backlog was so great that two officials had just arrived from Havana to attempt to resolve the problems involved. Catalina also complained that she was "sick and tired" of working in the office without pay and had tried to quit but was told by LIRING/9 that she must continue to help since the workload was so great. L/4 also told Rowton that Catalina had complained of money problems because of the cut in her husbands salary and hinted that she could use any money I/4 could loan her until next payday. Rowton suggested that I/4 lend Catalina 100 or 200 pesos in view of the usefulness Catalina might provide in I/4's continued access to the LIRING offices. L/4 added that Catalina had apparently become so attached to her that she was asking L/4 to move into the apartment across the hall from her which had become vacant (Cepero's apartment is 204 at Calle Juanacatlán 169).

6. L/4 also reported that Catalina had told her that a new directive had come out prohibiting all employees of the mission from carrying back to Havana any packages of personal items whatsoever. Catalina commented that for that reason Echemendía (Suarez de la Paz) who left the previous week could not take an ostraciser back with him to her family.

Subject: LIRING/4 Report on Visit to LIRING Offices.

1. Rowton met with LIRING/4 at the Mississippi Restaurant from about 2035 until 2115 on 17/4/63 to debrief her on her visit to the LIRING office earlier that day. LIRING/4 was obviously worried, and said so at one point, about LIRING/3 in view of the total absence of any news or communication from him. Rowton pretended to be even more ignorant of L/3's current whereabouts than L/4 herself, and asked anxiously whether she had learned anything from Sandoval or Sergio Valdez. L/4 replied that Sergio had told her that Raúl Moreno while driving L/3 and Lara to Chiapas had had an accident in the car that had proved very costly to him, although fortunately no injuries resulted to anyone. Valdez continued that Raúl had to appeal to his father for money to cover the expenses involved in getting the car running again. Valdez did not know what had happened to L/3 and Lara after Raúl Moreno left them (apparently enroute to Chiapas) and could not provide any further information.

2. As to Sandoval, L/4 told Rowton that the latter had again telephoned her to offer any help she might need but did not have any news from Lara or L/3. L/4 gave Rowton the home address of Francisco Lara as care of Martha I. Lara de Rodriguez, 16 Avenida 20-74, Zona 12, Guatemala, Guatemala, tel: 48-17-17.

3. L/4 then reported that she had visited LIRING/9's office as requested by Rowton and managed to get another look at the book-case cabinet in the corner of the room. She commented that on entering the premises she was surprised to find that the typewriter (German make) previously located in the middle office (that used by Mirabal) had been moved into the back office of L/9 and that Rosita, the wife of Luna, was struggling with two fingers to type out something as she entered. L/4 said that L/9 was quite cordial to her and invited her in for a coffee and presenting her with five tickets to the ballet performance that evening. When L/4 asked him whther anything had come in re her re-entry permit, the latter immediately began opening the mail on his desk with the comment that perhaps a reply had arrived that morning and he would check at once. After looking through the mail he replied in the negative but did not discourage L/4 from hoping that the reply would be in soon.

4. L/4 then stated to Rowton that she noticed that the cabinet in the corner of the room was bigger and lower than she had recalled from previous visits and had legs about two inches high. She added that the cabinet which was divided into two sections, the one to the left containing a shelf on which there was nothing but cigars and cigarettes and the right half consisting of a compartment with a door covered with sack cloth (costal) and possibly locked by key.

She stated that the cabinet was placed catty-cornered and that in the rather spacious~~xx~~ triangle behind it she could see many rolls of paper, which she assumed were discarded posters apparently placed there at random. L/4 then made the attached sketch on a napkin stressing the difficulty she had in providing Rowton with exact measurements. She added that there were two windows facing the street, one in the reception room and one in the middle room, but the only window in the back room faced on the inside patio and had a venetian blind and a gauze curtain but no drape.

5. L/4 then told Rowton that she had learned from Jorrín that he would be returning PCS very soon since his replacement had already arrived. He gave L/4 his home address as Velasquez 94 Altos, e/Infanta y Cruz del Padre, Barrio Villa Nueva. Habana. L/4 commented to Rowton that she would take advantage of his return (possibly on 22/4/63) to send another letter to Abreu asking for a definitive reply to her re-entry request. She added that she felt she could count on Jorrín for this service, she her relations with him had always been very cordial.

6. L/4 also mentioned that she had seen and greeted Cepeda who had just returned from Havana (apparently without his wife). L/9 told L/4 that he himself had been in Havana the preceding week on a regular courior run.

7. L/4 also turned over to Rowton several publications which she had received from Catalina Cepero and the press office. She commented that the wife of Cruz was working as secretary to the Chief LIRING in addition to her duties as responsible for confidential documents.

Subject: LIRING/4 Report of Conversation with Sergio Valdez re LIRING/3 Alleged WOFACT Affiliation.

1. LIRING/4 met with Rowton at the new safehouse room Rowton rented for security reasons under the alias Jean Mercier at the Suites Marne. Rowton had given L/4 a key and she entered the building and proceeded directly to the apartment, arriving at about 1700. Rowton posed as a French businessman and introduced L/4 to the owner(and his sister) as his secretary.

2. LIRING/4 stated that she was glad to have some time alone with Rowton since she had received a disturbing report from Sergio Valdez again revealing that reports of LIRING/3's alleged affiliation with WOFACT were circulating in leftist circles. She explained that Sergio Valdez had talked with her at her apartment (Atoyac) ~~Monday~~ Monday evening (15 April,1968) far into the night about two reports he had received about LIRING/3. Sergio Valdez explained that about three weeks previously his father (who works on the staff of "Siempre" told him that he should be careful in his dealings with LIRING/3 since the latter was a WOFACT agent. Sergio Valdez told L/4 that he became indignant at this telling his father that he had known L/3 for the past ten years and considered L/3 as his mentor in revolutionary philosophy and had absolutely no reasons to distrust him in his current activities. Sergio Valdez added that he threatened to break with his father unless the latter revealed to him the source of his information. His father finally confessed that he learned this from Alberto Dominguez, his boss in Siempre, but he could not say from whom Dominguez had received the report.

3. Sergio Valdez continued that in addition to this report he had also been told some time ago by General Heriberto Jara (now deceased) that he should be careful in his dealings with LIRING/3 since the latter was known to be a "traitor to the revolution". Sergio Valdez added that General Jara did not specify any reason for his allegation or give details.

4. Sergio Valdez, according to L/4, stated in reference to these allegations that he was quite naturally very disturbed and had hesitated to mention them to LIRING/3 before his departure in order not to upset him. He stated that he had given the matter a great deal of thought and had come to the conclusion that Orozco was the person passing out this scurrilous report and that he intended to get to the bottom of the whole business himself without involving LIRING/3. He explained that he was planning to organize a group of four or five armed men to kidnap Orozco and interrogate him until he confessed everything. He added that if Orozco finally confessed that he had passed this calumny to Alberto Dominguez they would assassinate Orozco on the spot. If, however, it became clear that Orozco was innocent they would look for some one else who might have been the source.

5. LIRING/4 stated that this whole conversation had shaken her badly since it was again an indication that L/3 was through no fault of his own accused of betraying the revolution and she was well aware of the drastic action that the Guatemalan revolutionaries as well as the Cubans were willing to take again persons accused even on slim evidence of being traitors. She asked Rowton under no circumstances to reveal this latest report to LIRING/3 since she knew such reports might drive him to do something drastic.

6. LIRING/4 also reported that in the course of conversation Sergio Valdez had brought up the name of Mr. Harris, but not in connection with the above-mentioned report against L/3. She explained that Sergio Valdez said that he knew of L/3's business relations with Harris in the past and that he himself hoped some day to be able to meet Harris so that he might interest Harris in his own commercial ventures. I/4 told Rowton that she pretended not to have much direct dealing with Harris and alleged that as far as she knew he was currently in Canada.

Subject: Rolando Mendez Aguilar, Guatemalan Rebel Contact in Mexico City.

1. LIFEAT coverage of the home telephone of LIRING/3 has revealed Subject to be a contact of Francisco Lara of FAR and Rodolfo Sandoval of the Yon Sosa group of Guatemalan rebels in Mexico City.

2. On two occasions in early April,1968, Francisco Lara, during a visit to LIRING/3's apartment, made telephone calls to 45-60-30 (listed as Publicaciones e Impresiones Mexicanas S.A. - Diario Ovaciones, Calle Lago Sinahuán 297) and asked for Sr. Mendez Aguilar on extension 27. It is apparent from the context of conversation that Subject is a close friend and possible collaborator of Lara's. LIRING/3 reported the telephone call to Rowton, which he stated was made in his presence in an effort by Lara to locate Rodolfo Sandoval. According to L/3, Lara asked the person whom he telephoned (L/3 could not identify this person since Lara did not use his name while talking) where "their fine friend" was. L/3 continued that Lara did not mention Sandoval's name, apperently for security reasons, but he had previously told L/3 that he was calling to determine the whereabouts of Sandoval. L/3 also reported that he heard Lara refer to a certain "El Gato" and to "El Gordo". L/3 told Rowton that he could not identify the former, but it appeared that "El Gordo" referred to the young friend of Lara's whose photograph L/3 had previously given to Rowton for copying and who was named only "Roberto" in conversations with Lara.

3. The LIFEAT intercept reveals that Francisco Lara told Mendez Aguilar that he had been with Sandoval early the preceding evening but that the latter had not shown up for the meeting arranged for that same morning. When pressed Mendez confessed that Sandoval had returned home drunk and was probably sleeping off the effects of the previous evening. This would indicate that Sandoval probably lived with Mendez Aguilar, or at least maintains close contact with him.

4. The Station is attempting to determine the home address of Subject in the hope that further specific information can be uncovered concerning his relationship with FAR.

24 April, 1968

1. LIRING/4 informed Rowton 24 April, 1968, that she received telegram from Mexican Consulate Guatemala City advising her "Consulate intervening in case her husband; will continue to keep informed". LIRING/4 on her own initiative (before she able meet with Rowton) asked advice Sergio Valdez and Manuel Marcué Pardiñas (of defunct Politica).

2. On recommendation Valdez, LIRING/4 telephoned Mexican Consulate Guatemala City and spoke at some length with Consul Octavio Serrano. Latter assured her LIRING/3 well and that he taking personal interest since he ~~personal~~ old friend LIRING/3's father. He explained that initial hearing would take place next day and that judge would have eight days in which decide disposition of the case. He gave LIRING/4 his home telephone and promised to keep her informed.

3. No mention made either in conversation with Serrano or in local press of simultaneous arrest of Francisco Lara, although arrest of Carlos Persabal Marcué ~~xxxx~~ reported, ~~simultaneous~~. Charge listed as "distributing communist propaganda".

4. LIRING/4 also reported that in her hurried meeting with Manuel Marcué Pardiñas latter at first took "it-served-them-right-approach" but confided that he had learned of arrest preceding day and immediately appealed to Carrillo Flores. According Marcué, Flores sent telegram in his presence to Mexican Consulate instructing it to bring matter to diplomatic level if necessary.

5. LIRING/4 also showed Rowton note from LIRING/3 in pencil on brown paper apparently/hastily torn from paper bag which she stated she received that day in plain envelope with typed address and apparently notional return address. She assumes this sent at request LIRING/3 by Octavio Serrano. Note reassure LIRING/4 that LIRING/3 in good health and that he can handle matters on his own. He states "Persabal is to blame" and instructs LIRING/4 to warn wife of Francisco Lara not to talk to anyone. Also to urge mother of Lara not to come Guatemala City in attempt help him.

6. Rowton instructed LIRING/4 give maximum play this development to LIRINGs in hope that this might wipe out adverse reports circulating against loyalty LIRING/3. LIRING/4, who expects re-entry permit PBRUMEN momentarily, will ask LIRINGs for extension in view developments.

25 April, 1968

Subject: LIRING/4 Report of Visit to LIRING Offices.

1. LIRING/4 reported to Rowton at 1000 on 25/4/68 at the hotel saferoom that she had visited the LIRING establishment that morning to inform everyone of the news concerning LIRING/3. She stated that on entering her friend (LIRING/9's secretary) informed her that her re-entry permit had come through the preceding evening. L/4 explained at once that unfortunately she could not leave on the next flight becasue of LIRING/3's arrest. She then, despite the fact that his secretary told her that LIRING/9 was in a nasty mood, went into the latter's office and told him what had happened. LIRING/9 was very sympathetic, telling her that he also read the article in the paper. When L/4 showed him the hasty note [illegible] to her by L/3 which contained the sentence "Persabal tiene la culpa", LIRING/9 became very agitated and exclaimed that he would immediately "make out a card" (ficha) recording this treachery of Persabal. L/9 agreed that L/4 could not possibly leave for PEKING as planned and felt it would not be difficult to get an extension over the usual twenty-day limit of the re-entry permit.

2. LIRING/4 continued that she then went to see LIRING/2 and recounted the whole story to him, including L/3's involvement with FAR and the 13th of November movement. She noted that when she casually commented that Rodolfo Sandoval had told her that Yon Sosa had returned from PEKING via Mexico City about a month previously, LIRING/2 pretended not to be aware of this, exclaiming, "Imagine, they don't tell us those things!" LIRING/2 then said that he was leaving for a week TDY in PEKING the next day and would be happy to take along any letters L/4 might wish to send to their mutual friends explaining why she could not leave for PEKING at that time.

3. LIRING/4 also reported that while she was in the office of LIRING/9 she met Leo Deven who runs a hotel in Acapulco and whom she remembered from occasional visits he made to the LIRING offices while she was working there She described Deven as an obvious homosexual, well dressed and patronizing in his manners. He told her that he planned to travel to PEKING "on Friday" (whether 26 April or 3 May was not specified) to see his son who was studying there. L/4 commented that everyone at the LIRING office appeared to treat Deven with respect and confidence.'.

4. Re the layout of the office of LIRING/9 (backroom) LIRING/4 said she noted the addition of the typewriter table (formerly in the middle room) against the left wall with a portable Olympia typewriter on it. The German typewriter was still on the big desk. Also behind the small coffee table in the corner she noted that the rolled up posters were gone and in their place were two or three packages of books.

Subject: LIRING/4 Report of Telephone Conversation with Yolanda Díaz.

1. LIRING/4 reported to Rowton on 22 April,1968, that she received a telephone call from her negro doctor friend, Yolanda Díaz from PBRUMEN, on the evening of 19 April,1968, advising her that her re-entry permit had been approved. Yolanda added cheerfully, according to LIRING/4, that she would be expecting her on the 22 April flight.

2. LIRING/4 continued to Rowton that she telephoned her friend, LIRING/9's secretary, early on 22 April, to find out whether the LIRING office locally had received the approval. She was told that no word had as yet been received. LIRING/4 repeated the request for confirmation that same afternoon in the presence of Rowton but again received a negative reply.

Subject: LIRING/4 Report of Meeting with Manuel Marcué Pardiñas.

1. Rowton met with LIRING/4 for lunch at the Punto Blanco restaurant on Melchor Ocampo at 1300 on 27/4/68. Rowton had given up the safe-room in the Hotel Suites Marne earlier that morning since he felt it was not longer necessary.

2. LIRING/4 reported that Manuel Marcué Padiñas, the uncle of Carlos Persabal Marcué, had telephoned her the previous evening "fromthe street" and arranged to see her privately at the Koala Restaurant (Maria Isabela hotel) later in the evening. According to LIRING/4, Marcué told her that through his appeal to Carrillo Flores the case of LIRING/3 and his nephew was now in diplomatic channels and he hoped that both prisoners would be simply deported after a summary trial. He could not, however, guarantee anything, especially the length of time involved, and asked LIRING/4 to refrain from any activity that might prejudice the case. Specifically he instructed LIRING/4 to break off all contact with the Guatemalan revolutionaries in Mexico, the LIRING establishment, and all communication with the Mexican Consul in Guatemala City. He ~~sxxxke~~ stressed that any false move on LIRING/4's part might cause Carrillo Flores to withdraw his intervention. Marcué promised to keep in touch with LIRING/4 so that she would not feel completely helpless. He added that the mother of Carlos Persabal Marcué (supposedly Manuel Marcué Pardiñas' sister) would be traveling to Guatemala City in the next few days so that she could visit her son and follow the case at first hand.

3. LIRING/4 also reported to Rowton that Rodolfo Sandoval of the Yon Sosa group had promised to visit her at her apartment the previous evening at 2200 in the company of Sergio Valdez to discuss matters further. H ad informed her on the phone in making the date that "El Gordo" had returned from Guatemala City - implying that the latter had news concerning the fate of Francisco Lara (whose arrest was not reported in the press, nor by Octavio Serrano, the Mexican Consul, to LIRING/4). LIRING/4 surmised that Francisco Lara had escaped arrest and his involvement with LIRING/3 was not known. She therefore agreed with Marcué that she should not see Sandoval and the other Guatemalans in public, and especially not at her apartment.

4. LIRING/4 also reported that Manuel Marcué Pardiñas had asked her not to call him at his home again to ask for news, or as a matter of fact discuss in any way the case by telephone. He stated that he felt the phone of LIRING/4 as well as his own phones were tapped and that possibly LIRING/4's apartment was being watched. He did not specify by whom or for what purpose, but LIRING/4 told Rowton that she assumed it would be either by the Mexican Government or the Mano Blanca of Guatemala or both. Rowton again encouraged LIRING/4 to move out of the Atoyac apartment and back into the less conspicuous calzada Tacubaya place, commenting that this would not only prevent future security risks but also convince the LIRINGs that she was suffering financially because of LIRING/3's plight (she stated that she has already intimated this inconversations with the wife and secretary of the LIRING Chief, as well as with LIRING/2). LIRING/4 agreed but expressed regret that the Tacubaya apartment did not have a phone and that she might miss important mail addressed to the Atoyac apartment and arriving after her departure. Rowton suggested one last letter to the Mexican Consul in Guatemala City simply advising him of the change of address.

5. LIRING/4 also showed Rowton the return address typed on the envelope in which the note from LIRING/3 to her had been forwarded. The address, which Rowton supposes is notional, placed on the envelope by Otavio Serrano at the suggestion of LIRING/3 for security reasons, is as follows:

Carlos Rodriguez
Guatemala C.A.

6. Rowton concluded with the comment that he felt LIRING/4 need not take Marcué's instruction not to visit the LIRING offices too seriously, since it was a well known and easily ascertainable fact that LIRING/4 had a logical reason for going there occasionally. Rowton did not wish LIRING/4 to break off relations at this critical time, expecially since LIRING/2 had commented to her on her last visit that she should feel free to come in at any time she needed help or consolation during the crisis.

SUBJECT: LIRING/4 Report of Contact with Sandoval and Marcué.

1. Rowton met with LIRING/4 for late lunch at the Punto Blanco restaurant on Melchor Ocampo on 29/4/68. She had to bring her child along since the 16-year-old son of LIRING/3 was not at her apartment at the time.

2. LIRING/4 reported that Sandoval of the 13th of November Group of Yon Sosa had again visited her and shown great concern for her welfare. He again offered her some money, such as he had, but LIRING/4 refused in view of his simultaneous complaints of the financial crisis he himself was undergoing. He explained that since Francisco Lara left he had been supporting Lara's entire family consisting of Lara's wife, mother, and their two young children. LIRING/4 said Sandoval reached a point in emotional frustration during the conversation that he exclaimed that he would have to resort to robbery or a hold-up in order to get the necessary money not only to support Lara's family but to send someone to Guatemala City to see LIRING/3 and procure a good lawyer for him. LIRING/4 told Rowton that this upset her so that she spent the rest of the evening pleading with Sandoval not to commit any criminal act. Sandoval then revealed that he and his friends had held up a policeman during the Humphrey visit and taken his gun, since they were short one weapon.

3. LIRING/4, commenting that Sandoval's only income was from selling language records for the Cortina Instituto Linguistico, told Rowton that she promised to contact all her friends in an attempt to help him sell the records and thus raise some money legally. L/4 explained to Rowton that Sandoval's commission is about 350 pesos per set of records, which is actually the down payment made by the customer (the remainder being paid in weekly or monthly instalments of about 165 pesos). L/4 asked Rowton's help in finding customers among his business contacts to help Sandoval.

4. LIRING/4 also reported that Manuel Marcué Pardiñas had visited her at her apartment late the previous evening. He told her that Carlos Fersabal's wife, Teresa Lozada, would be accompanying her mother-in-law to Guatemala City. He also stated that he was optimistic since Carrillo Flores had instructed the Mexican Consul to appeal to the Guatemalan Minister of Foreign Affairs. Marcué commented that unfortunately the Mexican Consul could not reach this official himself since he was currently in New York. He hoped however that the Consul would see the Minister's secretary to arrange direct intervention. L/4 commented to Rowton that Marcué seemed very curious about the LIRING office, but she fended off his questions by alleging that she had little or no contact with it. L/4 also commented that Sergio Valdez, who was being particularly helpful to her at this time, warned her sternly against accepting any money from Marcué in light of his reputation as an unscupulous Lothario. L/4 added that Marcué promised to see her again the following evening to keep her informed.

5. When Rowton again suggested that LIRING/4 move from the Atoyac apartment back to the Tacubaya place despite its dreariness and lack of telephone, she presented no objection, commenting that with all the traffic in and out of her Atoayac apartment at all hours of the night her reputation is probably in jeopardy, especially with her immediate neighbors and the cleaning women and maids. She promised Rowton to move out the following day since it was the end of the month and a logical time. She also promised when revisiting the LIRING office the next morning to make this known, stressing her financial plight.

6. LIRING/4 then appealed to Rowton to help her establish some sort of contact with LIRING/3, if for nothing else than to find out how he was and whether he needed anything . L/4 felt that Rowton might send some business contact of his to visit L/3 on Rowton's behalf, giving some recognition signal to LIRING/3. When Rowton pointed out the danger in this of possibly making things worse for L/3, LIRING/4 commented that Sandoval had told her that visitors were not required to sign a register or give lengthy explanations. L/4 added that she might find someone, including Sergio Valdez or Raúl Moreno or one of their friends who might make a short trip to Guatemala City to see LIRING/3. In reply to Rowton's query, L/4 commented that she did not expect anything from the wife or mother of Carlos Iersabal since they had not even bothered to telephone her since the arrest became known.

7. Rowton promised to give the matter some thought and discuss it further with LIRING/4 the following afternoon.

Subject: LIRING/4 Report of Contacts with LIRING Office.

1. On 3 May,1968, LIRING/4 reported to Boston that she had revisited the LIRING offices the preceding day and noticed that the black telephone was replaced in the middle office (where she herself used to work). She stated that she could not be certain that it was the same instrument and that it was replaced by one of the LIRING employees,but it appeared that way since she had not seen the instrument there on her visit on the previous Friday (26/4/68) and LIRING/9 had commented that the telephone would be replaced in the middle room.

2. With regard to LIRING/3's current situation, LIRING/4 reported that she had again talked to the Mexican Consul in Guatemala City by telephone on 2 May,1968, and was reassured that LIRING/3 was in good health. The Consul informed her that he could visit L/3 on Thursdays and Sundays, and would be glad to pass any letters that L/4 might send to him for L/3. The Consul also commented that the Mexican Relaciones Exteriores had instructed him to take up L/3's case with the Guatemalan Ministry of Foreign Affairs. He added that he hoped with this pressure to persuade the Guatemalan government to deport L/3 within the next ten days.

3. LIRING/4 then reported what she described as a very disturbing conversation on 3 May,1968, with Sergio Valdez. She related that Valdez had come to see her in the morning to apologize for not having any money to lend her to help her meet expenses. He explained that he had not been paid by the Revista¿Porque? and was very short of funds himself. L/4 continued that she would have to appeal to all her friends and those of L/3 for some money to tide her over until L/3 returned. She then regretted that she had not been able to locate "Sr. Harris" but if and when he came to Mexico again she would have to "renew diplomatic relations" with him. Sergio Valdez then, according to LIRING/4, laughed and said that this reminded him of another nasty rumor that he had heard. He then revealed that Raúl Moreno had recently told him that a certain Gonzalez of the Spartaco Club had told him (Moreno) that LIRING/4 had been fired from the LIRING offices because she had been providing information to the PBPRIME Embassy and that he had learned this from the LIRING "service" officer. Sergio Valdez also mentioed that a "girl who worked in the zona rosa" who knows Teresa or Carmen Lozada had mentioned that Sr. Harris had offered Carmen Lozada the sum of $4,000.00 for information on the situation in PBRUMEN. LIRING/4 told Rowton that she was badly shaken by these comments but attempted to assume as non-chalant an air as possible and did not question Sergio Valdez to determine the exact source. She noted that Sergio Valdez had mentioned Rowton several times to her, always apparently in passing, with the obvious hope that LIRING/4 would reveal his presence in Mexico and arrange an introduction to him for Sergio Valdez. LIRING/4 agreed with Rowton that Valdez was probably provoking her since at all times he appeared to be well disposed toward Sr. Harris from what he knew of him from LIRING/3. Rowton commented to L/4 that the last report concerning Carmen Lozada appeared to have been fabricated either by Sergio Valdez or one of his friends, simply on the basis of the fact that Sr. Harris had been in touch with Carmen Lozada while she was in Mexico.

4. LIRING/4 then stated that she felt she had to continue to impress Sergio Valdez with her desperate need for money and accordingly telephoned the LIRING gatekeeper in his presence and asked for a loan. When the gatekeeper responded favorably, she left Sergio Valdez waiting in the apartment and went to the LIRING Offices at once to collect the loan. The gatekeeper gave her 100 pesos on the spot, fortunately in the presence of LIRING/13. L/4 told Rowton that she promised to return the money in the next week, as soon as she received money promised to her by her father.

5. LIRING/4 added that as she was leaving the LIRING office she ran into the leftist writer, Jaime Labastida, who expressed his sorrow at the arrest of LIRING/3. Labastida commented that someone had told him recently that a cartoon of some kind had appeared in a Tapachula newspaper "against LIRING/3". When L/4 pressed him he gave a description of the "someone" that definitely identified him as Sergio Valdez. L/4 continued that when she confronted Sergio Valdez with this upon her return to the apartment, he hotly denied it, much to L/4's mystification.

6. LIRING/4 also commented that Manuel Marcué Pardiñas continued to telephone her at very late hours of the night in the hope (she assumed) that she would invite him up. She called him a "viejo verde" and added that she had no intention of seeing him alone at her home at night.

Subject: LIRING/4 Report Concerning Sentencing of LIRING/3.

1. LIRING/4 reported to Rowton at the Punto Blanco restaurant on Melchor Ocampo at 1300 on 8/5/68 that Manuel Marcué Pardiñas had informed her at 0100 that same day that he had just learned that LIRING/3 and his nephew had been sentenced to prison, with a minimum term of six months. Marcué added that his sister and her daughter-in-law would be returning to Mexico City by the end of the week and should be able to supply details of the trial and prospects for the immediate future of having the prison term reduced. LIRING/4 explained to Rowton that she had accepted a dinner invitation at Sanborns extended to her by Aguirre Jerjes, a professor at UNAM with whom she had studied at the University of Havana, and arrived at the home of Gilberto and Blanca Amant (Blanca Peña de Amant), wxith whom she was staying, rather late and found Manuel Marcué waiting for her. After apologizing profusingly for his previous rude conduct with L/4, he reported the latest news concerning L/3 to her.

2. LIRING/4 agreed with Rowton that although the prison sentence was probably definite, she should check it out with the Mexican Consul personally. She stated that fortunately she remembered a certain Josefina Rodriguez who worked in the Larga distancia service of Telefonos de México whom she had originally met as a friend of LIRING/2. L/4 commented that Srta Rodriguez whom she described as "muy fea" was enamored of LIRING/2 some years ago but stopped seeing him (to her knowledge) when she found out that he was married. L/4 continued that Srta Rodriguez had already promised to put through long distance calls to Guatemala for L/4 without charging the calls, if they could be arranged during her shift at the switchboard.

3. LIRING/4 also reported that she had again visited the LIRING offices at 1345 on 7/5/68 and again about 1130 that same morning. At Rowton's request she again checked the phone in the third office. On the first visit the office had already been closed but she ran into LIRING/13 at the gate and accepted a ride home (she felt this fortunate since he dropped her at the Tacubaya apartment at her request). On this occasion during a brief exchange of comments with the gatekeeper and L/13, LIRING/4 learned that LIRING/2 will return from ABRUKEN on 10/5/68. CS COPY

4. On visiting the LIRING offices on the morning of 8/5/68, LIRING/4 told Rowton that fortunately only her friend Catalina and Rosita (secretary of LIRING/9) were present. When she went into the third office where Rosita was working she asked to use the phone and approached the instrument. She was able to note that the name "Oki Electric,Tokyo,Japan" was marked on the instrument. She also noted the word "Gall" but could not tell whether it was part of the manufacturer's name or a Mexican or U.S. subsidiary. She also noted that below the receiver were four switches (like the ordinary push light switches) unmarked or unnumbered. When she exclaimed to Rosita: "How do you dial on this phone", Rosita replied:"But it's not a phone,it's an intercom". LIRING/4 told Rowton that she then commented:"But how come, the intercom is in the first office." Rosita then, according to L/4, stated: "But that's a special intercom." (L/4 explained that she was referring to the phone she had in her hand).

5. LIRING/4 continued that when she passed through the second office, she noted that the phone which had been replaced in that room was of Ericsson manufacture and was the same instrument previously there when she worked in that office. She assumes that the LIRINGs replaced the phone themselves.

6. LIRING/4 also told Rowton that she had located an excellent apartment in the Edifico Condesa (Matzatlán and Veracruz) through her friend Blanca Peña who lives in the same development. LIRING/4 added that she had given the administrator 300 pesos to hold the apartment for her until she could arrange a fiador. She also stated that she could obtain a telephone eventually since the former tenant had applied and received approval just before he left. LIRING/4 reassured Rowton that she was telling everyone, particularly the LIRINGs, that she was living at the Tacubaya apartment and temporarily staying as a house guest at the home of Blanca Peña de Amant. She also reassured Rowton that she had informed the LIRING gatekeeper when she returned the 100 peso loan that she had received money from her father in New York. LIRING/4 added that several friends, including the well-known writer Revueltas, had offerred to find her some sort of work. She stated that if she could find suitable employment in the mornings she would accept the offer, if only for appearances.

1. The purpose of the present dispatch is to summarize the developments leading to the trip made by LIRING-3 to Guatemala in the company of FAR member, Francisco Alalberto LARA Barrios, and Carlos Manuel PERSAVAL Marcue, Mexican national and nephew of Manuel Marcue Pardinas, ex-director of the now defunct Politica. This trip, as the Guatemala City Station has advised, resulted in the arrest of all three persons in Guatemala just over the Mexican border on the weekend 13-14 April, and their current imprisonment in Guatemala City in the custody of the Guatemalan army.

2. According to reports submitted to Wallace B. ROWTON by LIRING-3, the latter met Carlos Manuel Persaval Marcue originally through the latter's sister-in-law, Carmen Lozada de Ramirez, who had been carrying on an extra-marital affair with LIRING-3 since early November 1967. On the evening of 3 March 1968, Persaval approached LIRING-3 in connection with the difficulties that a young Guatemalan woman living in Mexico City was having in obtaining false documentation to enable her to travel to Guatemala to recontact her husband, whom Persaval described as "an important guerrilla leader". Persaval revealed to LIRING-3 that he had been assisting the FAR in propaganda work in Mexico for some time and gave LIRING-3 several copies of a pamphlet entitled "Violencia en Guatemala" which Persaval said had been published on one of his uncle's presses and was being sold at the nominal price of three Mexican pesos to help raise money for the FAR.

3. When LIRING-3, under ROWTON's direction, responded favorably to this initial approach, Persaval pursued the matter and finally, on 8 April, revealed that he was in touch with two "important guerrilla leaders" who needed help in returning clandestinely to Guatemala. Persaval asked LIRING-3 to arrange to guide these persons across the Guatemalan border south of Chiapas, an area LIRING-3 had previously told Persaval he was very familiar with from his previous residence in San Cristobal. Persaval made no further reference to the "young Guatemalan wife of the FAR leader". LIRING-3 surmised to ROWTON that this person might actually have been the wife of Francisco Lara Barrios, but that plans for her return were discarded in favor of the trip by Lara himself.

4. At ROWTON's urging, LIRING-3 insisted on meeting the two Guatemalans involved and in talking to them before undertaking such a mission. Persaval finally introduced LIRING-3 to Francisco Lara Barrios on 17 March 1968, and the latter presented LIRING-3 to a certain "Rodolfo", who LIRING-3 ascertained subsequently was a member of the 13th of November group headed by Yon Sosa by the name of Sandoval. Francisco Lara Barrios confided to LIRING-3 that he had in his possession a false Guatemalan passport in the name of Jose Maria Oliva Carranza and that he had obtained legal residence in Mexico with his wife and children through the efforts of ex-Mexican President Lazaro Cardenas. He also named a certain Eskenazi and LIREBEL-1 as persons who assisted Guatemalan exiles in Mexico. Station believes Eskenazi may be identical with Luis David Eskenassy Cruz, a former agent of the Guatemala City Station.

5. With the approval of ROWTON, LIRING-3 agreed to help the above-mentioned persons to cross the Mexican/Guatemalan border and to accompany them to Guatemala City. This latter extension of the original trip was made by Lara at the suggestion of LIRING-3 so that the latter could meet with the FAR woman responsible for logistics. LIRING-3 reported to ROWTON subsequently that just before their departure, Lara also offered to arrange for LIRING-3 to travel clandestinely to the Sierra de las Minas to meet directly with FAR and 13th of November leaders to discuss further support that LIRING-3 might be able to provide through his commercial contacts in Chiapas and northern Mexico.

6. LIRING-3 fabricated a false Mexican identity document (Secretaria de Education) for Francisco Lara Barrios in the name of Jacinto Rangel Cervantes with Lara slightly disguised so that the latter could move about more unobtrusively on the Mexican side of the border just prior to crossing. On 3 April 1968, just prior to their scheduled departure date, Francisco Lara informed LIRING-3 that their mutual friend Rodolfo Sandoval would not be accompanying them since he was too well known and his mission was not important enough to justify the risk and the expense involved.

7. LIRING-3 did not depart as he had hoped on 5 April 1968, because Lara unfortunately accidentally shot himself in the ankle on the morning of that day while cleaning his gun and had to be given medical attention before he could make the trip. LIRING-4 told ROWTON that LIRING-3, Francisco Lara and Raul/Moreno, a friend of LIRING-3, finally left Mexico City in the personal car of Raul Moreno on 10 April 1968, but that Moreno had returned to Mexico City two days later as a result of an accident that disabled the car somewhere in Chiapas. LIRING-4 did not report anything concerning the subsequent involvement of Carlos Persaval Marcue, stating that she had not received any communication from LIRING-3 after his telegram of 12 April, in which he reported the return of Raul Moreno. ROWTON surmises that when Raul Moreno had to return to Mexico City, LIRING-3 and Lara asked Carlos Persaval Marcue to join them and drive them to the border in his own car, and that Persaval continued on with them toward Guatemala City.

8. Guatemala City Station advised on 22 April 1968, that the story of the arrest of Lara, Persaval and LIRING-3 had reached the local press and that they would be turned over to the appropriate courts for trial. This indicates that LIRING-3 may eventually be released and hence be available to ROWTON for complete debriefing.

9. The only significant name that had surfaced as a result of LIRING-3's involvement with the Guatemalan rebels in Mexico City is that of Rolando/Mendez Aguilar, whom Francisco Lara Barrios contacted on 45-60-30 extension 27, in early April from the home telephone of LIRING-3. (This number corresponds to the "Publicaciones e Impresiones Mexicanas, S.A. - Diario Ovaciones, Calle Lago Sirahuen 297, Mexico City). From the LIFEAT coverage on LIRING-3 it is apparent that Mendez is a close contact of both Lara and Sandoval and may be providing or have provided employment for them in Mexico. The Station is attempting to determine the home address of Mendez in the hope that further details of his possible collaboration may be uncovered.

MEMORANDUM

SUBJECT: LIRING-3 Visit To Guatemala With Guerrillas
FRANCISCO ADALBERTO LARRA BARRIOS and CARLOS
MANUEL PERSAVAL MARCUE

1. On 5 March 1968, LIRING-3 had dinner with CARLOS PERSAVAL MARCUE, nephew of MANUEL MARCUE PARDINES, director of the now defunct magazine "POLITICA", a Communist bi-monthly publication. During the dinner PERSAVAL queried LIRING-3 if he could obtain a false passport for the wife of an important Guatemalan guerilla leader so that she could travel from Mexico to Guatemala. LIRING-3 replied that he would do his utmost to assist.

2. On 8 March 1968 PERSAVAL told LIRING-3 that two(2) Guatemalan revolutionaries had need to travel to Guatemala by mid-March. LIRING-3 commented that there was limited possibility of obtaining false documents, but that he could brief the Guatemalans so as to facilitate their illegal crossing of the Mexican/Guatemalan border, or if they desired, he would guide them.

3. On 9 March 1968, PERSAVAL again discussed the matter with LIRING-3, saying that one of the two travellers possessed legal travel documents. Since the other person has no such legal documents, they should enter Guatemala illegally.
[MEXI-4790]

4. LIRING-3 reported on 27 March 1968, that one of the traveller to Guatemala is FRANCISCO ADALBERTO LARA BARRIOS. The group is of the opinion that LIRING-3 should also go to Guatemala in order to meet an unidentified woman, described as the FAR logistics officer, to discuss FAR support from Mexico.
[MEXI-5000]

5. Departure was delayed because LARA sustained a self-inflicted gun shot wound while cleaning a weapon. On 10 April LIRING-3, LARA, and another person--described as a member of the YON SOSA Faction--departed en route to Guatemala. LIRING-3 was informed that the FAR and the YON SOSA group are now working together, but that a certain amount of compartmentation exists.
[MEXI-5205]

6. During the 14-15 April week-end, Guatemalan authorities arrested three individuals near the Mexican border. They were brought to Guatemala City where they are being held for interrogation.
The persons arrested are:

a. FRANCISCO ADALBERTO LARA BARRIOS (Guatemalan)
b. CARLOS JURADO DEL MAR (Mexican)
c. CARLOS MANUEL PERSAVAL MARCUE (Mexican)

When arrested LARA admitted that he is a Communist, and that he is returning to Guatemala to renounce his affiliation.
/GUAT-3880 7

7. The G-2 of the Guatemalan military was not successful in its interrogation of the Subjects. Liaison attempted it but was compelled to conduct its interrogation in the presence of G-2 officials who continually interrupted. Liaison was attempting additional interrogation under more favorable circumstances. Meanwhile G-2 is considering turning over the Subjects to the "Army Special Unit" for further interrogation.

Operations Against PBRUMEN Targets Involving LIRING-3, LIRING-4, and Their Contacts - January to 31 March 1968

1. The development, handling, and exploitation of any asset under false pretenses by someone operating under false flag has and will continue to have many drawbacks. In the case of LIRING-3/LIRING-4 the situation is further complicated by the fact that PBRUMEN nationals at home and in LIRING (the main target against whom the two have been directed) have long suspected their motives for maintaining contact and wanting to cooperate with them. The ups and downs of the LIRING-3/LIRING-4 marital relations have from time to time further complicated the conduct of operations involving them. The Station can understand that Headquarters has some reservations on the conduct of these operations. They have been complicated, time consuming, and have blown hot and cold depending on the state of mind of the PBRUMENers at the time and the difficulties between LIRING-3 and LIRING-4. Because of incomplete control, an almost inescapable feature of this type of operation, a considerable effort was made to check the reliability of LIRING-3 and LIRING-4. This involved LIFEAT coverage, audio monitoring (LIROSIN), and occasional surveillance by the LIEMBRACEs. The results, at least in the PBRUMEN phase of this operation, have been unspectacular so far. The main usefulness of LIRING-3 and LIRING-4 has been a) as access agents to LIRING, (although this has been largely reduced to the LIRING Consulate), and b) to introduce Wallace B. ROWTON to visiting PBRUMEN officials and members of the local leftist community with access to PBRUMEN and LIRING. A major effort was started recently to take this operation up one more notch and, taking advantage of a recent crisis in the relations between LIRING-3 and LIRING-4, send the latter to PBRUMEN on a mission to assess and hopefully recruit new sources of information. The exploitation of LIRING-3's contacts with representatives of the Guatemalan FAR rebel movement was the object of separate correspondence. LIRING-3's renewed contacts with these representatives do not at this time involve PBRUMEN, although the latter clearly supports at least some of their activities.

2. Forwarded under separate cover are fifteen reports prepared by Wallace B. ROWTON on the activities of LIRING-3, LIRING-4, and some of their contacts from late January to 31 March 1968. The Station has noted Headquarters' desire for more frequent progress reports per reference A. It felt, however, that in this case partial reporting of LIRING-4's difficulties in obtaining a PBRUMEN visa (by far the most important aspect of this operation during the period under review) could have been misleading, as the situation changed several times and LIRING-4 did not really know what to expect from LIRING from one meeting with its representatives to the next, not to again mention the ups and downs of the LIRING-3/ LIRING-4 relationship, which hit a new low during this period. The Station would like to point out in passing that, in addition to cable reporting and dispatches transmitting ROWTON's contact reports, the operations in which LIRING-3 and LIRING-4 are involved in are reviewed in some detail in the over-all monthly report submitted by the PBRUMEN Section of this Station.

3. The last time LIRING-4 accompanied LIRING-3 to PBRUMEN, she obtained an entry visa in a few days. LIRING-4 thus felt that as an ex-employee of LIRING with good connections in PBRUMEN and LIRING she would obtain a new PBRUMEN entry visa fairly easily. Entry visas are now quite a bit more difficult to obtain, however, for PBRUMEN nonofficial citizens abroad. It also appears that the LIRING staff did not really know what to make of LIRING-4's stated desire to return to PBRUMEN for an extended period of time, as this was obviously based on a domestic quarrel. LIRING-3 and LIRING-4 have had other quarrels, and the LIRING staff may have thought that this last one would subside and that LIRING-4 would postpone or cancel her plans for going to PBRUMEN. It was to convince the LIRING staff that the difficulties with his wife were serious that LIRING-3 first went to LIRING. In a maneuver to further convince the LIRING employees, particularly LIRING-2 and LIRING-9, that LIRING-4 seriously wanted to go to PBRUMEN as a result of domestic problems, ROWTON decided to have LIRING-3 openly question LIRING-4's right to take their child with her. It must be remembered that, in Mexico, a wife cannot leave the country, and especially take a child with her, without the express and official consent of the husband. This little scenario appears to have been well played. On the other hand, it did not help LIRING-4 obtain a visa any faster. LIRING-2 appeared to be waiting, among other things, for LIRING-3 to arrive at a decision regarding their child acceptable to his wife. LIRING-3 finally "agreed" to let LIRING-4 take the child at his 26 February meeting at LIRING. Two days before, LIRING-4 had been told by LIRING-2 that the "consejo superior" of LIRING, of which he said he was a member, had not yet taken up her case. This was indirectly confirmed by LIRING-16, who told LIRING-4 the same day that nothing about her visa case had yet been sent to PBRUMEN as he would otherwise know it, since he handled all visa correspondence.

4. There is naturally the possibility that LIRING-4's visa request was handled by LIRING via classified correspondence not seen by LIRING-16. This channel may have been used because LIRING-4's visa request brought out the old problem of LIRING-3's reliability in the eyes of the PBRUMENers. Although LIRING-2, LIRING-9, and Identity appeared sympathetic toward LIRING-4 and her projected visit to PBRUMEN (to the point where they advised her on more than one occasion not to come back to Mexico), they, at the same time, sought to clarify two things. They first made another attempt to throw some light on the sources through which LIRING-3 had obtained information of particular interest to LIRING. Secondly they brought up the question of "the Greek" (ROWTON) and tried to obtain answers to pertinent questions. LIRING, as mentioned by both LIRING-2 and Identity, is not used to being given sensitive information without at the same time obtaining good source description. Specifically, how did LIRING-3 hear of the arrest of the LIRING member involved in a subversive case in 1966, how did he learn of its proposed publication in the press of a Central American country, how did he obtain the report on Rico GALAN which he passed to LIRING, and how could he have learned of certain of the activities of Moises OROZCO Leal? To all these questions LIRING-3 replied by saying that he had good sources in Mexico and Central America and that he was not about to divulge them to the PBRUMENers. Both LIRING-2 and Identity in their conversations with LIRING-3 and LIRING-4 took pains to say that LIRING-3's conduct in his dealings with LIRING and PBRUMEN was "above reproach." They wanted to be sure, however, that he "had not fallen victim to unscrupulous elements constantly surrounding the revolution." To quote the old cliche, LIRING-3 "got their message."

5. ROWTON's introduction to LIRING-2 and other LIRING members by Rodolfo REYES Cortes and his subsequent meetings with LIRING-2 were bound to make the latter somewhat curious about this wealthy Greek businessman and proclaimed friend of "the revolution" who seems to travel extensively and appears to have well-informed and influential friends in many parts of the world. LIRING-2 was apparently ruffled by ROWTON's criticism of the LIRING efficiency (see ROWTON's report dated 1 January sent as an attachment to reference B) since he finally phoned ROWTON's "office" after the incident described in ROWTON's 1 January report. For some reason LIRING-2 made the call on a legal holiday when offices are usually closed, and the operator of ROWTON's answering service answered "Mr. ROWTON's (in alias) office." This apparently made LIRING-2 even more inquisitive. During a one hour meeting at LIRING on 15 February LIRING-2 asked LIRING-4 about her relationship with "the Greek." LIRING-2 wanted to know where and for whom he worked, et cetera. ROWTON's report of 17 February covers this conversation in detail. LIRING-2 appeared to suspect ROWTON may have been one of the sources of the information passed LIRING by LIRING-3 and warned LIRING-4 "to go easy with the Greek," if not for her sake, at least for LIRING-3, who "has not always treaded on firm ground." LIRING-4 provided some "information" on her Greek acquaintance on 24 February. ROWTON, who had briefed her in detail on what she should tell LIRING-2, felt, after listening to LIRING-4's report, that the latter had at least partly succeeded in lessening LIRING-2's suspicions. These suspicions may have been further reduced after LIRING-3's discussion with LIRING-2 on 26 February. ROWTON did expect LIRING-2's questions and felt in the end that he had "passed the test."

6. The Station does not know at this point whether LIRING-4 will get a PBRUMEN entry visa but is still optimistic that she will. The PBRUMENers appear convinced that there is serious trouble between her and LIRING-3, and LIRING-1, to whom LIRING-4 wrote for help recently, asked her to be patient, pointing out that red tape in PBRUMEN takes time. The possibility that the PBRUMENers may allow LIRING-4 in their country to interrogate her about the activities of her husband and some of her friends has occurred to ROWTON and the Station. Such a possibility is, however, most unlikely as the object of the PBRUMEN suspicions is LIRING-3 and not LIRING-4, who has several times told them that she knows little of what LIRING-3 does. The most important consideration, however, is that LIRING-4 is married to a Mexican citizen, and as suspicious as they may be of the latter's doings, the PBRUMENers have, to the best of our knowledge, no proof that this Mexican has done anything against their regime. On the contrary, LIRING-3 has time and again warned them of impending difficulties or problems. The fact that LIRING-4 is married to a Mexican and that she enjoys the status of immigrant in Mexico is also the best assurance that she would be allowed to return to Mexico, as the PBRUMENers want no trouble with the Mexicans. The SGSWIRL examination recently given LIRING-4 has cleared the air at least on two points. First, that LIRING-4 is not an enemy penetration, and, second, that she has not revealed the nature and extent of her contacts with ROWTON to anyone else than LIRING-3. The Station agrees with ROWTON that LIRING-4 would, if given a chance, prove herself to be a good asset. As for the question of being left with continuing obligations in this operation, both LIRING-3 and LIRING-4 know that there is little ROWTON could do beyond providing legal-type advice to bring LIRING-4 back to Mexico if the PBRUMENers refused to allow her to return to her husband, an unlikely possibility as mentioned above in view of current Mexican/PBRUMEN relations. The letter of understanding signed by LIRING-4 specifies the extent of ROWTON's commitment and leaves no doubt as to the extent of his obligations. The Station hopes that LIRING-4's relationship with LIRING-3 will not improve with time to the point where she will lose the proper motivation and cover to undertake the mission to PBRUMEN for which she has been trained and briefed.

7. The attempt made to exploit Carmen LOZADA's trip to PBRUMEN to obtain assessments and vulnerability information on a number of persons she knows who have operational potential turned out to be a complete failure. LOZADA ran into such difficult family problems in PBRUMEN that she had no time (or, as it turned out, desire) to obtain the information requested of her. The strain of her personal problems was such that she nearly had a nervous breakdown after returning to Mexico City on 16 February. Not even LIRING-3 could get anything out of her. The victim of a type of family blackmail by her pro-AMTHUG husband, LOZADA returned to PBRUMEN on 15 March. ROWTON did not fare much better with Rodolfo REYES Cortes, who returned to Mexico City in early March. REYES, who is preparing to go to Chile to put on a ballet performance, has been extremely busy since his return with private and professional matters. ROWTON nevertheless managed to debrief him at least partially on his contacts in PBRUMEN. The only concrete result of REYES' trip to PBRUMEN so far is the contact which he made with Sukendah*HANAFI, the ex-Ambassador of Indonesia in Havana. According to REYES, HANAFI expressed interest in meeting ROWTON to "work something out" to the mutual advantage of both the Greek and Indonesian revolutions. After a couple of phone calls, it turned out, however, that HANAFI would probably be unable to obtain a Mexican entry visa. The Station believes, anyway, that little would be gained by a meeting. From the information at hand, HANAFI is a convinced leftist who does not lack for money and seems to have an enjoyable life in PBRUMEN. The Station is finally not interested in the Indonesian "revolution" or in what HANAFI could do to help the Greek leftists.

CI: Indonesia

8. If she does not go to PBRUMEN an effort will be made to further exploit the antagonism LIRING-4 has developed for the personnel of LIRING in the course of her attempts to obtain a PBRUMEN visa to obtain additional operational information on LIRING and its employees. LIRING-4 has been so humiliated and angered that she is willing to do literally anything against LIRING. She told ROWTON that she would put a time bomb in the building if he asked her to do so. LIRING-4 has already been used unwittingly for MECREDO purposes. It may be possible if she stays in Mexico City to use her in connection with an audio operation against the "safe room" of the LIRING Consulate.

Subject: SGSWIRL Examination of LIRING/4. NOT SUITABLE FOR [illegible]

1. LIRING/4 was given an SGSWIRL examination from about 1030 until 1300 on 31/3/68 at room 602 of the Hotel del Bosque on Calle Melchor Ocampo. Rowton rented the suite in the name Nicolas Spyropoulos and no security problems were encounted in using this site.

2. Rowton first proposed the examination to LIRING/4, after discussing it briefly with LIRING/3, at 1600 on 30/3/68 in the coffee shop of the Hotel Bosque in the presence of the examiner. L/4's initial reaction was almost identical to that of LIRING/3 - one of shock, indignation, and outright refusal on the ground that it was "servil" and beneath her dignity at any price. She made it clear that she felt she had been and was taking all the risks and consiered it completely unfair that she should have to subject herself to such a "police" interrogation when she had done nothing wrong and in fact knew nothing about Rowton. At one point she commented that this whole thing made her think that Rowton was an agent of WOFACT. She did not dwell on this point, however, or return to it subsequently.

3. In view of this unfavorably turn at the initial session Rowton agreed with the examiner that the latter should gracefully bow out and give Rowton a chance to soften L/4 up by a more thorough explanation,especially since L/4 refused flatly to accompany Rowton and the examiner to the safehouse room upstairs. Rowton then spent the next two hours explaining the test emphasing that it would not include any indiscriminate frivolous questions and that L/4 would know beforehand what the precise questions were. Rowton made it clear that he was interested mainly in determining whether L/4 had betrayed him to her LIRING contacts and had any sort of secret agreement with PBRUMEN to work against him. L/4 finally agreed to take the examination the following morning since as she stated her conscience was clear.

4. The responses appeared favorably on pertinent questions and the control question on any theft of money (suggested by Rowton on the basis of the report given to him in confidence by liring/3 that L/4 had taken 2,000 pesos from the LIRING safe which she almost immediately replaced on his insistence) proved to be excellent. L/4 did not reveal the specific theft but she was evidently thoroughly convinced after the test that the SGSWIRL is reliable and cannot be beaten Rowton and the examiner felt it unwise to break her on this control question since it would prove counterproductive and would probably expose L/3 as the source. The test will proably serve as an excellent deterrent and additional control for future assessment of L/4 and evaluation of her reporting.

24 March,1968

Subject: LIRING/4 Report of Status of Request for Re-entry Permit.

1. Rowton met with LIRING/4 at her request at 1630 on 23/3/68 at the Denny's Restaurant (Reforma & Diana) to discuss the status of her visa (re-entry) request. She stated that she had just received a letter from her friend Doctor Yolanda Díaz, transmitted through Jorrín and given to her by the latter that same morning. The translation of the text of the letter is as follows:

"Año del Guerrillero Heróico"
La Habana.Febrero 9/68

Sra.
México,D.F.

~~Quer~~ Dear As I explained to you last night when we spoke (on the telephone) the processing of your entry is being held up because of a number of things that have to be done which in ~~the~~ view of the priorities you know exist result in its not being done as rapidly as one would wish.
I don't think you should be discouraged and rest assured that as soon as it comes through, we'll advise you, especially since Abreu is going to follow it through. Kisses to your child and regards to Carlos.

/s/ Yolanda

2. The letter, a copy of which was made by Rowton, also contains a P.S. from Abreu, a translation of which follows:

> I'm taking an interest in your matter. As Yolanda explains red tape takes time. I received your cable and letter.
>
> Fondly,

3. LIRING/4 called to Rowton's attention the length of time (almost six weeks) for the letter to reach her dispite the fact that Abreu himself most probably forwarded it through the pouch. L/4 commented that when she remarked this to her friend Catalina Cepero, the latter stated that she had received a ltter in the pouch the same day but it was dated in December,1967, and another from Yolanda dated February 9,1968.

4. LIRING/4 also reported that she had finally managed to talk with her father on the telephone, and,although he appeared uneasy and somewhat abrupt (seco), she was reassured that he was in reasonably good health. She finally assured Rowton that she no longer suspected him of any foul play and agreed that her father was apparently acting on the advice of his lawyer in connection with the visa reuqest of her brother (to emigrate to the U.S.) that was being processed in New York.

WB Rowton

Subject: LIRING/4 Report of News Concerning her Father in New York.

1. At 1600 on 22/3/68 Rowton visited LIRING/4 at her residence to discuss with her a report she had received from a mutual friend concerning her father. Earlier in the day LIRING/3 had informed Rowton that LIRING/4 had received a disturbing piece of news to the effect that someone had approached her father in New York City and told him to break off all contact with LIRING/4 in order to avoid jeopardising his residence in the U.S. According to LIRING/3, LIRING/4 was convinced as a result of this report that Rowton, and possibly with the knowledge of LIRING/3 himself, had arranged this approach to preclude any ~~xxx~~contact L/4 might have had with her father that might jeopardise her mission to Havana. Rowton assured LIRING/3 that he had take no such action and agreed to talk to LIRING/4 to reassure her also since according to LIRING/3 she was very upset and her confidence in both Rowton and LIRING/3 himself shaken.

2. Rowton reassured LIRING/4 when he saw her but, of course, could not furnish proof of any kind that he had not intervened. He asked several times the identity of the source, but LIRING/4 seatfastly refused to divulge it, saying only that a lawyer friend of her father had written to her stating that the reason her father had not communicated with her over ~~that~~ the past three months and had not answered her letters and telephone calls was that "they" had told him not to maintain any contact with his daughter at the risk of losing his residence in the U.S. Rowton asked whether the lawyer's name was Portuondo (a lead furnished by LIRING/3) but L/4 would not confirm or deny this, syaing simply that she would look into the matter herself. She said that she suspected Rowton since he was the only person to whom she had given her father's address in New York and she could not imagine why any other person would have a motive to contact her father in that way. She added that if her father had just given her some sort of explanation she could understand, but acting the way he did indicated that someone had terrorized him into complete silence. Rowton again insisted that he did not in any way contact her father, and would never have done so without first consulting her. He surrised that possibly her father's lawyer had counseled him to break off contact in connection with the application her father was making ~~fr~~ for a visa for LIRING/4's brother on the ground that the American authorities might deny the visa if they knew of LIRING/4's previous employment in the LIRING offices.

1. Rodolfo Reyes Cortes informed Rowton 8/3/68 that while in Havana he discussed with his friend Sukendah Hanafi, ex-Indonesian Ambassador to Cuba, possibility of collaboration with his Greek leftist businessman friend both in international commercial deals and politically. According Reyes, Hanafi expressed immediate interest, accepting Reyes' word that he could place full trust in Rowton. Hanafi stated that he felt something could be worked out to their mutual advantage of both the Greek and the Indonesian revolution, since he had contact himself with the liberation army of Indonesian.

2. Hanafi asked Reyes to set up a meeting for him with Rowton upon his return to Mexico City, perferably in Mexico City where Reyes could make the introduction personally, but indicating that he might run into difficulty in obtaining a visa. He added that if Mexico City not possible he would travel to Paris where he has never had visa trouble.

3. Reyes reported to Rowton on 11/3/68 that he had talked to Hanafi on telephone asking him arrange trip soonest to Mexico City, but Hanafi had replied that his initial check had revealed Mexicans would insist on clearance with Indonesian Embassy Mexico City prior to issuance of visa. Hanafi added, however, that he taking matter up with Raúl Roa and might be able arrange some sort of official travel to facilitate issuance of visa. He promised advise Reyes soonest since he aware that Reyes must leave for Chile by end March (as soon as his wife, Tatiana, obtains Chilean visa).

Subject: LIRING/4 Report of Contact with LIRING/2 and LIRING/9.

1. At 0930 on 9/3/68 LIRING/4 reported to Rowton that she had again on 8/3 visited the LIRING establishment to check on the status of her re-entry permit. She stated that LIRING/2 was cordial but politiely passed the buck on her re-entry permit to LIRING/9, stating that it was a matter for L/9's office and that in any case he himself was so busy looking for a house for the Chief that he could not do anything else at the moment. He said in passing that he had to go to Acapulco that evening and would be there until Sunday night (10/3/68). He jokingly invited L/4 along for the ride. He also commented that he himself would be back in Havana about June and why didn't L/4 wait to go back with him. He added that in any case he hoped to see her there.

2. LIRING/4 also reported that Echemendía (Ismail Suarez de la Paz),who happened to be present when she was talking to L/2, commented that his wife would be leaving on the 11 March flight and that he himself expected to be returning in about two weeks. L/4 then commented sarcastically that at the rate things were going with L/2 she would probably be still waiting for her entry permit when he left and in that case he could personally expedite it. L/2 then by way of apology stated that the mother-in-law of the Swiss Ambassador had been waiting for over three weeks for her entry visa and there was nothing he could do to speed things up from this end. L/4 replied that this was after all little consolation for her, although she felt very sorry for the Swiss mother-in-law.

3. LIRING/4 continued to Rowton that she then spoke briefly with LIRING/9 who greeted her cordially and asked her to take a coffee with him in his private office. On entering this office L/4 noted that the plaster had fallen from the ceiling just above the desk and L/9 commented that ~~kexpt~~ it had just happened the day before and that he hoped to have it repaired soon. He added that he would also be getting better furniture and some pictures to decorate the bare walls. L/4 noted that the phone was still attached to the wall and no lamp of any kind was in the room.

4. According to L/4, LIRING/9 is still waiting for a reply from Havana re her re-entry permit, and hoped to have some reply by 11/3/68. His secretary privately assured L/4 that she would let her know at once if anything came in. LIRING/4 also reported to Rowton that she talked to her fitend

Yolanda Díaz on the telephone as a follow-up on her telegram to ask Ramiro Abreu to expedite her request for the re-entry permit. L/4 told Rowton that Yolanda explained that she had been unable to contact Abreu at first but finally got to him on 8/3/68 and he promised to do what he could soonest, although he commented that it would be impossible to do anything over the week-end.

5. LIRING/4 also reported to Rowton that she had talked briefly with srta Esperón of L/2's office and was surprised to hear her complain of the "insupportable" conditions under which she had to work. Srta Esperón said that she had been employed in the LIRING offices for the past 38 years and prior to the revolution had been relatively happy. Lately, however, everything was full of mystery, all doors and cabinets locked up, and nobody trusting anyone. She confided in L/4 that she had had enough ("harta") and was afraid that she would have to leave, abandoning any hope she still had of getting her pension after so many years.

Subject: Miscellaneous Information Furnished by LIRING/4.

1. At his meeting with LIRING/4,on the morning of 1 March,1968, Rowton asked L/4 for various miscellaneous information that might be of use to the Station. L/4 recalled that when she worked in the Consulate office, the combination of the safe was as follows:

4 times to right,stopping at 10,
3 times to left, stopping at 65,
then turn to left until one can feel tumbler drop in place.

2. L/4 also furnished Rowton with information for the attached sketch of the consular office where she formerly worked, indicating the location of the safe (in the corner concealed behind a wooden door locked by key). Likewise L/4 gave details of the office of Abelardo Curbelo which she stated he sheared with his new secretary,Conchita - the wife of the Olympic Attaché.

3. L/4 also told Rowton that she learned recently from Jorrín that all confidential papers are now handled and processed by one person. L/4 added that she learned from conversation with MercededMartinez Moreno de Gonzalez that she is in fact the person handling the confidential documents. She stated to L/4 that she has to process the confidential papers of all the offices, specifically Curbelo, Cicard, Luna, as well as her husband's,(Crux) and Martinez'. L/4 explained to Rowtonthat previously each office handled its own confidential documents, and filed them in their respective safes.

4. L/4 also gave Rowton the form given her by the Consulate to be filled in for the "Registro de Ciudadanos Cubanos". L/4 explained that she alleged that she had lost the original form give n to her and thus obtained another so that she could provide Rowton with a sample of the form(attached herewith).

5. L/4 also reported that,as Rowton had requested,she typed out a letter to her father (given to the Station) at 1330 on 1 March,1968, on the consulate typewriter. She regretted not having been able to obtain the name of the typewriter since it was not visible on the case. When she asked Adia E. Lopez de Valdes the name the latter surprised her be saying that L/4 was the second person to ask for such information that day. In view of that comment, L/4 felt she could not press for the information desired.

Subject: LIRING/3 Report of Conversation with LIRING/2.

1. At 0930 on 27/2/68 LIRING/3 reported to Rowton that he had spoken briefly to Echemendía (Ismail Suarez de la Paz) on 24/2/68 and to LIRING/2 at some length on 26/2/68 in the LIRING offices. L/3 explained to Rowton that Echemendía had passed a message to him through L/4 that he wanted to talk to him and that he would telephone himto arrange a meeting. L/3 continued that Echemendía finally contacted him by phone at about noon on 24/2/68 and asked him to come to the LIRING office that afternoon. L/3 told Rowton that when he finally saw Echemendía the latter was very vague and general in his statements and that all he could gather from his statements was that Echemendía was apologetic for the "misunderstanding" that had arisen as a result of L/4's request for a re-entry permit. Echemendía stated that "we" are concerned that L/3, whom they considered honest and above reproach in his dealings with PBRUMEN, might have fallen victem to unscupluous elements who constantly surround the revolution. L/3 confessed to Rowtn that this vague and almost incoherent line of Echemendía annoyed him to such an extent that he felt it useless to continue his conversation with him and as a result terminated it at the first opportunity.

2. LIRING/3 continued thathe met with LIRING/2 on 26/2/68 at the latter's office with much more fuitful results. According to L/3, L/2 began by stating that "they" appreciated the information L/3 had passed to them at various times in the past, specifically the report of Julian Lopez' arrest, the proposed publication of the arrest in the Guatemalan press, the report concerning the letter of Rico Galán and the Crozco afair, but they were frankly perflexed with regard to the source of such sensitive information. L/3 told Rowton that he explained to L/2 that he had excellent Central American contacts,as well as Mexican sources in good positions, who could furnish such information witout naming anyone. He told L/2 that he had no intention of jeopardising his business contacts by revealing their identity, and he felt that what he had done was in the interest of PBRUMEN and the revolution and that L/2 and his friends should not look a gift horse in the mouth and see spies behind every blade of ~~xxixx~~ grass, just becasue they themselves had no capability to check out his reports.

3. L/3 then told Rowton that L/2 asked directly aboot "el Griego" and his relationship to L/3. L/3 stated that he feigned surprise and asked "What Greek", adding that he knew several Greeks in Guatemala, Venezuela and Mexico. L/2 clarified by stating that he meant the Greek introduced to him by Rodolfo Reyes. L/3 then exclaimed: "Oh, you mean señor Harris." to which L/2 replied in the affirmative. L/3 then explained that he felt that sr. Harris was a high-minded revolutionary with high level contacts throughout the world developed through his business xxxxxxxx relationships who had helped him a great deal over the past two years both financially and morally He then asked L/2 what he knew about international business, to wich L/2 repiled that he knew practically nothing, L/3 told Rowton that he then closed in with a somewhat elaborate explanation of how international businessmen acquire valubable bits of inteeligence with trying as a result of the sensitive relationship they develop with political personalities in various governments. L/3 stated to Rowton that he felt L/2 was impressed favorably with his explanation, since he finally stated that in reality "they" (meaning himself, Sergio Martinez, Ismail Suarez de la Paz and Cepeda), the Consejo Superior de la Embajada" had nothing against sr. Harris but simply that they did not know enough about him. L/2 then stated that L/3 must realize that the revolution was surrounded by provocateurs and that when they have the least suspicions that they must put on "the amber light" of caution. L/3 then stated that his dealings with sr. Harris were sensitive high-level business negotiations for the procurement of sulphur and that he could produce documents to prove this. L/2 replied thatthis was not at all necessary and that it was simply just a question of knowing a little more about the sources available to L/3 and about the "Greek". L/3 conluded with a statement that L/2 must in the last analysis weigh the entire affair in terms of whether L/3 in fact had ever done anything against the revolution. L/2 replied without hesitation that everyone felt that L/3 had always acted in good faith and h-d the best of intentions. It was simpl that they felt that L/3 might have become a victim of a provocateur without realizing it.

4. L/2 then stated that he had no objection to giving L/4 an entry permit but he hoped that L/3 was not just trying to solve a domestic problem by sending her back to her mother. L/3 replied that there was in fact a serious domestic problem and confessed th t he had had an affair with another woman which L/4 had discovered but he felt this was a very personal problem about which L/2 should not be concerned. L/2 replied that he agreed with this and was concerned simply about the child which he felt L/4 should be permitted to take with her. L/3 told Rowton that he finally conceded to L/2 that perhaps he was right and that he should be more considerate of L/4 and permit her to take the child to Havana. L/3 told Rowton that the meeting with L/2 ended on a rather cordial note and that he had the impression that L/2 would grant L/4 the re-entry permit without further delay.

Subject: LIRING/4 Report of Conversation with LIRING/2.

1. LIRING/4 reported to Rowton at 1045 on 24 February, 1968, that she had again spoken to LIRING/2 about her entry permit to return to Havana. She appeared depressed and began the conversation stating that she was "fed up" (harta) with the LIRING office, explaining that she felt that she had been treated very unfairly and shabbily, particularly by LIRING/2. She stated that she had waited for several hours to see LIRING/2 on the mroning of 23 February inside the premises of the LIRING offices but had finally to leave after only a few words of conversation with him. She related that LIRING/2 and LIRING/9 were occupied in conversation with Eugenia Olguin(who had recently returned from a three-months stay in Havana with her sister Marcela) and she did not feel it proper to interrupt to ask about her permit to return to Cuba. When she finally buttonholed LIRING/2, he said that he would rather talk to her the following morning - about 1000, since it was Saturxday, explaining that he was very busy with a number of difficult cases.

2. LIRING/4 continued that when she returned to his office about 1015 the following morning (24 February) she again had to wait about 15 minutes before finding LIRING/2 alone. To her annoyance he again brushed her off, stating that he still did not have a final answer since the matter had not as yet been taken up by the "consejo superior" of the establishment. L/2 continued that he hoped to have some sort of decision by Monday and asked L/4 to see him again. L/4 stated to Rowton that she could not contain her feelings any longer and exploded in a burst of invective again the LIRING office, accusing them among other things of giving visas to all sorts of hippies and delinquents and making her wait on pins and needles when she had a right to return. L/4 then stated that just as she was leaving, she turned to L/2 and said:"Oh, I forget to tell you, but I managed to see the 'Greek.'" L/4 told Rowton that at this L/2 came suddenly back to life and invited her into his office again, closing the door and ushering her to a chair. She then stated that she had telephoned "the Greek" (Rowton) on the pretext that she wanted him to buy some jewelry for her on his next trip to Switzerland and succeeded in having coffee with him at Sanborns. She continued that in the course of conversation she learned that his telephone is actually an answering service and hence operates 24 hours per day, and that he is interested in buying sulphur in Mexico and that his principal client is the Greek shipowner, Niarchos. She then showed L/2 a matchbox on which the Greek had written the name Niarchos in both Greek and English script, since she pretended to be curious about the spelling of the name. According to L/4, L/2 snatched up the match-box with expressions of appreciation, and continued to listen with interest. L/4 continued that the Greek explained to her the difficulties and complexities of working with the Mexicans in procuring sulphur and other critical products, but she confessed to L/2 that she knew nothing about such matters and felt very confuded. She commented, however, that the Greek appeared quite relaxed and willing to answer her questions. She added that when she turned the conversation on Cuba, the Greek replied that he was interested naturally as a good revolutionary, but frankly was very disappointed ("decepcionado") at the treatment received by the LIRING officials he had met, including L/2. L/4 continued that the Greek had commented that he had many dealings with foreigg officials in his normal business operations but had never encountered the discourtesy shown by LIRING officers, who did not even answer his telephone calls. L/4 conluded with a statedent that she felt the Greek was no longer interested in Cuba and assumed that he had obtained whatever information he needed from other sources.

3. LIRING/4 then asked L/2 whether he needed any more information since she might be seeing the Greek once more before he left for Europe again. L/2 replied that he appreciated what she had already obtained and added that he felt it wise in these cases to get to know the person "more and more" before making a judgement. L/4 told Rowton that at this point she could not refrain from the outburst:" But you have known me for several years, and you still can't make up your mind. How much time do you need to figure things out". She told Rowton that L/2 just smiled at this and again asked to be given until Monday for the final answer re the permission to return.

4. LIRING/4 then told Rowton that as she was leaving the premises,she stopped briefly to chat with Jorrín. The latter appeared genuinely surprised that LIRING/4 had not as yet been granted her permit. When she commented that probably L/2 had to wait for a reply from Havana, Jorrín exclaimed:" No, that's not probable, since he did not send any cable on you; otherwise I would know". He added as an afterthought that possibly he could have sent a dispatch which he would not know about, but he doubted that in view of the time element involved. Jorrín then commented that"everything"had changed since L/4 had left her job, explaining that now all confidential papers, not only from L/2's oofice but also from L/9, the Commerical Section, and from "Luna's office" were handled by one person rather than as previously by each office, (L/4 commented to Rowton that she had never heard of a person by the name of Luna) and that things in generals had been tightened up from a security standpoint.

Subject: Carmen Lozada Statments to LIRING/3 re trip.

1. LIRING/3 reported to Newton at 2130 on 19/2/68 that Carmen Lozada had telephoned him about 0930 that morning and that he had seen her again at her request. On this occasion he found her relatively composed and quite coherent as compared to their first meeting since her return.

2. L/3 reported that she stated that the situation in Havana was "chaotic" -- economically a disaster with no rice on the market, gasoline rationing (8 gallons per month for ordinary cars and 20 for larger) strictly enforced and police control "brutal". She stated that at the Havana airport everything is searched even of Mexicans as herself and what can be taken for personal reasons is removed on the pretext of having it "checked".

3. Carmen Lozada stated specifically to L/3 that she had heard strong rumors in Havana that Fidel Castro would be replaced by Dorticós mainly because of the failure of Fidel's economic policies. It was also rumored that sugar productions would fall far below last year's figure, possibly exceeding 4,000,000 tons by only a fraction. Bad fertilizer xxxxxxxxxx xxxx is blamed but the general feeling is that it is rather bae management and Fidel's advisors are taking the blame.

4. Carmen also reported that she had heard "confirmed" reports that César Montes is no longer leader of the Guatemalan revolucion, although she could not say who had replaced him.

19 February, 1968

Subject: LIRING/4 Report of Conversation with Echemendía (Ismail Suarez de la Paz).

1. LIRING/4 reported to Rowton at 1000 on 19/2/68 at the Duca d'Este café that she had met with Echemendía for about one hour on 17 February at a small coffee shop off calle Pachuca in Colonia Condesa. She explained that she had telephoned Echemendía fromthe home of her friend Blanca Peña de Amand and arranged to meet him about 1730 at a nearby corner.

2. LIRING/4 stated that Echemendía was cordial as usual and told her that he hoped - looked forward- to seeing her again whenever she felt she could go out with him for lunch or dinner. He asked her again about her trip to Havana and she informed himthat she hoped to leave on the 23 February flight. Echemendía asked if she thought she might have difficulty returning to Mexico, to which L/4 replied in the negative, commenting that in the past neither the Mexicans nor the Cubans had given her any trouble.

3. According to L/4, Echemendía then queried her in some detail about how LIRING/3 was doing, his business in Chiapas, where they were living, and what his plans were. She replied in as matter-a-fact way as possible, alleging that L/3 was selling his paintings and doing well in business.

4. Echemendía then commented that the LIRING office locally had commented re L/3 that although they appreciated the information he had passed to them they did not have the sources and details and hence had to view them with suspicion. Echemendía apologized to ~~L/3~~ LIRING/4 for having to say this (me da mucha pena) but he felt obliged to pass it along to her. He added that both Havana and LIRING are accustomed to get sources along with the reports turned in to them and always are uneasy when these are lacking. He agreed with L/4 that L/3 had acted in good faith, but also defended the position of the LIRING office which he said was surrounded by provactions and infiltrations.

5. L/4 told Rowton that she did not tell L/3 about this rendevous with Echemendía (whose attentions to L/4 in the past have made L/3 particularly jealous and annoyed) since she did not want to disturb him. LIRING/3, however, reported to Rowton at about 2100 the previous evening (18/2/68) in an obviously irritated tone that by pure chance he had seen Echemendía and LIRING/4 together at a coffee shop about 1800 on 17/2/68. When Rowton explained that he had known of and approved of the meeting beforehand, LIRING/3 calmed down and shrugged it off.

Walla B. Rowton

4 February,1968 11

1. LIRING/4 signed contract with Rowton (alias) effective 15 February through 30 April,1968, providing payment for information and services. No obligations specified other than financial(total $750.00 for period specified). LIRING/4 also signed acknowledgement of alias "María Barragán" which was used in contract and receipts for funds.

2. L/4 departure which originally scheduled for 16 February,1968, will be delayed until following Fridgx to permit intensive commo and security training, and strengthen backstop for objective of trip. On 12 February LIRING/2 told L/4 that he would issue permit to return and, in expression apparently genuine sympathy, urged her take trip and remain "where she belonged". On morning 13 February Echemandía (Ismail Suarez de la Paz) who met L/4 by chance inside LIRING compound remarked he happy to learn she going back home for a trip and then added "go back and stay2. He then invited her to lunch or dinner but L/4 felt it wise to turn him down first time. They had lunch in~~xxx~~ LIRING dining room. On Rowton suggestion she will, however, accept for outside lunch so sound him out further on his reaction to her return.

3. Simultaneously in order build up conviction in minds LIRING officials that L/4 returning becasue of marital problem with LIRING/3 (which she herself stated to Rowton that she hesitated to reveal to anyone), LIRING/3 talked with LIRING/2 in his office 13 February (at moment L/4 elsewhere in LIRING offices) and pretended to have just learned of L/4's request for permission to return. L/3 in angry tone alleged that he could not understand why L/4 would want to return, that he had treated her as well as he could, and that in any case he would not permit her to take their daughter. LIRING/2 although obviously somewhat embarassed took L/4's part and urged L/3 to reconsider and give permission to L/4 to take daughter along since she would be reluctant to leave as a "good mother". L/2 went so far as to state that if L/3 insisted it would be tantamount to "blackmail" against LIRING/4. L/2 continued that he felt obliged as a LIRING official to grant LIRING/4 permission to return but he did not want to oblige her to depart without her child. LIRING/3 told Rowton that he did not give in and left LIRING/2 with the impression that his mind was made up regarding the child.

CS COPY

4. LIRING/4, who was not witting of the above action of LIRING/3, accepted it later when informed by Rowton as being in her best interest. She agreed that child would not be properly taken care of at mother's home in Santiago becasue of short supply of essential food with neither parent present, that her departure without child would permit frequent correspondence with L/3, and provide excellent pretext for return to Mexico (to convince L/3 to permit her move child to Havana with her once she established.

5. For hdqtrs info, Rowton convinced that LIRING/3 wants permanent separation from LIRING/4 feeling that situation has become "intolerable", whereas LIRING/4 still hoping against hope that their domestic difficulties can be patched up and that when she returns they can resume normal marital relations. She insisted to Rowton that she would remain loyal to him and do nothing to increase his antipathy for her. (Rowton feels this is probably best control that can be hoped for in her operational work).

6. Following lengthy meetings with L/4, Rowton has evolved following operational plan with her approval:

(a) LIRING/4 on arrival will re-establish contact with and assess the following contacts:

(1) Ramiro Abreu
(2) Arnol and Ruby (wife) Rodriquez
(3) Caribel Guilfrido
(4) Capt Luis Carballo and wife
(5) Loló de la Torriente
(6) Mercedes Morales Lereverent.

These persons will be referred to in S/W messages by number only for security reasons. L/4 knows that numbers three and five have already expressed strong anti-revolutionary sentiments and will attempt discreetly to determine present attitude and access.

(b) Discreet efforts will be made learn of efficiency and modus operandi of DSE. LIRING/4 insisted on this for her own protection since Rowton alleged that he could not provide her with necessary briefing. She feels confident that she can get at least some basic data from Ramiro Abreu. L/4 commented that she almost certain the DSE is manipluated by a "foreign service" since she certain that Cubans themselves incapble of efficient and secure operations.

(c) When L/4 feels she has reached point with any of above that she can make some sort of "deal" (for instance assistance to them from outside in exchange for help to her in finding "interesting position" during her forced stay there) she will notify Rowton by S/W and proceed further or withdraw as per instructions.

(d) In event L/4 meets other persons who might prove recruitable she will mention their names xxx address and position in text of open letter to LIRING/3 adding that they send their regards and need something no available in Cuba. The persons thus mentioned will be referred to in S/W by next consecutive number in subsequent message. Rowton has stressed that he interested only in persons in excellent positions and conceivably recruitable. the list should therefore not be exhaustive.

(e) LIRING/4 will have two channels for S/W. First to "Lic. Antonio Ponce " with false return a dress and sent through open mail, and second to LIRING/3 sent by hand through Ramiro Abreu to LIRING office and delivered by hand by Jorrín to Tacubaya apartment, or given by L/4 to some friend traveling to Mexico. In first case all letters mailed, except the frist, will contain S/W message; In second case all letters with envelope bearing "Colonia Condesa" after address will be for Rowton and have S/W. L/4 promises sent several letters to L/3 without messages as soon as she arrives to test channel.

(f) Only channel for incoming messages for L/4 will be letters from LIRING/3 containing words" Chiapas" and "arte" and either hand carried, sent through pouch, or through open mail.

(G) The following signals have been agreed on for purpose specified:

(1) Danger signal will be absence of name Zinzuni in open text to L/3. In all other letters L/4 will mention name. In event hostile control child will be referred to by nickname, or endearing expression but not by name.

(2) "All my B-12 complex vitamins are gone" indicates need for new carbon. "I have no more cologne that everyone liked so much" indicates need for developer.

(3) New carbon sent to LIRING/3 will be recognized by simple drawing xxxxxxxx attributed to daughter and sent as expression of sentiment by LIRING/3.

7. In reply her query re best course of action in event she has reports DSE planning arrest, Rowton advised LIRING/4 destroy S/w supplies, and take refuge in Mexican Embassy in hope that she would be able communicate with LIRING/3 (she did not ask nor did Rowton volunteer how she could notify him since she assumes Rowton would remain in continuing contact LIRING/3).

8. LIRING/4 encouraged by attitude and sympathy shown by LIRING/2 and Echemandía re her remaining in Cuba, but she made it clear to Rowton that she would not do anything jeopardize her residence permit in Mexico or forfeit the time accumulated,unless Rowton could arrange have Mexican Ambassador in Havana renew her xxxxxxx visa and assure her. She added that best approach would be return after time up to attempt bring child back and at that time make new contract with Rowton providing for guarantees. Rowton agreed stating that he not in position for many reasons,including security, to make such commitments at this time. L/4 made it clear to Rowton also that she realizes that he probably operating in an alias and is affiliated with some sort of service or organization (this came out during discussion of contract and acknowledgement of pseudonym which she did not want),but she stated bluntly that she did not want to know any more about Rowton than the little she already knew since "it would be easier to face an interrogation without betraying him completely".

Subject: LIRING/4 Report of Questioning by LIRING/2 re Rowton
("The Greek").

1. at 1030 on 17 February,1968, LIRING/4 informed Rowton that she had dropped into the LIRING offices at about 1230 on 15 February and again on the morning of the following day to check with LIRING/2 concerning her entry permit for travel to Havana. On the first occasion LIRING/2 asked her casually whether she had seen anything of the "Greek friend" lately. LIRING/4 told Rowton that she replied that she and LIRING/3 heard from him from time to time, mainly by telephone, and that he had invited her out occasionally, but she,LIRING/4, had turned him down.

2. On the second occasion, during the late morning of 16 February,1968, LIRING/2 saw L/4 again on the premises and asked to not to leave until she had seen him, since he wanted to discuss something with her. When she finally saw him in his office some 30 minutes later, he again asked whether she had seen the "Greek", not mentioning Rowton by his alias (Harris). Since L/2 had mentioned L/4's Greek friend whom he had met through Rodolfo Reyes on a previously occasion, LIRING/4 felt she could not pretend not to know about whom he was talking. She therefore replied again that occasionally she heard from him when he was on a trip to Mexico. LIRING/2 asked what L/4 thought of him (the Greek), to which she replied that she found him pleasant and very generous (bondadoso). L/2 replied, "Yes, but what does that generosity come from?" He then added that he had many question-marks concerning that person. He gave as an example the fact that when he telephoned his number on a holiday, 31 December or 1 January, his "secretary" replied. It seemed very strange, continued L/2, that the Greek's telephone was manned at all times, night and day, and even on holidays. He then further expressed doubts about where this person lived and how he earned his money, and why he was so interested in Cuba.

3. LIRING/4 stated to Rowton that she was at first quite taken aback by this direct "interrogation", even though it was made in a friendly tone, and replied as best she could by ear. She stated that she assumed the Greek was carrying on lucrative business and lived in Europe although she could not supply any specific answers. She was aware that he had brought some of LIRING/3's paintings at an excellent price and took hisgenerosity for granted since she enjoyed living from the good business LIRING/3 gained through him. LIRING/4 then asked L/2 why he himself didn't do some checking of his own, since she assumed the that LIRING office was capable of such activity when the occasion called for it. LIRING/2 replied that he had too many other things to do, and anyway, when something smelled bad ("apesta") he keeps away from it. LIRING/4, continuing to take the offensive, stated that on several occasions inthe past the Greek had invited her out but she had not accepted, but that she easily could accept on the next occasion and possibly even obtain a photo of some kind for LIRING/2. L/2 replied that a photo would not be of any use, all he could do with it being to send it to Havana. He added that he had many suspicions, particularly as a result of the telephone, but had nothing concrete "in his hands", and that what he needed was "datos".

4. LIRING/2 then asked L/4 whether she knew when Rodolfo Reyes was returning and where he would be living? She told Rowton that she replied in the negative, commenting simply that she had heard that he would be moving to Chile to work in the national ballet there. L/2 returning again to the Greek wondered why he was so generous with gifts and entertainment. L/4 stated that she never looked a gift horse in the mouth, to which LIRING/2 replied that she must be careful, if not for her own sake at least for the sake of LIRING/3 who, he felt, was not treading on firm ground("terreno firme"). L/4 admitted that she was often worried about L/3's activities, about which he told her almost nothing. L/2 then commented "Inveisitigate the Greek and you'll feel better." (Averigua lo del Griego). He then added that that supposed letter from Rico Galán was not considered authentic, and also the case of Orozco definitely involved the police. LIRING/4, since she was aware that L/3 had discussed both these cases with L/2, except that L/3 had not to her knowledge mentioned the arrest of Orozco, stated that she felt L/3 had acted in completely good faith, even though he might have been somewhat impulsive ("precipitado").

5. LIRING/2, continuing the conversation, which according to L/4 lasted over one hour, stated that both she and L/3 must be careful of their contacts. He commented that he could not even go out on a date with a girl without thinking of the consequences. He could go out once maybe, but he felt it wiser to drop the contact for security reasonsL/4 told Rowton that she concluded the conversation with a promise to elicit as much data from the Greek as possible as soon as she could get in touch with him.

6. Rowton then told L/4 that he felt relieved in fact that L/2 had brought this whole matter up, since it was better to face such an interrogation here in Mexico rather than in Havana without the benefit of Rowton's advice and briefing. He then stated that he felt it essential that L/4 provide L/2 with much-heeded answers to his questions. To avoid the impression of collusion, Rowton suggested that L/4 see L/2 again and ask for Rowton's telephone number, which she could alleged she could not find at home and which she preferred not to ask L/3 for, in order not to arouse his suspicions. Once she obtained the number she could allege that she telephoned Rowton on some pretext (provided if possible by LIRING/2 himself) and managed to see him at lunch a few days later. She could then report to L/2 that Rowton had told her that his telephone was actually an answering service and hence only messages were taken around the clock. He had no need of an office since he traveled in and out so often and his business did not require an office with the accompanying headaches. L/4 would continue that Rowton confided that he was working on sensitive deals to purchase Mexican sulphur (an expensive and difficult item to procure anywhere in the world at this time) and that his principal business connection was with Stavros Niarcos,the wealthy shipowner. His interest in Cuba stemmed from Niarcos' desire to study the shipping possibilities there in the event the Northamerican embargo was lifeted.

6. Rowton instructed L/4 to commented to L/2 that when she spoke of the LIRING office, Rowton appeared very irritated and remarked that he was "decepcionado" with the tre tment he had received from both L/2 and the commerical office. If L/2 appeared surprised and curious about this, L/4 could continue that Rowton commented to her that he could not understand the cavalier manner in which the LIRINGs did business. He cited the example of at least three telephone calls he had made some weeks previously to both L/2 and the commercial office, leavinf his name and telephone, and that no one had had the courtesy to reply. L/4 could then added that as a result Rowton was annoyed andhad decided to go directly to Havana to get the infomation he needed on prospective business on behalf of Niarcos.

Subject: Briefiing in Communications and Security of LIRING/4.

1. During the past four days Rowton has had daily meetings with LIRING/4 to give her initial training in S/W and discuss channels of communication that might be used securely and logically by LIRING/4 and Rowton. A "contract" to serve as a letter of understanding for both Rowton and LIRING/4 was drafted as a basis for present and future colaboration. No reference to WOFACT was made or implied, but Rowton made it clear that he had "firends and colleagues" who were interested in intelligence coverage of PBRUMEN and who would carry on his collaboration with LIRING/4 in the event of Rowton's death or unavailability.

2. The first item discussed was a simple open code to designate persons of interest either as targets or possible hostile elements, so that L/4 could mention these persons in the text of her S/W correspondence without compromising herself. A list of the persons concerned with the code names is attached herewith. LIRING/4 understands that these code names will not be used in open letters to LIRING/3 under any circumstances.

3. As far as letter drops are concerned, Rowton instructed LIRING/4 to send her S/W messages with innocent text cover to the following address:

Lic. Antonio Ponce Cortés
Multifamiliar Miguel Alemán C-326
México 12, D.F.

using a notional return address that could not be easily traced, and dropping the letter in a public mailbox in the center of town. Rowton did not give LIRING/4 an indicator for the cover text since it was understood that all messages, except the first, would contain an S/w message. LIRING/4 promised to mail an innocent text letter as soon after arrival as possible so that Rowton would have a good idea of the lenth of time involved in his receiving future letters.

4. LIRING/4 was advised that she would receive S/W messages from Rowton on the paper backing of seriographic designs (Aztec seals) being produced by LIRING/3. The designs, prepared in the form of greeting cards, would be addressed to a third party and contain a brief message of greeting in the handwriting of LIRING/3 and would be sent as an attachment to a routine letter from LIRING/3 sent by hand or through the LIRING pouch. Both LIRING/4 and Rowton agreed that open mail, since it would have to bear her true name and address, would be both too risky and too slow. In the unlikely event of discovery, L/4 would have some way out, alleging that she had nothing to do with the message and placing the blame on LIRING/3.

5. At subsequent meetings, however, LIRING/4 accepted the probable long delays in receiving messages, both to and from her, involved in the open mail and agreed that it would be necessary to take the risk involved in sending at least some of the messages under cover of normal correspondence to LIRING/3. She also agreed with Rowton that sending S/w on the back of seriographic designs would constitute a pattern and might attract undue attention.

6. It was therefore agreed that LIRING/4 would also write S/w in letters to LIRING/3 that would be hand-carried to Mexico by a friend or sent in the pouch and delivered by Jorrín to her Tacubaya address. Rowton structed LIRING/4 to insert "Colonia Condesa" in the address on the envelope if the letter contained S/w, otherwise leave out this addition. Since Rowton would have a key to the Calzada Tacubaya apartment he could check regularly for any letters that Jorrín might have slipped under the door during periods when LIRING/3 might be absent from Mexico City.

7. At his meeting with LIRING/4 on 14/2/68 the following additional signals were agreed on:

(a) Danger Signal : Omision of name Zinzuni from open text. The child would always be referred to in regular correspondence with LIRING/3 by name. In event of hostile control, LIRING/4 would refer to child as "hijita" or by some other endearing name, but refrain from using her first name.

(b) New Carbon Needed: to be indicated by the phrase "I need more vitamin B-12" or "I have run out of my B-12 complex vitamins".

(c) New Developer Needed: " I have run out of that nice cologne I brought with me".

8. As far as incoming S/W was concerned, Rowton stated that if a cover letter from LIRING/3 contained the words "Chiapas" and "arte" it would indicate that an S/W message was being forwarded in that letter.

Subject: LIRING/3 Report of Meeting with Carmen Lozada.

1. At 2100 on 18/2/68 LIRING/3 reported to Rowton that he had met with Carmen Lozada at about 1130 on 17/2/68, at the square in Coyoacán. He explained that on 15/2/68 their mutual friend, Carmen Molina, had contacted Carmen Lozada by telephone and had learned that the latter planned to return to Mexico the following day (Friday, 16/2/68). Carmen Lozada had told her on the phone to give her regards to her friend (LIRING/3) but to ask him not to meet her at the airport since she would be accompanied by her daughter and would be met by her parents on arrival in Mexico. LIRING/3 therefore contacted her through Carmen Molina on the morning of 17/2/68 and made the date to meet her near her parents home.

2. L/3 continued that as soon as he saw Carmen Lozada he knew at once that something unpleasant had happened during her visit to Havana. He told Rowton that she had apparently lost five or six pounds, was dressed in a slovenly manner and gave of appearance of a distraught person, almost on the verge of insanity. Her manner and subsequent conversation, often incoherent and half hysterical, confirmed in L/3's mind that she was suffering from severe strain and depression. L/3 told Rowton that he understood from her remarks that she had found the Havana airport, Havana, Cuba and the Cubans in general "detestable". She exclaimed at one point: "Odio a esa isla maldita!' She added that she was on the point of becoming an enemy of Cuba (volverse gusana). In the next breath, however, she stated that she had to return "en pocos días" as soon as treatment had been arranged for her daughter (suffering from asthma). L/3, pretending to think that she had patched up things with her husband, Enrique, asked whether she had been reconciled and found that she really loved her husband after all. She exclaimed, according to L/3, in a half hysterical voice that she hated her husband and everything her represented.

3. L/3 continued that despite his repreated questions Carmen Lozada refused to give him details of what actually had happened to her. She repeatedly stated that she was under "intense, horrible pressure" that she could not explain. When L/3 commented that L/4 was preparing to return to Havana, Carmen Lozada burst out again with "Qué horrible!" but again did not explain. In view of Carmen Lozada's obvious state of psychological and physical disintegration, LIRING/3 told Rowton that he felt it best to terminate the meeting at the first opportunity (about 1630) and leave as gracefully as he could. He added that when he left he looked back to see her standing in a daze for a full five minutes before walking off.

30 January,1968

Subject: LIRING/4 Report of letter from Maceiro, Vice Minister of Education.

1. At 1000 on 30 January,1968, LIRING/4 reported to Rowton that she had seen Jorrín the previous afternoon and that he had told her that he had been to her apartment the previous evening but had failed to find her or LIRING/3 in. He explained that Dr. Marinelo,who was visiting Mexico City, had asked him to deliver to LIRING/4 ax letter from their mutual friend, Dr. Maceira. Jorrín then gave LIRING/4 the letter.

2. LIRING/4 stated to Rowton that the letter was simply a request for shoes for Maceira's child which could not be obtained in Cuba. LIRING/4 commented that this was only another of a series of such requests that Maceira and Figueroa of the Ministry of Education had been making to her since their last visit to Mexico. She had in the past ignored the requests since she felt she had done enough and could see no useful purpose in running around town as a purchasing agent, particularly when there was no guarantee that they would reimburse her.

3. Rowton suggested that on this occasion, however, it might prove worthwhile, in view of Marinelo's apparently important position in Havana and LIRING/4's forthcoming trip. He suggested that LIRING/4 purchase the shoes (about 60 pesos) and attempt to deliver them personally to Marinelo; she could then invite him to lunch or dinner in the hope of assessing his present feelings toward the regime. LIRING/4 recalled that Marinelo had been Rector of the University of Havana and was a member of the old guard communist party. She added that Jorrín had mentioned that Marinelo held Ambassadorial rank and was serving at the present time in some sort of international delegation.

4. LIRING/4 also reported that she had run into an old Cuban friend, Aralia Arizmendi, on the street, and that the latter had given her her home phone as 23-79-95. LIRING/4 explained that Arizmendi had married a Mexican psychiatrist and left Cuba some years back. As far as she knew Arizmendi was sympathetic with the Castro regime and on more or less friendly terms with LIRING. On this occasion Arizmendi joked with L/4 about the inefficiency of the LIRING offcials, saying that the only person she felt was doing a decent job was Cepeda.

5. LIRING/4 also reported that she had written a short letter to her negro medical student friend, Yolanda, and dropped the letter, as requested by Rowton, in the open mail (to ascertain the time taken to deliverrthe letter to Havana. LIRING/4 gave Yolanda's full name and address as:

Yolanda Diaz

AQUATIC/LIRING-3 - LIROSIN Deactivation of Audio Installation.

Action Required: None

Reference: HMMA-31821, dtd 3 April 1967.

1. On 15 April 1968, circa 1410 hours, the audio installation described in reference was deactivated. The SPT-2A was recovered by Walter W. CORNBURY and returned to Station stock. The LP equipment, an SPR-2A and UHER 4000 L, will also be returned to Station stock.

2. Inasmuch as LIRING-3 and LIRING-4 were terminating their "lease" on the target apartment, it was felt the SPT-2A carrier current transmitter would have to be removed because of its shallow concealment. To continue the assessment of target personalities however, we wanted to wait until almost the last minute. The week of 15 April 1968 was selected as an appropriate time by Wallace B. ROWTON, who is in contact with the targets.

3. At about 1300 hours, 15 April 1968, Walter W. CORNBURY and Oliver D. CIMOCH entered the LP and were greeted by LIROSIN who knew we were coming but did not know why. A check of the audio device revealed that LIRING-4 and a young (teen-age) male relative were in the target. This was as expected. At 1330 hours, LIRING-4 left the apartment, alone, for a luncheon date with ROWTON. She returned a few minutes later and made the male relative accompany her. (This was obviously at the insistence of ROWTON.) The telephone number of the target apartment was tried a few minutes after their departure and was not answered, again as expected. At 1400 hours a telephone call was received in the LP from the Station as a relay from ROWTON that the targets were safely ensconsed for at least the next hour. (It was known that LIRING-3 was out of the city.) Another telephone call to target with no answer, and CORNBURY entered the target

The wall plate was removed, the AC lines to the SPT-2A clipped off close to the plug, the SPT-2A easily removed, the wall plate refastened, and the target apartment vacated. Total time about two minutes. CORNBURY and CIMOCH left the area immediately. There were no security problems noted at any time.

1. L/3 added that he met "Rodolfo", the older and apparently more important FAR member, yestereday (26/3/68) but as yet has not been able to learn his true last name.

2. LIRING/3 also immediately idenditied the surveillance photo (clipped portion sh returned herewith) as that of Francisco Lara. FAR Commandante Subject: LIRING/3 Report of Contact with Guatemalans in Mexico City.

1. At a brief meeting with Rowton at 1700 on 22/3/68 at bhe Diana Restaurant LIRING/3 reported that he was working on the fabrication of identity documents for the two FAR representatives (Miguel Angel Oliva Castañeda and Rodolfo) through his seriographic process and that he hoped to have the pictures of the persons concerned the following day. He asked Rowton to bring along his copying kit so that he could quickly copy the pictures just before LIRING/3 put them on the identity cards. Rowton promised to bring the kit to the Atoyac apartment at 1600 on 23/3/68.

2. LIRING/3 also reported that he had learned from the Guatemalans that a certain Esquenasi or Eskenazi, a Guatemalan who has resided for many years in Mexico and who owns or operates a factory called "Cromos de México", has been very helpful to the FAR members in Mexico. Likewise a doctor by the name of Jorge Flesch has been of service when needed.

3. In reply to Rowton's query LIRING/3 stated that all the seven Guatemalans he had recently met (four of whom live at 54 Río Lerma) appeared to be FAR adherents, except one, who he had learned in passing was a follower of Jan Yon Sosa. L/3 also stated that he had learned that the one who worked in the photo shop on San Juán Latrán street was an accountant rather than a photographer.

Subject: LIRING/3 Contacts with FAR Guatemala in Mexico City.

1. LIRING/3 reported to Rowton at 1600 on 20/3/68 that he had again met with Miguel Angel Oliva Castañeda, this time at about 1930 in front of the Chapultepec movie and went with him to the Café Literario on Calle Lieja. L/3 told Rowton that Oliva confided to him that he had just learned from four Guatemalan comrades who lived together in an apartment on Calle Lerma that their residence was being surveilled by what they felt was the Mano Blanca. He explained that they had noted several fairly well-dressed men hanging around the apartment house and had tried to follow one of them but he had run off. This all indicated to them that the surveillance was not being carried out by the Mexican Police, but by some private group. Oliva then stated that they knew that the deputy chief of the Mano Blanca organization Oliverio Castañeda, was currently in Mexico City, and assumed that he had organized the surveillance. Oliva then mentioned that one of the four living at Calle Lerma was the well-known Guerrilla leader who had recently sought sanctuary in the Mexican Embassy in Guatemala City and was granted asylum to Mexico through the intervention and influence of Lazaro Cárdenas.

2. In order to determine the exact location of the Lerma apartment, LIRING/ told Rowton that he offered to help identify the surveillance by conducting a countersurveillance himself the following evening. He also offered the use of his Tacubaya studio, recommending that in any case the four should disperse at least temporarily.

3. L/3 also reported to Rowton that he again met with Oliva at 1015 that same morning and that the latter had taken him to a printing shop on Calzada Tlalpan near Calle José T. Cuéllar, named "Regia", as L/3 recalled. (The Mexico City telephone directory lists "Resca-Impresos y Rayados, Calle J.T. Cuéll 57, tel: 78-05-01). Oliva told L/3 that this shop produced various ID papers for them in the past but unfortunately was not able to fabricate a good Mexican ID card because of the unavailability of the special type used. L/3 said that he was confident that he could make the reproduction through his seriographic process. In the course of conversation Oliva confided to L/3 that the Guatemalan lawyer, Capuano, had provided blank Guatemalan ID cards in the past and in general had been very helpful. He added that Capuano had succeeded in getting all the Guatemalans released from prison after their arrest in the Julian López case.

4. Oliva also stated that he felt it possible and advisable that L/3 travel with him to the FAR headquarters in the Sierra Mina on his forthcoming trip so that L/3 could get first-hand requirements from the FAR supply responsible (whom Oliva referred to as a woman). Oliva also mentioned that FAR was hoping to obtain a lathe to permit the manufacture of weapons locally (in the mountains).

5. Oliva also stated that the principle purpose of the visit of his comrade "Rodolfo" was to obtain funds and to return to Mexico. Oliva added that in the event L/3 could make the trip he could also return with Rodolfo to Mexico. In reply to L/3's query, Oliva stated that the funds Rodolfo would be given in Guatemala were from various robberies carried out by Far for the purpose of raising its own funds. Oliva commented that they could not count on the Cubans or the CPG for financial support when it was needed. He added that the sale of the booklet "Terror in Guatemala" (of which L/3 had obtained a copy from Carlos Persival) had helped to supply some of the money to be used for the trip. Oliva indicated that he himself planned to remain in Guatemala with the FAR forces in the mountains.

Subject: LIRING/3 Report of Contact with Memebers of FAR, Guatemala.

1. At 0945 on 19/3/68 at the Robbins Restaurant, Calle Leibnitz and Melchor Ocampo, LIRING/3 reported to Rowton that he had again met the FAR member whose sketch he had given Rowton the previous day and whom he had met thru Carlos Persaval on 17/3/68. He explained that Persaval had finally contacted him by phone late Sunday afternoon (17/3/68) and introduced him to one of the two Guatemalans who wanted to return clandestinely to their country. L/3 described this man, who later showed him/Guatemalan identification papers in the name of Miguel Angel Oliva, aged 33, as short, stocky, with black hair trimmed short and rather thick prominent eyebrows. L/3 estimated his age as 35 and said there was no doubt in his mind that he was a native-born Guatemalan. He added that this person wore a thin moustache. L/3 then drew Rowton a sketch of the person concerned which Rowton passed in to the Station the same day.

2. LIRING/3 continued that he conversed with the Guatemalan, Oliva, in the presence of Carlos Persaval and his wife Teresa Lozada de Persaval at the Miss restaurant on Reforma for about 45 minutes, taking the line that he was willing to help the cause as he had done in the past, but he wanted to be certain of the exact affiliations and bona fides of the persons with whom he was dealing. When this apparently surprised and somewhat shocked Carlos Persaval and Teresa, L/3 explained that he had had some unpleasant experiences with such persons as Orozco and was aware that many FAR desertors were circulating around Mexico these days. The Guatemalan, Oliva, however reacted favorably saying that he understood L/3's position and did not blame him. He added that he would furnish proof of his FAR affiliations and indicated that there were two other comrades, one much more important than himself, who also needed help in returning. L/3 told Rowton that he stressed to all present the risks involved in providing false documentation and acting as a guide for them to cross the border illegally and his original commitment to help only two persons. In reply to L/3's query, the Guatemalan Oliva stated that their destination would be Guatemala City itself and they hoped that L/3 would be able to accompany them there since they were not familiar with the countryside betweenthe border in the Comitán area and Guatemala City.

3. According to LIRING/3 the latter insisted that he meet the other, more important Guatemalan, and be given an opportunity to make carfeful plans before attempting the journey to Chiapas and Guatemala City. Oliva then made a date with Persaval and L/3 for the next evening at 2300 at the corner of San Juán Latrán and Madero at which time he would try to arrange a meeting with his comrade.

4. LIRING/3, at his meeting with Rowton the following morning (19/3/68) reported that when he arrived at the place designated he found the Guatemalan Oliva waiting with neither of them saw Perseval. Oliva, after a wait of about 45 minutes, suggested that they give up and go to a cafeteria, Copa de Leche, on San Juán Latrán. L/3 stated to Rowton that while they were waitin they were joined by another Guatemalan, a young man of about 22 years of ag and rather stout, who accompanied them to the cafeteria. The older Guatemal then showed L/3 a Guatemalan passport in the name of Miguel Angel Oliva Castañada which he said was false but which enabled him to travel in Mexico. The younger man stated that he had legal documents but did not volunteer his name to L/3. In the course of conversation L/3 learned that the older Guatemalan, Oliva, formerly worked in the advertising business in Guatemala City and that the younger man was familiar with electronic equipment and radio communications problems. The older Guatemalan apologized to L/3 for not having been able to bring along the other FAR comrade, to whom he referred as "Rodolfo" and again promised to introduce him to L/3 the following evening. He promised to telephone L/3 at 1400 the next day to confirm the meeting.

5. LIRING/3 then told Rowton that the two Guatemalans then escorted him to the Hotel del Valle on Calle Independencia (Rowton recalls that Dr. Bustamante resided there during his stay in Mexico City several months ago). L/3 told Rowton that he met two other Guatemalans there in the lobby and comment that they talked rather freely in front of him, discussing at one point even the illegal acquisition of a revolver needed by one of them. In the course o conversation L/3 stated that he learned that César Montes is now back in Guatemala and that the FAR is planning an April offensive. All the Guatemalans expressed concern over the increase in the power of the "Mano Blanca" and blamed it for the kidnapping of the Guatemalan Archbishop. They also commented that the military in Guatemala were disenchanted with the "puppet president", Montenegro, and could be expected to increase the terrorism from the right in order to place Montenegro in an impossible position and eventually justify his removal.

6. L/3 commented to Rowton that he noted that at no time did any of the Guatemalans mention Cuban aid or assitance. In fact one of them at one point said that he had tried unsuccessfully to obtain a visa for travel to Cubasome thirty days previously.

Wallace B. Rowton

Subject: LIRING/3 Report of Meeting with Carlos Persaval.

1. LIRING/3 reported to Rowton at 1115 on 16/3/68 at the restaurant Hiss on Reforma and Calle Mississipi that unfortunately his meeting with the two Guatemalans scheduled for the previous evening at 2230-2300 in Danny's restaurant (Reforma at Diana Circle) did not come off. He stated that he arrived at the restaurant at 2230 and waited until about 2315 without seeing either Persaval or being approached by any Guatemalan. He continued that just as he was about to leave, he heard a tap on the window behind him and turned and saw Teresa Lozada de Persaval on the street. He wnet out and accompanied her to a car where Carlos Persaval was waiting. He was then driven to Sanborn's Angel and remained there with Carlos and Teresa for some thirty minutes.

2. According to LIRING/3,Carlos Persaval explained that he had been stood up by the Guatemalans and had been unable to get in touch with them to introduce them to L/3 as he had hoped. He added that one of the persons xxx had been in Cuernavaca two or three days previously and perhaps had not been able to return in time for the meeting. Persaval,who appeared to L/3 to be quite nervous in Sanborn's, suggested that they go elsewhere to continue their discussion and LIRING/3 invited him and Teresa to his Tacubaya studio.

3. They then proceeded there to continue the discussion. Teresa excused herself on arrival saying that she was very tired, and promptly fell asleep in one of the bedrooms. Carlos Persaval then continued talking with L/3 until about 0300. He mentioned that one of the Guatemalans he hoped to introduce to L/3 was well-known and important in FAR,while the other(who had documents) was relatively unimportant and could probably get by the police checks without as much risk. In reply to L/3's queries, Persaval stated that both men wanted to travel to Guatemala City and that one (the important one) would probably be returning to Mexico after a short stay. Persaval revealed that as far as he knew the purpose of their trip was to obtain much-needed funds to continue their work in Mexico.

4. LIRING/3 told Rowton that he again promised to guide the Guatemalans across the border south of San Cristóbal but insisted on meeting them in Mexico City prior to escorting them over the border. Persaval then asked L/3 whether he was in a position to obtain a radio transmitter for the FAR friends, stating that he was certain that they had the financial means necessary to pay for such equipment. L/3 stated that he felt he had a good source in his brother and various other contacts up north, including Archi who worked for the radio station and had access to technical equipment.

5. At the conclusion of the meeting Pesaval promised to telephone L/3 again at 2200 the following night (16/3/68) in the hope of being able to set up a meeting that night or the following. L/3, however, reported to Rowton by telephone that as of 2300 on 16/3/68 no one had telephoned him to set up the meeting.

c. LIRING-3: From recent activity it appears that the Guatemalan FAR may have renewed its interest in LIRING-3. In late January, an emissary of FAR representatives in the PBRUMEN capital traveled to Mexico and contacted the person who had carried to PBRUMEN the letter sent by LIRING-3 in the summer of 1967 denouncing Moises OROZCO Leal. The emissary brought the word that the FAR had much appreciated LIRING-3's letter on OROZCO and warned that the FAR organization in Mexico City was infiltrated by a WOFIRM operator. Try as he might, however, LIRING-3 failed, at least by the end of this period, to meet with the FAR man.

Subject: SGSWIRL Examination of LIRING/3.

1. From about 1330 until 1530 on 29 September,1967, LIRING/3 was given an SGSWIRL examination. Rowton arrived at the safehouse (Tacubaya) with the SGSWIRL operator at 0930 that morning and remained with the operator until the examination was completed. He had not given LIRING/3 any previous notice of the nature or extent of the examination, but simply asked him,on 27 September, to keep the entire day of 29 September free for a lengthy dicussion with Rowton. Rowton introduced the SGSWIRL operator as señor Albertini, a trusted "socio", and spent the first hour or so reviewing his relationship with LIRING/3, ostensibly for the benefit of Albertini. Rowton then,introducing the subject of certain doubts that he had in the past concerning LIRING/3's reporting, stated that Albertini had a means of checking scientifically the truthfulness of LIRING/3's statements. Rowton explained that he was particularly concerned about the possiblity of LIRING/3 having doubled back with LIRING and maintaining with them a secret agreement of some sort to report on Rowton and his activities.

2. LIRING/3 went into a state of visible shock at this and stated that even the thought of betraying Rowton had never occurred to him at any time. When the SGSWIRL operator explained the scientific means he was to use on LIRING/3, the latter stated that he could not possibly accept this humiliating means of testing him since it was diamentrically opposed to his principles. He pointed out that he had accepted Rowton at his word and he could not see or understand why Rowton could not do the same for him, adding that the whole thing smacked of methods used by LCFACT and LIRING. He added that if this meant that he would have to break with Rowton, then regretfully he would have to accept this alternative. He explained that submitting to the SGSWIRL examination would inevitably destroy the idealistic and profound relationship which he had previously felt he enjoyed with Rowton.

3. Rowton and the SGSWIRL operator spent the next two hours calming LIRING/3 down and finally convincing him that he would not be compromising with his deeply-felt principles by taking the test. He at last consented to be questioned on his loyalty to Rowton and insisted that he be asked,"Do you believe in Rowton?"

4. After a brief break for lunch the examination was given inone of the bedrooms of the apartment while Rowton waited in the living room. LIRING/3

appeared to be in reasonably good spirits after the test, although he was obviously emotionally strained by the experience. Rowton made a date to see him again that evening at 2100 to talk things over in a clamer atmosphere.

5. At that meeting with LIRING/3 Rowton explained that he had felt it necessary to ascertain as objectively as possible the extent of LIRING/3's loyalty to him and he was happy to have scientific proof that LIRING/3 had not berayed him to the LIRING's. LIRING/3 stated that after it was all over he felt better and admitted that he agreed with Rowton on the necessity for such an examination, humiliating as it might at first have appeared to be. He confessed that any "errors" (fabrications and ommissions) that he had made in the past, were due to his intense desire to produce for Rowton, since he still felt very sensitive about having to accept money from Rowton without being able to render commensurate services. He stressed, however, that at no time had he ever been disloyal to Rowton or done anything against Rowton's interest, as señor Albertini could prove with the results of the SGSWIRL. LIRING/3 promised in the future to follow Rowton's direction scrupulously and assured Rowton that he no longer felt under any compulsion to exaggerate or fabricate anything to impress Rowton.

6. Headquarters and the Station may find the SGSWIRL examination disappointing in its limited coverage, but it must be realized that LIRING/3's initial reaction was entirely negative and at one point he threatened to break off completely with Rowton because of the insult to his "dignity". Although the SGSWIRL operator felt that from a professional standpoint it would be better to administer the examination at another time when LIRING/3 was less emotionally upset, Rowton asked both him and LIRING/3 to go thru with it on the spot, feeling that psychologically it was essential to make LIRING/3 submit, even for a limited test. Rowton also feels that the test did serve as a very favorably deterrent over LIRING/3 in the future, when a second one can be more painlessly administered, in a calmer atmosphere. It, of course, also covered the very pertinent question of whether LIRING/3 had been an LIRING double agent or betrayed Rowton in any way.

1. Attached herewith is the SGSWIRL report (Idens u/s/c) on LIRING/3.

2. Please note that the SGSWIRL interviewer has made the point that the principal misfortune in this interview probably was that LIRING/3 was not tested on the fabrication of contacts with the IDEN D's, which was thought to be the most probable area of deception.

3. In view of LIRING/3's threat to quit working for ROWTON, we would be interested in hearing of any repurcussions or change in attitude that may have resulted from LIRING/3's having taken the test. We also are interested in the Station's comments and recommendations as to the continued use of LIRING-3, bearing in mind ROWTON's recent report of LIRING suspicions that L-3 may be working for WOFIRM.

SUBJECT : LIRING-3 (IDEN A) ERD #69719

Subject was interviewed and tested with SGSWIRL on 19 September 1967 in a Mexico City safe site. The interview was requested by Raymond A. FRADYER.

The interview was conducted in Spanish by the examiner. Wallace A. ROWTON, Subject's principal agent, was present during substantially all of the interview except for the testing period.

Subject has not previously been tested, and has had no contact with any WOFIRM representatives other than ROWTON.

Subject is a married male Mexican citizen, an IDEN B by profession. Prior to recruitment his apparent political sentiments were somewhere in the far left, but he was not believed to be significantly involved in intelligence activities or organized political activities. He was recruited by ROWTON under the cover of a IDEN C. Subject has since his recruitment had contact with IDEN D elements and with IDEN E elements in his efforts to insert himself and ROWTON into the desired position. The initial goal of this operation was to monitor such traffic and pick up whatever additional intelligence information might be incidentally encountered. As Subject was and is, in his own idiosyncratic way, a communist sympathizer, ROWTON has not indicated any anti-communist, anti-IDEN E, or anti-revolutionary aims.

Subject was known to have lied and concealed information on numerous occasions, and it was presumed that considerably more lies were not yet known to WOFIRM. On this basis, SGSWIRL coverage was to have covered numerous issues, centered on other intelligence involvement, fabrication of contacts with significant IDEN D and IDEN E figures, and revelation of his association with ROWTON. The issue of revelation of association with ROWTON was rather complex in that ROWTON never revealed his true name, nationality, or interests to Subject, and also he instructed Subject to reveal certain ostensible facts to various specific individuals.

The examiner was presented to Subject as an associate of ROWTON of Italian extraction.

PROCEDURE

Subject first refused to take the test, basically on the grounds that in his estimation his relationship with ROWTON, as well as his whole way of life, were at variance with any such procedure. In the three or four hours that this was being discussed, Subject also decided to quit working for ROWTON.

Eventually, over a specific matter of hurt pride, Subject agreed, or rather demanded, to be tested on "two questions--whether (he) was betraying ROWTON to IDEN E intelligence and whether (he) trusted ROWTON," following which he would break off contact with ROWTON. Under the circumstances ROWTON judged that the best course would be to follow this lead and attempt no more than a clarification of Subject's relationship with IDEN E intelligence. The examiner was not optimistic about the possibility of getting a valid test under these circumstances, but after talking with Subject for a time it was possible to develop what the examiner considers a reasonable and technically acceptable test covering unreported involvement with any intelligence service.

The above procedure might be visualized more accurately if it is mentioned that once having met with Subject, ROWTON and the examiner had almost no time together without Subject being present, and it was not possible for them to converse in any language other than Spanish without damaging their cover.

RESULTS

Subject has no connections or commitments unknown to ROWTON with any government or intelligence service. He has no involvement with the IDEN E's that he wishes to conceal from ROWTON, and he has no dealings with the IDEN E's which are contrary to what he believes to be ROWTON's interests.

Concerning revelation to the IDEN E's of Subject's association with ROWTON, the issue itself was, not unexpectedly, a cloudy one. In brief, Subject stated that he could not really recall the exact extent to which he might have revealed the fact that he was backed by a IDEN C or that the IDEN C's name was (ROWTON's alias). Subject himself suggested that he be asked if he was "informing the IDEN E's of ROWTON's movements," Subject's way of expressing the idea of "reporting on" ROWTON. The examiner used this question, and Subject appears to have been truthful in his negative answer to this question.

NOTE

1. By the end of the interview, ROWTON and Subject had made an appointment for a meeting that same evening, indicating that it is quite unlikely that Subject will break contact with ROWTON.

2. It was not really possible for the examiner to determine the extent to which Subject believed the story of the IDEN C and the Italian SCSWIRL examiner. The examiner feels that there were no real flaws in the maintenance of this cover and that the cover's only real weakness is its inherently shaky plausibility. Subject appeared to accept the alias used by the examiner and even made passing references to Italy; whether this was done because he believed what he was told or because he just thought it was the most courteous way to handle the situation is not known. He did make several "hurt" references to the injustice of ROWTON and the examiner demanding to use a SCSWIRL on him when he did not even know for sure who ROWTON was. On at least one occasion he mentioned that for all he knew ROWTON might even be working for WOFIRM. This reference did not seem strained, although it is conceivable that its purpose was provocation; ROWTON has told the examiner that Subject recently hypothesized out loud that ROWTON might be a Soviet.

3. The principal misfortune of this interview is probably that Subject was not tested on fabrication of contacts with IDEN D's. This was thought to be the most probable area of extensive deception. It should be pointed out, however, that the Station already knows that Subject has fabricated such contacts, and the most likely contribution of SCSWIRL would have been merely a further accumulation of examples of this same basic vice. It might also be pointed out that Subject's "reporting" to date has dealt almost exclusively with his own activity, hence his fabrication has been more an irritation than a threat.

SUBJECT : LIRING-3 (IDEN A) IBD #69919

Subject was interviewed and tested with SGSWIRL on 29 September 1967 in a Mexico City safe site. The interview was requested by Raymond A. FRADYER.

The interview was conducted in Spanish by the examiner. Wallace A. ROWTON, Subject's principal agent, was present during substantially all of the interview except for the testing period.

Subject has not previously been tested, and has had no contact with any WOFIRM representatives other than ROWTON.

Subject is a married male Mexican citizen, an IDEN B by profession. Prior to recruitment his apparent political sentiments were somewhere in the far left, but he was not believed to be significantly involved in intelligence activities or organized political activities. He was recruited by ROWTON under the cover of a IDEN C. Subject has since his recruitment had contact with IDEN D elements and with IDEN E elements in his efforts to insert himself and ROWTON into the desired position. The initial goal of this operation was to monitor such traffic and pick up whatever additional intelligence information might be incidentally encountered. As Subject was and is, in his own idiosyncratic way, a communist sympathizer, ROWTON has not indicated any anti-communist, anti-IDEN E, or anti-revolutionary aims.

Subject was known to have lied and concealed information on numerous occasions, and it was presumed that considerably more lies were not yet known to WOFIRM. On this basis, SGSWIRL coverage was to have covered numerous issues, centered on other intelligence involvement, fabrication of contacts with significant IDEN D and IDEN E figures, and revelation of his association with ROWTON. The issue of revelation of association with ROWTON was rather complex in that ROWTON never revealed his true name, nationality, or interests to Subject, and also he instructed Subject to reveal certain ostensible facts to various specific individuals.

The examiner was presented to Subject as an associate of ROWTON of Italian extraction.

PROCEDURE

Subject first refused to take the test, basically on the grounds that in his estimation his relationship with ROWTON, as well as his whole way of life, were at variance with any such procedure. 1. Returned herewith is one signed receipt as requested in Reference, Par 3.

2. Per Par 4 of Reference, Wallace B. ROWTON has stated that LIRING-3 could get backstopped documents at a cost of 1,000.00 M.N. ($80.00 US) plus travel expense. These are regional type "Passports." Something above an identity card. ROWTON suggests that two or three identifications be provided of such general terms that substitution would be fairly easy. What he needs for each document are six photographs full face and full profile, both left and right, along with a complete physical description. The subject should be 45-50 years old and have a Mexican or Latin appearance.

3. Blank Mexican Passports seem unlikely at this time because of our limited dealings with the Foreign Office. We suggest you talk with the Mexican desk on this point.

1. Forwarded attached are three reports dated 23, 28 and 30 October written by Wallace B. ROWTON on his contacts with Rodolfo REYES-Cortes, Carmen MOLINA de CARRASCO and Carmen LOZADA de Ramirez. ROWTON first met these three persons when he accompanied LIRING-4 to a party given by Carmen MOLINA on 27 October, passing himself as a wealthy Greek client of LIRING-3 who had called at the latter's house to pay for a painting he had ordered but had been invited by LIRING-4 to come to the party. As previously agreed with the Station, ROWTON directed his main attention to REYES. The latter has resided in Havana since 1960 when he founded the Cuban Ballet Folklorico. Until recently REYES has received the monthly salary of one thousand pesos from the Cuban government, and, according to LIRING-3 is well acquainted with political and government personalities in Cuba. As pointed out in Reference, ROWTON found REYES to be apolitical, a superficial sympathizer of the Cuban revolution and a great admirer of American choreography (he told ROWTON he would very much like to go to New York to see some of the shows there.) REYES complained about the relatively low salary he is currently receiving from the Mexico City Belles Artes for organizing a Cuban Ballet Folklorico show to be held in Mexico City next December. He readily agreed to ROWTON's offer to be his patron (to "help him out financially") if this could be done on a very discreet basis. He said he hoped to put on another Cuban show in Chile, before returning to his family in Havana. LIFEAT coverage of LIRING-3's apartment for 26 October showed, incidentally, that REYES maintains close enough relations with Silvia DURAN (of Lee Harvey OSWALD fame) to be invited by her to her house for lunch.

2. Carmen MOLINA de CARRASCO is the leftist wife of a prominent local neurosurgeon, Juan CARRASCO with whom she spent some years in Cuba. Both are Mexican citizens. According to what she previously told LIRING-3, Carmen MOLINA helped gather some of the information used to defend both Victor RICO-Galan and the ROSENBERGS. With the help of Alicia ECHEVERRIA and the latter's uncle (who is the current Mexican Minister of Interior) Carmen obtained a prominent position on the Mexican Olympic Committee in the publication department. She is a close friend of Carmen LOZADA who is planning to divorce her husband, Enrique RAMIREZ, a rabid pro-CASTRO Mexican chemical engineer who is still in Cuba. Carmen LOZADA's father, Armenegildo LOZADA, a noted Mexican physician is married to a pro-CASTRO Cuban. According to information made available to LIFTER-1, in early 1967 both he (Armenegildo) and his second and present wife are hard core Marxists. This wife, Dra Maria Victoria de la CRUZ, a Cuban, still according to LIFTER-1, is a personal friend of several Cuban leaders including the CASTRO brothers. Husband and wife maintain a close relationship with the local Cuban Ambassador, Joaquin HERNANDEZ-Armas. Carmen LOZADA apparently also started out as a hard line Marxist. Information dated 1961 from RNLABILE indicates that she was active in Communist organizational work at UNAM and participated in Cuban led activities directed against ex-Peruvian President PRADO. Although she is still clearly a leftist, Carmen may not be quite as red now. She told ROWTON, for example, that she felt nothing but disgust for her fanatically pro-CASTRO husband and had strong resentment toward her step-mother. Per LIENVOY, July 1961, Carmen was in contact with Teresa PROENZA when the latter was at the Cuban Embassy in Mexico City.

3. At a private lunch with Carmen MOLINA, 28 October, ROWTON explained that he was a Greek leftist (although not a KKE member) involved in lucrative international business. He said that because of the current situation in Greece, it was difficult for him to operate in Mexico as openly as he would like. He could thus use MOLINA's help in obtaining certain types of information and making discreet contacts with Mexican government and business circles. MOLINA agreed to do what she could. She stated that she was not a member of any Mexican or any other Communist organization, but merely a leftist sympathizer. She also stated that she currently maintains little or no contact with the Cuban Embassy. LIONION-1, to whom a photograph of MOLINA, REYES and LOZADA (copy of which is forwarded attached) was shown stated he had never seen these three persons enter the Cuban Embassy.

4. Following the developments described above, Station plans to:

a. Continue to develop REYES to the point where, per Reference, he may be recruited by ROWTON either under false flag as a Greek leftist or in alias as a WOFIRM member to become a reporting source in Havana. Primary motivation in REYES' case would almost certainly be financial.

CONTINUATION OF DISPATCH	CLASSIFICATION SECRET	DISPATCH SYMBOL AND NUMBER HMMA-33442

b. To continue social development of MOLINA as access agent to Carmen LOZADA (the two women are planning to live together) and a possible entree to the Mexican Olympic Committee and foreign olympic delegation.

c. To attempt operational development of Carmen LOZADA directly via ROWTON or indirectly via LIRING-3 in the hope that we can play on her "disgust" for the fanaticism of her husband and her dislike of her mother-in-law to elicit information on the activities of the Cuban Embassy in Mexico City and its personnel, and, hopefully to attempt her recruitment.

5. Station would welcome addressees' comments on the above. Headquarters attention is attracted to ROWTON's report of 30 October which quotes REYES' statements to the effect that some members of the Mexican colony in Havana believe that LIRING-3 may be working for WOFIRM (or for the CASTRO government.)

28 October,1967

Subject: Wallace B. Rowton Contact with Rodolfo Reyes Cortes(Subject).

1. Rowton met Subject on the evening of 27 October,1967, at a small party at the home of Carmen Molina de Carrasco, Calle Amsterdam 252/6. The only other persons at the party besides LIRING/3 and /4 and the son and daughter of Carmen Molina were Carmen Lozada and Enrique Canudas, the latter two of whom had returned from Havana some 30 days previously. All the above are Mexicans who have spent several years in Havana and are social acquaintances of LIRING/3 and LIRING/4.

2. ROWTON crashed the party in the company of LIRING/4 according to a previously agreed plan. LIRING/3 arrived at about 2030 alone, explaining that he had had to leave LIRING/4 at home to wait for an important client who was making a payment on one of LIRING/3's paintings that he had recently purchased. LIRING/3 was to add that LIRING/4 would try to persuade this client to accompany her to the party so that he could meet everyone, and have a drink. LIRING/3 told Rowton he was certain that Carmen Molina would have no hesitation in inviting Rowton to stay once he got into the apartment.

3. Rowton and LIRING/4 arrived about 2130 and found the party in full swing with LIRING/3 and Eduardo Canudas struggling to get the phonograph operating (they eventually borrowed another and played several Cuban revolutionary records.). Rowton was introduced as Sr. Harris,a Greek businessman and long-standing client, and felt at the end he was able to convince all present that he actually was not from WOLADY (although most apparently had that impression at the outset). Rowton managed to toss out a few phrases of Russian at the right time in the direction of Carmen Molina to impress her (fortunatly her Russian is weaker even than Rowton's) Rowton spoke some English with as good an accent as he could manage. Carmen Molina volunteered to him privately that she had a great many "progressive" friends in the U.S. Rowton was able to insert several comments about the current political situation in Greece that was forcing him into a virtually clandestine existence in Mexico, as well as elsewhere. Everyone appeared to sympathize with Rowton and ceased asking any personal questions.

4. Rodolfo Reyes Cortes, apparently the guest of honor, arrived at about 2300, apologizing for being late and explaining that he had to attend a memorial service (un acto) for Che Guevara. He refused all offers of liquor insisting on a Coca Cola. He appeared genuinely happy to meet Rowton and explained in quite serious tones that he was engaged in the training of a Mexican ballet group under the auspices of Bellas Artes to present a performance of the Folklorico Cubano in the near future. He added that he had been the founder of the Folklorico Cubano in the early 60's in Havana and had a wife (ballerina) and young daughter in Havana whom he was anxious to return to.

5. Since Rowton felt that Rodolfo was at the moment the best target for assessment he invited him to join him in visiting the Señorial night-club to see the Greek dances put on by a group of Greek musicians. Rodolfo accepted eagerly and they both left the party at about 0030. Rowton had perviously obtained the office telephone of Carmen Molina (34-60-32,ext 38) at the office of the Olympic Committee where she was working and had promised to take her to lunch the following day. Rowton had also gotten in a few private comments (i.e. compliments) to Carmen Lozada so that he could follow up at a later date if this was considered desirable. He found Carmen Lozada in excellent spirits and at times definitely provocative, despite her current marital situation (she had that same day notified her husband, Enrique Ramirez, a civil engineer working in Havana, that she had begun divorce prodeedings).

6. When Rowton and Rodolfo Reyes arrived at the Señorial, they were refused entrance into the main room since Rodolfo was not wearing a tie and jacket. Fortunaeely however, the Greek musicians, in their native costumes, were relaxing in a corner of the entrance lobby and Rowton was able to introduce Rodolfo Reyes to them and speak enough Greek to convince Reyes that he knew them well and was himself a Grrek. The musicians, who probably assumed Rowton was a Greek-American, did not speak enough Spanish to talk directly to Rodolfo. They invited Rowton and Rodolfo to return on 31 Oct when they expected fewer people in the audience and when they could show Rodolfo some of the most popular Greek dances.

7. Rowton then invited Rodolfo Reyes to the Kinneret Restaurant for a late supper (no food was served at the Carmen Molina party) and he was able to continue his conversation with him there. Rodolfo revealed that he plans to visit Chile in mid-December,1967, to organize a Folklorico Cubano group there, and then return to Havana. He said Rowton could contact him daily at the Ballet Folklorico de Mexico from 1100 until about 1300 and gave the telephone as 21-04-18 or 21-16-09. He appeared from his conversation to be a n admirer of the Cuban revolution and Castro although at no time did he express and strong anti-[illegible]CLADY sentiments. He complained at one point of the meager compensation he received for his services at the Folklorico in Mexico City and said that he had just about enough money to live on and help support his parents (he remarked that his family comes from San Cristóbal in Chiapas). Rowton, explaining that he had brought a number of LIRING/3's paintings to help him with his living expenses as well as because he liked the style, stated that he had once aspired to be an artist but had drifted off into business and somewhat regretted this abandonment of art, despite his lucrative dealings in international trade. He took this opening to offer to help Rodolfo financially from time to time, but on a very confidential basis. Rodolfo reacted spontaneously with great expressions of gratitude, assuring Rowton that no one would learn of Rowton's interest in him and his family. Rowton made no commitment but indicated that he would consider helping Rodolfo with his living expenses while he was still in Mexico.

8. Rodolfo Reyes is obviously dedicated to his art and appeared to Rowton to be a seriousminded choreographer. He showed a certain effeminite manner in his gestures and remarks (speaking only in Spanish) characteristic of many persons in his profession. He accepted an invitation to meet again with Rowton at 2300 at the Kinneret Restaurant on 31 October, 1967, so that Rowton and he could revisit the Señorial night-club to see the Greek musicians perform.

1. LIRING/3 reported to Rowton 23/10/67 that Carmen Lozada, neurologist, and Canudas (fnu), chemical engineer, visited his home evening 21 October in company Carmen Carasco. LIRING/3 and /4 state they knew both Carmen Lozada and Canudas in Havana since 1961 (both are Mexicans) under contact with GOC and were surprised to learn from them that they will not return to Cuba because of disillusionment.

2. Carmen Lozada stated that she will divorce her husband. Enrique Ramirez, a civil engineer, still in Havana and resume work in Polytecnico in Mexico City.

3. Canudas informed L/3 that mutual friend Rodolfo Reyes of the ballet folklorico, much to everyone's surprise, will return to Cuba next month. LIRING/3 promised Rowton to get in touch with Reyes to determine motivation for return. L/3 surmises that real reason may be Reyes disgust with family in Mexico and desire to be reunited with his Cuban wife who, according L/3, is talented and very attractive.

4. Carmen Lozada informed L/3 that her ~~fxxily~~ parents who very close to Ambassador ~~xxxxx~~ Hernandez Armas(who frequent guest at their home) will be disappointed to learn of her decision divorce her husband and remain in Mexico.

Subject: Report of LIRING/3 Suspect Affiliation with WOFIRM.

1. LIRING/3 reported to Rowton at 0900 on 30 October,1967, that he had finally manged to have a private talk with Rodolfo Reyes Cortes, his Mexican chereographer friend, on the afternoon of 27 October,1967; and that, in the course of conversation, Rodolfo Reyes had revealed to LIRING/3 in confidence ~~that~~ the reason why the LIRINGS had assumed a rather cool attitude toward LIRING/3 over the past year. Rodolfo Reyes explained that the last time he was in Havana he had heard rumors, among his friends in the Mexican colony, that LIRING/3 was working "either for WOFIRM or the Cubans". Rodolfo went on to say that the origin of this rumor, as far as he could ascertain, was the fact that LIRING/3 had made two trips into Havana for no known specificreason and at his own expense. Rodolfo Reyes, indicating that he himself did not believe the rumors or, at least, did not care whether they were true or not, commented to LIRING/3 that other members of LIRING/3's profession were naturally jealous of the success of anyone of their group and were always quick to draw their own conclusions.

2. LIRING/3 commented to Rowton that, although this news had shaken him and LIRING/4 badly at the time, neither of them cared particularly what the LIRINGs thought of them, since their own conscience was clear. LIRING/3 added that it was important, however, to continue to develop his commercial activity in Chiapas (especially since Rodolfo Reyes' home is by coincidence located in San Cristóbal) so that word would gradually filter back to the LIRINGs that he actually did have financial resources outside his art production. LIRING/3 continued that obviously the LIRINGs did not have any specific proof or they would long ago have cut off all contact with him as well as LIRING/4. He concluded that since the LIRINGs had certain suspicions, they naturally warned all his friends and former contacts (including, of course, Arnol Rodriquez) to avoid close contact with him until their doubts could be resolved.

3. In reply to Rowton's query LIRING/3 stated that Rodolfo Reyes and Carmen Molina (separately) had commented to him that they were favorably impressed by Rowton and did not voice any suspicion of Rowton's bona fides (as a Greek leftist businessman). Carmen Molina, in fact, had gone so far as to show some irritation that LIRING/3 had not introduced her to Rowton previously since she was anxious to develop some sort of lucrative business dealing with him. Carmen Molina commented to LIRING/3 that she felt sure she could help Rowton in his business and political problems and at the same time make a little much-needed money for her own living expenses.

4. LIRING/3 continued that he had been maintaining discreet personal contact with Carmen Lozada over the week-end (he commented that LIRING/4 has already shown some signs of jealousy and therefore he had to be careful not to give her cause to distrust him). LIRING/3 stated that Carmen Lozada had told him that her father, a well-to-do Mexican doctor residing in Coyacań, had remarried tand that her step-mother was a Cuban sicentist who had lived many years in Mexico. She added that both her father and step-mother were on excellent social terms with Ambassador Hernández Armas. She revealed that she had already notified her husband, Enrique Ramirez, that she intended to divorce him, and she expected a storm of protest both from him (in Havana) and her father and step-mother, both of whom were "puritanic" despite their "progressive" convictions. She added that she expected Enrique Ramirez to rush over from Havana as soon as he received her letter and to appeal to her father and step-mother to save his marriage. She, however, insisted to LIRING/3 that she had made up her mihd that she would go through with the divorce. She added that for this reason she did not wish to live with her father and had decided to stay with her friend, Carmen Molina, until the divorce papers were through and the storm had blown over. She added that she did not particularly like being a house-guest in the small aprtment of Carmen Molina, but at the moment she had no choice.

AUDIO

1. Special COS operations No. 1 and No. 2 have functioned satisfactorily with no calls for assistance.

2. LIRING-3/LI[illegible]: A UHER-4000L has been installed for this operation in lieu of a Revere. There was a slight problem at first when the LP operator recorded too loud and distorted the tape. The UHER uses batteries and the quality has greatly improved by getting off the AC line. CORNBURY has come to the conclusion that Mexico City does not have a good earth ground. Consequently, great adjustments must be made with any equipment that needs an earth ground.

3. DISPERSE: A separate report is being prepared on this operation. To date, we are not too happy with the results. There is an intermittent buzz which we cannot identify and the present switching arrangement makes it hard to follow Subject from room to room. More details will be included in a separate dispatch.

4. LISAMPAN: We now feel that this operation is beginning to shape up, thanks to the expertise of Peter J. DEYRUP. Inasmuch as DEYRUP will provide a technical report, and presumably is still working on some of the problems, the details will not be repeated here. It is too soon to say, but we hope to be able to have the LP keepers move defective [illegible]-1's out and replace them with operating units whenever there is a failure. A problem might be having to adjust each unit on the target line. Time will tell.

5. Plans for LISAMPAN are to activate the CCT of LISAMPAN/BAKER early in September using LI[illegible] as the LP. When we have reliable switching on LISAMPAN/DOG, this, too, will be piped to LI[illegible] via CCT from LISA[illegible].

6. There were a few other miscellaneous AUDIO chores. Three duplicate tapes had to be made for the COS, three Revere tape recorders had to be cleaned and repaired, and one UHER 4000-L was cleaned and repaired.

Headquarters notes that on 9 August 1967 LIRING-3 was in contact via LIFEAT with one Electa LNU. Given LIRING-3's artist background and the subject of conversation - the visit of Rodolfo Heisler, a Swiss artist, to Cuba - it is suggested that Electa LNU might be Electa ARENAL (201-173795), the mother-in-law of David ALFALO Siquieros the well-known Mexican Communist artist.

1. Forwarded under separate cover are six reports dated 31 July, 5, 11, 14 and 17 (two reports) August 1967 concerning the LIRING-3 Operation prepared by Wallace B. ROWTON.

2. The first three reports 31 July, 5 and 11 August deal with the recent Moises OROZCO Leal "affair" (see reference) and it's aftermath. The 17 August report, which is a review of the [illegible] coverage on LIRING-3, also deals with this subject. LIRING-3's conversation with Mercedes *PEREIRA (report dated 14 August 1967) was reported in MEXICO CITY 2476.

3. ROWTON's report dated 17 August 1967 is of some interest.

A. The departure of the secretary LIRING-4 previously filled in for reopens the possibility that LIRING-4 may, again, work at LIRING. LIRING-4, in fact, recently received a necklace from this secretary (a rather unespected gift at this juncture).

B. The report indicates that LIRING personnel have doubts about some of LIRING-3's activities (this is not too surprising).

Subject: LIRING/3 Report of Conversation with

1. LIRING/3 reported to Rowton at 1100 on 17 August, 1967, that he had had a pleasant chat with ______ the previous day in the latter's office. Among other things revealed that Araceli ~~[illegible]~~ [illegible] and her husband had been recalled to Havana unexpectedly and would probably be leaving for good in about 7-10 days. did not provide LIRING/3 with any explanation, but L/3 surmises that the recent inspection uncovered the fact that Araceli is a chronic complainer and performs relatively little work, and her husband is virtually superfluous at Cubana de Aviación since he never has been able to take over the management from Rojas as originally planned. LIRING/3 commented that this might be the much-hoped-for chance for LIRING/4 to resume work in LIRING/9's office. Rowton asked L/3 to encourage L/4 to accept the offer if it should be made. He added that the last time he talked with L/4 she appeared a little reluctant to get involved again, explaining that she commented when discussing the shortage of funds (2-3,000 dollars) that she was glad that she wasn't still working and hence not subject to any investigation. L/3 promised to put pressure on L/4 to accept the job. He noted with satifaction that L/4 had recently received a message from Araceli Cepero that she had a gift (neclace) for her. L/3 added that L/4 has not rushed over as yet to pick up the gift, but feels it better to wait until Mati has departed in the hope that Araceli might talk more freely at that time.

2. LIRING/3 zalso reported that ______ commented in the course of conversation that his colleagues did not believe that Rico Galán had broekn down and talked to the Mexican police, despite the letter (furnished by L/3) to the contrary. L/3 suggested that they check out the letter with Elena Garro, since he understood that she was the one who hand-carried it to the Gobernación. L/3 commented with some bitterness to that it seems that every time he tries to help the revolution by pass on bits of information (Julian Lopez case in particular) it turns out prejudicial to him in the eyes of the superiors of . At this smiled and asked L/3 to have patience and try to understand their point of view. He reiterated that they had doubts but felt sure it would be straightened out eventually.

3. At the end of the meeting L/3 promised Rowton that he would try his best to "lie low" during Rowton's absence. He agreed with Rowton that it would be a good idea to visit San Cristóbal to show some sign of life at the "Florimex" factory and to reassure the land-lady that he is still interested in using the house but has had unexpectedly delays in obtaining the license. L/3 also agreed to go to Havana in the event he received an invitation and could not stall long enough to consult with Rowton after the latter's return to Mexico City. He stated that he assumed that the invitation would come from the "Casas de las Americas" and might concern some sort of art exposition with fixed dates.

4. Rowton gave L/3 his New York City P.O. Box (in alias) and requested L/3 to drop him a line between 25-31 August, when he expected to be passing through New York from Montreal enroute to Europe. L/3 stressed again that he hoped to cash in on Sergio Valdés' [illegible] venture in Venezuela, especially in the eyes of the Cubans, since it was a bona fide effort that could easily be checked out with favorable results.

Subject: Review of LIFEAT Traffic Relating to LIRING/3 and LIRING/4 for the period 2-14 August,1967.

1. A review of the LIFEAT intercepts for the period 2-14 Agust,1967, reveals confirmation of the following points previously reported to Rowton:

(a) Commercial (cover) activities of LIRING/3. SAN-28([illegible].2) confirms that srita Guadalupe Vasquez, the friend of Sergio Valdez, was working on the license (as of 2 August) for the importation of the plastic flowers from Guatemala for L/3. She states that she is going to court with the petition "right now". In another intercept on [illegible] August Sergio Valdez tells L/3 that he and Alejandra (Urbina Torres) will make up their legal and personal agreements the following week (with regard to "Colorlux",the glass factory located at Plaza Miravaille). They expected to assemble the samples (for Venezuela) the following day.

(b) LIRING/3 conversations with his Honduran friend, René Ochoa, in Havana. SAN-41 (7.7) reveals that Ochoa is anxious to talk seriously with L/3 and wants to get to Mexico City soonest. He states that the only problem is the visa and promises to send L/3 data so that L/3 can attempt to expedite a Mexican visa.

(c) LIRING/4's social contacts with the LIRING personnel. With regard to L/4's general feeling toward the LIRING establishment, L/3 tells Rojas (of the Cultrual office) that L/4 visits LIRING "only occasionally", and adds that "those people were very hard to get along with and she no longer has anything to do there.. Only goes by once in a while to say hello."

(d) LIRING/3's contacts with Ernesto Capuano during the week of 7 August, although the substance of the conversations with him is not confirmed. SAN-44(5.0) indicates that Sergio Valdez assisted L/3 in his attempts to locate Capuano and make the first appointment.

(e) LIRING/3's contact with César Tejeda Fonseca and sra. Merceded Pereira on 10 and 13 Agust,1967.

2. The review likewise reveals that the following information not previously known by Rowton or passed to him by LIRING/3:.

(a) In general the extent of the participation of both Sergio Valdez and Raúl Moreno in LIRING/3's operational as well as commercial efforts. L/3 has told Rowton repeatedly that Valdez and Moreno are aware of L/3's relationship in the plastic flower business with certain Czechs but that they are not witting of Rowton's alias or of the true nature of their relationship. LIFEAT intercepts, however, reveal that L/3 keeps Sergio Valdez informed of his meetings with Rowton (and it must be assumed) of the general content of their conversations. During this period, Rowton is referred to once as "Zorba" and several times as "Polaco", whereas previously he was referred to simply as "that person". L/3 has stated to Rowton that Sergio Valdez believes that he, L/3, is a high-level PBRUMEN agent and that his Czech contacts are purely commercial.

(b) L/3's relationship and rendezvous' with Silvia Durán and Marta Wigisser. In DAN-40(44.5) Silvia Durán invites L/3 to her home between 1530 and 1730 on 7/8/67 when she will be free. She calls and talked to L/4 for the first time on 10/8/67. L/4 says that she has heard of Silvia from L/3 and Silvia replies that she hopes they will meet someday soon. DAN-40(5.5) indicates that L/3 is using Rowton as an excuse to stay at the Tacubaya apt (probably during a tryst with either of the above women). He saw Rowton from 1730-1900 on 4/8/67 but called L/4 at about 1915 to say the the "matter with Harris is not finished yet", and later to add that "the thing is dragging out".

(c) L/3's telephone contact with a certain Electa on 9/8/67 who tells him that the Swiss artist, Rodolfo Heisler, is visiting from Cuba. L/3 comments that he has known Heisler since 1961 - since L/3 first went to Cuba.

Subject: LIRING/3 Meeting with Mercedes Pereira.

1. At his meeting with Rowton at 1100 on 14 August,1967, LIRING/3 reported that he had learned from Ernesto Capuano that sra Mercedes Pereira, his Spanish revolutionary friend, was living at Diagonal San Antonio 4, in apartment 6. (According to L/3, his interest in Pereira was revived by a comment made to him by Moisés Orozco Leal on 31 July,1967, to the effect that Mercedes Pereira was in Mexico).

2. LIRING/3 continued that upon learning her address he called on sra. Pereira unannounced at 1030 on 13 August with LIRING/4 and fortunately found her in with her 17-year-old son, Armando. He found the apartment almost completely unfurnished, except for a table and several chairs and a minimum of bedroom furniture. According to L/3, Sra. Pereira explained that she and her son had just returned to Mexico and were organizing their household on their very limited resources. She added that her son had found work in a factory and that she hoped to locate a job as soon as her Mexican immigrant papers came through.

3. She and her son welcomed LIRING/3 and /4 after so many years, but sra. Pereira confessed later in the conversation that she was expecting L/3 to visit her since she had already received word from Ernesto Capuano. She then recounted to L/3 and L/4 the vicissitudes and turmoil of her life since she had last seen them in Havana(in 1964). She stated that her very confused citizenship status had continued to plague her in Havana and ,when she finally decided to leave in order to settle the inheritance left by her/deceased Spanish husband in Spain, she had great difficulty in leaving Cuba. She explained that many obstacles were put in her way, despite all the work she had done for the revolution, and she was forced to leave in effect as a "gusanita". She said that her mother and sister, Sofia, were still in Havana, and added that her sister is still working at the Czech Embassy. She also stated parenthetically that her sister, Sofia, was hoping to be transferred to the Czech Embassy in Mexico City in the near future, where she had worked prior to going to Havana.

4. Sra. Pereira stated that she was greatly disillusioned with the Cubans and felt that the Tricontinental had done more harm than good by trumpeting its intention of helping all Latin American revolutions. She commented that the situaton in Guatemala, which she had recently visited as a tourist with Spanish documents, was very bad for the revolutionaries. She explained that not only were there many factions in the movement -

FAR, Jan Cisa, the Primero de Mayo, the "Cravos" and other splinter groups - but there were recently, during the last six months many deserters filtering into Mexico and that LIRING/3 would have to move with extreme caution in his contacts with the revolutionaries. LIRING/3 told Rowton that he felt this an opportune opening to relate his story of Moisés Orozco Leal and he did so briefly. Sra. Pereira commented that she first met Orozco in Havana when she was very much involved there with Guatemalans revolutionaries. She added that she was favorably impressed with Orozco and was surprised to learn recently that he had deserted from FAR. She added that there was another FAR deserted in Mexico City even more important than Orozco, by the name of "El Gallo" or "El Gallito", whose true name she did not know. Salvador Quilava Morales

5. According to L/3, sra. Pereira commented that she thought LIRING/3 had acted properly with regard to Orozco and agreed with him that he shoudl attempt to retain friendly contact with Orozco until he recieved a definitive reply from FAR as to the best course of action to take with him. She offered to introduce L/3 to several Guatemalans she knew well in Mexico City - not directly involved in the revolution but useful contacts in any case. In reply to L/3's query, she stated that Ernesto Capuano was a reliable and intelligent person, but so exposed in Mexico City that he could not operate as freely as he would like. She stressed to L/3 that Capuano was closely watched and could be a contact that might conceivably compromise L/3 in his future travels to Guatemala. She stated that she herself was being extremely cautious because of her past history in Guatemala as well as Havana, and had even gone to the length of paying a considerable sum to have her file removed from Gobernación, so that there would not be a trace of her travels to Cuba and Guatemala. She explained that after leaving Havana, she and her son went to Spain and managed to collect a small inheritance (about 7,000 pesos in value) and at the same time took out Spanish papaers and was issued a Spanish passport, as a refugee. LIRING/3 explained to Rowton that sra. Pereira had been born in Spain, but moved to Mexico many years ago, married a Guatemalan doctor, accompanied him to Guatemala where he worked under the Arbenz regime, sought refuge in Mexico with him after the overthrow of the government. After her husband (either legal or common-law) died she left for Havana, in 1962, as L/3 recalls, with her son, Armando, who had been born in Guatemala City about 1950. L/3 continued that she became closely connected with the Guatemalan revolutionaries in Havana and represented Guatemala at the Tricontinental. L/3 stated that sra. Pereira is a well educated woman of about forty-six years of age, and that her son, aged about 17, is a very husky teen-ager who was trained in guerrilla warfare by the Cubans. L/3 also recalled that Sra. Pereira's mother's name is Isabela, and will probably resettle in Spain, once she leaves Cuba with her other daughter, Sofia Pereira.

6. LIRING/3 stated that he hoped to see Sra. Pereira again within the xx week since he was quite certain that she could put him in touch with the [illegible] people in Mexico City and possibly act as a liaison herself in the future.

11 August, 1967

Subject: LIRING/3 Report of Contact with Moisés Crozco Leal.

1. At 1100 on 11 August, 1967, at hte safehouse Rowton learned from LIRING/3 that Moisés Crozco Leal telephoned him the previous afternoon to thank him for the letter and the interest he has shown in him. L/3 stated that he told Crozco that his main concern was what if anything the Mexicans had asked him about L/3 and whether he had been forced to reveal any of L/3's business (in Guatemala). According to L/3, Crozco assured him that, although the Mexican police had asked him "many and repeated questions" about his travels, he revealed nothing about L/3. One of the questions asked repeatedly by the Mexicans was what he knew about the husband of a certain Aura Marina. Crozco claimed that he knew nothing of this person and so replied in the negative to the police. Crozco continued that he could not let L/3 know where he was at the moment but would get in touch with him in a short time, as soon as the heat was off, through his mother. According to L/3, Crozco's mother's home has been searched several times since Crozco's release on 4 August, 1967.

2. LIRING/3 then explained that after he learned of Crozco's arrest and release (through Ernesto Capoano) he felt it urgent that he communicate with Crozco to determine what Crozco had revealed to the Mexican police and how he was treated. He therefore sent a telegram to Crozco addressed to Crozco's mother at her home address (Calle Tennis 408, Col. Country Club on 6 August, simply asking Crozco in double talk to get in touch with him When nothing happened, L/3 continued, he sent LIRING/4 around to Crozco's mother's home about 1030 on 9 August with a short note, the text of which is as follows:

> Valentín:
> We have learned of late about your mishap. We want to give you the help we can, since, apart from everything, we understand the human problems (invloved).
>
> We want to see you to find out what we can do for you, but we'll leave it to your discretion as to the contact.
>
> I enclose some money, which we know is only a small thing but we hope that it will be of some use to you.
>
> Cordial greetings from all.

3. L/3 stated that he enclosed 200 pesos in the note, and that the envelope was personally delivered without difficulty to Orozco's mother by L/4. (This was confirmed to Rowton by LIRING/4, whom he met with privately at 1630 on 9 August at the restaurant of Sear Roebuck, Insurgentes).

4. LIRING/3 also reported that he hoped to receive a message from his friend René Ochoa through Aurelio Alonzo (Comercio Exterior) who, according to Ochoa, was due in to Mexico City that same day (11/8/67). L/3 added that he expected a telephone call from Ochoa the preceding evening and, although the phone rang several times, he did not receive any communication from him.

5. L/3 also reported that thus far his efforts to locate Dr. Mercedes Pereira through her son Armando have been unsuccessful. L/3 said that he still had not given up hope that Capcano would get the word to Pereira and that she would eventually contact him.

6. L/3 asked Rowton to meet him again at 1000 the following day so that he could report on whether he had received word from René Ochoa on the flight from Havana.

1. LIRING/3 reported to Rowton at 1700 on 4/8/67 that he informed by Sergio Valdez that morning that Alberto Domingo of Siempre was taking plane to Havana that afternoon. L/3 stated that he took this opportunity write a hasty note to Arnol Rodriguez explaining recent developments in Moisés Orozco Leal affair and asking Arnol to expedite new contact for L/3 with FAR either in Havana or Guatemala City. L/3 explained to Rowton that in order put heat on Arnol and FAR he wrote that if he not invited to Havana within next two weeks he will definitely be in Guatemala City staying at hotel Florida from 20-22 August and that new FAR liaison should identify himself as "José Luis". He added that Arnol should cable him using code "La medicina está en mal estado" in event FAR wished him keep out of Orozco affair.

2. L/3 stated that Sergio Valdez personally asked Alberto Domingo deliver sealed envelope containing this letter to Arnol Rodriguez. Valdez feels that Domingo will not read letter, although it mentions him as person who (unwittingly) originally referred Orozco to ~~Valdez~~ LIRING/3/

3. L/3 also reported that he spoke with Ernesto Capoano by phone and has appointment to meet with him at 1000 on 7/8/67. Capoano cautioned L/3/ who did not identify himself on phone not to state names by give some indication of nature of business. L/3 stated it concerned "the medicine" and it was then that ~~Mr~~ Capoano gave him appointment.

Subject: Wallace B. Rowton Meeting with LIRING/3.

1. Rowton met with LIRING/3 at 1700 on 31 July,1967, at the safehouse. L/3 reported at once that he had moved his family into the safehouse and that L/4 and their child were out at the moment so that he and Rowton could talk privately. He explained that things were moving very rapidly and that Mosés Crozco Leal was in fact staying at his apartment (Tacubaya) in preparation for the trip they were to take to Tapachula. He stated that he had met with Crozco as planned at 2200 on 29 July and, after a lengthy talk, Crozco had asked to be put up in L/3's apartment for the night, since it was late and it would be better in view of the trip that they planned to take together. L/3 commented that Crozco appeared quite nrevous and was particularly concerned about answering the door in the event someone knocked while L/3 was away. It was agreed that he would answer the door only in the event that there were three knocks, indicating that the person was LIRING/3 himself. According to L/3 Crozco stated that he had at all costs to get to Tapachula within the next two or three days to meet FAR contacts that were expecting him there. He expressed fear of traveling by plane or even train and welcomed the suggestion of L/3 that the latter's friend Raúl Moreno drive himand L/3 to Tapachula in Moreno's car. L/3 commented to Rowton that he was amazed at the knowledge Crozco had concerning him and his activities, including the dates of his (L/3's) trips to Guatemala and Cuba.

2. Rowton then realizing that L/3 had probably walked into a dangerous trap, queried him very carefully concerning the origin of his contact with Crozco. Rowton explained that he was certain that L/3's story of the trip to Tapachula and the meeting with the Guatemalan woman there wasuntrue and that he assumed that L/3 had a good reason for distorting the truth. Rowton continued that he had come tothe conclusion that L/3 had had a domestic crisis again and had decided to disappear for a few days and had told his wife that he had to go out of town on business for Rowton. He was therefore forced to lie to Rowton also for fear that Rowton might disclose the truth to L/4. Rowton stressed that it was essential that he know the true facts surrounding the first contact with Crozco, since, as L/3 would see later, it might be a matter of life and death for him.

3. LIRING/3 then confessed that he had not actually made the trip but not for the reason Rowton supposed. The real reason he explained was that when Crozco contacted him he saw Sergio Valdez shortly thereafter and the latter to his amazement commented:" I have been contacted. Have you been contacted also?" According to L/3, he asked Valdez how it was possible that he knew of any new contact that he had, and Valdez replied:"I'm in this thing also." LIRING/3 continued that this statement of Valdez so surprised and disturbed him and he decided to investigate to what extent Valdez was involded in the whole affair of the Guatemalans. In the absence of Rowton he had no resources other than his own ingenuity. He decided to disappear so that he could investigate more securely and he informed L/4 that he had to make a trip to Chiapas. He then telephoned Valdez several times, disguising his voice, and pretending to be "Valentin" in the hope of eliciting some sign of recognition from Valdez. L/3 continued that this, however, did not work and he failed to prove any connection between Valdez and Crozco. L/3 explained then that he did not want to reveal this to Rowton, first because he was afraid that Rowton would consider him stupid or unbalanced and secondly because he was afraid Rowton might tell L/4. He added that he hoped Rowton could understand the terrible pressure he was living under from all sides, with people contacting him, surveilling his movements, controling him. In fact he felt trapped by unknown force . He stated that for instance he was certain that he entrance of Sergio Valdez and Raúl Moreno on the scene was not coincidental but was part of some larger picture that he could not understand. He added that this time he was determined to find out how Valdez was linked with Crozco.

4. Rowton then asked L/3 what he knew about Crozco. L/3 replied that he knew only what Crozco himself had revealed to him, viz.,that his mother was living in Mexico City, that his father had ~~kxxx~~ never been progressive and had in fact been arrested by the government (presumably Arbenz) but had not been harmed since he had been so"honest" and his reputation was above reproach. Orozco also informed L/3 that he had been to Cuba several times and recently was in touch with Montes in Guatemala and up to recently had been doing propaganda work for the FAR.

5. Rowton then stated that he had been doing his best to collect as much information on Crozco as possible and that he was far from happy with what he had managed to uncover to date. He explained that he had verified the address given to him by L/3 (Calle Tenis 38/5) but discovered that it was the home of Crozco's mother and that Crozco was not actually residing there. He added that he had also learned that Crozco's father was probably unstable mentally and that his brother worked in Politica,and this ~~mmg~~ might account for Valdez' connection wtih him (Valdez' working for Rafaga) Rowton then stated that he had a report that he had not as yet been able to check out to the effect that Crozco had been in Guatemala in May 1967 assigned to some guerrilla activity in the Cobán area but had unexpectedly disappeared and returned to Mexico, probably because he was afraid of capture. L/3 exclianed in evident surprise: "Then he's a deserter!" Rowton agreed that this might be the case and added that this would explain why he wanted to hide out in L/3's apartment. L/3 then agreed that this probably was the case and exclaimed again:" But then it's very dangerous for hix me to be sheltering him!" Rowton agreed but urged L/3 to keep calm and exploit the opportunity to learn from Crozco the true facts of his present relationship to FAR and how he came to use L/3 unwittingly as a refuge. L/3 asked Rowton how he could confront Crozco with his suspicions and get him to reveal what Rowton wanted to know. Rowton then suggested that L/3 drop casually the name of Ernesto Capoano, saying that he had to see this lawyer the next day on some business. Rowton explained that he thought this would force Crozco to talk since he would naturally be fearful of L/3's revealing his whereabouts to Capoano. L/3 replied that he would willingly do this but unfortunately he did not know Capoano. He suddenly thought, however, of a ruse that might work. He could get in touch immediately with Jacobo Rodriguez Padilla, who would certainly know of Capoano, and get as much information on Caponano from Jacobo before springing the name on Crozco. Rowton agreed and stressed that it was essential that L/3 get as much of the true story from Crozco that night as possible. He urged L/3 to pose as a friend and offer to put up Crozco in some other safe place, explaining that his continued presence would jeopardize his own position vis-a-vis the FAR.

6. During the meeting L/3 positiviely identified the photograph (Pasaport) that Rowton showed him of Moisés Crozco Leal. L/3 commented that Crozco now was wearing glasses and a moustache and had shaved his head, giving himself the appearnace of a person of at least 45 years of age (his true age is 37,according to his own statement). L/3 recalled that Crozco informed him in passing that Leonardo Castillo of FAR had been killed in action recently.

7. In view of the urgency of the developemtns Rowton arranged another meeting with L/3 that same evening (31 July) at midnight at Sanborns Reforma.

PS ABSTRACT

1. AFTERNOON 22 AUG 67 LIREBEL-2 REPORTED FOLLOWING STORY HE RECEIVED FROM ERNESTO CAPUANO DEL VECCHIO ON 19 AUG:

FOR PAST SEVERAL MONTHS, MEXICAN PAINTER CARLOS (JURADO) DELMAR HAS ATTEMPTED MAKE CONTACT IN MEXICO WITH TOP LEADERS FUERZAS ARMADAS REBELDES (FAR) TO OFFER SALE OF MEDICINE AND ARMS. HE FIRST MADE CONTACT WITH CARLOS NAVARRETE (KNOWN TO ADDRESSEES) AND EXPLAINED HE HAS GREEK FRIEND WHO SELLS ARMS ALL OVER WORLD. GREEK BECAME INTERESTED IN SELLING ARMS TO FAR AND ASKED JURADO TO MAKE NECESSARY CONTACTS. NAVARRETE FOUND JURADO TOO EAGER AND TOO INSISTENT ON MAKING CONTACT WITH FAR AND IMMEDIATELY BEGAN TO SUSPECT HIM AS CIA OR MEXICAN SECURITY SERVICE PROVOCATION. NAVARRETE DID NOT HELP HIM AND JURADO SOMEHOW MADE CONTACT WITH MOISES (OROZCO) LEAL. CAPUANO DOES NOT KNOW WHAT RELATIONSHIP OROZCO HAD WITH JURADO EXCEPT THAT LATTER OFFERED HIM ARMS, MEDICINE AND MONEY (300 DOLLARS) THE LATTER OF WHICH OROZCO DID NOT ACCEPT. RECENTLY, JURADO CALLED CAPUANO AND ASKED TO MEET WITH HIM. SHOWED CAPUANO LETTER WRITTEN BY OROZCO WHICH CLEARLY INDICATED OROZCO WAS TRAITOR

TO "CAUSE" (SENT ADDRESSEES IN HMMA 32[illegible] AND 32807[illegible]. AFTER SPEAKING SECURITY PROVOCATION BASED ON FOLLOWING POINTS:

A. JURADO TOO EAGER AND INSISTENT ON CONTACTING FAR LEADERS.

B. JURADO, WHO SUPPOSEDLY IN ARMS BUSINESS TO MAKE MONEY, OFFERED OROZCO MONEY FOR FAR (300 DOLLARS). ACTUAL ARMS SELLER WOULD MAKE NO SUCH OFFER.

C. JURADO WANTED TO MAKE FAR LEADERS AWARE OF OROZCO'S TRAITOROUS ACT AND ARMS SELLERS USUALLY TAKE NO INTEREST IN INTERNAL PROBLEMS OF GUERRILLA GROUPS THEY SELL TO.

D. CAPUANO DOES NOT BELIEVE "GREEK" EXISTS AND JURADO USED THIS AS "COVER" TO PENETRATE FAR MOVEMENT.

2. CAPUANO ASKED LIREBEL-2 TO AID IN INVESTIGATION OF JURADO. FIRST PHASE WILL BE TO INTERROGATE OROZCO ON HIS RELATIONSHIP WITH JURADO TO DETERMINE HOW FAR JURADO HAS PENETRATED THE FAR. CAPUANO SAID THERE IS NO PLAN TO DO JURADO BODILY HARM FOR THE PRESENT, BUT HE WILL BE IGNORED BY GUAT EXILES.

3. LIREBEL-2 SAID THAT IN CONNECTION WITH JURADO, A GUAT WHO HAS LIVED IN CUBA FOR SEVERAL YEARS RECENTLY ARRIVED MEXICO

WITH WIFE. THIS PERSON, ARMANDO PEREIRA, MET JURADO IN CUBA (NO DATE) AND WAS TOLD BY CUBANS THAT JURADO ACTS VERY SUSPICIOUSLY AND IS NOT TO BE TRUSTED.

4. ON 23 AUG LIREBEL-2, CAPUANO, JOSE LUIS BALCARCEL AND LUIS CASTILLO RALDA WILL HOLD MEETING TO DISCUSS GUAT COMMUNIST EXILE LEADERSHIP IN MEXICO AND JURADO CASE.

5. IT OBVIOUS FROM ABOVE THAT CAPUANO DOES NOT HAVE FULL STORY JURADO'S ACTIVITIES AND HAS MANY OF HIS "FACTS" BADLY MIXED UP. FOR ONE THING CAPUANO MADE NO MENTION OF JURADO'S TRIPS TO GUATEMALA WHERE HE ACTUALLY CONTACTED FAR NOR OF HIS MEETINGS WITH "GARCIA" IN MEXICO CITY. IF JURADO'S STATEMENTS TO WALLACE B. ROWTON CAN BE BELIEVED, IT WAS FAR WHO ASKED HIM ABOUT POSSIBILITY TRANSPORT TO BORDER AREA WEAPONS PURCHASED BY FAR PROCUREMENT MECHANISM SOME OF WHICH WAS IN TEXAS. IT WAS ALSO FAR THAT ASKED FOR MEDICINES. DO NOT BELIEVE JURADO OFFERED FAR MONEY, ON CONTRARY HE REPEATEDLY ASKED FOR PAYMENT OF MEDICINE AND OTHER ITEMS "SOLD" FAR. EITHER CAPUANO MISUNDERSTOOD JURADO OR LATTER DID NOT REPORT HIS CONVERSATION WITH CAPUANO ACCURATELY TO ROWTON. JURADO WAS INSTRUCTED TO POINT OUT TO CAPUANO HE TOOK DIM VIEW OF BEING USED BY OROZCO TO DOUBLE CROSS FAR EMPHASIZING THAT, HAD HE

HAD ARMS TO GIVE OROZCO (WHICH HE DOD NOT) HE PROBABLY WOULD HAVE RECEIVED HIS PAYMENT IN LEAD SINCE OROZCO COMPLETELY BROKE. THUS IN OROZCO "AFFAIR" IT WAS FINANCIAL AND PERSONAL SECURITY ANGLES WHICH OSTENSIBLY BOTHERED JURADO AND NOT HIS INTEREST IN FAR INNER POLITICS. HE FURTHERMORE LOANED OROZCO 322 PESOS AND NOT THREE HUNDRED DOLLARS.

6. WHATEVER HOLES AND CONFUSION EXIST IN CAPUANO'S STATEMENTS RE JURADO'S ACTIVITIES HE NEVERTHELESS HAS GUESSED BASIC TRUTH AND IS APPARENTLY DETERMINED TO MAKE FULL INVESTIGATION. THAT JURADO MAY HAVE EXCEEDED HIS INSTRUCTIONS AND NOT REPORTED HIS CONVERSATIONS WITH FAR AND CAPUANO ACCURATELY TO ROWTON MAY BE CAUSE OF CURRENT TROUBLE. ROWTON SEVERAL TIMES CAUGHT HIM IN FABRICATIONS WITH HELP EXTENSIVE STATION MONITORING HIS ACTIVITIES. IT HAS ALSO BEEN DIFFICULT TO PREVENT HIM FROM BEING OVERACTIVE IN HIS DESIRE PRODUCE VALID FAR CONTACT. STATION HAS ALREADY TOLD LIREBEL-2 THAT IT HAS NO CONNECTION WITH JURADO. WILL WAIT FOR RESULTS FAR 23 AUG MEETING MEXICO CITY CITED ABOVE BEFORE EXPLORING POSSIBILITY CAREFULLY FEED INFO VIA LIREBEL-2 TO PROTECT JURADO. BELIEVE WARNING JURADO VIA LETTER SENT BY ROWTON OR OTHER MEANS WOULD BE COUNTERPRODUCTIVE AT THIS TIME.

three page typewritten letter dtd 27/7/67

1. LIRING/3 received/~~letter~~ from René Ochoa Funez ~~delivered 27/8/27x~~ ~~xxxxxx~~ mailed in Mexico City 2/8/67 by "N.C., Carrada Rio Janeiro 122, Mexico 7, DF" after having been hand-carried from Havana by the wife of a "compañero de trabajo" of Ochoa. Copy being pouched.

2. In letter Ochoa states he understands L/3's situation "since it is necessary to move ahead with one's own resources and to prove with deeds". He addes that he hoped to send ~~xxxxxx~~ "concrete and complete news" but he still laboring under difficulties known to L/3. He assures L/3 that he has delivered L/3's last letter to ~~xxxxxx~~ the "compañero" (Arnol Rodriguez) but could not talk with him privately because of the many visitors who had arrived that day. Arnol's wife Ruby told him that they had received L/3's letters and had answered them (L/3~~x~~ told Rowton that he has never received these replies from Arnol). Ruby Rodriguez also informed Ochoa that the "organismos corres calientes" were going to invite L/3 to Havana. Ochoa promised L/3 that he would do whatever he could to expedite this trip (hacer nuevas gestiones).

2. Ochoa complains of the "realidades que me han tocado vivir aquí" ~~xxx~~ but indicates that he has no intention "resign himself" to bureaucracy commenting that it is necessary "provocar la ruptura, aprediendo a rascarse con las propias uñas", taking the initiative and not expecting anything from anyone. He adds that he has finally cut the "ties which have bound" him to Cuba and although he feels that he can do a great deal there, but it is "infinitiely small in comparison with what he must do ~~xx~~ outside". He assures L/3 that he is serious and that it concerns a "planteamiento serio".

3. Ochoa also cautions L/3 against loosing sight of the ultimate objective in his commercial activity, indicating that he has discussed this aspect of L/3's plans with "a friend" who knows some of these questions better that L/3. He adds that L/3's "asuntos y actividades" interest him intnsely, and that their situation is similar.

Estimado Carlicho:

Hoy hace más de un mes que recibí tu carta,por las conversaciones telefónicas sostenidas habrás podido comprender que la demora en contestarte se debe,no precisamente a apatía de mi parte,sino falta de canales adecuados para tal fin.

Esta te la envío por la gentileza de un compañero de trabajo cuya esposa va hacia ésa,dicho sea de paso yo no la conozco a ella,por lo tanto es realmente una casualidad que te pueda enviar noticias;pero bien no quería demorar más y he aquí estas líneas.

Creo que entiendo perfectamente tu situación,pues es necesario abrirse paso con los propios medios,demostrar con hechos;esto puede que al principio te huela a consejo,pero realmente no lo es pues precisamente la idea la he tomado de ti y ahora la adopto como posición o actitud ante los hechos.Era mi deseo poderte enviar noticias concretas y amplias esta vez,pero justamente tengo las mismas dificultades que tu enumeras,a pesar de la cercanía física.Entregué tu carta al compañero no me fue posible hablar con él sobre el particular pues el día que fuí llegaron muchas visitas,antes de que él llegara hablé algo con la señora,concretamente me dijo que habían recibido tus noticias,que también te habían contestado;que te iban a invitar los organismos correspondientes pero que ellos aún no tenían noticias concretas;despues como te dije llegaron las visitas y no pude sacar ninguna conclusión;estimo que a estas alturas ya debes tener noticias; posteriormente no he podido ocuparme de ello principalmente por líos de mi parte, fundamentalmente por cuestiones de trabajo.

Ahora bien,te prometo hacer nuevas gestiones pues en estos días tengo un respiro,aunque las gentes por aquí en estos días están bastante ocupadas con la cantidad de actividades y de acontecimientos especialmente de este mes,pero ya veremos.

Creo que no es necesario que te aclare,que en general,tendrás que acostumbrarte a estos problemas,pues las cosas a veces le parecen a uno muy fáciles y desde luego no lo son mas que en apariencia,es necesario comprender a los otros,máximo en estas cosas,un poco pensar como ellos;alguna vez en nuestras discusiones me has señalado como yo justificaba las cosas siempre con la frase"hasta cierto punto tal o tales cosas son inevitables";creo que esta no es una frase sin sentido no es una cómoda salida, es para mi una conclusión de las realidades que me han tocado vivir aquí,hoy la sigo repitiendo y aún tiene más sentido.Lo anterior,por supuesto,no significa que hay que resignarse y esperar que los acontecimientos se desarrollen normalmente,todo lo contrario,hay que provocar la ruptura,cómo?,justamente "aprendiendo a rascarse con las propias uñas", demostrando con hechos y un poco "no esperar nada de nadie".

Dirás por fin cayó en el plano del consejo,te ratifico no se trata de eso,tu mismo lo has dicho eres lo suficientemente grande para comprender las responsabilidades que adquieres,por lo tanto huelgan los consejos,sobretodo los que se dan a control remoto. simplemente trato de imbuirte de una idea que ya tienes.Me parece que hay seriedad y responsabilidad en lo que haces era de esperar de ti,me complace que midas todo lo que implica por ambas partes, es un camino sumamente peligroso,sé que lo sabes mejor que yo,pero Carlos siempre tu eres demasiado bueno y de la bondad a la ingenuidad no hay más que un pasito,esto es algo de lo cual tu no eres consciente,en estas cosas es de vital importancia comprender a profundidad esto.Nadie trabaja o lucha,buscando aquello en lo cual no exista peligro,por lo menos entre nosotros,nadie le tiene miedo a los cuatro metros de tierra,pero el aliciente o la meta no es el peligro ni la muerte,realmente con eso no se hace nada,simplemenes dejar un nombre para una Fábrica,en el mejor de los casos;se trata de algo muy distinto.Me hablas de una cosa normal y lucrativo,esto es bueno a condición de que se comprenda que eso constituye el aspecto externo de la cuestión,es decir la forma,pero lo importante es lo interno el contenido lo esencial;no se conoce la casa por la fachada,ésta la mayoría de las veces nos engaña.A qué todo esto?;bueno,en primer lugar es la opinión de un amigo que algunas cuestiones las conoce un poco mejor que tu,además conociéndote tengo necesidad de referirme a esto y en segundo lugar porque necesito de ti,de tu situación,de tu comprensión,porque también yo he agotado mi capacidad de espera y realmente en estos momentos cuento conmigo mismo y contigo,no hace falta explicarte porque pues nuestra situación es similar,por lo tanto tus apuntes y actividades me interesan sobremanera por las cuestiones apuntadas anteriormente.

Ahora tus noticias son fundamentales para mi,sobre todo dame detalles,quiero hacer las cosas sabiendo y conociendo lo que voy a hacer,tengo prisa por hacer algo pero no por los posibles 4 metros de tierra,no lo excluyo,pero tampoco los busco especialmente.Por fin he resuelto lo que me ataba a este gran país,comprende que aún puedo hacer mucho aquí,pero es infinitamente pequeño comparado con lo que tengo que hacer fuera de aquí;sabes bien que no soy capaz de emborronar tantas cuartillas simplemente por llenarlas se trata de un planteamiento serio.

Espero que la Cichay(la C cuando se traduce del inglés al chino suena como CH o al revés)ya esté bien,esas son las consecuencias de ser su propio médico(librotero),pero de todas maneras nos alegramos mucho de que haya podido salir de las garras de todos los OLCGes.Carliche necesitaría que en la próxima oportunidad me consiguieras unos encerios (Zapatos)para la Cati,si se da cuenta de esta solicitud me asesina,pero yo cargo con el pedido,son el número 6½ a 7,.-

espero tus noticias,saludos a Ciha y(Chichay-).

UNTIL SGSWIRL CAN BE GIVEN LIRING-3 BY SPANISH SPEAKING OPERATOR AS REQUESTED BY STATION, FEEL IT WISE NOT PUSH LIRING-3 TO WITTING LNHARP RECRUITMENT. THEREFORE BELIEVE LIRING-3 SHOULD BE HANDLED BY SPANISH SPEAKER ABLE PASS NOTIONALLY AS EUROPEAN BUSINESS FRIEND OF ROWTON (I.E. WITHOUT GRINGO ACCENT). 1. Forwarded as Attachment One under separate cover are seven contact reports prepared by Wallace B. ROWTON on recent developments of the LIRING-3 Operation dated 27 and 28 July, 1, 3 (two reports), 5 and 9 August 1967 (two reports). One of the reports dated 3 August is a monthly resume of operational activities for the month of July. It is forwarded together with the other reports rather than separately to give as complete a picture as possible of LIRING-3's dealings with Moises OROZCO Leal, the circumstances in which the two men met and the reporting of these dealings by LIRING-3 to ROWTON. Forwarded as Attachment Two, also under separate cover, are photo copies of a two page typewritten message left by OROZCO at LIRING-3's apartment on 1 August. Another copy of this message is being forwarded Guatemala City seperately.

2. There is little question that LIRING-3 seized the opportunity given him by the sudden apperition of OROZCO on the scene to cover vis a vis his wife a few days of misbehaving. Instead of proceeding to Tapachula to receive from the FAR new contract instructions in Mexico City (an awkward arrangement to say the least), LIRING-3 remained at the safe house he uses in the capital to receive the visit (as indicated by LIFEAT) of Berta WIGISSER his "regular" mistress, Silvia DURAN (of Lee Harvey OSWALD fame) and possibly a certain Yolanda (who appears for the first time in this operation and whose phone number is not in the Station reversed Mexico City telephone directory). Pinned down on the fact that he was in Mexico City during the period of 19 to 21 July, LIRING-3 admitted that he was but felt that he had to tell another lie rather than admit his misbehavior. This lie was that he did not want to appear dependant on Sergio VALDEZ in the eyes of ROWTON and so made his first meeting with OROZCO "more intriguing" by inventing the trip to Tapachula. To add credence to the Tapachula story, LIRING-3 previously asked his wife to impress ROWTON with her concern for him, telling ROWTON that he had disappeared for three days without telling her where he went. This she did very convincingly with much sobbing and crying. The LIROSIN LP which continues to experience technical difficulties now and then did not operate properly that day (it's recorder broke down) but, as luck will have it LIROSIN live monitored a conversation between LIRING-3 and his wife during which the latter reported that her tears seemed to have convinced ROWTON. Another point on which ROWTON had some pretty blunt talk with LIRING-3 concerned the mention of the alias which ROWTON uses with LIRING-3 and 4 to various persons with whom LIRING-3 is in touch. LIFEAT coverage had indicated, for example, that LIRING-3 mentioned ROWTON in alias to Sergio VALDEZ. This LIRING-3 denied. He produced on 3 August 1967 a written review of all the people of interest to ROWTON with whom he has been in contact indicating whether or not he mentioned ROWTON's alias to them. This review is attached to one of ROWTON's reports dated 9 August.

3. What happened between OROZCO, LIRING-3, Sergio VALDEZ and Raul MORENO is explained in detail in ROWTON's reports forwarded with this dispatch. A few additional points should probably be made here. First of all, part of the first meeting between LIRING-3 and OROZCO at LIRING_3's safehouse was live-monitored by LIROSIN when the latter returned home from his regular bartending job in the early hours of the morning. LIROSIN heard enough (his recorder was once more inoperative) to basically confirm LIRING-3's report of his meeting with OROZCO to ROWTON. Secondly, neither VALDEZ nor MORENO were present during the night of 31 July - 1 August when LIRING-3 told OROZCO that the latter was in fact a deserter from the FAR, refusing to indicate how he knew this (ROWTON had passed LIRING-3 information on OROZCO received by the Station from both LIREBEL-1 and 2). The two men arrived at LIRING-3's apartment in the early morning hours when OROZCO had admitted everything and thus do not know what prompted him to tell the truth. Thirdly, LIRING-3 insists that he told OROZCO nothing about his plastic flower business and it's contemplated use to cover activities in support of the Guatemalan rebels. According to him, OROZCO already knew this as well as other details of his dealings with the FAR. LIRING-3 presumes that OROZCO learned this from the higher-ups of the FAR guerrillas while in the hills. OROZCO mistakenly apparently thought that LIRING-3 was in the actual arms procurement business whereas his discussions with the FAR have been limited up to now to the eventual transportation of FAR acquired supplies from Northern Mexico to Guatemala (with the FAR assuming the responsibility of smuggling these supplies over the Guatemalan border). LIRING-3's plastic flower business designed to cover support activities on behalf of the FAR, is not, as a matter of fact operative yet. Thus OROZCO was badly informed of LIRING-3's activities. How OROZCO hoped to obtain arms from LIRING-3, had the latter been able to deliver some at the Guatemalan border area, in view of the fact (as he later admitted) that he was stone broke, is a matter of conjecture. A desperate man may do desperate things and LIRING-3 could have found himself in serious trouble. Judging from the FAR's shooting habits it is a good thing in any case that OROZCO was not armed during the argument at LIRING-3's apartment the night of 31 July to 1 August, particularly when VALDEZ started to threaten him.

4. This Station believes that the LIRING-3 Operation has reached a critical point as a result of the OROZCO affair. Both the Cubans and the FAR (via Ernesto CAPUANO Del Vecchio) have been notified by LIRING-3 of OROZCO's conduct and statements (a copy of OROZCO's message forwarded as Attachment Two was given CAPUANO). If the FAR is at all interested in LIRING-3 he will somehow hear from the Guatemalan guerrillas and negociations concerning arms and equipment will be reopened. LIRING-3 has not heard from "GARCIA" since June and does not even know if the latter is in Mexico. It is the Station's opinion that he probably will hear nothing directly from the Cubans.

5. Headquarters will note, per ROWTON's report dated 28 July, the relative ease with which LIRING-3 claims to be obtaining a false passport and other identity papers. The Cuban's passports that LIRING-3 purchased in Nuevo Laredo, mentioned in the same report, were issued in 1953 and 1959 and may be of marginal value. They will nevertheless be forwarded to Headquarters together with other documentation held by the bearers of these passports.

1. LIRING/3 reported to Rowton at brief preliminary debriefing that during Rowton absence a Guatemalan (unidentified) telephoned him a safehouse and instructed him go to Tapachula on 19 July and await contact in lobby of local moviehouse. LIRING/3 stated that he took trip and was approached in lobby by same xxxxx young Guatemalan woman (with oriental features) whom he had met in Guatemala City during his last trip. This woman simply informed him that a comarade would contact him (L/3) at his home in next few days and disuuss future operations. LIRING/3 continued that he returned to Mexico 6ity next day and was contacted at his home by Guatemalan aged about 45, mustache, glasses, balding head,slightly hooked nose, wearing hat ixxxtxxxt who later stated his true name is Moises Crozco Leal and that he has been in Mexico past twenty years.

2. At meeting next day in safehouse Crozco informed L/3 that he ordered by Montes group to establish contact with L/3 in order expedite first shipment of arms and ammo which urgently needed. When L/3 mentioned possiblity airlift from San Cristóbal area through small privately chartered plane, Crozco intensely interested and acceded to L/3 request that he first meet with "responsible high-level" FAR representatives. Crozco stated that in his opinion L/3 should discuss whole operation with Montes himself and volunteered to arrange meeting in near future.

3. LIRING/3 states that he is awaiting further instructions from Crozco and is prepared for trip to Chiapas once final arrangements made.

4. Re Garcia L/3 reported that he has not reappeared and when he queried Orozco about him, Ixxx Orozco stated he personally not acquainted with him, since strict compartmentation being enforced. Also in course of conversation Orozco stated that only part of the medicines procured by L/3 had arrived at their dexxtination and it is presumed that remainder was captured by Guatemalan army. He added that FAR needed a docxtor urgently for about ten days and would appreciate L/3 a ranging this if feasible. L/3 suggested to Rowton that Raûl Moreno, who is in third year of medical studies, might qualify if Rowton could not come up with fully qualified docxtor.

5. Request traces Moises Crozco Leal.

Subject: Wallace B. Rowton Meeting with LIRING/3.

1. On the morning of 27 July,1967, the day after his return to Mexico City, Rowton contacted LIRING/3 at his home and arranged for a meeting at the safehouse at 1130 that same morning. L/3 commented that he was greatly relieved that Rowton had returned safely since many things had happened during his absence and L/3 had felt uncertain about what he should do in the event Rowton had been delayed any longer.

2. At the 1130 meeting at the safehouse, LIRING/3 reported that he and LIRING/4 had accompanied L/3's half brother in his car to Sabinas,Coah., on the afternoon of 10 July (the day that Rowton had departed). L/3 related that immediately on arrival he had his half-brother introduce him as planned to the judge in Nueva Rosita, a small village near Sabinas. L/3 reported to Rowton that the judge is named Francisco Mario Valdez Hernández and is actually a "Juez Menor" but also a notario publico and an "agente del Ministério Público", and,as such, has authority to issue important documents. According to L/3, judge Valdez, who gave the appearance of a homosexual, spoke openly about his ability and willingness to issue false documents and arrange for a passport for L/3 in the alias Alberto Zárate. He promised to take care of the matter for the sum of 2,000 pesos, but accepted a down payment of 1,500 pesos and gave L/3 a receipt for this amount "para el arreglo de un pasaporte mexicano", addressed to Alberto Zárate Vidal. In addition LIRING/3's half-brother persuaded the judge to ixx arranng for the issuance to Alberto Zárate of an identity card showing that.Zárate was an "actuario" of the Ministry of Labor, and for a driver's license,so that Zárate would have additional documents attesting to his identity.

3. LIRING/3 commented that he was certain that he could arrange for false papers for Rowton in the event the latter felt he could use such papers. L/3 continued that he and L/4 then proceeded to Nuevo Loredo and picked up the three Cuban passports that his half-brother had purchased on his behalf for the sum of 500 pesos. L/3 explained that although the persons to whom the passports were issued were dead they might conceivably be of use to Rowton in the future.He added that the hotel clerk who sold the documents to his half-brother had originally asked 1,500 pesos but apparently was glad to get the 500 when it was offered in cash on the table.

4. LIRING/3 continued that he and L/4 returned to Mexico City on 14 July taking the bus at ~~Torreón.~~ LIRING/3 then announced jubilantly that a few days after his return, while he was visiting the safehouse in the hope of Rowton's return or at least a telephone call, he received a telephone call from an anonymous man, obviously a Guatemalan, who asked whether he could make a trip to Tapachula in order to meet with a friend. When L/3 indicated that he could make the trip, the person instructed him to wait in the lobby of the Figueroa movie house until he was approached by the "friend". LIRING/3 told Rowton that he then proceeded by train to Tapachula (on 19 July) and waited in the lobby as instructed. To his great surprise, he was approached by the same Guatemalan young woman who had met him in GuatemalaCity in late January,1967, and told that a certain "Valentín" would contact him at his home in Mexico City in the near future and that this person was to be his new contact with FAR. LIRING/3 continued that since this appeared to be the sole purpose of the trip, he returned to Mexico City on 21 July in order to await the arrival of "Valentín". According to LIRING/3 this occurred in a rather strange way. When he returned home he found a note under the door with a brief text stating that someone had passed by to see him. The note was signed with a five-pointed star rather crudely drawn in the place of a signature. L/3 stated that he was completely puzzled at this, but on reflexion felt that the five-pointed star meant 1700 and he therefore went to the safehouse at 1700 that day to await further contact. According to L/3, a person did telephone him shortly after he arrived and identified himself as "Valentín" He asked L/3 to await another call at 1030 the following day so that a meeting could be arranged. L/3 continued that he finally succeeded in meeting with "Valentín and brought him to the safehouse on the evening of 25 July. He stated that he talked with this person until 0400 the following morning.

5. LIRING/3 reported that "Valentín", who identified himself by true name as Moisés Orozco Leal, Calle Tenis 88, Apt 5, Zona 21, Country Club, Col. Churubusco, Mexico City,D.F. Orozco stated to L/3 that he had been in Mexico some twenty years and had been engaged in propaganda work for the FAR. He added that recently he had received instructions to contact L/3 and talk with him "very frankly" concerning the procurement problem. He explained to L/3 that Far had had very disappointing experiences in the past and was in desperate need of secure and efficient channels for the procurement of arms and ammunition from the U.S. and Mexico. He stated that FAR had the cash necessary to purchase the arms and hoped that LIRING/3's commercial netweork could handle the procurement and transport. He indicated to L/3 that FAR had checked him out with favorable results both locally and with the Cubans. In the course of conversation "Valentín" mentioned that Doctora Mercedes Pereira, whom L/3 had met in Havana, was currently in Mexico. "Valentín" stated that it was a very critical time for FAR and that everyone hoped that something would be resolved in Havana with regard to concrete aid from the Cubans. He indicated that in the past both the Cubans and the Soviets had done more talking than producing in both material and hard cash. In speaking of the most immediate needs, "Valentín" stated that FAR needed a doctor urgently to train the revolutionaries in first aid, and he asked L/3 whether he could recommend a doctor that might be willing to visit FAR headquarters for about ten days for this purpose. L/3 told Rowton that he promised to look into the matter soonest, adding that he had in mind his friend Raúl Moreno Monchee, who was a medical student and probably qualified to give first aid instruction.

5. LIRING/3 continued that he expressed his willingness to help FAR in the arms procurement effort, but would prefer to be able to talk directly with FAR leaders to get first-hand information as to their needs, and arrange secure methods of payment. When L/3 referred to the delinquent account (medicine and radio tubes) "Valentín" relpied that unfortunately only part of the medicine had arrived intact, the other part presumedly having been captured by the Guatemalan army. He promised that L/3 would be paid ~~mfx~~ for the material furnished and apologized for not having the money with him he added that he receives not financial assistence from FAR and has to live as best he can from his own resources. In reply to L/3's query, "Valentín" stated that he did not personally know "Gardia", since Far insisted on compartmentation, and there had been no need for him to meet "Garcia" in the past. He then lectured L/3 on security, stating that FAR prinicipal problem to date had been within the organization itself resulting from laxness on the part of revolutionarimis and outright betrayal by some members. He added that LIRING/3 had been assigned the battle-name "Rafael" and that henceforth he should use that name whenever dealing with FAR members.

6. LIRING/3 told Rowton that, in the course of conversation regarding possible supply channels, he mentioned the possibility of air-drops from small privately chartered planes, using ~~thx~~ Raúl Moreno as a pilot. According to L/3, "Valentín" showed immediate interest in this, commenting that he was certain FAR would be most interested. He then stated that he felt L/3 was an important enough asset to meet directly with César Montes himself and he promised to look into the possibility of arranging a personal interview. L/3 replied that he would welcome this opportunity since it would clarify the entire picture for him and enable him to render the most efficient service to FAR. "Valentín" promised to have some specific word on this at their next meeting which he requested for Friday 28 July, promising to come to L/3's home between 1500 and 1700. "Valentín" explained that although the safehouse appeared to be an excellent meeting place, it was FAR policy not to use the same apartment or place of meeting more than once.

7. Rowton met with LIRING/3 again at 1430 on 29 July,1967, at the safehouse The second meeting had been scheduled for 1900 on 28 July, but on arrival at hte safehouse, Rowton found a note from L/3 stating that he would not be able to make the 1900 meeting but would see Rowton at 1430 the following day. The only explanation in the note for the delay was "cosas muy importantes han sucedido". When Rowton met with LIRING/3 the next day at 1430, the latter explained that "Valentín" had left a note at his home saying the meeting would be delayed, and then appeared unannounced when L/3 was not at home and talked briefly with LIRING/4. L/3 stated that he alarmed LIRING/4 by stating that he ("Valentín") had a wounded man that must be taken care of urgently and asked L/4 to pass on the message to L/3 in the hope that L/3 could look into the possbility of locating a good trusted doctor. "Valentín" promised to come back to the house as soon as he could. According to L/3, "Valentín" reappeared unannounced at about 1000 on 29 July, and showed L/3 a telegram which he had just received from Guatemala City. The telegram contained the text " If you are interested in further details concerning the business, present yourself here", and was addressed to "Valentín" in his true name and address. L/3 stated that he could not recall the sender's name or address but he assumed that it would be an alias in any case.

8. According to L/3, "Valentín" explained to him that the telegram meant that a meeting with César Montes could be arranged and that L/3 should accordingly prepare himself for the trip. In reply to L/3's query, "Valentín" stated that this took priority over the operation involving the wounded comrade, who was expected in Mexico City in about 7-8 days. "Valentín" then stated that he and L/3 would have to make a trip to Tapachula as soon as feasible in order to receive from a FAR contact a sealed envelope containing the name of the first contact in Guatemala City. He added that he himself would not know what was in the envelope and would himself proceed on into Guatemala with the FAR contact who delivered the letter. He added that L/3 would then have to return to Mexico City and fly into Guatemala City under commercial cover, since it would be too dangerous to proceed on to Guatemala City from Tapachula by air (the airport being small and all travelers being subject to the curiosity and scrutiny of the local officials). Valtentín then stated that L/3 should be able to pass through the Bustemala City airport without difficulty provided he kept his eye out for a certain José Linares, an ex-Chief of Police who worked for the North-American Embassy and had a complete file on all suspect persons who might enter or leave the airport. "Valentín" described Linares as a man of short stature, thin, grey hair combed in a high peak in front, usually dressed in a double-breasted jacket. "Valentín" added that Linares was considered the most dangerous man at the airport, although he is not an official but simply a secret agent of the North Americans.

9. "Valentín" then, according to L/3, stated that the latter should procure the following items at once so that he could bring them to Tapachula with him:

1) Khaki shirt and trousers(pantalón y camisa de lona muy gruesos)
2) Leather combat boots (zapatos de campaña)
3) Browning or Walter 9mm automatic weapon with 3 clips and 50 rounds of ammunition.
4) Detonators with wick or electric fuse
5) Gauze for medical treatment
6) Three pills of most potent poison avialable.

"Valentín" explained that the Dorwning automatic was the best since it could be converted easily into a "machinegun" with its clip of 13 cartridges. The Walter was also good since it could be fitted with a silencer. "Valentín" also explained that the poison capsules were desirable to be taken in the event of capture by the army to avoid the possibility of anyone confessing under torture. He added that one was for the use of L/3 and the other two for the comrades who would be his escorts.

10. "Valentín" further explained that L/3 should open the sealed envelope he had received in Tapachula when he was aboard the plane enroute to Guatemala City, memorize the name and address and then destroy the paper. He added quickly that he realized L/3 could open the envelope any time after he received it in Tapachula, and he was free to do so, but it was hoped for security reasons that he would open it only after he had left Mexico City airport. "Valentín" added that he himself had no idea of what name would appear on the paper, but in any case he was sure that it would be the name of a person not directly involved in revolutionary activities.

LIRING/3 was to pay a friendly visit to this person, making no reference to politics, but simply using a prearranged code word in the conversation. This recognition signal would lead to the first meeting with the comrades (probably two) who would escort LIRING/3 to César Montes.

11. LIRING/3 stated that he had another meeting with "Valentín" at 2200 that same evening (29 July) at the Café Literario where he hopes to obtain more detail regarding the timing of the trips. L/3 said that he preferred to make the first trip (to Tapachula) on 1 August since LIRING/4 was greatly upset over the recent developments and had to be calmed down. He added that L/4 was very pessimistic over L/3's chances of returning from such a trip alive and he would have to reassure her that he intended to take all possible precautions.

12. Inasmuch as Rowton's careful review of LIENVOY traffic for the period ~~17x~~ 14-24 July failed to reveal any telephone call from anyone asking L/3 to make the trip to Tapachula, and in fact revealed traffic indicating that LIRING/3 was in Mexico City during the period 19-21 July, when he claimed to be in Tapachula, Rowton stated that he did not believe L/3's story regarding his initial contact with "Valentín" and his trip to Tapachula. Since Rowton's telephone answering service reported repeated messages from "señor Juarez" and L/3 himself in true name, he felt he could use this rather than intimate in any way that L/3's (safehouse) phone was tapped. LIRING/3 became thoroughly upset, as he had done on the previous occasion when Rowton had impugned his veracity, and assured Rowton with tears in his eyes that he had always been "fundamentally" honest, although he might have exaggerated in the matter of details and exact dates. L/3 was so emotionally disturbed that he felt it unwise to press the matter further at that time and proposed to L/3 that he (Rowton) meet with LIRING/4 that evening at 2200, when he would be meeting with "Valentín" again. Rowton turned down L/3's invitation to be present at the Café Literario so that he could get a look at "Valentín" himself, since Rowton hoped that the meeting would be covered in any case by the Station team (which had L/3 under surveillance since the previous afternoon).

DON'T UNDERSTAND THIS. IF L-3 CALLING THE ANSWERING SERVICE, HOW CAN HE TELL ROWTON HE IN TAPACHULA AT SAME TIME? SEEMS IRRATIONALITY.

13. LIRING/4 came to the safehouse at 2200 and Rowton was able to talk privately with her for about two hours. She arrived in a highly emotional state, alleging that she was not aware of what was happening and was sure that L/3 was heading for disaster. She exclaimed that "making capital was one thing, but risking one's life was another", and that although she agreed with the principle of the revolution, she could not accept the terrible consequences of revolutionary activities that had suddenly become a reality for her. She complained that L/3 kept her in the dark about many things and that she could not understand his willingness to risk his life and the happiness of his family "so precipitously". When Rowton questioned her discreetly as to L/3's trip to Tapachula, she stated in uncontrollable sobs (they appeared to Rowton quite genuine) that he suddenyl left the preceding week, saying he was going to Chiapas and disappeared for 3-4 days. She said she was so upset she could not remember anything but the feeling of abandonment. She then complained that although Rowton was the only person she could turn to in a crisis like the one she went through last week, she could not locate him anywhere. She called his telephone (answering service) repeatedly and then in desperation called LIRING/7 in the hope that he would know something (L/7 replied that he di not know "Which Harris" she was referring to). LIRING/4 then stated that she realized suddenyl that if L/3 were to disappear she would be subject to deportation to Cuba, a fate which she apparently genuinely dreaded. Rowton assured her that he would do everything possible to see that she was taken care of in this eventuality, but she protested that L/3 was the only person she could hope to find happiness with and Rowton could not bring him back if anything happened to him.

14. Rowton then stated that before L/3 could take such a trip with serious risks involved, he would have to study the situation thoroughly. He explained that at the moment he had serious doubts regarding the contacts that have brought L/3 to this point. L/4 replied that she herself had seen the latest contact ("Valentín") only once when he came to the house and gave her the message regarding the wounded person. When Rowton queried her again concerning the trip to Tapachula, she stated that L/3 had told her upon his return that he had asked someone else to make daily calls to Rowton's answering service, and upbraided her for calling. (This would explain what appeared to be L/3's daily calls during the period 19-21 July, but it would not explain L/3's conversations with Berta Wigisser and Sergio Valdez on 20/7/67 and his remark to Berta Wigisser on 21/7/67 that he "did not go out of town after all".)

15. Rowton felt that, although his meeting with L/4 was not particularly productive, it served its purpose in advising L/3 indirectly that he did not accept L/3's story of the trip to Tapachula and his initial contact with "Valentín".

Wallace B Rowton

1 August,1967

1. At meeting with Rowton 1700 31 July LIRING/3 reported that Moisés Crozco Leal, who claimed be L/3's new FAR liaison for procurement of arms, currently staying in his apartment on Calzada Tacubaya. L/3 explained to Rowton that at 2200 29 July meeting with Crozco, latter stated that he had ~~instructions~~ "ordenes" from FAR headquarters to escort L/3 to Tapachula for contact instructions and instructed L/3 procure immediately Browning or Walter 9mm automatic with ~~52~~ three clips and at least 50 cartridges plus detonators with normal or elctric fuse and three poison tablets of highest possible potency which ~~he~~ (L/3) would needs on trip from Guatemala City to Montes headquarters. Crozco, however, insisted that L/3 bring these items with him to Tapachula and added that he would himself see to it that they were safely delivered to Guatemala City for eventual pick-up by L/3.

2. At end of meeting Crozco asked L/3 to put him up for the night at his home "since it was very late and in any case he wanted to discuss their travel plans further". L/3 did so without the least suspicion Crozco's true motives, and appeared to Rowton to have accepted Crozco's bona fides although he admitted that he had never heard of Crozco before latter's unexpected approach to him 25 July. L/3 stressed to Rowton that Crozco revealed an astounding knowledge Guatemalan revolution, Cuba, as well as L/3's past activities and dates his trips to Guatemala.

3. Rowton stated to L/3 that his preliminary checks revealed that Crozco in all probability a deserter from FAR who actually using L/3's apartment as a hideout. Rowton confessed he could not understand why Crozco would want to return to Guatemala with~~xxx~~ or without LIRING/3, but urged L/3 to attempt to get the truth from Crozco posing as sympathetic but indicating that he was aware of Crozco's true status in the hope that Crozco could be moved to a safehouse and made available for thorough interrogation. L/3 agreed and arrangements made for Rowton/L/3 meeting at ~~xxxxxx~~ midnight 1 August.

4. When L/3 appeared at 0030 he reported enthusiastically that he had succeeded in breaking Crozco down but that he had had to call on his friends Sergio Valdez and Raúl Moreno "for help". Crozco stated that he had been sent to mountains to organize guerrilla bands but found everyone "stupid" and his task impossible. He added that David Casasola who was with him was undisciplined and made mistakes that led to capture of many of his men and probably to his own capture. Crozco continued insisting that he was the only intelligent revolutionary, referring to "the FAR Party" and at one point calling Montes a "cabrón". When he asked L/3 who had given him the information that he was a deserter and L/3 refused to divulge his source, Crozco, according to L/3, exclaimed: "It was Roberto; I know." Crozco then stated that he intended to form his own revolutionary movement which he named "First of May" and had approached L/3 for xxx support since he at the moment had no financial or material means. L/3 told Rowton that it was then that he realized that Crozco intended to use the supplies listed para one above for his own use and that once he turned them over to Crozco he would never see them or Crozco again.

5. In reply to L/3's query as to how Crozco had gotten to him, Sergio Valdez (who joined L/3 at the end of the session) explained in the presence of Crozco that Alberto Domingo had referred him to him and that he knew nothing of Crozco's background. At this point Valdez threatened Crozco with physical violence xxx exclaiming to L/3 that they must dispose of him at once so that he could not reveal vital secrets of the revolution. L/3 claimed to Rowton that he managed to calm Valdez down and get him out of the apartment. L/3 stated that he left both Valdez and Moreno "on guard" outside the apartment house in the event Crozco tried to escape before he could confer with Rowton.

Sergio the KARATE type

6. In view of this highly explosive development Rowton instructed L/3 to return to the apartment and attempt to persude Crozco to accompany him to a hotel where Rowton could arrange some sort of protective surveillance until Crozco thoroughly interrogated. L/3 insisted that Crozco be kept incommunicado in view of the information he possesses about L/3, Valdez and Moreno. Rowton promised to do the best he could but insisted that Crozco be removed from ~~the~~ L/3's apartment as soon as possible, L/3 promised to make every effort and asked Rowton meet with him again at 0300 to discuss results his effort.

7. At 0400 Rowton met L/3 at the safehouse (where AIRING/4 had moved with their child) and L/3 reported that Crozco could not be persuaded to leave the apartment. Although he feigned calmness, L/3 realized that he was terrorized of what might await him the moment he stepped out of the apartment house. Crozco promised to talk to L/3 again at 1000 that same morning when he had more time to think things over. L/3 stated that he left Valdez and Moreno on guard outside the apartment house (in Moreno's car) on the possible chance that Crozco would make a run for it. L/3 stated that "under no circumstances" would Crozco be allowed to escape.

8. Rowton, not excluding the possiblity of Crozco's commiting suicide in L/3's apartment or attracting attention of the neighbors, recommended that L/3, Moreno and Valdez enter the apartment soonest and remain inside with Crozco until Rowton could work out some plan to remove him from the apartment early ~~xkexfz~~ that same morning. L/3 promised to try but was not at all sure that he could convince Crozco to open the door (which he had bolted from the inside). In any case he assured Rowton that he and his two friends would remain on guard outside so that they could surveil or seize Crozco the moment he left the premises. L/3 stated that he was quite certain that Crozco was unarmed and without funds and could easily be controlled by ~~thexthreexofx~~ Moreno and Valdez, thus permitting him (L/3) to communicate with Rowton.

9. Alternatives in this sensitive situation appear to be following:

(a) Rowton instruct L/3 deliver Crozco to specified place where he can be turned over to "pistoleros" hired by Rowton for purpose of getting Crozco off hands of L/3 and his friends and detaining him long enough for interrogation. L/3 assured Rowton that he able make delivery and agrees desirability thorough interrogation by Rowton or person designated by him. Delivery could possibly be arranged without presence Valdez and Moreno.

(b) LIRING/3 reveal entire affair to LIRING and/or ~~xx~~ FAR (probably via Ernesto Capoano de Vecchio) and let decision rest with them, interrogating Crozco as best he could in the meantime in his apartment.

(c) Let Crozco escape, after giving him enough money to make his way out of town or to another hideout.

10. Alernative (a) would/permit lengthy interrogation but would involve enventual disposal of Crozco that would be acceptable Moreno and Valdez (L/3 would accept Rowton final decision). L/3 could allege subsequently that Crozco disposed of by Rowton pistoleros and report this to LIRING and FAR. Alternative (b) would mean loss to WOFACT of valuable debriefing if this deemed desirable. Alternative (c) according to LIRING/3 probably not feasible since Valdez and Moreno fanatic enough to kill Crozco themselves rather than see him escape.

|| 11. L/3 insists that he has not revealed Rowton's coaching in this affair to either Valdez or Moreno.

Subject: LIRING/3 Report on Developments in Moisés Orozco Case.

1. During the early morning hours of 1 August,1967, Rowton remained in constant contact with L/3, either through brief meetings with him or through LIRING/4 who acted as a cut-out at the phone of the safehouse. When Rowton telephoned L/4 at the safehouse at about 0730 on 1 August, she stated that L/3 had called a few minutes before and passed the message that "things were a ltiile better, but he needed help". Rowton knew that L/3 and Sergio Valdez together with Raúl Moreno were surveilling the Tacubaya apartment house in order to pick up Crozco if and when he tried to leave the premises. L/3 had told Rowton at an earlier meeting (0400) that morning that when Crozco refused to accompany him peacefully to a hotel, he gave Crozco two alternatives. First he stated (bluffing) that he had a direct channel to FAR and would query FAR about Crozco and bring with him a FAR representative at 1000 that morning and if Orozco had a clear conscience he would have nothing to worry about; secondly, if Crozco did not desire this he could take 3000 pesos which L/3 put in an envelope and leave the apartment for some other place of refuge. L/3 explained to Rowton that he hoped Crozco would take the second alternative so that he and Valdez and Moreno could follow him or seize him as he left the apartment. L/3 asked Rowton to assist in this operation by providing a few pistoleros. Rowton, feeling that he might be able to arrange to take Crozco off L/3's hands once he was out of the apartment (provided the Station could provide a safehouse and several unilateral agents to guard Crozco and eventually interrogate him) promised to hire several pistoleros who would be unwitting of the true situation to help L/3 and his friends. L/3 also asked for a weapon which he said might be necessary if Crozco gave him any trouble. Rowton, of course, refused to comply, saying that since Crozco was unarmed it was unnecessary at that time.

2. When Rowton talked again to L/3 on the phone (from the safehouse) the latter reported that things were still quite difficult. He explained that Crozco was still in the apartment and refused to answer the doorbell,obviously terrorized that L/3 had already notified the FAR of his whereabouts L/3 reported in addition that Raúl Moreno had taken off in his car,apparently too tired to continue the surveillance; he and Sergio Valdez were consequently left alone without a car to surveil Crozco in the event he left the apartment. L/3 again appealed to Rowton for help. Rowton stalled since he was unable to confirm whether the Station had any unilateral assets to assist or in fact was interested in taking over Crozco from L/3 until after 0900 that morning. When Rowton talked to L/3 again on the phone at about 0915, L/3 reported that Crozco had left the apartment at 0830 and proceeded directly via pesero to his mother's house (Tenis 188/5) in Colinia Country Club and that L/3 and ergio Valdez had succeeded in surveilling him there and were at that moment watching the house from nearby. About 20 minutes later L/3 reported that Crozco had left the house and was at that moment in a nearby barbershop. L/3 added that he and Valdez could not carry on the surveillance much longer since they were becoming conspicuous (as later reported, a police car (unmarked) was spotted by Valdez in the vicinity and might have approached them if the house was actually under surveillance by the Mexican police).

3. Rowton therefore reported to the Station that he had instructed L/3 to remain on surveillance for about 10 minutes more and that unless Station assets could take over the surveillance would have to be abandoned. Rowton was informed that a decision had been made to request the Mexican police to arrest Crozco at the home of his mother and that therefore L/3 could be taken off the case. Rowton met with L/3 again at the safehouse at about 1030 and the latter reported that he and Sergio Valdez had been forced to abandon the surveillance effort. Rowton alleged that in the meantime he had rounded up three "pistoleros" and sent them to the house but shortly thereafter had received from them a "danger signal", indicating that the house was being watched by the Mexican police and that they could not become involved. As a result they had left the area and could not be of any further use.(Rowton felt constrained to invent this story since he was aware that Crozco's arrest was imminent and in order to throw the blame off himself when the report reached L/3 and Valdez).

4. Rowton met with L/3 that afternoon at 1700 at a small coffeeshop on Reforma and denied to L/3 that he had any knowledge of what had happened to Crozco in the meantime. L/3 reported that he ant Valdez were attempting to make plans as to the best course of action. Rowton advised L/3 to contact Jacobo Rodriquez Padilla and through him to attempt to contact a FAR representative in Mexico City (possibly through the lawyer Ernesto Capoano). L/3 agreed that this was essential since he and Valdez had come to the conclusion that Crozco must somehow be "eliminated" before he fell into the hands of the Mexican police since he knew too much, especially about L/3's commercial cover plans and activities and his past connections with FAR. L/3 promised to meet with Jacobo the following morning and press him for contact with the FAR. In the meantime Rowton continued to feign ignorance of the arrest of Crozco (which took place about 1000 on 1 August,1967).

5. Rowton met again with L/3 at his Tacubaya apartment at 1800 on 2 August. L/3 reported that he had talked with Jacobo Rodriguez Padilla at 1200 that xxxx day in the Café Literario but with disappointing results. Jacobo as usual appeared very fearful of involving himself in any way politically, and when L/3 informed him that he had to see someone from FAR urgently and it occurred to him that the lawyer Ernesto Capoano might be able to arrange the contact, Jacobo replied that he could not vouch for Capoano at all as far as political matters were concerned. He stated that Capoano was generally helpful for Guatemalans seeking papers and legalizing their status (for which he gave his services gratis) but he was not sure that Capoano would stick out his neck for L/3. According to L/3 he then dropped the matter, without diclosing to Jacobo that he was interested in Crozco, feeling that it would be too risky to bring Capoano into the picture (although Jacobo had offerred to arrange a meeting with him for L/3).

6. L/3 continued that he felt his only other alternative was to talk the matter over xk with Cepeda in/his LIRING office. He therefore went directly there after having talked with Jacobo, and, not finding Cepeda in, went to the office of Curbelo. He managed to see Curbelo privately and related to him the entire affair. He explained that originally he had had a very discreetx contact with FAR but that unexpectedly this contact had disappeared ("Garcia"). Recently however, equally unexpectedly, a new contact in the person of Moisés Crozco Leal had appeared claiming that he was a bona fide FAR representative and had been referred to L/3 by Alberto Domingo of Siempre. L/3 purposely stressed this, commenting that he assumed that Alberto was in touch with LIRING and therefore a person to be trusted. L/3 then informed Curbelo that he found several loop-holes in Crozco's story and decided to check on him. He contacted a friend in Guatemala and discovered to his amazement that Crozco had deserted from FAR and was actually in hiding in Mexico. L/3 revealed to Curbelo that Crozco had locked himself in L/3's apartment the preceding night after he had confessed to L/3 his true status. L/3 conluded that as far as he knew Crozco was currently in hiding at his mother's home. L/3 then stated that he needed desperately to communicate these facts to FAR so that appropriate action could be taken to eliminate Crozco before he fell into the hands of the Mexican police and revealed very sensitive information about FAR as well as about his own(L/3's) involvement. L/3 commented to Rowton that Curbelo appeared thoroughly shaken by this and his hand trembled as he made notes. He replied to L/3 that he would communicate this development immediately to FAR Cuba inthe hope that he would receive some guidance to pass along to L/3.

7. L/3 then reported that he and Sergio Valdez (apparently both were disgusted with Raúl Moreno for having left them holding the bag and did not recontact him again) had decided that it was essential to discover whether Crozco had been arrested so that they could plan some sort of action to "eliminate" him before he could be deported to Guatemala. L/3 reported that Valdez had sent his girl-friend Alejandrina URBINA TORRES of the glass factory (Plaza Miravalle) to the home of Crozco's mother in an attempt to determine whether Crozco was still there or arrested in the meantime. L/3 later (at 2200) that evening reported that no one had answered the door at the apartment and hence the woman friend of Valdez had been unable to learn anything about the fate of Crozco. L/3 added that he and Valdez had struck upon another plan which they hoped would flush out the true facts. In the meantime he asked Rowton to attempt to determine whether Crozco had been arrested. When Rowton telephoned L/3 the following morning at 0900 as he had promised he again denied any knowledge and suggested that L/3 go ahead with the plan and report to Rowton that evening at 1800. (Rowton did not wish to have prior knowledge of the plan since he felt it better for L/3 and Valdez to proceed on their own in a spontaneous manner so that L/3 would have a well backstopped story to give Curbelo when he met with him again.)

Subject: Monthly Report of Developments in the LIRING/3 Operation.

1. During the month of July,1967, the most important development in the LIRING/3 operation was the approach made to LIRING/3 by Miosés Crozco Leal, who purportedly conveyed instructions to L/3 from the FAR of Guatemala for a personal meeting with César Montes in the mountains of Guatemala. This new contact was reported to Rowton by LIRING/3 at the first meeting following Rowton's return from TDY in Goergetown,Guyana (26 July,1967). When Station traces revealed that Moisés Crozco had actually deserted the FAR forces some time after May,1967, and that FAR was actively looking for him most probably to eliminate him and thus prevent his revealing sentsitive information to the Mexicans and/or Guatemalans regarding FAR plans and activities, Rowton warned LIRING/3 against taking Crozco's statements and claims seriously and suggested that he question him carefully concerning his past connections with FAR. L/3 did so at his 31 July,1967, meeting with Crozco,who was then living in L/3's apartment (on Calzada Tacubaya), and informed Rowton later that evening that he had "broken" Crozco, and that the latter had admitted that he had deserted the FAR forces and claimed to be in the process of forming his own guerrilla movement to be called "Primer del Mayo".

2. In consultation with Rowton through the early morning hours of 1 August, LIRING/3 with the help of his friends Sergio Valdez and Raúl Moreno, attempted to persuade Crozco to leave L/3's apartment and remain in hiding in a nearby hotel (Which Norris K. Umphlett had rented in an alias "Antonio Sanchez" at Rowton's request). Crozco, however, refused to leave L/3's apartment with them by sneaked out at 0830 when he apparently thought that L/3 was not in the vicinity. L/3 and Sergio Valdez, however, were watching the apartment house and manged to surveil Crozco to the home of his mother in Colonia Country Club. L/3, however, on Rowton's instructions, aboandoned the surveillance of the house at about 0930 that morning. L/3 subsequently reported the affair to Curbelo of the LIRING office in the hope of getting word to FAR of the whereabouts of Crozco and of the ruse he attempted to play on L/3. The latter said that he str-ssed to Curbelo that it was Alberto Domingo of Siempre who had originally sent Crozco to LIRING/3 (through Sergio Valdez).

3. LIRING/3 continued to monitor the activities of his friend Sergio Valdez who during the month set up a company (Colrluz) in the workshop of his Mexican firend, señorita Alejandra Urbina Torres, at Plaza Miravalle in Mexico

— NO RI NO MEXI DAR [illegible]

City. In view of the response of the Venezuela Station (discouraging Rowton from directing L/3 into Venezuelan guerrilla activites with Sergio Valdez and Raúl Moreno) Rowton instructed L/3 to refrain from involvement with them in this aspect of the operation. He agreed, however, with L/3 that the new company gave him much-needed additional financial cover, especially in the eyes of the PBRUMENS in the likely event that they would question him more closely during a future trip into their area.

NO FI NO MORE OSA -

4. During the month, on a trip to Sabinas, Coah., L/3 succeeded through his half-brother in meeting Judge Francisco Mario Valdez of Nueva Rosita who promised to arrange for the issuance to L/3 in the alias Alberto Zárate Vidal of a (false) passport. LIRING/3 feels that the possession of such a false document will enhance his potential in the eyes of the PBRUMENS as well as FAR.

5. During his trip to northern Mexico LIRING/3 also managed to "purchase" the passports of three (deceased) Cubans who had left the documents together with other papers at the hotel in Nuevo Laredo where they had stayed prior to their supposedly clandestine entry into the U.S. L/3 procured these documents with Rowton's prior approval on the asumption that they might prove useful to Rowton at some future date.

6. In connection with the Moisés Orozco affair, Rowton uncovered an important instance of deception on the part of both LIRING/3 and LIRING/4. A review of LIFEAT interecepts revealed that L/3 was in the safehouse during the period 19-21 July, when he had claimed to Rowton that he was on a trip to Tapachula to receive contact instructions for his first meeting with Orozco. LIRING/3 apparently asked L/4 to backstop his story when Rowton queried her separately, since she did so (although claiming ignorance of the purpose of the trip). L/3 subsequently admitted to Rowton that he had not made the trip to Tapachula but had actually met Orozco through Sergio Valdez (who had been referred to him by Alberto Domingo of Siempre) and that he had not wanted to reveal this to Rowton until he"could figure out how Valdez fitted into the picture". Since Rowton and the Station felt that this was another opportunity to SCHWIRL LIRING/3, a request was repeated to Headquarters for a Spanish-speaking operator. The request could not be complied with at the time and Rowton has had to continue checking LIRING/3's reports as carefully as he can without benefit of the technical interrogation.

Subject: Analysis of LIFEAT Traffic Relating to LIRING/3 Operation. for the Period 29 June to 1 August,1967.

1. During this period the most significant operational support provided by LIFEAT intercepts occurred during the period 17 July to I August, the period of LIRING/3's contact with Moisés Orozco Leal. On 27 July,the first meeting Rowton had with L/3 after Rowton's return from TDY to Guyana, L/3 reported that he had been contacted in a mysterious manner by a FAR representative who identified himself by true name as Orozco. He related that he had received a telephone call requesting him to travel to Tapachula, andthat he had made the trip 19-21 July, and received contact instructions to meet with a certain "Valentín" in Mexico City. LIFEAT intercepts revealed, however, that L/3 was physically in Mexico City during the period 19-21 July. SAN 33(8.2) reveals that L/3 telephoned sra. Berta Wigisser and made a date for 1930 on 21/7/67 at the safehouse apartment. He commented that he did not go out of town after all. Furthermore Rowton's telephone answering service reported to him regular calls from L/3 asking for Rowton daily during the period he was allegedly out of town. This gave Rowton sufficient evidence to challenge L/3's story at his meeting on 29 July. In order to prtect the security of LIFEAT Rowton used the evidence of his telephone asnwering service and his own intuition and logic to discount L/3's story of his original contact with Orozco. LIRING/3 finally confessed that he had made up the story because of the involvement of his friend Sergio Valdez (who it now appears met Orozco through Alberto Domingo and introduced him to L/3). LIRING/3 felt that reporting the true facts to Rowton would not have been as intriguing in Rowton's eyes and would have made him appear dependent on Valdez for this productive aspect of the operation. On the morning of 31 July, LIRING/3 justified his action by stating that he continued to feel under extreme psychological pressure to "produce" for Rowton since he felt deeply obliged to him for the confidence and financial support he had been giving him. He now states that he realizes that he can repay Rowton only by reporting accurately and fully all deveopments in his dealings with FAR and other revolutionary groups.

IS L-3 A SIMPLETON?

2. All other LIFEAT intercepts relating to the Orozco affair check out with reports given to Rowton by LIRING/3, including the latter's effort to contact Capoano through Jacoto Rodriguez Padilla (SAN-37(22). In SAN-33(10.2) it is apparent that L/3 has discussed "señor Harris" or at least some contact he has with Sergio Valdez, since he states that "he" has not yet returned. L/3 has admitted to Rowton that he has revealed to Sergio Valdez and Enrique Morales that he has a businessman who finances him in certain commercial ventures, but swears that he has never revealed Rowton's alias to anyone (this can most effectivley by checked in an SGSWIRL examination).

3. LIFEAT intercepts confirm the reports from LIRING/4 that she has made every effort to maintain social contact with Irti Cepero and Yolanda Díaz as well as Cubrbelo in the hope of keeping the door open to future re-employment in LIRING. LIRING/4's reports to Rowton appear reliable with the exception of the one relating to the alleged trip to Tapachula, when L/4 backstopped L/3's deception (although vaguely since she insisted that she did not know where he was during the period 19-21). This, of course, indicates that L/4 is basically loyal to L/3 and cannot be trusted to provide independent information conerning his movements and activities in the future.

4. SAM-32 (3.7) xnd confirms L/3's conversation with René Ochoa, his Honduran friend inxx Havana on 17/7/67. LIRING/3 subsequently received the latter from Ochoa mentioned in the intercept and passed the original to Rowton (5/8/67). LIFEAT intercepts of conversations between L/3 and his half-brother in Sabinas also confirm L/3's reports to Rowton concerning the false passport and birth-certificate for himself in the alias Alberto Zárate.

5. Additional control information was provided in SAM-29(4.7) concerning L/3's affair (amorous) with Silvia Durán, as well as with a new woman, Yolanda, with whom he attempted to make a date (SAM-35(9). This woman, whose husband's first name is Rolando, has telephone 43-25-59, and has not previously appeared in the L/3 operation. Rowton has not confronted L/3 with any data provided by LIFEAT of this nature in the hope of using it in an eventual SGSWIRL interview.

Subject: LIRING/3 Report of Contact with Ernesto Capoano.

1. Rowton met with LIRING/3 at 1700 at the Tacubaya apartment and remained with him until about 1900. LIRING/3 reported that he had telephoned Ernesto Capoano at his office on 4/8/67, after having obtained the phone number from César Tejeda Fonseca, the husband of the daughter of (Pascual) Ortiz Rubio (ex-President). L/3 stated that he did not identify himself to Capoano, but stated simply that he wanted to talk with him regarding a sensitive matter. According to L/3 Capoano said quickly: "Don't mention any names, but give me some idea of what it's all about". L/3 continued that he replied simply that it concerned "the medicine". At the mention of this, Capoano requested that the caller telephone him again at 1000 on 7/8/67 for an appointment, explaining that he had to leave town over the week-end. L/3 reported Capoano's number as 18-62-09.

2. LIRING/3 continued to Rowton that when he called again on 7/8/67 as requested, still not identifying himself, Capoano asked to meet him in front of Gobernación at 1200. Each gave a general description of the other for recognition. When, however, L/3 appeared in front of Gobernación at the time appointed, he saw no sign of anyone answering the description of Capoano (about 45 years old, wearing dark glasses, with green suit), nor was he approached by anyone. After waiting about 30 minutes in the vicinity L/3 told Rowton that he left. L/3 then stated that he planned to drop in to Capoano's home that same evening since obviously the phone call had not smoked him out. He gave the address of Capoano as Calle Bucareli 128, apt. C-7, which he stated he received from César Tejeda.

3. When Rowton met with L/3 again at 1000 on 8 August, the latter reported that finally he had managed to contact Capoano at his home (and office). He reported that at about 1930 he rang the bell and was shown into a spacious and mce elegant apartment and asked to take a seat in what served as a waiting room. After about twenty minutes Capoano appeared, introduced himself, and led L/3 into his office.

4. The following is a verbatim account of the conversation between Capoano and LIRING/3, as recalled by Rowton from L/3's report:

L/3: I have come to see you on a rather delicate matter that is of great concern to me personally. Can we talk safely here?

Cap: Yes, I think it is private enough here in my office.

(Cap. then closed blinds) We can talk in a low voice, just to be sure. What is it you wish to talk to me about?

L/3: It concerns a person with whom I have recently been in contact. I must explain that I have certain commercial affairs in Guatemala and travel there more or less regularly. I have also had contacts of a rather delicate nature with elements there and also a contact here in Mexico City until recently. This particular contact was abruptly cut off for reasons I am not aware of, and apparently take up by the person I have come to talk to you about.

Cap: Who is this person?

L/3: I shall tell you later. In any case I have come to you since this person mentioned your name and I feel that you might be in a position to give me some advice. I stress again that I feel my commercial affairs have been jeopardized by this last contact.

Cap: So you are the person who called me last Friday.

L/3: Well, I wanted to reach you in the most discreet manner.

Cap: You did very well. As I told you when you called, I avoid mentioning names on the telephone, since I am sure that my phone is tapped. I am afraid that in all probability my mail is being intercepted. For your information I was at Gobernación, just to take a look at you, but I did not approach you feeling that surely you would come to my home eventually.

L/3: Fine. Now let me give you an account of what has happened to me. As I said, this new contact met with me several times and asked for a certain kind of help, claiming to represent certain elements in Guatemala and mentioning names and facts that concerned my own previous activities there. At first I accepted him at face value, but later he made certain comments that disturbed me. He criticized the most important faction from that area and suddenly asked me to arrange for a trip to Tapachula so that he could enter without formality. He also asked me to put him up in my home and requested that I provide certain things that appeared strange.

Cap: Did he ask for a revolver?

L/3: Yes, but a special one - a Browning automatic with three clips and fifty cartridges, canvas clothes and, most surprising three poison pills. He said there items were to be for my own use once I entered the territiory of Guatemala. All this appeared strange to me in the light of my previous contacts. The other people had never asked for such things and always had a place of their own to live in while in Mexico City. I therefore queried him carefully, and, to make a long story short, he broke down (se abrió) a told me things that convinced me that he did not represent the main faction and had in fact deserted from it some time ago. After this he insisted on remaining in my home and I was forced to give him the following alternative. I alleged that I had another contact with his people and that I planned to consult with this contact and bring him along with me the following day at 1000 so that the three of us to continue the conversation. When the person showed obvious alarm at this, I said that he could, however, if he choose, leave my home of his own free will and I gave him some money - 300 pesos - in an envelope, just in case he was without funds. I felt very concerned about my commercial affairs and wanted to seperate myself from this person as soon as possible. I had no desire to do him any harm, despite the fact that by that time I realized that he had tried to trick me and even place my life in jeopardy. In any event he left the apartment on his own the following morning, leaving my keys, the envelope with the money, and a letter for me on the table

Cap: A letter? This is very important. Can you tell me who this man is?

L/3: Yes. His name is Moisés Crozco Leal, and he has lived many years in Mexico.

Cap: Ah, yes, I know this man. He was arrested recently by the Mexican police and released Friday. I have been informed of this by his family.

L/3: Then things are worse than I imagined. Who knows what he has revealed to the Mexicans about my business connections.

Cap: Please do not be too worried. I have been given to understand that Crozco, who is a valiant person, conducted himself in a commendable manner. I doubt that he revealed anything about you. Now the important thing for me to tell you is that I have certain very indirect delicate contacts with them there ("arrita") and I am in a position to check on this person.

L/3: I am still worried since he possesses so much detailed knowledge. I was planning another trip to Guatemala City, but now I don't know what to do.

Cap: Please do not move until you have heard from me.

L/3: Fine, then here is my full name, telephone number and my references.

Cap: I really don't need referneces.

L/3: But I shall give them to you anyway, since I want to be aboveboard with you in all this. (L/3 then writes out names of César Tejeda and Jacobo Rodriquez Padilla).

Cap: So you know César Tejeda Fonseca and Jacobo. Fine. Now the important thing is the letter. Could you give me a copy as soon as possible? this is very important. You have done a very wise thing in coming to see me about all this - much wiser than you could realize.

L/3: The letter is typewritten on my typewriter and unsigned, but I'm sure anyone who knows Crozco could recognize the style.

Cap: Yes. Could you send it by hand with Jacobo? Whatever you do, please do not telephone and talk about anything sensitive, or use names.

L/3: I could send my wife tomorrow morning, or possibly even later tonight.

Cap: Alright,but send it as soon as possible.

L/3: Just one other thing. I am anxious to get in touch with an old friend of mine, Dra. Pereira. I understand that she is in town, and I might be able to contact her through you. What I suggest is this, that you give her my name and telephone number and ask her to call me at her convenience.

Cap: Fine. I'll do what I can. In any case I'll be in touch with you. Again please don't leave town until you have talked with me again onthis matter.

5. Rowton made a date with L/3 for 1030 the following day (9/8/67) to pass to L/3 a copy of the Crozco letter. It will be recalled that he gave the original of the letter to Abelaric Curbelo. Incidentally L/3 stated that no mention of the Cubans was made during his conversation with Capoano.

Subject: LIRING/3 Report of Knowledge of Rowton Alias.

1. On the evening of 8 August, 1967, LIRING/3 gave Rowton the attached typewritten statement of the persons who might be aware of Rowton's alias, as per Rowton request to L/3 at their previous meeting.

2. L/3 has explained that he feels safe enough from a security standpoint in his relationship with Rowton, since at present he actually does know or has known a fair number of Greeks in Mexico and Central America, including Pandelis Economou, Gazdelis, Batsakis (all of whom he has met) and Stylianos Prevolis, Angel Arvanitis, with whom he is in indirect business contact through Rowton. He feels that if Rowton's name (alias) comes up either in conversation with the Cubans or Guatemalans, he can cover it under the umbrella of his Greek commercial contacts without difficulty.

3. L/3 cannot recall either Sergio Martínez or Hugo del Pino ever bringing up Rowton name or querying him about Rowton's current activities. He recalls Martínez on one occasion many months ago simply asking him to give "señor Harris" his regards.

1. WITH ROWTON INFO THAT MOISES OROZCO MAY NOT HAVE BEEN TELLING TRUTH ABOUT OROZCO'S ALLEGED CONTACTS WITH FAR GUERRILLAS (INFO BASED ON LIREBEL-1 AND LIREBEL-2'S STATEMENTS PER REF) LIRING-3 SUCCESSFULLY CONFRONTED AND "BROKE" OROZCO AT HIS APARTMENT NIGHT 31 JULY IN PRESENCE SERGIO VALDEZ AND RAUL MORENO. OROZCO ADMITTED HE RECENTLY SENT GUATEMALA TO ORGANIZE GUERRILLA AREA BUT SAID HE UNABLE ACCOMPLISH HIS TASK DUE STUPIDITY FAR REPS. OROZCO DEMANDED TO KNOW SOURCE LIRING-3 INFORMATION. WHEN LIRING-3 REFUSED SAYING ONLY HE IN CONTACT WITH FAR, OROZCO SAID "IT MUST HAVE BEEN ROBERTO". HE WENT ON TO THROW INSULTS ON CESAR MONTES AND OTHER FAR REPS (MENTIONING WAR NAMES) SAYING THAT DAVID CASSASOLA WHO WITH HIM IN GUATEMALA WAS UNDISCIPLINED AND RESPONSIBLE FOR CAPTURE OF MANY OF THIS MEN AND PROBABLY HIS OWN. OROZCO CLAIMED HE ONLY TRUE GUAT REVOLUTIONARY AND ADMITTED HE HAD HOPED ENLIST LIRING-3'S HELP IN OBTAINING ARMS WITH WHICH HE HOPED REARM FAR FOLLOWERS LOYAL TO HIM AND FORM OWN REVOLUTIONARY GROUP. OROZCO WAS GIVEN LIRING-3'S PHONE NUMBER BY

VALDEZ WHEN LATTER RECOMMENDED TO OROZCO AS FAR MEMBER BY ALBERTO DOMINGO OF REVIEW POLITICA THOUGHT OROZCO WOULD BE GOOD CHANNEL TO GUAT GUERRILLAS. VALDEZ BECAME VERY ANGRY DURING ABOVE CONFRONTATION, CALLED OROZCO A TRAITOR AND THREATENED TO KILL HIM. OROZCO BEHAVIOR THROUGHOUT CLEARLY INDICATED HE VERY MUCH AFRAID FAR GUNNING FOR HIM.

2. AT 0400, VALDEZ, MORENO AND LIRING-3 DEPARTED, BUT OROZCO APPARENTLY TERRORIZED REFUSED LEAVE LIRING-3'S APARTMENT BUT PROMISSED HAVE NEW DISCUSSION AT 1000 HOURS. LIRING-3, AFRAID OROZCO MIGHT COMMIT SUICIDE HIS APARTMENT TRIED REENTER HIS PLACE A LITTLE LATER BUT FOUND OROZCO UNWILLING OPEN UP. LIRING-3 AND VALDEZ THEN SPENT REST OF NIGHT IN FRONT LIRING-3'S APARTMENT TO MAKE SURE OROZCO "WOULD NOT ESCAPE". AT ROWTON SUGGESTION, LIRING-3 HIRED TAXI WHICH WAITED NEARBY. BETWEEN 0800 AND 0900 1 AUG OROZCO LEFT LIRING-3'S APARTMENT AND WENT TO HIS MOTHER'S ADDRESS FOLLOWED BY LIRING-3 AND VALDEZ IN TAXI.

3. AFTER REVIEWING ABOVE CASE STATION DECIDED CALL LITEMPO'S AND HAVE THEM PLACE OROZCO UNDER ARREST. STATION FELT LITEMPOS COULD HAVE RECOGNIZED OROZCO WHEN STAKING OUT MOTHER'S PLACE (OROZCO HAS KEPT AWAY FROM HIS MOTHER'S ADDRESS IN HIDING FOR SEVERAL WEEKS). LIRING-3 AND VALDEZ WHO COULD NOT GET TAXI TO WAIT ANY LONGER RETURNED TO LIRING-3'S APARTMENT BEFORE ARRIVAL OF LITEMPO'S WHO TOOK OROZCO IN CUSTODY. LIRING-3 WAS THEN INSTRUCTED ATTEMPT MAKE URGENT CONTACT WITH FAR TO FINGER OROZCO VIA JACOBO PADILLA (WHO FIRST INTRODUCED LIRING-3 TO FAR). LIRING-3 NATURALLY NOT TOLD OF OROZCO'S ARREST BY LITEMPOS. STATION DOES NOT BELIEVE OROZCO'S ARREST WILL JEOPARDIZE FUTURE LIRING-3 OP.

4. ALTHOUGH LITEMPO'S FOUND OROZCO'S PAPERS IN ORDER ARTICLE 33 OF MEXICAN CONSTITUTION ALLOWS DEPORTATION OF FOREIGNERS WHOSE PRESENCE IN MEXICO IS UNDESIRABLE. THUS IF GUAT GOVT INSTRUCTED IT'S AMBASSADOR IN MEXICO CITY TO PRESS CHARGES AGAINST OROZCO AS DANGEROUS REVOLUTIONARY AND ASK FOR HIS RETURN FOR TRIAL, LITEMPOS WOULD VERY PROBABLY QUIETLY TURN OROZCO OVER TO GUATS. WOFACT WOULD THEN HOPEFULLY HAVE OPPORTUNITY INTERROGATE OROZCO AT LENGTH ON HIS RECENT GUERRILLA ACTIVITIES IN GUAT. JUDGING FROM PREVIOUS EXPERIENCE GUATS WOULD PROBABLY QUIETLY DO AWAY WITH OROZCO AFTER INTERROGATION.

5. IN VIEW OF ABOVE RECOMMEND GUAT STATION CONTACT LIAISON IMMEDIATELY AND TAKE STEPS HAVE OROZCO TURNED OVER TO GUAT REPS AND TAKEN TO GUATEMALA AS SOON AS POSSIBLE TO FACE REVOLUTIONARY AND OTHER CHARGES. IN VIEW RECENT ARRESTS OF SUBVERSIVE ELEMENTS

IN MEXICO TRYING INITIATE TERRORIST ACTIVITIES AND GUERRILLA WARFARE, BELIEVE LITEMPOS CAN BE EXPECTED BE MOST COOPERATIVE.

2. FOLLOWING PROPOSALS REPRESENT STATION THINKING OF FUTURE EXPLOITATION OF PURGE/UNREST SITUATION AT PRESENT:

A. MAKE PITCH TO JORRIN. APPROACH TO BE MADE BY ROWTON ON STREET. ROWTON INTRODUCE SELF AS FRIEND OF "QUIQUE" (ENRIQUE VILLAVICENCIO) [redacted], ASK HOW VILLAVICENCIO IS, WHETHER IT TRUE HE IN TROUBLE, EXPLAIN HE TOLD ROWTON ALL ABOUT WHAT A GOOD FRIEND JORRIN WAS. INDICATE THAT VILLAVICENCIO AND ROWTON HAD MANY GOOD TIMES TOGETHER INCLUDING SEVERAL PARTIES WITH ACCOMODATING GIRLS. ASK JORRIN WHAT CAN BE DONE TO HELP VILLAVICENCIO, COULD JORRIN GET ANYTHING TO HIM. INDICATE HAS HEARD JORRIN DUE FOR TRANSFER BACK TO HAVA SOON. ROWTON BELIEVES COULD MAKE QUICK DETERMINATION FROM JORRIN REACTION TO APPROACH WHETHER JORRIN INTERESTED IN PLAYING CASE FOR CUBS, INTERESTED IN [illegible] VILLAVICENCIO OR MERELY WISHES BE LEFT ALONE. B. MAKE PITCH TO JULIAN LOPEZ DIAZ. WHEN QUERIED IN NOV 65 AS TO WHO HE WOULD GO AFTER IF HAD TO CHOOSE ONE EMBASSY STAFFER, LIONION-1 2-88917 PICKED OUT LOPEZ. ASKED TO ELABORTATE ON REASONS, HE EXPLAINED LOPEZ APPEARS LIKE BETTER THINGS OF LIFE, QUICKLY PUT EMBASSY CADILLAC INTO USE AFTER HE ARRIVED IN MEXI, DRESSES WELL, GIVES IMPRESSION OF WISHING TO BE "GRAN SENOR." ON 22 MAR, IN LIGHT OF CASTRO PURITANICAL PURGE, LITAMIL-7 2-101663 WAS ASKED WHO SHE FELT WAS MOST DEVOTED TO "DOLCE VITA" AMONG EMBASSY STAFFERS. SHE PICKED JULIAN LOPEZ FOR SAME REASONS SET FORTH EARLIER AND INDEPENDENTLY BY LIONION. STATION HAS NOT YET FORMULATED PLANS FOR METHOD OF APPROACHING LOPEZ. REVIEW OF AVAILABLE DATA CONTINUING. EXPANDED VERSION WOULD BUILD ON ACTUAL STATEMENTS OF WIFE TO INCLUDE SIMILAR STATEMENTS SUPPOSEDLY MADE BY HERNANDEZ HIMSELF IN SECRET MEETING/S WITH LICLOD IN SEPT 64. THESE PURPORTED STATEMENTS WOULD HAVE HERNANDEZ DISILLUSIONED "OLD COMMUNIST," STILL ESSENTIALLY FAITHFUL TO MARXIST THEORY BUT DISMAYED AT CASTRO COMMUNISM IN PRACTICE. IN ADDITION TO BEING VIRTUAL PRISONER, UNDER EVER WATCHFUL EYE OF SECURITY PERSONNEL, WOULD HAVE HIM ADMIT SADLY TO LICLOD THAT HE ALSO PRISONER IN SENSE THAT ALTHOUGH HE DISILLUSIONED HE FINDS SELF LOOKED UP TO AS ONE OF FOREMOST APOSTLES OF COMMUNISM IN MEXI BY MEXI COMMUNISTS SUCH AS RECTOR UNIVERSITY MORELIA (EREMAUNTZ), OTHERS OF LIKE PROMINENCE. NUMBER C-101663

SUBJECT LITAMIL/7

REFERENCE: Your Memorandum, Dated 13 August 1962

A Provisional Operational Approval is granted for the use of this Subject as set forth below.

A Provisional Operational Approval issued by CI Staff grants the same authority, on a temporary basis, for the use of an individual as the authority granted in an Operational Approval unless otherwise specified by CI/OA. ACTION REQUIRED - REFERENCES

Subject's Station file has just been reviewed for purging, and it was noted that his OA is still active and no final dispatch has been written closing this file, even though we are no longer in contact with Subject. Since Gerald D. FAHLANGER was the last Case Officer in contact with LITAMIL-7, it is requested that Headquarters have FAHLANGER (now assigned Headquarters) prepare a memorandum describing his last relationship with LITAMIL-7 and requesting that his OA granted on 7 February 1968 (HMMW-16118) be cancelled and file be closed. The Station plans no further contact with LITAMIL-7. Contact was dropped with LITAMIL-7 by mutual consent; he was not a paid agent and was not anxious to play an aggressive role against the PBRUMEN target. See MEXICO CITY 4955 of 26 March 1969.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

1. According to Gerald D. FAHLANGER, LITAMIL-7, who is a female, was a secretary in the Mexico City PBRUMAN Embassy for more than 30 years. She was originally recruited by former Station asset LITAMIL-3 in approximately 1966-67. Although Subject was never a very productive asset, she did provide information on activities of the installation and individuals working therein. In approximately 1969-70, Subject was retired by the PBRUMAN Embassy, ending her previous usefulness for the Station. In spite of her loss of access to the embassy, she did continue to maintain contact with the personnel, including the ambassador. For this reason the Station maintained contact with her through LITAMIL-3. However, this too was not very productive because she felt she had been treated fairly upon retirement, and felt a certain degree of loyalty to them. This was somewhat incongruous, since she did not feel such loyalty when she was working in the embassy.

2. Subject met FAHLANGER, as Jose (Pepe) Martin, approximately six times in her home. The last time she was told that in view of her retirement, which resulted in the loss of access to the embassy, our relations with her would be terminated. However, if she reestablished contact with the personnel, or was recalled to work part or full time, we would, of course, consider contact again. This, of course, never happened.

3. While Subject was not paid a regular salary, she did receive spot payments for the information she submitted. She also received occasional small gifts at Christmas time and on her birthday. The

A. LITAMIL-7: LITAMIL-7 was met on 21 May. She was debriefed more on the physical layout of LIRING, and was offered a job—in general terms. (The Station is considering using her as a transcriber of LISAMPAN.) LITAMIL-7 was receptive to the idea of maintaining contact with the Station, but asked for more time to put her personal affairs in shape.

E. LITAMIL-7: LITAMIL-7, the Station's only physical penetration of LIRING, was finally retired by LIRING. This had been in the wind for some time. The problem was that according to Mexican laws LIRING had to pay LITAMIL-7 one month's salary for every year worked, and she had worked for LIRING 38 years. She was notified on 28 March that on instructions from the Foreign Ministry her employment with LIRING was being terminated effective 31 March 1968. On 28 March, all her phone books, keys, et cetera were taken away, and her appearance on 29 March was a mere formality. Her termination pay ($6,000 U.S.) is being given in three installments, with the last one the end of April. LITAMIL-7 gave her Case Officer no advance notice of her release, probably for fear of compromising her retirement benefits. Station will, however, continue to maintain casual contact with her after she receives the last installment of her severance pay. She may be of help in the future in identifying LIRING visitors or newcomers. Now that LITAMIL-7 is gone, the Station plans to activate LISAMPAN/CHARLIE, which, it is hoped, will become a regular source of information on LIRING.

SUBJECT PBRUMEN/LIRAVINE/LITAMIL-7
Progress Report for the Period January through March 1968

ACTION REQUIRED - REFERENCES

Action Required: FYI

Reference : MEXICO CITY-5139, 5 April 1968

Summary: During the period of this report, LITAMIL-7 was met on a weekly basis. Most of the meetings with LITAMIL-7 were conducted in the presence of LITAMIL-3, who has known her for many years and is the only person who can pressure her into reporting information on the daily LIRING activities. Unfortunately, LITAMIL-7 has reported only routine information, much of which the Station already obtained through other means. In many cases, however, her information served to support information the Station suspected or needed to confirm. The following were factors that contributed to LITAMIL-7's apathy and reluctance to collect and report information of value. First, there was the problem of her health. Although she did have high blood pressure, most of her preoccupation over this condition was psychosomatic. It appeared that it provided her with a crutch to justify her inability to service Station requirements. Second, and this was probably the most significant factor behind her reluctance to collaborate fully, she was aware of the LIRING attitude towards retention of foreign employees in that office. In January 1968, LIRING released all local employees except LITAMIL-7, and as the months went by it became increasingly evident that it was only a matter of time before she would be released also. Evidence of her imminent termination was given by the fact that she was given less duties as the months passed, until at the very end she did little more than put in her time. With the spectre of unemployment looming over the horizon, LITAMIL-7 was reluctant to take any risk that might have compromised her situation at LIRING. At stake was a sizable termination payment which the PBRUMENers were obligated to pay her according to local employment regulations. Obviously, she would do nothing to jeopardize this payment, which amounted to approximately $6,000 (U.S.). A further deterrent to her collaboration with the Station, even after her release by LIRING on 31 March, was the LIRING arrangement to make the termination payment in three increments, the last to be made at the end of April 1968. In view of this latest development in this operation, the Station has terminated the weekly meetings between the Station Case Officer and LITAMIL-7.

1. Introduction: During the period covered by this report, LITAMIL-7 was met and debriefed on a weekly basis. Her information was very limited and usually dealt with internal activities of a routine nature in LIRING. As pointed out above, her supervisors isolated her from all but the most routine administrative duties. Consequently, she lost access to virtually everything that may have been of interest to the Station. The Station asked her to bring out the book of addresses and telephone numbers which she had compiled over the years, but she refused for fear that it would be missed during the afternoon when she was not on duty. The Station then asked that she begin to copy the contents of the book a few pages each day. She agreed, but before she began this process the book disappeared, and all efforts to find it failed. She then began to compile a new book of addresses and telephone numbers, which she intended to bring out, but one of the LIRING officers asked for it on the day she was fired. In the end, the sum total of LITAMIL-7 LIRING information during the first three months of 1968 was the identification of several photographs of LIRING employees, the tentative identification of offices and rooms in LIRING (tentative because she had not been in the second floor area since 1961, thus much of the identification was from memory), and finally, LITAMIL-7 confirmed telephone numbers assigned to specific LIRING personnel and furnished telephone numbers of individuals and companies servicing LIRING maintenance requirements (dry cleaners, pharmacy, typewriter repairmen, etc.). LITAMIL-7 volunteered to provide additional information on LIRING to the Station provided it was within her capability, and after she received her final severance payment from LIRING.

2. Finance: LITAMIL-7 received no salary and no termination bonus from the Station.

3. Security: Since all contact with LITAMIL-7 was maintained through LITAMIL-3, LITAMIL-7 does not have a Station telephone number. She does not know the true names of any of the Station Case Officers who handled her. All meetings with her were held in her home, thus no safehouses were used, and she was never seen with Case Officers in public. She had no telephone, so no contacts were made with her by phone. From the security point of view, the LITAMIL-7 operation enjoyed a long life, January 1961 through March 1968. Taking into account her fear and apprehension, plus the fact that she maintained good relations with LITAMIL-3, this record is all the more remarkable. From the intelligence point of view, it is unfortunate that her production was so minimal.

4. Future of the Operation: Although for all intents and purposes the LITAMIL-7 operation has come to an end, the Station intends to maintain a casual contact with her. It is very likely that she may know new personnel assigned to LIRING and may be able to furnish information on these individuals. There may also be developments in LIRING which, on the basis of her lengthy service in LIRING, she might be able to assess and clarify. Since LITAMIL-7 was not a salaried agent for the Station, the operation cost nothing more than the investment of Case Officer time, and an occasional gift of flowers. In view of her intense pride, there is little reason to believe that she will accept money in the future. If she is able to provide information to the Station it will probably be done without any thought of compensation.

[illegible] were valuable eyes into LIRING during the period immediately after the publicized death of "Che" Guevara and the roll-up of the commo system of the revolutionaries in Bolivia. They were especially useful in monitoring the reaction of LIRING-2 who was very closely tied to this commo net and against whom the Station was planning an operation.

C. Through LITAINT-2, two denigation leaflets were produced attacking the LIRING staff in Mexico. One on the LIRING representative in Veracruz produced a reaction in the form of a reward being offered for the apprehension of the perpetrators of this material.

Later the same month, she obtained from one of the LIRING officers propaganda records produced by the Cultural Ministry which she lent us for copying. 1. LITAMIL-7, an aging spinster, is a penetration agent of the Mexico Station inside the PBRUMEN Embassy. She has recently been seriously ill on two occasions and has been shabbily treated by her employers while the Station has lavished attention on her. As a result of this contrast in demonstrated concern for her wellbeing, LITAMIL-7 has shown a determination to be of much more active service to the Station than in the past.

2. LITAMIL-7 is a devout and practicing Roman Catholic. It is the Station's understanding that certificates of Papal blessing can be obtained without too much difficulty in Rome. If this is the case, and the Rome Station can securely obtain such a certificate, it is believed that its presentation to her would cinch her already demonstrated determination to help the Station with its anti-AMTHUG work.

3. A blessing of LITAMIL-7's home or prayer for her continued health or any other appropriate form of certificate would be much appreciated. Please T/A any costs to the Mexico Station. LITAMIL-7's identity follows by separate cover attachment.

This report was not disseminated. Information marginal, no intel value to customers.

Hq notes that the Station has apparently raised LITAMIL-7 from F to B. We feel that a more proper evaluation for this source (from whom little of disseminable value has been received) would be C. If in the future her reporting warrants further upgrading to B, the station should at that time make a recommendation.

COMMENTS: (REASON FOR REJECTION: CUSTOMERS AND DESK EVALUATIONS: SPECIAL DISTRIBUTION OR LOAN NOTES: COMMENTS TO FIELD, ETC.)

Re HMM 7251, Supdata.

The complete production of LITAMIL-7 has been reviewed by Headquarters. Of the 10 reports submitted from September 1962 through May 1963, of which L-7 was the source of the complete, or a specific part of the report, 5 were not disseminated. In addition to those which were disseminated, 2 dissems used info received in ops cables which came from L-7.

The info from this source is considered to be quite low-level and fragmentary, including few details.

After this careful review, we fail to find any justification for raising her to a "B".

We wish to point out that source's access to information does not affect her rating. That would be reflected in the appraisal of content.

LITAMIL-7 is considered a "C" source by Headquarters.

Re HMM 7251, Supdata.

The complete production of LITAMIL-7 has been reviewed by Headquarters. Of the 10 reports submitted from September 1962 through May 1963, of which L-7 was the source of the complete, or a specific part of the report, 5 were not disseminated. In addition to those which were disseminated, 2 dissems used info received in ops cables which was from L-7.

The info from this source is considered to be quite low-level and fragmentary, including few details.

After this careful review, we fail to find any justification for raising her to a "B".

We wish to point out that source's access to information does not affect her rating. That would be reflected in the appraisal of content.

LITAMIL-7 is considered a "C" source by Headquarters.

LITAMIL-7

Field has submitted a total of 11 reports, of which 9 LITAMIL-7 was given as source for all, or a specific part of the report. 1 she was subsource, and in she was one of 6 sources and her contribution not specified. Plus that, info from her taken from 2 Ops cables for use in dissem.

Of the 11, 5 were NO DISSEM. (one still on my desk, probably no dissem.)

xx The info submitted by her is all pretty low level. Matter of fact, pretty much what would be considered overt in any normal embassy or consulate. She obviously reports what happens to come to her attention, but no indication she makes any effort to GET info to fill in the fragmentary info she submits.

I just can't see WHY the field considers her a B (except that they seem to consider all their sources a B.) It will be noted that they considered her a B from the very first report they ever submitted from her. IF they have justification for raising her, why don't they spell it out.
If this low-level informant is considered a B reporting agent - maybe we better devise some super evals for the GOOD sources.

Needless to say, I think C is very generous.

I doubt whether the AC or CO in Mexi ever evaluated her stuff.

Now - what is your opinion, Wayne? If you think she xxxxx is worth a B, its certainly OK by me (it probably would be the easy way out). However, looking at the over-all, seems wrong to give her a B unless she really deserves it -

SAC went into detail re her eval - this report carried her as "B".
SAC: " We feel that a more proper eval for this source (from whom little of disseminable value has been received) would be C. If in the future her reporting warrants further upgrading to B, the station should at that time make a recommendation."

Cancellation of CubAmb Festivities Planned for 20 May TDCS-3/546,872 - Disseminated by IWOG. Field gave it a "B" - and so did IWOG - which is wrong. Just why IWOG dissemed it, is hard to determine. I don't think they even have a source card on her - at least not one giving her a "B" - that's certain.
Perhaps the field's argument in the supdata swayed them. It said. "Source LITAMIL-7 who station definitely considers B source. Most info submitted by L-7 is obtained directly from Cuban Embassy records. In present case L-7 personally read cable recd fm Hava."

That still doesn't qualify her for a B - that would up the appraisal of content.

HMMA-7353 31 May
Dissemed - with other info

Cuban Embassy Financial Transactions
(Title misleading - lists 2 banks in Mexi where Emb has accounts - nothing more. No actn taken yet - but doubt whether it's worth dissem, unless it represents some change.)
"Source data sheet says: "Source recd info personally from Buenaventura Reyes.
" Ref made to SAS for HMMA 7156 & 7225. Hq attention called to HMMA 7251 (Mexi 4515) wherein the Sta pointed out that it definitely considers LITAMIL-7 a B source. It is requested that Hq reconsider its C eval & and raise LITAMIL-7 to B which the Sta feels to be a more proper eval."

Memorandum for the Record SECRET 2P 14 May 1963

Subject: LITAMIL-7

On 13 May 63, I went to Subject's home with LITAMIL-3. NO SECURITY PROBLEMS NOTED. Time: 1830-1900.

LITAMIL-7 reported as follows:

1. On 8 May 63, "courtesy" visas on separate piece of paper were issued to 13 Ecuadorans. Plane tickets to Habana only were also provided. (COMMENT: This might mean that this group plans on returning via another route.)

On 10 May 63, "courtesy" visas were issued on separate paper to 2 Argentines and 2' Brazilians. The latter group was issued a visa colectiva, i.e. one visa with the names of all the group on the paper. The 2 Argentines were provided with Cubana "round trip" tickets.

On 11 May 63, no "courtesy" visas were issued.

This report was not disseminated. Information marginal, no intel value to customers.

Hq notes that the Station has apparently raised LITAMIL-7 from F to B. We feel that a more proper evaluation for this source (from whom little of disseminable value has been received) would be C. If in the future her reporting warrants further upgrading to B, the station should at that time make a recommendation.

JULY GYROSE PROGRESS REPORT

LITAMILS - No previous progress report other than regular operational reporting has as yet been forwarded on the LITAMIL group. Their activities have expanded considerable during July, and this report will attempt to give a birds-eye view of the overall activity as a basis for future progress reporting. In summary during July 1962 the LITAMILS recruited a new penetration of the Cuban Embassy in Mexico City and a former employee of that Embassy, with excellent access to Cuban Embassy circles; they had one S/W channel functioning actively during the month; they located a site for their clandestine radio; they have a cover company possibility which is being seriously considered for activation; and they have approximately seven legal traveler operations under development or active. The LITAMILS now number 13, practically all of them are active in one or more of these phases. The principal men behind the entire activity are LITAMILS 1 and 2.

10 August 1962

H LITAMIL-7 is a secretary-level penetration of the Cuban Embassy whose production has been fairly limited due to her timidity. However, she became more active during July, furnishing exemplars of Cuban letterheads, envelopes etc., and acting as a "listening post." She has recently furnished a copy of the slip they use for travelers who do not wish their travel to Cuba to appear in their passports. A station case officer is in direct contact with her. [illegible] reference include MEXIS 1594, 1570 and HMMA 19471 which forwarded PRQ Part I on her.

1. Forwarded herewith as attachment #1 are four reports on the latest developments of the LIRING-3 operation prepared by Wallace B. ROWTON and dated 5, 10, 11, and 12 December. The most important points covered in these reports are as follow:

a. LIRING-3 made contact on 5 December with one Humberto*GONZALEZ Vega (no Station traces), who has apparently been designated by the FAR as the latter's contact with LIRING-3 in Mexico City. A description and a sketch of GONZALEZ provided by LIRING-3 are contained in ROWTON's 10 December report.

b. According to GONZALEZ, Identity D, who left for Guatemala with LIRING-3 and, according to the latter, was probably executed after a period of detention, may still be alive and may have made a "deal" with the Guatemalan authorities. Identity D had apparently misappropriated FAR funds before going to Guatemala. LIRING-9's remarks to LIRING-3, as mentioned in ROWTON's report of 5 December, may be connected with Identity D's misdoings.

c. LIRING-3 hinted to LIRING-9 that he may accept a teaching job at the University of Jalapa. (Such a job was indeed recently offered to him.) LIRING-9 advised LIRING-3 not to accept this as he would much rather send him on a trip to PBRUMEN.

d. From a letter received from Gustavo X *COLINDRES Barrios, LIRING-3 gathered that the *BARRIOS brothers (Miguel and Juan Leon) may soon be released and may, in fact, contact him in Mexico City. The original text of that letter and its envelope are forwarded under separate cover as attachment #2. LIRING-3 interpreted some remarks made to him by Humberto GONZALEZ as another indication of a possible contact by the BARRIOS brothers in the near future. LIRING-3 plans to write back to the address given by COLINDRES and mention that he is in contact with GONZALEZ in the hope of getting a reaction from COLINDRES.

Cit. Guatemala.

2. The Station plans to check further the identity given by GONZALEZ. Among other things, an attempt will be made via LIKAYAK-2 to check whether a file in that name exists in the archives of the Mexican Ministry of "Gobernacion." The Station may, at a later date, attempt spot surveillance of GONZALEZ. Meanwhile, any information that can be provided by the Guatemala City Station to further identify GONZALEZ would be appreciated.

CONTACT REPORT

1. Agent: LIRING/3
2. Date and Site of Meeting: 1100, 5/12/68; Identity A
3. Next Meeting: 1700, 6/12/68; Iden A
4. Administrative: Rowton asked LIRING/3 to rent a small apartment that they could use as a safehouse, in lieu of Iden A, for the future. This was not only in the interest of economy, ~~for~~ for are obvious security reasons. Rowton gave LIRING/3 1,500 pesos as an advance for this purpose.

5. Reports/Information Passed by Agent:

LIRING/3 reported to Rowton that he had dropped into the LIRING office on 4/12/68 in the hope of running into the LIRING Chief so that he could mention to him casually the proposed trip to PBRUMEN at the end of the month. LIRING/3 told Rowton that he did not see the Chief inasmuch as he was intercepted by LIRING/9. The latter appeared as cordial as on the previous occasion, but this time made a brief reference to LIRING/3's report. He asked: "Are you sure you included everything?" L/3 told Rowton that he replied in a rather puzzled tone, "Of course. Everything, that is, that I could remember." To which L/9 explained: "I mean about the 'motivos' of the arrest. It seems there's more to it than you wrote. We have some interesting data on that subject. We'll discuss it with you on Friday."

LIRING/3 then reported to Rowton that when he and LIRING/4 dropped in to Identity B on 3/12/68 the secretary of the Director, Identity C, gave them a message that a person by the name of Humberto Gonzalez Vega, residing at Calle Manzanillo 42, in apartment 8, had visited Iden B several times asking for the address of LIRING/3.

LIRING/3 continued to Rowton that he attempted to contact Humberto Gonzalez Vega at the address given on 4/12/68 but was told by a woman of about 35 years of age with a slight Guatemalan accent that he was out at the time. She took L/3's address with interest and suggested that L/3 return after 1500 the following day in the event Gonzalez did not contact him at his home. L/3 told Rowton that he guessed (and hoped that this was "Pavel".

Subject: LIRING/3 Report of Contact with Humberto González Vega.

1. At 1000 on 9/12/68 at Identity A , LIRING/3 reported to Rowton that he had met with Humberto González Vega on 5 and 6 December. He related that he had gone back to the apartment on Calle Manzanillo on the afternoon of 5 December, met González and made a date to see him again on the morning of 6 December. When he returned about 1030 on that day González' wife said that he had just stepped out to telephone the embassy of Ecuador. L/3 went out and found González at a nearby telephone booth and managed to have a relatively detailed chat with him.

2. According to L/3, González sarted off by saying that he had been looking forward to meeting L/3 for some time, since he had heard a great deal about him from mutual friends. González went on to say that although he had been away from Guatemala for the past four years, he kept in touch with his friends there. He dropped the names of Sandoval Alegría, Jorge Torrón and a certain Avecillas (phon) who he assumed were known to LIRING/3. He concluded his introductory remarks with the statement that he hoped he and L/3 would become friends, since they could be of mutual help.

3. González added that he was making a living selling books and was planning to open a book store at the University. He indicated that he might be able to help L/3 financially if the latter were interested in this business venture. González then stated that he was aware of L/3's arrest and detention and alleged that he had advance information concerning L/3's trip to Guatemala in the company of Identity D . He then asked L/3 whether he knew the real purpose of Iden D trip. When L/3 replied in a non-committal way, González alleged that Iden D had been accused of misappropriation of funds and took the trip in the hope of defending himself against these charges, González then produced a typewritten letter, undated and addressed to himself and signed by "Cruz", advising him of the charges against Iden D. González told L/3 that the letter was from FAR headquarters and was received some time before Iden D and L/3 left on their trip.

4. González then went on to say that he and his friends were not at all certain that Iden D had been executed, as L/3 and many other people assumed. He stated that some months ago Iden D mother in Mexico City had received a letter from him informing her that he was then at Salamá (phon). González added that it was not to be excluded that Iden D had made some sort of deal with the authorities to save his skin in exchange for services he might perform against Far in the future.

5. González then cautioned L/3 against indiscriminate contacts with persons representing themselves to be from legitimate "revolutionary" movements. González recounted that he himself ~~had~~ to go into hiding for the previous two months as a result of his having been exposed to a certain Nuñez who had arrived in Mexico City with a group of Guatemalan exiles. González described Nuñez as a known member of the "Mano Blanca" and a former police officer ("tercero jefe de la Judicial").

6. González then asked L/3 whether he had made any close friends while in Guatemala. This, L/3 felt, was an attempt to smoke out his relationship with the Barrios brothers (Miguel and Juán León Barrios). He told Rowton that he evaded the issue by giving a vague reply, to which González replied: "Well, I hope to have a great surprise for you soon ('alegría')" González then suggested that they meet again on 12 December and promised to visit L/3 at his home in the company of his wife, "so that L/3's and his wife could keep each other company while they themselves were talking in L/3's apartment." L/3 told Rowton that he shot this idea down by explaining that although his wife was revolutionary and trustworthy, he preferred to keep any politicial discussions strictly between himself and González. The latter then suggested that he simply drop by L/3's house and that they both proceed somewhere for a coffee on a suitable pretext.

7. LIRING/3 described Humberto González Vega as a "rather tall" man (about 1.78) heavy (about 85-90 k.), apparent age 42, with light eyes ("ojos claros") and straight ("lacio") black hair. He drew Rowton the attached sketch for possible identification.

8. LIRING/3 agreed with Rowton that it was advisable for him to tell LIRING/9 at his next meeting of his contact with González Vega to provoke a reaction from the LIRING establishment.

Subject: LIRING/3 Report of Contact with LIRING/9 and LIRING/10.

1. LIRING/3 reported to Rowton at 1300 on 10 December, 1968, that he had finally succeeded in talking again with LIRING/9. He related that when he went/the LIRING office as requested at about 1030 on 9/12/68 he was told by the receptionist that LIRING/9 was still out. L/3 was asked to telephone later, about 1300, to check whether L/9 had returned. LIRING/3 telephoned, as requested, a little after 1300 (in Rowton's presence) but was told that LIRING/9 had not returned. L/3 left a message for L/9 that he would come to his office again the following morning.

2. LIRING/3 continued that he reappeared at the LIRING office about the same time the next day (10/12/68) and was told this time by the receptionist (the wife of LIRING/10's assistant) that LIRING/9 was in. At this moment LIRING/9 himself emerged from his office with papers in his hand, winked at LIRING/3, and returned without addressing him. A few minutes later L/3 was told by the receptionist that L/9 would see him. The following is Rowton's reconstruction of the conversation that took place between LIRING/3 and LIRING/9, based on L/3's report to Rowton:

L/9: "Come in. I'm sorry I couldn't see you Friday or yesterday. I was out of town."

L/3: "It's alright with me, except that I have a number of things pending as far as my own plans are concerned."

L/9: "Well, how are you doing?"

L/3: "Fairly well. I just received a letter from my good friend, Prof. Carlo Antonio Castro of the University of Veracruz. He has been insisting that I go down to Jalapa to see him. He wants to organize an exposition and also to offer me an interesting position at the University."

L/9: "But would that mean that you would have to stay in Jalapa?"

L/3: "Yes, of course; that is, if I accept. It's a tempting solution to my personal problems. As I told you I'm still 'up in the air'."

L/9: "But I don't think that's the solution. A trip would be much better."

L/3: "Yes, but I have to make a decision soon. Also my wife received a letter from her father inviting her to New York. Here's the letter. Do you want to read it?"

L/9: "No. What does it say?"

L/3: "Her father says that he can give her medical certificates to prove he is very sick so that she can get a visa without any difficulty."

L/9: "But as I said before, she shouldn't go to the American Embassy. Keep her away from it. That would be bad, as I explained last time."

L/3: "I'm doing my best, but it's not easy. Things are still up ~~xx~~ in the air with us."

(At about this moment in the conversation, LIRING/10 entered the office, and, after greeting LIRING/9 rather perfunctorily, carried on the following conversation with LIRING/3:)

L/10: "How have you been?"

L/3: "Rather well, thanks?"

L/10: "And your wife? Is she recovering from the strain?"

L/3: "Just about. The nightmare is finally over and she feels better now."

L/10: "WEll I hope you'll come by here often - as often as you ~~x~~like. We enjoy chatting with you."

L/3: "By the way, how is your Chief doing? I'd like to drop in to express my appreciation for the interest he ~~xkmmxx~~ and his wife showed in helping my wife during my absence."

L/9: "Well, he's not doing too well."

L/3: "Oh, another thing. I finally met that Guatemalan 'Pavel' I mentioned in my report."

L/9: "Yes, how did it go?"

L/3: "His name is Humberto González Vega. He's been in Mexico for some time. A former activist in the PTG. You must know him."

L/9: "Yes.

L/3: "He wants to see me again on Thursday for a more detailed talk."

L/9: "Fine. Well, I hope you keep coming around to see us whenever you can."

3. LIRING/3 commented to Rowton that he felt that LIRING/10's intrusion had not been coincidental, and that L/9 had advised him of L/3's arrival before he himself received L/3 into his office.

Subject: LIRING/3 Receipt of Letter from Gustavo Colindres.

1. LIRING/3 reportedto Rowton at 1700 on 12/12/68 that he had received a letter from Gustavo Colindres, a Guatemalan of about 40 years of age whom he had met in the Pavón prison in Guatemala City. LIRING/3 stated that Colindres is the uncle (mother's side) of the León Barrios brothers, although he does not have the same name of sra. Barrios. L/3 explained that they were born of different fathers. L/3 added that Colindres was imprisoned some 18 months ago for responsibility in an arms cache discovered in or near his home.

2. The following is Rowton's translation of the original letter which LIRING/3 gave Rowton for copying:

"I hope that when you arrived in your Mexico, you found only peace and satisfaction in being once again in the warmth of your home. Here on the farm we have missed you and felt badly at not hearing from the artist and the professor, and now that I have succeeded in obtaining your address, I am taking the liberty of dropping your a few lines. I want you both to keep abreast of what's going on at the old farm, even though we're still struggling to turn it over to new owners, but they haven't as yet agreed to the price. I guess I'll be the last to leave the ship, since I haven't a chance to get off. The lions are the next to leave their cage.'Lorenzana' left a month ago and the Queen left on the 2nd of December. Promise me that when you take a drink you'll toast the farm and the date that is approaching.

My best to your wife, kisses to your child.and my best wishes for your welfare. May this year of strange experiences engrave in your mind the memory of a friend.

Guat. 7/12/68

/s/ G.Colindres

Please send your correspondence to me in the name of my wife,Isabel Donis de Colindres, 5 av. y 7a Calle,lote 6-Manzana 26,Colonia Santa Marta, Zona 19,Guat.Cuidad,América Central. The address on the envelope is not correct.

3. LIRING/3 told Rowton he understood the "lions are next to leave their cage" to mean that the León Barrios brothers are soon to be released and that this letter is a signal to him to be on the alert for a contact from them in the near future. L/3 told Rowton that he intended to reply to this letter at once,and to take the occasion to mention casually that he has met a Guatemalan in Mexico City by the name of Humberto González Vega who seems to know everyone there quite well. L/3 hopes that this will provoke some sort of comment from the León Barrios brothers wither directly or indirectly.

4. LIRING/3 stated that Gustavo Colindres, who is still in the Pavón prison, obviously smuggled out this letter through his wife who visits him regularly. L/3 commented that Colindres told him that he isa faithful FAR member, but refused to belong to the PTG, or even to accept the financial aid doled out at the Pavón prison by Francisco Corado,the PTG representative there.

Situación General :

Durante los días que permanecí en la celda 400 del 1er Cuerpo de policía Tuve oportunidad de cambiar impresiones con Rolando Ortiz "Cebollita" sobre la situación general de Guatemala especialmente de FAR. por aquel entonces César Montes no había sido destituido y se iniciaba una campaña de Terrible represión por parte del gobierno; de acuerdo con las informaciones se desprende lo siguiente : La división entre PGT y FAR provocó una situación difícil pero algunos miembros del PGT renunciaron a este y pasaron a las filas de FAR. aunque Teóricamente el PGT dice apoyar la [illegible] lucha armada e inclusive [illegible] disponer de contingentes en la montaña (Zona de Zacapa?) lo cierto es que provoca más la división y no apoya en lo más mínimo la línea de FAR esto es a grandes rasgos ya que los detalles son bien conocidos. En los últimos Tiempos el PGT [illegible] Trata de ahondar [illegible] más las divergencias. Como ejemplo doy la situación que presencié en Pavón, donde el representante del PGT Trataba de ganar adeptos entre los presos pertenecientes a FAR ofreciéndoles ayuda económica - insistiendo en que su línea (la de FAR) es equivocada en muchos aspectos.

Al ser nombrado Yon Sosa Comandante General se esperaba que el Grupo 13 de noviembre se aglutinara. En teoría esta aglutinación se llevó a cabo, pero en la práctica se ha demostrado que este Grupo sigue actuando por su cuenta anárquicamente.

Todas estas circunstancias: divisiones, falta de organización, falta de madurez ideológica etc. han traído por consecuencia un debilitamiento de la lucha armada en Guatemala. A esto contribuye el fortalecimiento cada día mayor de las fuerzas represivas obra de los norteamericanos. Un ejército equipado con las armas más modernas asesorado y entrenado por ellos, controla cada vez más la situación en la montaña. La consecuencia de todo esto ha sido la intensificación de la guerrilla urbana. Los jóvenes de FAR han tenido que bajar a la ciudad y hacen esfuerzos desesperados pero anárquicos para efectuar acciones que muchas veces, muerte del Embajador Gordon Main por ejemplo, traen consecuencias negativas, ya que las fuerzas ~~[illegible]~~ del Gobierno intensifican la represión acabando con cuadros valiosos y necesarios. En la montaña se han sufrido reveses muy grandes, la muerte de Nestor Valle, Efigenio, la de Camilo en la Ciudad etc. han debilitado aún más las acciones de FAR, pues las especiales circunstancias que hoy se viven en Guatemala impiden la rápida sustitución de estos cuadros. La falta de fondos para financiamiento es uno de los problemas más grandes, pues actualmente el dinero tiene que conseguirse a base de asaltos a empresas comerciales, dando por resultado muchas veces, que por conseguir una cantidad pequeña han muerto varios revolucionarios.

En mis charlas con los hermanos de Ron Barrios se me hizo notar el sentido negativo que algunos aspectos de la ayuda cubana representa. Se criticó duramente a los cuadros que se formaban allá, pues según dicen, en las ~~[illegible]~~ a veces largas estancias en Cuba se inadaptaban a la realidad Guatemalteca, o. [illegible] a su vuelta conflictos a veces serios. El ejemplo más concreto es el reciente caso de César Montes, destituido por no haberse incorporado a su realidad en el momento necesario.

En Guatemala existe un fuerte nacionalismo, por ésto los jóvenes de FAR rechazan cierto tipo de ayuda procedente de Cuba; se habla mucho [illegible] entre ellos de fracasos dirigidos por los cuadros formados allá y ~~[illegible]~~ de un supuesto ofrecimiento Cubano de ayudarlos incluso con hombres.

Por ahora, hablando francamente, la lucha en Guatemala se ha debilitado. Los golpes sufridos han sido muchos y fuertes y es de extrema urgencia una reorganización ~~[illegible]~~

Uno de los más aspectos más necesarios para el desarrollo de la lucha armada de Guatemala es una mayor comprensión de la situación interna de ese país, y prestar por lo consiguiente la ayuda más adecuada. Es verdad que el ~~[illegible]~~ fortalecimiento de esta lucha será a largo plazo, pero para ello es necesario que la ayuda sea más efectiva y realista; de acuerdo con las opiniones de los hermanos de Jesús Barrios, elementos jóvenes pero entusiastas y valiosos, ~~[illegible]~~ (ellos trabajan uno en servicio de inteligencia, otro abastecimientos)

Yo tengo que seguir trabajando ~~[illegible]~~ con las FAR; la especial situación de [illegible], mis experiencias personales y la confianza que ellos me depositan han hecho que mantenga mis contactos, esperando por estos días la llegada de una persona muy responsable que me buscará con el nombre de PAVEL, para seguir trabajando en un sentido positivo.

El día 13 de abril de 1968, Francisco Galleta
Sara Barrios (Guatemalteco)

Antecedentes

En México y por conducto de Carlos Perzabal Marcué, establecí contacto con F. A. S. Barrios quien según se me informó, era Guatemalteco, miembro FAR ~~de~~ encargado de la pro- ~~[illegible]~~ paganda en esta ciudad. Sara Barrios tenía necesidad de hacer un viaje a Guatemala, pero dada su situación de exilado político no podía abandonar el país en forma legal y por ese ~~[illegible]~~ motivo se me pidió ayuda, ya que ~~[illegible]~~ por tener conocimiento de la región sur del país y además un pequeño negocio establecido en San Cristóbal las Casas estaba la posibilidad de llevar a Sara Barrios hasta la Ciudad de Guatemala.

A través de varias pláticas tenidas con él, se llegó a la conclusión de que podríamos, además de realizar dicho viaje, hacer algunos movimientos que tuvieran por finalidad prestar una ayuda efectiva a las FAR.

Fue entonces que se elaboró un plan, cuya realización quedaba sujeta a la aprobación de elementos directivos en Guatemala. Inicialmente este plan consistía en el establecimiento de un negocio de impresiones en Honduras; es decir estudiar las posibilidades en ese país para montar una pequeña máquina de ofsett para editar un Teleguía que pudiera servir en otros países Centroamericanos inclusive Guatemala. Paco Barrios tenía conocimientos de este tipo de negocio, ya que según me informó, había trabajado antes en varias compañías de publicidad. El motivo principal de esto era el de colaborar para obtener, por esos medios, ayuda financiera para las FAR. Con esa intención y desde antes, yo había montado ~~en~~ en San Cristóbal de las Casas, Chiapas, un negocio ~~similar~~ de impresiones serigráficas con la razón social de "EMARDEL de San Cristóbal"

Para realizar el viaje se pensaron en varias de las posibilidades más seguras. Lo mejor, dada la seguridad que proporcionaba, era conseguir documentación mexicana para Lara ir. Para el efecto elaboré, con la mayor perfección posible una credencial de maestro de la SEP, ya que un documento de este tipo es suficiente para obtener visado en la frontera.

En los últimos días antes de realizar dicho viaje y ya teniendo todo preparado, Lara Barrios me informó que Carlos Pérzabal y su esposa, Teresa Posada querían acompañarnos pues tenían motivos [illegible] para ir. Como la situación que esto planteaba era difícil me opuse al viaje de estas personas, pero Lara Barrios argumentó que tenían necesidad de entrevistar con motivos periodísticos a algunas personalidades en Guatemala. Las discusiones al respecto se prolongaron varios días pues no era conveniente mezclar dos tipos de trabajo en un viaje que de por sí tenía sus riesgos; por entonces surgieron varios inconvenientes que se fueron retrasando dicho viaje, uno de ellos fue que Lara Barrios - [illegible] quien era el encargado de la misión - se hirió accidentalmente la mano con una pistola calibre 25 al hacer para práctica de tiro, y otro que por esta causa

hubo necesidad de posponer la salida y buscar un medio más adecuado, por lo que se recurrió por mi parte a conseguir que una persona de confianza nos llevara en automóvil ~~para~~, dicha persona fue Raúl Moreno quien se prestó para hacerlo. Los detalles sobre todo esto son variados y obran en este informe, pero hay que hacer notar que hubo muchos incidentes y errores por parte de todos los que íbamos a participar en esa misión.

El 10 de abril de 1968 salimos de la
Ciudad de México, Fco Adalberto Lara Barrios,
Carlos Perzabal y [illegible] un
Raúl Moreno, pues la señora Teresa Losada desis-tió del viaje debido a que estaba embarazada
y se consideró peligroso para ella.

Durante el trayecto y a la altura de Matías Romero Oaxaca, debido a la alta velocidad a que conducía Moreno el automóvil, sufrimos un aparatoso acci-dente que dejó seriamente dañado el automóvil. Al llegar a Tuxtla Raúl Moreno habló por teléfono con su familia para informar del accidente y nos dijo que le pedían volviera pues su padre había sufrido un infarto cardiaco. Él todos nosotros nos llevó hasta San Cristobal, desde donde nosotros continuaríamos el viaje.

Carlos Pezzabal llevaba consigo unas publicaciones de TAR impresas en la imprenta del Dr. Manuel Marcué Pardinas, las que había ocultado entre las páginas de unas revistas de modas, pero de un modo tan visible que no creímos oportuno el que las llevara. Al llegar a las ~~[illegible]~~ oficinas de migración Ciudad Cuauhtémoc en un Taxi de alquiler procedimos a documentarnos para el paso a Guatemala. La Credencial que se elaboró para Lara Bamos funcionó perfectamente
y le fue dado un permiso para viajar en Guatemala valido por Tres meses. En ese lugar
y dado que no habíamos Tenido dificultad alguna y para no entorpecer nuestro movimiento, Tanto Lara Bamos como yo le pedimos a Pezzabal que no llevara las revistas, a lo que accedió depositándolas en una barraca cerca de la frontera usada como letrina.
El paso se hizo sin dificultad apa-

siente, sólo que Sara Barrios debía obtener un permiso del Cónsul de Guatemala, Trámite usual para Todos los Turistas. El Consulado de Guatemala que debería funcionar en Comitán o Cd. Cuauhtémoc, se encuentra por extrañas razones en la Mesilla, dentro del Territorio Guatemalteco. Sara Barrios se puso muy tanto nerviosa cuando acudimos al Cónsul para el permiso, aunque éste extendió sin dificultad. No obstante pensamos que el nerviosismo de Sara Barrios le provocó alguna sospecha misma ~~que le [illegible] haber~~ ~~con el Chofer del Taxi quien pudo haberse hablado~~ que después confirmamos pues ~~el Cónsul~~ ~~[illegible]~~ las autoridades Guatemaltecas (después de haber sido detenidos) nos mostraron las revistas donde Pezzabal había escondido las publicaciones de FAR, y que sólo pudieron haber sido obtenidas por el Cónsul quizá proporcionadas por el Chofer del Taxi que nos llevó, ~~[illegible]~~ y que Tomamos en Comitán, ya que éste durante el Trayecto nos habló de su amistad con el Cónsul y seguramente se pudo dar cuenta de que "algo sospechoso" dejó Pezzabal en la banca.

En la mesilla, después de pasar la aduana donde se nos hizo una revisión superficial y donde estuvo presente el Cónsul, abordamos una camioneta de pasajeros rumbo a Huehuetenango, pero al ir en esta nos dimos cuenta que este señor nos rebasó en su automovil.

Al llegar a la garita de inspección en el Campamento militar "EL CABLE" fuimos detenidos por e. por indicaciones de dicho Cónsul quien tenía grado de quien ordenó al oficial nos incomunicara. Antes de bajar de la camioneta y al darnos cuenta de que había problema, Sara Barrios me entregó una serie de documentos que llevaba (pasaporte auténticos, cédula de vecindad etc) mismos que por fortuna pudimos desaparecer antes del registro que el oficial nos practicó después, echándolos por entre las hendiduras de la barraca prefabricada donde nos encerraron.

Por desgracia al practicarsenos el registro, a Carlos Perzabal le fueron encontradas un par de botas soviéticas, una entrevista inconclusa con nuestro Valle, un carnet de la Universidad de la Habana y otros documentos. A partir de ese momento quedamos a disposición del ejército suponiendo que seríamos asesinados.

Del Campamento el "Cable" fuimos trasladados por la policía militar Ambulante a otro Campamento en el poblado de "Buenos Aires" en el Depto. de Huehuetenango. El Transporte se hizo en un Camión de Carga que nos llevó primero a Huehuetenango donde Perzabal fue brevemente interrogado por un Coronel quien nos dijo que seríamos fusilados. En el poblado de Buenos Aires fuimos interrogados y maltratados durante toda la noche, los interrogatorios fueron hechos por separado. Al día siguiente fuimos trasladados a Guatemala en un avión de las FAG. # 540, quien fue enviado por el ministro de la Defensa, mismo que nos recibió en el aeropuerto militar la noche del día 14. Todavía dentro del avión, y ya en el Campo, subió a bordo de éste un nos encontramos con uniforme militar ~~[illegible]~~ quien me preguntó de manera violenta si yo me llamaba "Efigenio".

Del aeropuerto militar, fuimos Trasladados al 2º Cuerpo de la policía (Pezabalos yo en una Camioneta, Sara en un Jeep) donde fuimos incomunicados en las bartolinas de la celda Nº "400". Durante varias noches fuimos sometidos a ~~[illegible]~~ "interrogatorios". Quienes éramos, a quienes íbamos a ver, eran ~~[illegible]~~ la preocupación que Tenían. En la celda 400 estaban presos algunos miembros de las FAR, los hermanos de León Barrios (Juan José y Miguel, así como el conocido por "Cebollita", ~~[illegible]~~ acusado del atentado a la base militar de "los Cipresales" y miembro destacado de las FAR. A estos compañeros Sara Barrios informé con detalle de lo que nos había sucedido. El día 20 de abril pudimos ~~[illegible]~~ enviar clandestinamente a la prensa una nota escrita en una caja vacía de cigarros que publicó el diario "EL GRÁFICO" el día 21 de abril. Por este motivo fuimos visitados por el Cónsul de México al día siguiente, evitando así el primer intento de asesinato contra nosotros. Para Barrios para entonces había sido identificado ya como Guatemalteco.

Al hacerse pública nuestra detención las autoridades Guatemaltecas inventaron un delito "repartir propaganda subversiva en las calles de la Ciudad" y fuimos consignados por esto a un Juzgado para ser sujetos a "un juicio".

El 26 de abril fuimos Trasladados al "Campo de Concentración" "Granja Penal Pavón" en una Cuerda donde También iba el "Cebollita" y posiblemente para Barrios a quien dejamos de ver el día que fuimos consignados y Trasladados a la Crujía general. En el Camino "Cebollita" a a Pavón desapareció quien según el parte policiaco, "secuestraron sus compañeros" pero que fue asesinado por la policía.

A la Granja Penal Pavón llegamos en compañía de los hermanos de León Ramos quienes fueron nuestros compañeros durante los meses que allí permanecimos y donde pude conocer más a fondo la realidad de Guatemala y establecer contactos para seguir trabajando posteriormente.

Durante esos meses (casi 7) tuve una estrecha comunicación con estos dos muchachos, quienes por sus condiciones, pudieron explicarme la verdadera situación de las FAR en relación con la situación general del país.

Es necesario hacer notar que en ese tiempo estaban recluidos allí 9 miembros del PGT esperando la sentencia de los Tribunales. El representante del grupo, Fco Coradolera quien administraba los fondos que recibía para repartir entre los presos políticos, fondos de los cuales no aportó nunca nada a ningún miembro de las FAR. Cuando nosotros llegamos trató de "asimilarnos", pero cuando yo le dije que no pertenecía a ningún partido ni el caso de "Trotzkista" acusación que (que lo mencionó alguna vez) motivó por parte de Perzabal (se me hiciera una investigación en México por parte de su señora esposa Teresa Posada.

Por su parte las FAR hicieron lo mismo
Constatando que yo no pertenecía a ningún grupo y terminando así con una si-tuación molesta que se había generado.

A medida que pasó el tiempo fui haciendo amistad personal con estos muchachos y para entonces nos habían pedido, para enviar a la dirección de FAR, un informe a cada uno de nosotros de los motivos que nos llevaron a Guatemala. De manera franca y abierta quiero decir que Carlos Perzabal (quien en muchas circunstancias se portó bien) en este caso ocultó los verdaderos motivos de nuestra detención. Por fortuna y gracias a los informes que dio personalmente
Sara Barrios a las FAR ~~[illegible]~~ ~~[illegible]~~ ~~[illegible]~~ por conducto del "Cebollita" y los hermanos de León, esto ya ~~[illegible]~~ se conocían.

Me veo obligado a mencionar esto, ya que durante el tiempo que estuvimos encarcelados, la ~~[illegible]~~ Sra. Teresa Posada y la señora mamá de Pergajal así como el Sr. Manuel Marcué Pardiñas, propagaron falsos informes en contra de mi esposa, haciéndola aparecer como "delatora" agente de la CIA, etc. etc; in-fluidos ciegamente para ocultar responsabilidades y por problemas de índole personal que nunca debieron mezclar.
Así mismo quiero dejar bien claro que por lo que a esto respecta ~~[illegible]~~ estoy dispuesto a deslindar responsabilidades frente a ellos, si es que insisten en esa posición.

impresiones con " CEBOLLITA "
(situación de FAR, sugestiones trabajo futuro etc)

Fraccionalismo radical entre los diversos
Grupos (PGT, 13 nov. FAR) motivo del Fraccio-nalismo, rompimiento con el PGT, asimilación del 13 de nov. Nombrando a Yon Sosa 1er Comandante. Críticas buenas y malas a Cuba, motivos de las críticas

falta de comprensión atribuida por las FAR a Cuba en los problemas internos de Guatemala; *indebido uso de los fondos proporcionados, etc. Crítica a los cuadros formados en la Habana, quienes al regresar no se integraban a la realidad de las necesidades de las FAR.

Situación actual de FAR.

anarquía, falta de organización, debilitamiento, elementos jóvenes con entusiasmo pero sin formación ideológica correcta y medios materiales. Un "profesional de FAR" percibe un promedio de Q40.00 al mes para su trabajo.

Fortalecimiento del Gobierno, expansión del Ejército con la ayuda de USA. Debilitamientos de las guerrilla de montaña que obligan el trabajo en la ciudad (guerrillas urbanas y terrorismo) que motiva a su vez una represión cada vez más fuerte y contraproducente.

Pérdida de cuadros valiosos: Néstor Valle, Efigenio, "Cebollita" "el Bareo, etc" debidas a falta de organización de medios y al fortalecimiento de las fuerzas represivas.

* Nacionalismo Guatemalteco que rechaza una ayuda directa en el sentido de participación activa por extranjeros, ellos no entienden por ese nacionalismo, que este tipo de ayuda es necesaria a veces para el desarrollo de la Rev. latinoamericana. Situación que no se planteó en mi caso gracias a la comprensión de la mentalidad guatemalteca por razones de ser chiapaneco y tener afinidades culturales de años con ellos.

Destitución de César Montes por motivo de haber estado mucho tiempo fuera y no integrarse a la lucha en el momento necesario; impresión que se tiene en Guatemala de algunos elementos guatemaltecos que hace tiempo viven en Cuba.

Situación General:

Durante los días que permanecí en la celda 400 del 4º Cuerpo de policía tuve oportunidad de cambiar impresiones con Rolando Ortiz "Cebollita" sobre la situación general de Guatemala especialmente de FAR, por aquel entonces César Montes no había sido destituido y se iniciaba una campaña de terrible represión por parte del gobierno; de acuerdo con las informaciones se desprende lo siguiente: La división entre PGT y FAR provocó una situación difícil pero algunos miembros del PGT renunciaron a éste y pasaron a las filas de FAR, aunque teóricamente el PGT dice apoyar la ~~[illegible]~~ lucha armada e incluso ~~[illegible]~~ disponer de contingentes en la montaña (Zona de Zacapa?) lo cierto es que provoca más la división y no apoya en lo más mínimo la línea de FAR esto es a grandes rasgos ya que los detalles son bien conocidos. En los últimos tiempos el PGT ~~[illegible]~~ trata de ahondar ~~[illegible]~~ más las divergencias. Como ejemplo doy la situación que presencié en París, donde el representante del PGT trataba de ganar adeptos entre los pocos pertenecientes a FAR ofreciéndoles ayuda económica e insistiendo en que su línea (línea de FAR) era equívoca en muchos aspectos.

Al ser nombrado Yon Sosa Comandante General ~~[illegible]~~ se esperaba que el Grupo 13 de Noviembre se aglutinara. ~~[illegible]~~ En teoría esta aglutinación se llevó a cabo, pero en la práctica se ha demostrado que este Grupo sigue actuando por su cuenta anárquicamente.

Todas estas circunstancias: divisiones, falta de organización ~~[illegible]~~, falta de madurez ideológica etc. han traído por consecuencia un debilitamiento de la lucha armada en Guatemala. A esto contribuye el fortalecimiento cada día mayor de las fuerzas represivas obra de los norteamericanos. Un ejército equipado con las armas más modernas ~~[illegible]~~ asesorado y entrenado por ellos, controla cada vez más la situación en la montaña. La consecuencia de todo esto ha sido la intensificación de la Guerrilla Urbana. Los jóvenes de FAR han tenido que bajar a la Ciudad y hacen esfuerzos desesperados pero anárquicos para efectuar acciones que muchas veces, muerte del Embajador Gordon Mein por ejemplo, traen consecuencias negativas, ya que las fuerzas del gobierno ~~[illegible]~~ intensifican la represión acabando con cuadros valiosos y necesarios. En la montaña se han sufrido reveses muy grandes, la muerte de Néstor Valle, Efigenio, la de Camilo en la ciudad etc. han debilitado aún más las acciones de FAR, pues las especiales circunstancias que hoy se viven en Guatemala impiden la rápida sustitución de estos cuadros. La falta de fondos para financiamiento es uno de los problemas más grandes, pues actualmente el dinero tiene que conseguirse a base de asaltos a empresas comerciales, dando por resultado muchas veces, que por conseguir una cantidad pequeña han muerto varios revolucionarios.

En mis charlas con los hermanos de León Barrios se me hizo notar el sentido negativo que algunos aspectos de la ayuda cubana representa. Se criticó duramente a los cuadros que se formaban allá, pues según dicen, en las ~~[illegible]~~ a veces largas estancias en Cuba se inadaptaban a la realidad Guatemalteca, [illegible] a su vuelta conflictos a veces serios. El Ejemplo más concreto es el reciente caso de César Montes, destituido por no haberse incorporado a su realidad en el momento necesario.

En Guatemala existe un fuerte nacionalismo, por esto los jóvenes de FAR rechazan cierto tipo de ayuda procedente de Cuba; se habla mucho allí entre ellos de fracasos obtenidos por los cuadros formados allá y ~~[illegible]~~ de un supuesto ofrecimiento Cubano de ayudarlos incluso con hombres.

Por ahora, hablando francamente, la lucha en Guatemala se ha debilitado. Los golpes sufridos han sido muchos y fuertes y es de extrema urgencia una reorganización ~~[illegible]~~

Uno de los aspectos más necesarios para el desarrollo de la lucha armada de Guatemala, es una mayor comprensión de la situación interna de ese país, y prestar por lo consiguiente la ayuda más adecuada.

Es verdad que el [illegible] fortalecimiento de esta lucha será a largo plazo, pero para ello es necesario que la ayuda sea más efectiva y realista; de acuerdo con las opiniones de los mexicanos de León Barros, elementos jóvenes pero entusiastas y valiosos, [illegible] (ellos trabajan unos en servicio de inteligencia, otros abastecimientos.)

Yo tengo que seguir trabajando [illegible] con las FAR, la especial situación de Pacífico, mis experiencias personales y la confianza que ellos me depositan han hecho que mantenga mis contactos, esperando por estos días la llegada de una persona muy responsable que me buscará con el nombre de PAVEL, para seguir trabajando en un sentido positivo.

1. Guatemala City has the following information on Oscar Moises ROLDAN Espinoza, who is undoubtedly identifiable with the Oscar Moises ROLDAN E. who sent one of the letters to LIRING-3 forwarded with Reference A: ROLDAN was arrested by the Guatemalan National Police on [illegible], along with one Oscar Rolando ESTRADA Aldana, after robbing a taxi driver of his car. In his interrogation by the Guatemalan authorities, ROLDAN admitted to being a member of the Rebel Armed Forces (FAR). He stated that the car was to have been used for a kidnapping, but he refused to name the target of the planned kidnap attempt. (Note: ROLDAN named "CAMILO" (deceased FAR leader Carlos Francisco ORDONEZ Monteagudo), "ARMANDO" (unidentified FAR Urban Resistance leader), "JAIME" (Luis Felipe CARVAJAL, FAR Urban Resistance leader) and Percy Amilcar JACOBS de Leon, among others, as FAR members with whom he was in contact. This would tend to indicate that ROLDAN was an important militant in the FAR Urban Resistance Front.) According to information available to the Station, ROLDAN was consigned to the courts. He apparently was later sent to El Pavon prison, where he met LIRING-3.

2. A check of the files of Miguel and Juan Jose de LEON Barrios shows that the home address given by them to the police was the same as the return address on the letter sent to LIRING-3 by "Marta," the mother of the de LEON brothers.

3. Guatemala City notes in the letter which LIRING-3 received from the mother of the de LEON brothers reference to greetings being sent from "Miguel, Elsa, La Negra, La Chiquita, Felisa, Maria Elena, and La Gordita." It is requested that LIRING-3 be queried for any details he can provide to further identify these individuals and any information he knows as to the FAR roles of these individuals. Equally, it is requested that LIRING-3 be queried for similar information on ROLDAN, whom he apparently knew as "Espinoza." Finally, Guatemala City will be greatly interested in all of the information LIRING-3 can provide on "PAVEL," including a full physical description, if and when he is put in contact with this individual. Since "PAVEL" is supposed to be a "genuine FAR representative," he may well turn out to be "Javier Contreras," or the "MIGUEL" known to [illegible]-1.

4. Per Paragraph 3 of Reference B, Guatemala City feels that it would be best to wait until LIRING-3 received a clear idea of what, if any, role he is to be given by LIRING, before any further direct discussions are necessary between Guatemala and Mexico City. As discussed during TORMET's recent visit, Guatemala City's interests would be best served if LIRING-3 can convince his LIRING contacts that he is now ready to help in PBRUMEN's efforts to support the FAR, that because of his poor financial position he will in the future be forced to work in a controlled fashion for LIRING, and that because of the contacts which he established with FAR leaders during his Guatemalan imprisonment he is trusted by the FAR and therefore can be influential in helping achieve LIRING's ends in its dealings with the FAR. Also, once LIRING-3 has been put into direct contact with the FAR support network in Mexico City, as he has been promised, we should have a clearer idea to what extent the FAR itself plans to utilize LIRING-3.

5. Guatemala City awaits with interest the results of LIRING-3's further discussions with LIRING.

6. For Headquarters: A seperate dispatch will be forwarded containing the information available to the Station on ROLDAN.

1. Forwarded under separate cover is an issue of a supposedly "literary" Cuban publication containing two short essays by the Salvadorian poet and writer Roque DALTON. The first of these essays is dedicated to LIRING-3. The interesting thing is that LIRING-3 was at that time imprisoned in Guatemala. The essay may thus be viewed as a tribute to "a suffering supporter of the cause."

2. Roque DALTON (201-215097) is, according to the files of the Station, an agent of the Cuban Intelligence Service engaged in clandestine activities for the Communist Party of El Salvador. DALTON spent some time in Czechoslovakia and is now living in Cuba. He is the brother of Margarita DALTON (201-751261), whom the Cuban IS recruited to work in Mexico. LIRING-3 got to know DALTON in Havana in 1962-63 and became a close friend of his (see HMMA-32283, 19 June 1967). DALTON at one point confided to LIRING-3 that he had been approached by WOFIRM while incarcerated in El Salvador.

3. The Station is hoping that DALTON's essay is an indication that LIRING-3 is going to be viewed by the Cubans in much better light after his incarceration in Guatemala. A report of LIRING-3's complete debriefing by ROWTON was forwarded with HMMA-35904, 27 November 1968.

Prometeo rompe una cadena

Cmdte. Jorge Serguera

Cuando aquel aparato comenzó con su ruido atronador a echar paja por detrás, caña en trozos por el costado izquierdo, humo por arriba y cortaba hojas verdes y cogollo, alante, hacia la izquierda: alguien dijo: ¡Es bárbaro! Se había realizado un sueño que tenía 100 años. Parece que le va a llegar la hora de museo al machete. Pero todavía falta; ahora hay que construir muchas y sobre todo mejorarla. Hay que patentarla para que todo el mundo pueda usarla y uno solo no se enriquezca con el trabajo de todos: la patente revolucionaria.

La esclavitud fue sustituida por el colonato. Una especie de servidumbre que se hizo tan común en nuestro país que cualquiera se hubiese asombrado de que así no fuese. Cuando el precio aumentaba en el mercado mundial la alegría del cubano hacía carnaval y se enfrentaba a una danza de millones. Cuando bajaba el precio del azúcar la tasa de crecimiento de muertes aumentaba por vía del suicidio como ocurrió en 1930 1932. Si había paz entre naciones poderosas había crisis económica en Cuba, si había guerra, prosperidad. Así fácilmente puede inferirse que la base del progreso estaba en la guerra. Teoría muy común en el pasado. Cuando el precio era bajo había la esperanza del aumento. Cuando era alto el temor de que bajara. Así la mentalidad azucarera del pueblo a causa del monocultivo, o como técnicamente dicen, economía unilineal, era inestable. Y si se tiene en cuenta además la historia de los últimos 60 años, sus convulsiones, guerras, etc., el desequilibrio económico tenía que ser factor de angustias y alegrías, esperanzas y desilusiones que gravaban hondamente el pensamiento del pueblo. Cualquier oscilación de precio se sentía desde el último bohío hasta la primera residencia. Claro está que en forma muy diferente.

No obstante saber todo el mundo o decir que el problema era el monocultivo y que había que diversificar los cultivos para liberarse de la dependencia de un producto, sobre todo después de la crisis económica de los años 30, no se hizo: porque el uso de las máquinas cortadoras, para realizar la más dura de todas las operaciones de recolección "no se permite en Cuba donde hay superexistencia de mano de obra y las leyes sociales vigentes hacen su uso extremadamente difícil" (carta de Agregado Agrícola de los Estados Unidos, La Habana, 16 de febrero de 1954). Y también porque "la mecanización en cualquier campo de actividad humana incluyendo la agricultura, no debe ser llevada demasiado lejos si ha de amargar a los hombres que aman la tierra, la libertad y la dignidad personal". Por eso en la Unión Soviética, donde la mecanización sobrepasa incluso la agroindustrialización, de la producción cubana del azúcar, se dice que los campesinos "tararean canciones de protesta aun a riesgo de ser castigados severamente" (Azúcar Amargo, Byron White, pág. 48).

Todos estos pretextos y otros, reflejos de una realidad social, de una contradicción insuperable en las condiciones en que se planteaba, caracterizó el período prerevolucionario. Era verdad que el 56% de la tierra cultivada era dedicada a caña. Que el cultivo era extensivo; pero sobre todo porque "una mecanización óptima y precipitada de los campos cañeros podría tener consecuencias caóticas, a menos de encontrar inmediatamente otros empleos para esa fuerza de trabajo". Byron White, pág. 50).

La Contradicción que sólo una Revolución podría resolver:

Cuba era un país de monocultivo. El 56% de la tierra cultivada era dedicada a caña. El producto de mayores dividendos, por vía de exportación, era el azúcar. El volumen de las importaciones estaba determinado por la cantidad de azúcar exportada. El desbalance podría ser resultado de la oscilación del precio en el mercado mundial. La específica o especial calidad del suelo cubano para el cultivo de la caña, más los bajos salarios de la mano de obra para el corte fueron determinantes en el análisis de la costeabilidad más baja de la producción azucarera cubana en comparación con Hawai y Louisiana, donde la mecanización agrícola del corte, alza y siembra pudieron haber determinado un costo más bajo en la producción, en la década del 40 al 50.

Con una población de más de 5 millones de habitantes entre los años 40 y 50, Cuba destinaba 500 000 al corte de caña o sea cerca del 10% de la población. Pero si se considera la población activa en edad de trabajo, los números varían escandalosamente.

Los propietarios necesitaban mano de obra, barata, y en cantidad para realizar la zafra. La recolección duraba cuatro meses. Los temporeros de zafra se convertían en desempleados cuando ésta terminaba. Mecanizar la industria azucarera podría significar un aumento de las utilidades por el bajo costo de producción que conllevaría; pero el desempleo aumentaría agravando una situación social cuyos resultados eran imprevisibles. Por otra parte, a nivel internacional, una disminución en costo de producción azucarera de Cuba, óptima en este caso, sería determinante del precio, por cuanto éste, lejos de venir determinado por la oferta y la demanda, es resultado de los promedios sociales de producción a nivel internacional. Esto hubiese provocado la quiebra en Hawai, Puerto Rico, Luisiana, etc. Y los norteamericanos, tutores y beneficiarios de la explotación neocolonial velaban por un cierto equilibrio en sus neocolonias. El desplazamiento de otros productores hubiese permitido una concurrencia privilegiada de Cuba en el mercado mundial. Este sueño dorado de los capitalistas cubanos fue cortado con un simple sistema de cuotas que la metrópoli norteamericana impuso, poniendo así paz entre los inquietos tutelados. Naturalmente que la medida determinó también un estancamiento económico.

Internamente, los obreros se oponían a todo lo que fuese mecanización porque esta acarrearía un desempleo en masa y no se veían, por no existir, posibilidades de opción en otros trabajos que no fuese la industria azucarera.

El sueño de industrializar y diversificar la agricultura del país no podía realizarse porque su estado de dependencia económica y neocolonial no se lo permitía. La política del comprador determinaba el producto. Para industrializar y diversificar hay que ser libres y los gobiernos cubanos eran dependientes de la metrópoli norteamericana que no había previsto en su planificación de obtención de beneficios estas aspiraciones. La importación de materias primas y la exportación de excedentes manufacturados es un privilegio de grandes y desarrollados. El chiquito que llegaba tarde a la mesa no podía sentarse a comer. Tenía que esperar a que los "grandes" terminasen; pero eran de una voracidad sin límites. Martí lo había previsto. "El pueblo que compra, manda. El pueblo que vende, sirve. Hay que equilibrar el comercio, para asegurar la libertad. El pueblo que quiere morir, vende a un solo pueblo; y el que quiere salvarse, vende a más de uno" (Obras completas, Vol. II, Tomo I, pág. 262).

La verdadera liberación se halla en esas palabras: La evolución tenía que resolver esa contradicción:

Una ley de desarrollo capitalista es que la acumulación se hace a expensas de la explotación, empobrecimiento y depauperación progresiva de los proletarios. Porque el valor de la fuerza de trabajo viene determinado por la posibilidad de reproducción de dicha fuerza. Al aplicar esta ley del desarrollo capitalista, la clase dominante obtiene beneficios a expensas de la clase obrera; pero en la interrelación de fuerzas y con el propio desarrollo del capitalismo, la dirección principal de la explotación en los países capitalistas, pasó de la clase obrera nacional a las colonias y neocolonias, sufriendo estas últimas el mayor rigor de la ley del valor y produciéndose la actual acumulación de capital de los países desarrollados a expensas de los subdesarrollados. Por eso mientras más desarrollados son unos, más atrasados son otros.

Esta contradicción: para poder desarrollarse hay que liberarse del explotador, se planteaba en Cuba de forma confusa, como un círculo vicioso. Para salir del monocultivo y dependencia económica de un producto hay que diversificar e industrializar y para lograr la industrialización y diversificación agrícola hay que liberar la fuerza de trabajo dedicada al azúcar a través de la mecanización cañera y para mecanizar hace falta la seguridad económica de que ésta rendirá utilidades.

El Círculo Vicioso:

- a) Los obreros se oponían a la mecanización porque no existía otra alternativa de trabajo.
- b) Los capitalistas no mecanizaban por la inseguridad del precio en el mercado mundial.
  La mecanización debe habérsele presentado a algunos como una inversión dudosa. Por otra parte la mano de obra era barata y en grandes cantidades. El suelo tenía tales características que casi sin atención producía en condiciones explotables.
- c) Hay un factor más complejo: La industria azucarera no tenía perspectivas a largo plazo; pero tampoco era desechable en lo inmediato por la rentabilidad que producía. Su futuro era incierto; pero su presente daba utilidades. Estas características, causas de inestabilidad, vacilaciones, crisis, alzas y bajas, lejos de provocar decisiones en una u otra dirección, mantuvo un estatismo en los propietarios y gobernantes. Tal parece que hubiesen esperado que un imponderable o el simple transcurso del tiempo resolviese una situación que a la par que les preocupaba, demostraban ineptitud para resolver.
- d) Si el azúcar era la fuente principal de ingresos y acumulación, por tanto la base financiera del desarrollo debía ser ésta.

Problemas específicos:

- a) 500.000 cortadores de caña. Representa el 10% del total de la población y cerca del 40% de la población en edad laboral.
- b) El 50% de la tierra cultivada destinada a caña.
- c) La concentración de la caña: la única actividad productiva que podía permitir ingresos casi seguros, se encontraba distribuida entre un número relativamente bajo.
- d) La repartición democrática de la fuerza de trabajo era, como las instalaciones azucareras, horizontal, es decir, a lo largo y ancho de la isla. Concentrar las instalaciones azucareras en tierras de mayor productividad y acorde con las instalaciones de mayor capacidad, suponía también la concentración de la mano de obra.

Las dos fuentes de riquezas principales de Cuba, suelo y Mano de Obra, quedaron supeditados a un monocultivo cuyo futuro era incierto.

Pudieron haber arriesgado la diversificación e industrialización del país no tanto con las probabilidades de ganancia de un producto inseguro, sino con la realidad de un suelo rico y una fuerza de trabajo apta, pero por ineptitud y conformismo unidos a las presiones y tutela de los Estados Unidos no encararon con resolución un proceso dinámico que su visión estrecha les hacía aparecer estático.

El simple transcurso del tiempo con dos consecuencias inevitables, una social y otra económica (crecimiento de la población y concentración de capital), en las condiciones de la economía cubana, conducía a una crisis del sistema imperante: la Revolución fue la respuesta. Allí donde la burguesía en su doble condición de propietaria y gobernante demostró incapacidad y vaciló, la Revolución tenía que superarla. La Revolución heredó los problemas que no habían sido encarados y las contradicciones que no habían sido resueltas.

Las soluciones que algunos escritores progresistas, estudiosos o economistas planteaban a los graves problemas de la economía nacional, no sólo resultaban con el tiempo meros paliativos que solamente lograban la dilación de la crisis e irresolución de los problemas, sino que resultaban reformas impracticables por las contradicciones que a su vez creaban. Véase a modo de ejemplo el apéndice No. 5 de José Antonio Guerra, de fecha 28 de septiembre de 1942. También algunas conclusiones de Byron White en "Azúcar Amargo", pág. 178 y siguientes.

Pero la Revolución no solamente heredó problemas y contradicciones, sino que por su sola presencia y naturaleza del proceso como otros problemas y contradicciones que se vieron agudizados tanto por la agresividad que desde el primer momento desarrollaron los imperialistas estadounidenses como por la ignorancia y falta de madurez del pueblo, quien permeado por las ideas fáciles del pasado creía que con la simple nacionalización de la industria azucarera y otros sectores podían superarse los problemas. La distribución de la riqueza, acumulada por la burguesía hasta entonces, no hubiese servido para sobrevivir más que pocos años y además de ser utópica hubiese enajenado el desarrollo industrial del país. Por otra parte, el capital acumulado no bastaba para financiar una diversificación agrícola ni instalaciones industriales. También el mercado seguro que los Estados Unidos representaba para las exportaciones azucareras y las importaciones, tanto de alimentos, artículos de lujo y piezas de repuesto, desaparecía. La seguridad que la burguesía aceptaba, a precio de angustia e incertidumbre, esta seguridad relativa, desaparecía con la Revolución.

Esta era resultado de una contradicción que en el plano de las relaciones internacionales, bilaterales y casi exclusivas entre Cuba y los Estados Unidos, los últimos llevaban la mejor parte. El desarrollo económico tenía que haberlo encarado la burguesía cubana a pesar de los Estados Unidos. Desarrollar si se quiere una concepción nacionalista, chauvinista, de independencia económica, pero su concepción de fatalismo geográfico, sus temores y balbuceos le impidieron realizar una política para la que hacía falta, además de coraje, inteligencia. De una parte la naturaleza del imperialismo se revela incapaz para conceder reformas y por otra, es una característica sui generis de las burguesías nacionales latinoamericanas, su temor a rebelarse contra los tutores de una política y economía que por su poder y rapacidad les infunde temor. En el caso de latinoamérica no es tanto que no haya cristalizado una conciencia nacional burguesa, sino que la existencia de esta clase tiene una conciencia de dependencia de Estados Unidos que la incapacita en este período histórico para ver la posibilidad de una existencia independiente.

Con el triunfo de la Revolución, los burgueses y pequeños burgueses abandonaron Cuba, no solamente por las intervenciones revolucionarias, sino también por la convicción que tenían de que no podía mantenerse un gobierno que aplicase una política no sólo a pesar de los Estados Unidos, sino contra los intereses y objetivos de los Estados Unidos. Habían sido muy dependientes y cobardes. Desarrollaron y aceptaron como incuestionables, conceptos que elevaron a categorías de axiomas políticos, sin percatarse que eran el reflejo de una ideología y creencias temerosas: "Sin azúcar no hay País". "El pueblo cubano es haragán", "Cuba está muy cerca de los Estados Unidos para hacer lo que le plazca", etcétera.

Si al gobierno de los Estados Unidos y a las burguesías latinoamericanas causó asombro y estupefacción la proclamación socialista de la Revolución cubana, en los cobardes burgueses y pequeños burgueses, así como en los cubanos en Miami, el origen del asombro no era tanto económico, sino que provenía del hecho de que se mantuviese la Revolución. La cobardía jamás concibe otras soluciones que las ya experimentadas. Para ellos las reformas eran difíciles, casi utópicas. ¡Una Revolución, imposible!

Los soviéticos y demás países socialistas ofrecieron mercado para el azúcar.

Las inversiones económicas para el desarrollo de la industria que la lógica priorizaba, se vieron obstaculizadas por el bloqueo impuesto por los norteamericanos y por la necesidad de desarrollar un aparato militar fuerte y modernísimo, capaz de enfrentar tanto las agresiones, como las amenazas constantes que los Estados Unidos y gobiernos latinoamericanos realizaban.

Hoy la situación se plantea con agudeza. Para llevar adelante la diversificación agrícola e industrialización del país, hace falta mano de obra. Los cubanos en edad laboral somos unos 2 000 000 y el 30 por ciento está dedicado a la recolección azucarera.

Liberar esta fuerza de trabajo supone la posibilidad de dirigirla a otros sectores donde su productividad y desarrollo permita la acumulación de riquezas necesarias al despegue económico. Para esto hay que mecanizar la industria azucarera. La máquina que corte y alce liberará no sólo 500 000 cubanos, formidable fuerza de trabajo, sino que terminará por primera vez con el fatigoso corte de caña, uno de los trabajos más duros y violentos que en el planeta se conoce. El machete, símbolo de libertad y esfuerzo del cubano, también signo de dependencia y angustia, se convertirá en una pieza de museo.

Todavía por algunos años habrá que depender del monocultivo cañero, y del azúcar como producto principal de exportación. Esta prioridad azucarera es una de las razones que determina la imposibilidad de contar con mano de obra suficiente para desarrollar otros cultivos de manera intensa. Es posiblemente sólo en Cuba, donde se da el fenómeno de un equilibrio entre la densidad de población y las tierras cultivables, equilibrio en nuestro caso desfavorable al desarrollo económico, y que se ve causado o agravado por el predominio cañero.

Si en vez de 7 millones fuésemos 10 millones de cubanos el problema se plantearía en otros términos. Podría tal vez encararse la mecanización azucarera como paulatina y paralela al desarrollo de otros sectores; pero en nuestras condiciones la mecanización resulta un requisito sine qua non.

Pero la mecanización no sólo produce efectos económicos, sino que el más profundo es de carácter ético. La verdadera liberación será de la fatigosa carga del corte manual.

Alguien ha dicho que el verdadero fin de la Revolución es una máquina cortadora, que cuando esto ocurra la Revolución habrá roto una de las cadenas más pesadas y difíciles.

Esto representará la liberación de una parte considerable de la población en edad laboral y romperá las barreras de una baja productividad cuyos resultados a mediano y largo plazo, son difíciles de prever. La industria azucarera sigue siendo incierta, en tanto existe la posibilidad de producir azúcar sintético; en condiciones económicas. Pero hasta tanto eso no ocurra, la industria azucarera de la caña, seguirá siendo la base de nuestro desarrollo económico, y en pocos años, descansando en las riquezas de nuestro suelo y en la fuerza de nuestro pueblo, la Revolución habrá resuelto las contradicciones y problemas que timoratos y vacilantes no supieron encarar con el valor y el coraje que le habían legado las tradiciones mambisas: el machete que sirvió para romper el nudo con España, sirve hoy también como garante exclusivo, por la mano que lo empuña, de un desarrollo económico en el que sin riesgo de ningún tipo pueden confiar todos los gobiernos y pueblos del mundo.

a) La combinada de corte y alza que vimos en la Básica del Cauto representa una ayuda inestimable al prolongado esfuerzo y sacrificio que hay que realizar en años de una acumulación de riquezas para financiar tanto la industria como la diversificación agrícola.

b) Representa un incremento de la población en edad laboral.

c) Hará desaparecer una especie de sentimiento de culpabilidad que naturalmente tenemos que sentir todos respecto al obrero agrícola cortador.

d) La máquina de corte y alza constituye el primer eslabón de la Revolución Industrial necesaria a nuestro desarrollo y nuestra total liberación.

Adolfo Sánchez Vázquez

Actividad y praxis.

Toda praxis es actividad, pero no toda actividad es praxis. Al señalar Marx que el idealismo, en contraste con el materialismo, admite el lado activo de la relación sujeto-objeto, y al subrayar, a su vez, su defecto —no ver esta actividad como práctica—,(1) nos previene contra todo intento de establecer un signo de igualdad entre actividad y praxis. De ahí que para delimitar el contenido propio de esta última y su relación con otras actividades, sea preciso distinguir la praxis, como forma de actividad específica, de otras que pueden estar incluso íntimamente vinculadas a ella.

Por actividad en general, entendemos el acto o conjunto de actos en virtud de los cuales un sujeto activo (agente) modifica una materia prima dada.(2) Esta caracterización de la actividad justamente por su generalidad no especifica el tipo de agente (físico, biológico o humano) ni la naturaleza de la materia prima sobre la que actúa (cuerpo físico, ser vivo, vivencia psíquica, grupo, relación o institución social) ni determina tampoco la especie de actos (físicos, psíquicos, sociales) que conducen a cierta transformación. El resultado de la actividad, o sea, su producto se da asimismo, en niveles diversos: puede ser una nueva partícula, un concepto, un útil, una obra artística o un nuevo sistema social.

En este amplio sentido, actividad se opone a pasividad, y su esfera es la de la efectividad, no la de lo meramente posible. Agente es lo que obra, lo que actúa y no lo que está solamente en posibilidad o disponibilidad de actuar u obrar. Su actividad no es potencial, sino actual. Se da efectivamente sin que pueda ser separada del acto o conjunto de actos que la constituyen. La actividad muestra en las relaciones entre las partes y el todo los rasgos de una totalidad concreta. Varios actos desarticulados o yuxtapuestos casualmente no permiten hablar de actividad; es preciso que los actos singulares se articulen o estructuren, como elementos de un todo, o de un proceso total, que desemboca en la modificación de una materia prima. Por ello, a los actos del agente y a la materia sobre la cual se ejerce esta actividad, hay que agregar el resultado o producto que es esa materia misma ya transformada por el agente.

Nuestro concepto de actividad es lo suficientemente amplio para que englobe, por ejemplo: a un nivel físico, las relaciones nucleares de determinadas partículas que conducen a la transformación de unos elementos químicos en su conjunto, o la actividad de un órgano en particular; a un nivel psíquico, las actividades del hombre o del animal del tipo de la sensorial, refleja instintiva, etcétera; en este plano instintivo, la actividad puede manifestarse como una serie de actos tan complejos como el de la construcción de un nido por un pájaro, sin que por ello deje de ser una actividad meramente biológica, natural. El hombre también puede ser sujeto de actividades —biológicas o instintivas— que no rebasan su nivel meramente natural y que, por tanto, no podemos considerarlas como específicamente humanas.

La actividad propiamente humana sólo se da cuando los actos dirigidos a un objeto para transformarlo se inician con un resultado ideal, o fin, y terminan con un resultado o producto efectivos, reales. En este caso, los actos no sólo se hallan determinados causalmente por un estado anterior que se ha dado efectivamente —determinación del pasado por el presente—, sino por algo que no tiene una existencia efectiva aún y que, sin embargo, determina y regula los diferentes actos antes de desembocar en un resultado real; o sea, la determinación no viene del pasado, sino del futuro.

Este modo de articulación y determinación de los diferentes actos del proceso activo distinguen radicalmente la actividad específicamente humana de cualquier otra que se halle a un nivel meramente natural. Dicha actividad entraña la intervención de la conciencia gracias a la cual el resultado existe dos veces —y en tiempos distintos—, como resultado ideal y como producto real. El resultado real que se quiere obtener, existe primero idealmente, como mero producto de la conciencia, y los diferentes actos del proceso se articulan o estructuran conforme al resultado que se da primero en el tiempo, es decir, el resultado ideal. Por esta anticipación del resultado que se pretende obtener, la actividad propiamente humana tiene un carácter consciente. Lo característico de ella es que por mucho que diste el resultado real del ideal se trata, en todo caso, de adecuar intencionalmente el primero al segundo. Ello no significa que el resultado obtenido haya de ser forzosamente una mera duplicación real de un modelo ideal preexistente. No; la adecuación no tiene por qué ser perfecta. Puede asemejarse poco, o incluso nada, al fin originario, ya que éste sufre cambios, a veces radicales, en el proceso de su realización. Ahora bien, para que pueda hablarse de actividad humana basta que se plantee en ella un resultado ideal o fin a cumplir, como punto de partida, y una intención de adecuación, independientemente de cómo se plasme, en definitiva, el modelo ideal originario.

Esta inadecuación entre intención y resultado se pone de manifiesto tanto en la actividad de los individuos como en la propiamente social. Aquí, mientras los hombres no son conscientes de las leyes que rigen el proceso económico-social, la persecución de diferentes fines por los miembros de la sociedad da lugar a actividades diversas de los individuos o grupos sociales en los que dichos fines se contraponen, equilibran o se subordinan entre sí produciendo resultados que no concuerdan con sus intenciones o que se dan con independencia de éstas. Las relaciones de producción, por ejemplo, son relaciones que los hombres contraen independientemente de su voluntad y de su conciencia. Es decir, son producidas por los hombres como productos suyos inintencionales.(3) El progreso histórico se caracterizará, entre otras cosas, por una superación de esta inintencionalidad. Los hombres que en el pasado produjeron inintencionadamente la esclavitud, el feudalismo y el capitalismo se proponen hoy, conscientemente, la destrucción de las relaciones capitalistas de producción y la instauración del socialismo. Pero aunque la historia humana registra resultados que nadie ha querido, esta inintencionalidad no es sino la forma que socialmente adopta el resultado de la actividad desplegada por los individuos como seres sociales que actúan conscientemente.(4) Volveremos más adelante (en el capítulo V) sobre esta cuestión.

La actividad humana es, por tanto, actividad conforme a fines, y éstos sólo existen por el hombre, como productos de su conciencia. Toda acción verdaderamente humana exige cierta conciencia de un fin, el cual se supedita al curso de la actividad misma.

El fin es, a su vez, la expresión de cierta actitud del sujeto ante la realidad. Por el hecho de trazarme un fin, adopto cierta posición ante ella. Quien se propone realizar un viaje, construir una silla, pintar un cuadro o transformar un régimen social, muestra determinada actitud ante una situación real, presente. Si el hombre viviera en plena armonía con la realidad, o en total conciliación con su presente, no sentiría la necesidad de negarlos idealmente ni de configurar en su conciencia una realidad inexistente aún. Carece de sentido, en verdad, proponerse un fin ya alcanzado, o un resultado obtenido. El fin prefigura idealmente lo que aún no se logra alcanzar. Por el hecho de trazarse fines, el hombre niega una realidad efectiva, y afirma otra que no existe todavía. Pero los fines son productos de la conciencia, y, por ello, la actividad que rigen es consciente. No se trata de la actividad de una conciencia pura, sino de la conciencia de un hombre social que no puede prescindir de la producción de fines en ninguna forma de actividad, incluyendo, por supuesto, la práctica, material.(5)

Marx hace resaltar el papel del fin en una actividad práctica como el trabajo humano: «Al final del proceso de trabajo, brota un resultado que antes de comenzar el proceso existia ya en la mente del obrero: es decir, un resultado que tenia ya existencia ideal. El obrero no se limita a hacer cambiar de forma la materia que le brinda la naturaleza, sino que, al mismo tiempo, realiza en ella su fin, fin que él sabe que rige como una ley las modalidades de su actuación, y al que tiene que supeditar su voluntad».(6)

Al subrayar aquí el papel de la producción de fines en el proceso de trabajo, Marx destaca asimismo el papel del objeto —«la materia que le brinda la naturaleza»— sobre el cual se ejerce dicha actividad. La transformación de la naturaleza material en productos mediante el trabajo no podría darse sin estas condiciones materiales, pero, a su vez, Marx subraya justamente por tratarse del trabajo como una actividad específicamente humana el papel determinante del fin, y su carácter de ley en dicho proceso de transformación material.

El fin, por tanto, prefigura aquí el resultado de una actividad real, práctica, que ya no es pura actividad de la conciencia. Gracias a ello, el hombre no se halla en una relación de exterioridad con sus diferentes actos y con su producto como sucede cuando se trata de un agente físico o animal, sino en una relación de interioridad con ellos, ya que su conciencia establece el fin como ley de sus actos, ley a la que se subordinan, y que rige, en cierto modo, el producto. Este dominio jamás puede ser absoluto, ya que se halla limitado por el objeto de la acción y los medios con que se lleva a cabo la materialización de los fines.

Así, pues, al anticipar idealmente el resultado efectivo, puede ajustar sus actos como elementos de una totalidad regida por el fin. Esta prefiguración ideal del resultado real diferencia radicalmente la actividad del hombre de cualquier otra actividad animal que, externamente, pudiera asemejarse a ella. «Una araña —dice Marx— ejecuta operaciones que semejan las manipulaciones del tejedor, y la construcción de los panales de las abejas podría avergonzar, por su perfección, a más de un maestro de obras. Pero hay algo en que el peor maestro de obras aventaja, desde luego, a la mejor abeja, y es el hecho de que, antes de ejecutar la construcción, la proyecta en su cerebro».(7)

Tomando en cuenta la semejanza externa que puede darse entre ciertos actos animales y humanos, hay que concluir que la actividad propia del hombre no puede reducirse a su mera expresión exterior y que de ella forma parte esencialmente la actividad de la conciencia. Esta actividad se despliega como producción de fines que prefiguran idealmente el resultado real que se quiere obtener, pero se manifiesta, asimismo, como producción de conocimientos, es decir, en forma de conceptos, hipótesis, teorías o leyes mediante los cuales el hombre conoce la realidad.

Entre la actividad cognoscitiva y la teleológica hay diferencias importantes, pues mientras la primera tiene que ver con una realidad presente de la cual se pretende dar razón, la segunda hace referencia a una realidad futura, y, por tanto, inexistente aún. Por otro lado, mientras la actividad cognoscitiva de por sí no entraña una exigencia de acción efectiva, la actividad teleológica lleva implícita una exigencia de realización, en virtud de la cual se tiende a hacer del fin una causa de la acción real. En efecto, en cuanto anticipación ideal de un resultado real que se quiere alcanzar, el fin es también expresión de una necesidad humana que sólo se satisface con el logro del resultado que aquel prefigura o anticipa. Por ello, no es sólo anticipación ideal de lo que está por venir, sino de algo que, además, queremos que venga. Y, en este sentido, es causa de acción y determina —como porvenir— nuestros actos presentes. Cierto es que el hombre no solo anticipa el futuro con su actividad teleológica; al dar razón de una realidad presente, y sobre la base de su conocimiento puede prever una fase de su desenvolvimiento que no se da aún. Tal es la legítima función de la previsión científica. Con ella, se anticipa idealmente lo que todavía no existe efectivamente. Pero esa anticipación ideal del futuro no entraña necesariamente que queramos su existencia real, o aspiremos a contribuir a que advenga. En este caso, el futuro no determina nuestros actos; es decir, la prefiguración ideal de una realidad inexistente no rige como una ley —a diferencia del fin— nuestra acción. En pocas palabras, la actividad cognoscitiva de por sí no nos mueve a actuar.

Pero eso no significa que una y otra actividad de la conciencia se hallen separadas por una muralla insalvable. No se conoce por conocer, sino al servicio de un fin, o serie de fines que puede tener como eslabón inicial el de la conquista de la verdad; a su vez, como antes señalamos, los fines que la conciencia produce llevan en su seno una exigencia de realización, y esta realización presupone —entre otras condiciones— una actividad cognoscitiva sin la cual dichos fines jamás podrían tocar tierra, es decir, cumplirse. Por otro lado, todo fin presupone deter-síntesis cognoscitiva de la realidad que él niega idealmente; y, en este sentido —como índice de cierto nivel cognoscitivo— no podría desvincularse tampoco del conocimiento.

Así, pues, la actividad de la conciencia, que es inseparable de toda verdadera actividad humana, se nos presenta como elaboración de fines y producción de conocimientos en íntima unidad. Si el hombre aceptara siempre el mundo como es, y si, por otra parte, se aceptara siempre a sí mismo en su estado actual, no sentiría la necesidad de transformar el mundo ni de transformarse él a su vez. Se actúa conociendo, de la misma manera que —como veremos más adelante— se conoce actuando. El conocimiento humano en su conjunto se integra en la doble e infinita tarea del hombre de transformar la naturaleza exterior, y su propia naturaleza. Pero el conocimiento no sirve directamente a esta actividad práctica, transformadora; se pone en relación con ella a través de los fines. La relación entre el pensamiento y la acción requiere la mediación de los fines no han de quedarse en meros deseos o ensoñaciones, y van acompañados de una apetencia de realización, esta realización —o cumplimiento en una materia dada para producir determinado resultado— requiere un conocimiento de su objeto, de los medios e instrumentos para transformarlo y de las condiciones que abren o cierran las posibilidades de esa realización. En consecuencia, las actividades cognoscitiva y teleológica de la conciencia se hallan en una unidad indisoluble.

La actividad de la conciencia de por sí tiene un carácter que podemos denominar teórico en cuanto que no puede conducir por sí sola, como mera actividad de la conciencia, a una transformación de la realidad, natural o social.(8) Tanto si se trata de la formulación de fines como de la producción de conocimientos, la conciencia no rebasa su propio ámbito; es decir, su actividad no se objetiva o materializa. Por esta razón, si una y otra son actividades no son, en modo alguno, actividad objetiva, real, es decir, praxis.

Como toda actividad propiamente humana, la actividad práctica que se manifiesta en el trabajo humano, en la creación artística o en la praxis revolucionaria, es una actividad adecuada a fines, cuyo cumplimiento exige —como hemos señalado— cierta actividad cognoscitiva. Pero lo distintivo de la actividad práctica radica en el carácter real, objetivo, de la materia prima sobre la cual se actúa, de los medios o instrumentos con que se ejerce la acción, y de su resultado o producto. En la actividad práctica, el sujeto actúa sobre una materia que existe independientemente de su conciencia, y de las diferentes operaciones o manipulaciones exigidas por su transformación. La transformación de esa materia —sobre todo, en el trabajo humano— exige una serie de actos físicos, corpóreos sin los cuales no podría llevarse a cabo la alteración o destrucción de ciertas propiedades que hace posible la aparición de un nuevo objeto, con nuevas propiedades. En el trabajo, dice Marx, «el hombre se enfrenta como un poder natural con la materia de la naturaleza. Pone en acción las fuerzas naturales que forman su corporeidad, los brazos y las piernas, la cabeza y la mano, para de ese modo asimilarse, bajo una forma útil para su propia vida, las materias que la naturaleza le brinda».(9) Finalmente, el producto de la actividad transformadora es un objeto material que subsiste con independencia del proceso de su gestación, y que, con una sustantividad propia, se afirma ante el sujeto, es decir, cobra vida independientemente de la actividad subjetiva que lo ha creado.

En este sentido, podemos decir que la actividad práctica es real, objetiva o material. Y, a nuestro juicio, así la caracteriza Marx en sus Tesis sobre Feuerbach(10) al emplear la expresión «actividad objetiva». Marx subraya el carácter real, objetivo, de la praxis en cuanto transforma el mundo exterior que es independiente de su conciencia y de su existencia. El objeto de la actividad práctica es la naturaleza, la sociedad o los hombres reales. El fin de esa actividad es la transformación real, objetiva, del mundo natural o social para satisfacer determinada necesidad humana. Y el resultado es una nueva realidad que subsiste independientemente del sujeto o de los sujetos concretos que la engendraron con su actividad subjetiva, pero que, en definitiva, sólo existe por el hombre y para el hombre, como ser social.

Sin esta acción real, objetiva, sobre una realidad —natural o humana— que existe independientemente del sujeto práctico, no puede hablarse propiamente de praxis como actividad material consciente y objetiva; por tanto, la simple actividad subjetiva —psíquica—, o meramente espiritual que no se objetiva materialmente no puede considerarse como praxis.

Formas de praxis

La materia prima de la actividad práctica puede cambiar dando lugar a diversas formas de praxis. El objeto sobre el cual ejerce su acción el sujeto puede ser: a) lo dado naturalmente, o entes naturales; b) productos de una praxis anterior que se convierten, a su vez, en materia de una nueva praxis, como los materiales ya preparados con que trabaja el obrero o crea el artista plástico; c) lo humano mismo, ya se trate de la sociedad como materia u objeto de la praxis política o revolucionaria, ya se trate de individuos concretos. En unos casos, como vemos, la praxis tiene por objeto al hombre y, en otros, una materia no propiamente humana: natural, en unos casos, artificial, en otros.

Entre las formas fundamentales de la praxis tenemos la actividad práctica productiva, o relación material y transformadora que el hombre establece —mediante su trabajo— con la naturaleza.(11) Gracias al trabajo, el hombre vence la resistencia de las materias y fuerzas naturales y crea un mundo de objetos útiles que satisfacen determinadas necesidades. Pero como el hombre es un ser social, este proceso solamente se realiza en determinadas condiciones sociales, es decir, en el marco de ciertas relaciones que los hombres contraen como agentes de la producción en este proceso y que Marx llama justamente relaciones de producción.(12)

En el proceso de trabajo, el hombre valiéndose de los instrumentos o medios adecuados transforma un objeto con arreglo a un fin. En cuanto materializa cierto fin o proyecto, se objetiva en cierto modo en su producto. En el trabajo —dice Marx— el hombre asimila «bajo una forma útil para su propia vida, las materias que la naturaleza le brinda»,(13) pero sólo puede asimilarlas objetivándose en ellas, es decir, imprimiendo en la materia trabajada la marca de sus fines. Marx señala esta adecuación a un fin como uno de los factores esenciales del proceso de trabajo: «Los factores simples que intervienen en el proceso de trabajo son: la actividad adecuada a un fin, o sea, el propio trabajo, su objeto y sus medios».(14)

En esta caracterización del proceso de trabajo, podemos hablar de condiciones objetivas —la actividad del hombre y las condiciones materiales del trabajo— representadas tanto por el objeto del trabajo como por los medios o instrumentos con que se lleva a cabo esa transformación. Sin embargo, esta división no puede considerarse absoluta. En primer lugar, el hombre transforma el objeto con arreglo a fines valiéndose de instrumentos que él mismo usa y fabrica, razón por la cual Marx dice que su uso y fabricación «caracterizan el proceso de trabajo específicamente humano».(15) Al reducir Marx el instrumento de trabajo —condición material y objetiva del proceso laboral— a trabajo humano, el instrumento aparece así humanizado también —tanto por su uso como por su fabricación—. Cierto es que esta humanización no puede concebirse en un sentido abstracto, antropológico, sino como expresión tanto de una determinada relación entre el hombre y la naturaleza como de las condiciones sociales en que los hombres producen (relaciones de producción). Por ello dice Marx: «Los instrumentos de trabajo no son solamente el barómetro indicador del desarrollo de la fuerza de trabajo del hombre, sino también el exponente de las condiciones sociales en que se trabaja.(16) Gracias a los instrumentos, la relación entre el hombre y la naturaleza deja de ser directa e inmediata. La aparición de instrumentos más perfeccionados modifica el tipo de relación entre el hombre y la naturaleza, y, en este sentido, es un índice revelador del desarrollo de su fuerza de trabajo y de su dominio sobre la naturaleza. El poder de mediación del instrumento se ha extendido y elevado con la introducción de la máquina hasta llegar a la automatización con la que el hombre queda separado radicalmente del objeto de la producción. Pero cualesquiera que sean los instrumentos de que se valga para transformar la materia conforme a sus fines, es, en definitiva, el hombre quien los usa y fabrica, y es él, en última instancia, el que valiéndose de ellos actúa sobre las materias y las transforma conforme a sus necesidades. El papel dominante de los medios de producción, subrayado por Marx, lejos de eliminar la presencia del hombre concreto, como sujeto de la producción, lo revela inequívocamente. Pero esta presencia se pone de manifiesto abiertamente con el tercer factor del proceso de trabajo señalado por Marx: su carácter de actividad personal adecuada a un fin. No se puede desconocer el papel de este factor al analizar el proceso de trabajo aunque ello se haga para subrayar la naturaleza material de las condiciones del proceso de trabajo y el papel dominante de los medios de producción.»(17)

Se puede afirmar el carácter teleológico de la actividad práctica, material, que es el trabajo humano, sin que ello implique hacer abstracción de la materialidad misma de ese proceso, materialidad que no se reduce, por otra parte, al objeto de trabajo y a los instrumentos materiales, sino que incluye también, la propia actividad subjetiva del hombre que se enfrenta con sus instrumentos o la materia ya que en el trabajo «pone en acción las fuerzas naturales que forman su corporeldad, los brazos y las piernas, la cabeza y la mano...» (18)

La praxis productiva es así la praxis fundamental porque en ella el hombre no sólo produce un mundo humano o humanizado, en el sentido de un mundo de objetos que satisfacen necesidades humanas y que sólo pueden ser producidos en la medida en que se plasman en ellos fines o proyectos humanos, sino también, en el sentido de que en la praxis productiva el hombre se produce, forma o transforma a sí mismo. «A la par que de ese modo actúa sobre la naturaleza exterior a él y la transforma —dice Marx en El Capital—, transforma su propia naturaleza desarrollando las potencias que dormitan en él y sometiendo el juego de sus fuerzas a su propia disciplina». (19)

Otra forma de praxis es la producción o creación de obras de arte. Al igual que el trabajo humano es transformación de una materia a la que se imprime una forma dada, exigida no ya por una necesidad práctico-utilitaria, sino por una necesidad general humana de expresión y objetivación. En cuanto que la actividad del artista no se halla limitada por la utilidad material que el producto del trabajo debe satisfacer, puede llevar el proceso de humanización que —en forma limitada— se da ya en el trabajo humano hasta sus últimas consecuencias. Por ello la praxis artística permite la creación de objetos humanos o humanizados que elevan a un grado superior la capacidad de expresión y objetivación humanas, que se revela ya en los productos del trabajo. La obra artística es, ante todo, creación de una nueva realidad, y puesto que el hombre se afirma, creando o humanizando cuanto toca, la praxis artística —al ensanchar y enriquecer con sus creaciones la realidad ya humanizada— es una praxis esencial para el hombre. (20)

Como toda verdadera praxis humana, el arte se sitúa en la esfera de la acción, de la transformación de una materia que ha de ceder su forma para adoptar otra nueva: la exigida por la necesidad humana que el objeto creado o producido ha de satisfacer. El arte no es mera producción material ni pura producción espiritual. Pero justamente por su carácter práctico, realizador y transformador, está más cerca del trabajo humano —sobre todo, cuando éste no ha perdido su carácter creador—, que de una actividad meramente espiritual.

Entre las formas de actividad práctica que se ejercen sobre una materia dada hay que incluir también la actividad científica experimental que satisface, primordialmente, las necesidades de la investigación teórica, y, en particular, las de la comprobación de hipótesis. Esta forma de praxis es la que se pone de manifiesto cuando el investigador actúa sobre un objeto material modificando a voluntad las condiciones en que se opera un fenómeno. Tal es el sentido de la experimentación como praxis científica. El investigador produce fenómenos que son una reproducción de los que se dan en un medio natural, pero los produce justamente para poder estudiarlos en un medio artificial —el del laboratorio— sin las impurezas y perturbaciones con que se presentan en el medio natural y que, por esa razón, dificultan su estudio. En cuanto que se trata de producir determinados fenómenos con ayuda del instrumento físico adecuado, la actividad científica experimental es, evidentemente, una forma de praxis. Se trata de una actividad objetiva que da lugar a un producto o resultado real y objetivo.

En este tipo de praxis el fin inmediato es teórico. El experimento se lleva a cabo para probar una teoría, o determinados aspectos de ella. Se experimenta respondiendo a ciertas exigencias teóricas con el fin de facilitar el desarrollo de ella. Un determinado experimento —por ejemplo, los realizados en agronomía— puede tener consecuencias prácticas, pero no directamente, sino a través de la teoría que trata de comprobar.

Ahora bien, la experimentación no es privativa de la ciencia; cabe hablar también de una actividad experimental en otros campos: artístico, educativo, económico o social. En estos casos, a diferencia de la actividad experimental científica, el experimento no está al servicio directo e inmediato de una teoría, sino de una forma específica de praxis; el experimento artístico o educativo tiene por fin el impulso de la actividad práctica correspondiente, el arte o la educación. De este modo, vemos que mientras en la ciencia el fin de la actividad experimental es teórico —fortalecer o impulsar el desarrollo de una teoría—, y, de un modo mediato, sirve por tanto a determinada actividad práctica, en otros campos la experimentación contribuye al desenvolvimiento de la praxis correspondiente, pero de una manera directa e inmediata: en cuanto que sus resultados se aplican en la esfera práctica adecuada.

Tales son las formas fundamentales —aunque no exclusivas— de la praxis cuando la acción del hombre se ejerce más o menos inmediatamente sobre una materia natural —naturaleza inmediata, o naturaleza ya mediata, o trabajada que sirve de objeto de nueva acción—. Veamos, ahora, el tipo de praxis en que el hombre es sujeto y objeto de ella; es decir, praxis en la que actúa sobre sí mismo.

Esta actividad práctica del hombre ofrece diversas modalidades. Dentro de ella caen los diversos actos encaminados a su transformación como ser social, y, por ello, a cambiar sus relaciones económicas, políticas y sociales. En cuanto que su actividad toma por objeto no a un individuo aislado, sino a grupos o clases sociales, e incluso a la sociedad entera, puede denominarse praxis social, aunque en un sentido amplio toda práctica (incluyendo aquella que tiene por objeto directo a la naturaleza) reviste un carácter social, ya que el hombre sólo puede llevarla a cabo contrayendo determinadas relaciones sociales (relaciones de producción en la praxis productiva) y, además, porque la modificación práctica del objeto no humano se traduce, a su vez, en una transformación del hombre como ser social.

En un sentido más restringido, la praxis social es la actividad de grupos o clases sociales que conduce a transformar la organización y dirección de la sociedad, o a realizar ciertos cambios mediante la actividad del Estado. Esta forma de praxis es justamente la actividad política.

En las condiciones de la sociedad dividida en clases antagónicas, la política comprende la lucha de clases por el poder y la dirección y estructuración de la sociedad, de acuerdo con los intereses y fines correspondientes. La política es una actividad práctica en cuanto que la lucha que libran los grupos o clases sociales se halla vinculada a cierto tipo de organización real de sus miembros (instituciones y organizaciones políticas, como son, por ejemplo, los partidos) en segundo lugar, aunque la actividad política vaya acompañada de un choque y contraposición de ideas, proyectos, programas, etcétera, y esta lucha ideológica ejerza una influencia indudable en las acciones políticas reales, concretas, el carácter práctico de la actividad política exige formas, medios y métodos reales, efectivos, de lucha; así, por ejemplo, el proletariado en su lucha política se vale de huelgas, manifestaciones, mítines e incluso de métodos violentos. En tercer lugar, la actividad política gira en torno a la conquista, conservación, dirección o control de un organismo concreto como es el Estado. El poder es un instrumento de importancia vital para la transformación de la sociedad.

La praxis política presupone la participación de amplios sectores de la sociedad. Pero no se trata de una actividad espontánea, aunque se den en ella actos espontáneos de determinados individuos o grupos. Persigue determinados fines que responden a los intereses radicales de las clases sociales, y en cada situación concreta la realización de esos fines se halla condicionada por las posibilidades objetivas inscritas en la propia realidad. Una política que responda a esas posibilidades y que excluya todo aventurerismo, exige un conocimiento de esa realidad y de la correlación de clases para no proponerse acciones que desemboquen inexorablemente en un fracaso. La lucha tiene que ser, por tanto, consciente, organizada y dirigida, y la necesidad de librarla en esta forma explica la creación de los partidos políticos.

Los partidos trazan, con una mayor o menor conciencia de los objetivos, posibilidades y condiciones, la línea de acción. Los métodos para transformar lo ideal en real, es decir, para realizar prácticamente la línea política trazada por un partido constituye la estrategia y la táctica. La estrategia señala las tareas correspondientes a una etapa histórica general, y la táctica determina el modo de cumplir la línea política de un período relativamente breve. Estrategia y táctica se relacionan dentro de la línea política y de su aplicación como lo general y lo particular.

La praxis política, en cuanto actividad práctica transformadora, alcanza su forma más alta en la praxis revolucionaria como etapa superior de la transformación práctica de la sociedad. En la sociedad dividida en clases antagónicas, la actividad revolucionaria permite cambiar radicalmente las bases económicas y sociales en que se asienta el poder material y espiritual de la clase dominante, e instaurar así una nueva sociedad. El agente principal de este cambio es el proletariado a través de una lucha consciente, organizada y dirigida, lo que presupone la existencia de un partido que eleve su conciencia de clase y trace claramente los objetivos de esta lucha, su estrategia y su táctica, que organice las fuerzas y las dirija.

Si el hombre existe en cuanto tal como ser práctico, es decir, afirmándose con su actividad práctica transformadora frente a la naturaleza exterior y frente a su propia naturaleza, la praxis revolucionaria y la praxis productiva constituyen dos dimensiones esenciales de su ser práctico. Pero, a su vez, una y otra actividad, junto con las restantes formas específicas de praxis, no son sino formas concretas particulares de una praxis total humana gracias a la cual el hombre como ser social y consciente humaniza los objetos y se humaniza a sí mismo.

La actividad teórica en su conjunto —como ideología y ciencia—, considerada también a lo largo de su desenvolvimiento histórico, sólo existe por y en relación con la práctica, ya que en ella encuentra su fundamento, sus fines y criterio de verdad, como trataremos de poner de manifiesto más adelante. Pero por estrechas que sean las relaciones entre una y otra actividad, la actividad teórica de por sí no muestra los rasgos que hemos considerado privativos de la praxis, y, por ello, no debemos ponerla en el mismo plano que las formas de actividad práctica que antes hemos examinado. A nuestro modo de ver, la actividad teórica no es de por sí una forma de praxis.

Aunque la «práctica» teórica transforme percepciones, representaciones o conceptos, y cree el tipo peculiar de productos que son las hipótesis, teorías, leyes, etcétera, en ninguno de esos casos se transforma la realidad. No se cumplen en ella las condiciones que señalábamos anteriormente con respecto a la materia prima, la actividad y el resultado en el proceso práctico. Falta aquí el lado material, objetivo, de la praxis, y por ello no consideramos que sea legítimo hablar de praxis teórica.

Lo que a nuestro juicio veda caracterizarla así es precisamente lo que hay de distintivo en la actividad teórica, entendiendo por ésta tanto la producción de fines como de conocimientos. Por su objeto, fines, medios y resultados, la actividad teórica se distingue de la práctica. Su objeto o materia prima son las sensaciones o percepciones —es decir objetos psíquicos que sólo tienen una existencia subjetiva—, o los conceptos, teorías, representaciones o hipótesis que tienen una existencia ideal. El fin inmediato de la actividad teórica es elaborar o transformar idealmente, no realmente, esa materia prima, para obtener, como productos, teorías que expliquen una realidad presente, o modelos que prefiguren idealmente una realidad futura. La actividad teórica proporciona un conocimiento indispensable para transformar la realidad, o traza fines que anticipan idealmente su transformación, pero en uno y otro caso queda intacta la realidad efectiva. Las transformaciones que lleva a cabo la actividad teórica con relación a esta —paso de una hipótesis a una teoría, y de ésta a otra teoría más fundada— son transformaciones ideales: de las ideas sobre el mundo, pero no del mundo mismo. (21) Y las operaciones que el hombre lleva a cabo para producir fines o conocimientos son operaciones mentales: abstraer, generalizar, deducir, sintetizar, prever, etc. que si bien exigen un sustrato corpóreo y el funcionamiento del sistema nervioso superior, no dejan de ser operaciones subjetivas, psíquicas, aunque puedan tener manifestaciones objetivas.

Por otra parte, pensamos que la admisión de una praxis teórica se halla en contradicción con la crítica que Marx formula en sus Tesis sobre Feuerbach. Si recordamos el contenido de la Tesis I veremos que Marx critica a Feuerbach justamente por concebir la relación sujeto-objeto (u hombre-naturaleza) como una relación meramente contemplativa, o sea teórica. En esto radica el defecto fundamental de la filosofía Feuerbachiana, así como del materialismo tradicional. En este sentido, Marx contrapone relación (contemplativa) teórica y práctica. Y en ese mismo sentido contrapone también en su Tesis XI la filosofía como interpretación, es decir, como teoría desligada de la práctica, y la filosofía vinculada conscientemente a la transformación del mundo.

Esta contraposición de contemplación (teoría) y praxis demuestra que Marx, lejos de admitir la teoría como una forma de praxis, establece por el contrario una contraposición, entre una y otra. Por otra parte al distinguir claramente en su Introducción a la crítica de la economía política, lo concreto real y lo concreto pensado, y presentar la actividad teórica cognoscitiva, es decir, la producción de conocimientos como un proceso ascensional de lo abstracto a lo concreto —proceso que se opera en el pensamiento y que consiste en la reproducción espiritual del objeto real bajo la forma de lo concreto pensado—, Marx señala claramente que se trata de una actividad o producción que no produce nada efectivamente, es decir no transforma la realidad. (22) Una actividad que se opera sólo en el pensamiento y que produce el tipo peculiar de objetos que son los productos de éste no puede, por tanto, identificarse con la actividad práctica que llamamos praxis.

Si llamamos praxis a la actividad práctica material, adecuada a fines que transforma el mundo —natural y humano—, no cabe incluir la actividad teórica entre las formas de praxis ya que falta en ellas la transformación objetiva de una materia mediante el sujeto, cuyos resultados subsisten independientemente de su actividad. (23)

Solamente subjetivizando el concepto de praxis hasta borrar toda diferencia específica con el de actividad en general, podríamos hablar de una praxis teórica. Pero, en cuanto que la actividad teórica de por sí no modifica realmente el mundo —aunque sí nuestras ideas sobre él— no nos parece legítimo hablar de praxis teórica.

La actividad filosófica transforma nuestra concepción del mundo, de la sociedad o del hombre, pero no modifica —directa e inmediatamente— nada real. Cabría preguntarse, sin embargo, si esto es válido para toda actividad filosófica, incluyendo aquella que concibe el mundo no sólo como objeto de interpretación, sino de transformación. De acuerdo con la Tesis XI de Marx sobre Feuerbach podríamos dividir las filosofías, desde un punto de vista histórico, en filosofías que se limitan a tratar de dar razón de lo existente y que desembocan, como muestra palmariamente el sistema de Hegel, en una conciliación del pensamiento con la realidad (filosofía como aceptación del mundo), y filosofías que sirven —por su vinculación consciente con una praxis revolucionaria— a la transformación del mundo (filosofía como instrumento teórico o guía de una transformación humana radical). Ahora bien, ¿no podría decirse que, en este último caso, la actividad filosófica es ya una forma de praxis, que podríamos denominar precisamente praxis teórica? Y, de no ser así ¿no se colocarían todas las filosofías en el mismo plano teórico y se borraría la diferencia cualitativa que Marx establece en la Tesis citada entre uno y otro tipo de filosofía?

Detengámonos brevemente en esta cuestión que nos parece de suma importancia para delimitar el contenido de la verdadera praxis.

Descartemos, en primer lugar, el considerar que pueda hablarse legítimamente de praxis filosófica por el simple hecho de que una filosofía tenga consecuencias prácticas. Ya decimos en nuestra introducción que todas las grandes doctrinas filosóficas las han tenido siempre, en mayor o menor grado, más o menos directamente, en cuanto que independientemente de los propósitos del filósofo, han cumplido cierta función social. Esto vale incluso para filosofías que —como el idealismo alemán— distaban mucho de pretender servir a la transformación efectiva del mundo. No se trata, pues, de eso.

Al plantearnos la cuestión de si la actividad filosófica puede ser praxis de por sí, nos referimos a la filosofía que, vinculada conscientemente a la práctica, se propone ser instrumento teórico de la transformación de la realidad. Pensamos precisamente en el propio marxismo como filosofía que —de acuerdo con la Tesis XI sobre Feuerbach— tiene presente que se trata no sólo de interpretar el mundo, sino de transformarlo. ¿Puede decirse que la actividad filosófica, en este caso, sea praxis, sin olvidar por un momento el contenido que hemos dado a este término? A nuestro juicio, la filosofía ni como interpretación del mundo ni como instrumento teórico de su transformación es de por sí, de un modo directo e inmediato, praxis. La filosofía marxista, siendo necesariamente una interpretación científica del mundo, responde a necesidades prácticas humanas; expresa, a su vez, una práctica existente y, por otro lado, aspira conscientemente a ser guía de una praxis revolucionaria. Con ello se subraya la función ideológica y social de una filosofía que sólo puede ser práctica en cuanto que excluye la utopía y trasciende sus elementos puramente ideológicos para ser científica. Lo que la diferencia de las doctrinas filosóficas a que alude Marx en la primera parte de su Tesis XI sobre Feuerbach, así como de otras doctrinas socialistas es, pues, su carácter científico, pero también —y no secundariamente— el concebirse a sí misma en función de la praxis; es decir, como filosofía al servicio de la transformación efectiva, real, del mundo, integrando así la praxis revolucionaria como fin de la teoría.

La teoría de por sí —en este caso como en cualquier otro— no transforma el mundo. Puede contribuir a su transformación, pero para ello tiene que salir de sí misma, y, en primer lugar, tiene que ser asimilada por los que han de suscitar, con sus actos reales, efectivos, dicha transformación. Entre la teoría y la actividad práctica transformadora se inserta una labor de educación de las conciencias, de organización de los medios materiales y planes concretos de acción; todo ello como paso indispensable para desarrollar acciones reales efectivas. En este sentido, una teoría es práctica en cuanto que materializa, a través de una serie de mediaciones, lo que antes sólo existía idealmente, como conocimiento de la realidad o anticipación ideal de su transformación.

Pero si la teoría de por sí no cambia al mundo solo puede contribuir a transformarlo justamente como teoría. Es decir, la condición de posibilidad —necesaria, aunque insuficiente— para transitar conscientemente de la teoría a la práctica, y, por tanto, para que la primera cumpla una función práctica, es que sea propiamente una actividad teórica —en la que los ingredientes cognoscitivos y teleológicos se hallen firmemente vinculados y mutuamente consolidados—. En este sentido, una filosofía vinculada a la práctica, que aspira conscientemente a realizarse, lejos de carecer de un contenido propiamente teórico, lo ha de poseer en toda su plenitud. El paso de la teoría socialista de la forma utópica que tiene en Saint-Simon, Fourier u Owen, o de las doctrinas comunistas utópicas como la de Moses Hess, a la forma científica que recibe en Marx y Engels entraña, pudiéramos decir, junto a una elevación de su función práctica, una elevación de su contenido teórico, con la particularidad de que ambos aspectos se hallan en una relación indisoluble.

La filosofía que se ve a sí misma como instrumento teórico de la praxis es teoría, y como tal no transforma real y efectivamente de por sí. Interpretar no es transformar. Pero de lo que se trata —como dice Marx en la Tesis XI— es de transformar; de ahí que la teoría haya de ser arrancada de su estado meramente teórico y, por las mediaciones adecuadas, tratar de realizarla. Pero este segundo aspecto que es vital cuando no se acepta el mundo como es y se trata de transformarlo, lejos de abolir el contenido teórico de la filosofía, o de reducirlo a un ingrediente meramente ideológico, presupone aquél necesariamente —al nivel de la ciencia—, como condición ineludible para guiar la acción. Así, pues, la actividad filosófica en cuanto tal no es praxis. Y no lo es tampoco la filosofía de la praxis o teoría de la actividad práctica del hombre en sus relaciones con la naturaleza y con otros hombres.

La concepción de la filosofía de la praxis como actividad práctica de por sí es, a nuestro juicio, una concepción idealista, incompatible con el verdadero concepto de la praxis que antes hemos delimitado, y entraña la vuelta a puntos de vista filosóficos —como el de los jóvenes hegelianos—, que ya fueron criticados y superados por Marx precisamente para poder elaborar una filosofía como guía o instrumento teórico de la transformación de la realidad, y hacer posible así la transformación efectiva de ésta.

La actividad filosófica —desligada de la práctica o vinculada conscientemente a ella—, como mera interpretación o como instrumento teórico de su transformación, cultivada por intelectuales de origen burgués o de origen proletario, es siempre una actividad intelectual, teórica. La diferencia cualitativa por su carácter esencial —ideológico o científico—, o por la función que una u otra filosofía puede cumplir, no basta para hablar legítimamente de una praxis teórica.

En suma, la praxis se nos presenta como una actividad material, transformadora, y adecuada a fines. Fuera de ella, queda la actividad teórica que no se materializa, en cuanto que es actividad espiritual pura. Pero por otra parte, no hay praxis como actividad puramente material, es decir, sin la producción de fines y conocimientos que caracteriza la actividad teórica. Ello quiere decir que el problema de determinar qué es la praxis requiere delimitar más a fondo las relaciones entre teoría y práctica.

(2) Actividad es aquí sinónimo de acción entendida también como acto o conjunto de actos que modifican una materia exterior o que es inmanente al agente.

(3) Asimismo la contradicción fundamental del modo de producción capitalista es también inintencional. «Es resultado —dice Maurice Godelier— de la acción de todos los agentes del sistema y del desarrollo del sistema mismo, pero no ha sido nunca el proyecto de ninguna conciencia ni un fin querido por nadie». La historia se hace de tal modo, que el resultado final siempre deriva de los conflictos entre muchas voluntades individuales, cada una de las cuales es, a su vez, lo que es por efecto de una multitud de condiciones especiales de vida; son, pues, innumerables fuerzas que se entrecruzan las unas con las otras, un grupo infinito de paralelogramos de fuerzas, de las que surgen un resultado —el acontecimiento histórico—, que, a su vez, puede considerarse producto de una potencia única, que, como un todo, actúa sin conciencia y sin voluntad... De este modo hasta aquí toda la historia ha discurrido a modo de un proceso natural y sometida también, sustancialmente, a las mismas leyes dinámicas. Pero del hecho de que las distintas voluntades individuales ... no alcancen lo que desean, sino que se fundan todas en una medida total, en una resultante común, no debe inferirse que estas voluntades sean igual a cero. Por el contrario, todas contribuyen a la resultante y se hallan, por tanto, incluidas en ella.» (C. Marx y F. Engels, Obras escogidas, en dos tomos, ed. esp., tomo I, Moscú 1952, páginas 459-460.)

En este sentido lo teórico se contrapone —no de un modo absoluto, sino relativo, como veremos en el capítulo siguiente— a lo práctico. En un sentido más restringido, lo teórico —el dominio de la teoría— se aplica a un conjunto de conocimientos aglutinados en torno a un principio unificador que los articula y sistematiza constituyendo así un campo científico dado.

(17) Al analizar la concepción de Marx del proceso de trabajo en El Capital, Louis Althusser subraya, interpretando el pasaje correspondiente, la naturaleza material de las condiciones del proceso de trabajo y el papel dominante de los medios de producción en dicho proceso. A juicio suyo, el proceso de trabajo se halla determinado por esas condiciones materiales («el proceso de trabajo como mecanismo material se halla dominado por las leyes físicas de la naturaleza y de la tecnología»). Al mostrarse así las «condiciones materiales irreductibles del proceso de trabajo», Marx rompe con la concepción del «trabajo como esencia del hombre» y con el «idealismo del trabajo» que esta concepción —propia de los Manuscritos de 1844— entraña (Cf. L. Althusser, «L'objet du Capital», en el t. II de Lire Le Capital, F. Maspero, París, 1965, páginas 144-149).

L. Althusser tiene razón al pronunciarse contra una «ideología antropológica del trabajo» y, por ello, procede justamente al subrayar la importancia de las condiciones materiales del trabajo, lo que le lleva a detenerse sobre todo en dos de los elementos constitutivos de dicho proceso según Marx. Pero en su análisis omite por completo el estudio del tercero de ellos: la actividad adecuada a un fin, o trabajo propiamente dicho. Es esa omisión la que le permite contraponer radicalmente en esta cuestión los Manuscritos de 1844 a El Capital al reducir la concepción de la primera obra a «idealismo del trabajo» y la de la segunda a una «concepción materialista de la producción». A nuestro juicio, la importancia de ese tercer factor del proceso de trabajo —señalado en distinta forma tanto en los Manuscritos de 1844 como en El Capital— es la que mantiene cierta continuidad entre una y otra concepción sin que por ello se borren sus diferencias esenciales.

(21) Ya en La Sagrada Familia decían Marx y Engels: «Las ideas no pueden conducir nunca más allá de las ideas del viejo estado universal de cosas. Las ideas no pueden nunca ejecutar nada. Para la ejecución de las ideas hacen falta los hombres que pongan en acción una fuerza práctica.» (C. Marx y F. Engels, La Sagrada Familia, ed. esp. cit., página 165).

(22) «... El método que permite elevarse de lo abstracto a lo concreto no es otra cosa que el modo como el pensamiento se apropia lo concreto bajo la forma de lo concreto pensado. Pero no es de ninguna manera lo concreto mismo.» (Contribución a la crítica de la economía política, ed. francesa, París, 1957, página 165).

(23) En ocasiones se emplea la expresión «praxis» o «práctica teórica», para designar una «práctica específica que se ejerce sobre un objeto propio y conduce a su producto propio: un conocimiento» (L. Althusser, Pour Marx, París, 1965, página 175). En este caso, se presenta como una forma específica de la práctica en general, entendida como «proceso de transformación de una materia prima dada y determinada en un producto determinado, transformación que se lleva a cabo por un trabajo humano determinado, utilizando medios (de producción) determinados». (Ibidem, página 167). La práctica teórica así entendida corresponde en gran parte —no totalmente, puesto que nosotros incluimos también en ella la producción de fines— a lo que nosotros denominados actividad teórica.

Althusser no emplea, por tanto, esta expresión en el sentido idealista, tan firmemente rechazado por Marx, de producción de ideas que transforma por sí misma la realidad. Se esfuerza asimismo por subrayar el carácter distintivo e irreemplazable de la «práctica teórica» (cf. también a este respecto su estudio Teoría, práctica teórica y formación teórica. Ideología y lucha ideológica, en la revista Casa de las Américas, número 34, La Habana, Cuba, páginas 13-17). Sin embargo, la extensión del término «práctica» a todo tipo de relación o apropiación del mundo real, incluyendo no sólo la teórica e ideológica, sino también la ética y la religiosa (cf. Lire Le Capital, I, página 85) hace que se borre el carácter esencial de la praxis que Marx justamente pretendió destacar (como transformación efectiva, real de un objeto real) frente a un «idealismo de la praxis» (reducción de ésta a la actividad teórica o moral). Creemos, por ello, que el empleo del término «práctica» allí donde no se opera esa transformación objetiva y real induce a confusión pese al empeño en diferenciar sus formas específicas.

Charles Bettelheim, Jacques Charriere

Los objetivos fundamentales perseguidos por todos los países que han iniciado la vía del socialismo, consisten en principio en esforzarse en realizar tanto transformaciones de base como transformaciones superestructurales, es decir, llegar por una reestructuración social (y no sólo económica) y por transformaciones ideológicas profundas; aunque hay distintos puntos de vista acerca de los lazos que unen a esas diversas transformaciones.

En China se subraya con frecuencia que su meta no consiste sólo en lograr ritmos de desarrollo más rápidos que los que pudo alcanzar el capitalismo sino también y sobre todo promover una nueva formación social con sus normas de comportamiento y superestructuras específicas.

Desde el punto de vista marxista la persecución de ese objetivo no se debe a una opción arbitraria sino al reconocimiento de una exigencia histórica impuesta por el nivel del desarrollo posible de las fuerzas productivas modernas. El reconocimiento de tal exigencia histórica significa la aceptación de que sin un cambio radical no sólo de las relaciones de propiedad sino también del conjunto del modo de producción y de la superestructura de la sociedad las fuerzas productivas o no pueden desarrollarse o sólo se desarrollan de manera contradictoria, es decir, engendrando fuerzas destructivas crecientes tanto en el plano material como en el de los propios hombres. Estos últimos son esclavizados cada vez más por sus propios productos, incluyendo la esfera del consumo.

Más específicamente, el análisis anterior implica que el nuevo modo de producción, el modo de producción socialista, no puede progresar y mantenerse sin la edificación de estructuras adecuadas, es decir, particularmente de relaciones sociales, actitudes, comportamientos e ideas sociales determinadas. Sin superestructuras adecuadas, la base económica sobre la que se construye el socialismo está amenazada por transformaciones regresivas, tanto al nivel de las relaciones de producción como al nivel de las propias fuerzas productivas. Estas últimas, en efecto, corren el peligro de progresar cada vez con mayor lentitud si no encarnan con rapidez las actitudes y comportamiento que exige el desarrollo de la sociedad socialista y, sobre todo, si dichas actitudes, conductas y sistemas de valores adecuados tienden no a fortificarse sino a estancarse, en favor de actitudes, conductas y sistemas de valores que caracterizan a las formas sociales anteriores y que conservan todavía una base objetiva en las condiciones materiales, mientras el nivel de las fuerzas productivas no se haya elevado suficientemente.

Por lo tanto, la cuestión que se plantea es la de las relaciones entre la base económica y las superestructuras correspondientes. Según la interpretación mecanicista de dicho problema, se puede pensar que toda forma de producción engendra en última instancia nuevas actitudes, nuevos sistemas de valores, una nueva ideología y un hombre nuevo.(1)

Por el contrario, la interpretación dialéctica del problema nos lleva a pensar que si el progreso de una forma de producción (es decir, de sus fuerzas productivas y de sus relaciones de producción) constituye la condición necesaria de la transformación de la superestructura, esta última, dentro de ciertos límites, tiene un dinamismo propio y, sobre todo, que puede ejercer una acción regresiva sobre la misma base económica. No es inútil recordar aquí algunas de las interpretaciones que se han formulado de ciertos textos de Marx y Engels.

Una interpretación estrecha de algunos párrafos del Manifiesto Comunista o del Anti-Duhring ha originado a veces una interpretación mecanicista que, sin embargo, es contraria a los análisis globales que nos han dejado Marx y Engels. En efecto, éstos insistieron siempre en el carácter global de las transformaciones sociales y, por tanto, en la interacción de los diferentes elementos cuya suma constituye la totalidad de una formación social.

Por ejemplo, Engels en su libro sobre El origen de la familia, de la propiedad privada y del Estado, ha puesto de relieve las profundas influencias que pueden tener ciertos elementos de la superestructura ideológica sobre la evolución social. Así, cuando analiza la incapacidad de la sociedad esclavista para dar lugar directamente a un nuevo método de producción favorable al desarrollo de las fuerzas productivas, insiste en el "desprecio hacia el trabajo productivo" heredado de la sociedad esclavista, y que representa un freno al desarrollo.

Engels escribe: "La esclavitud... al morir, dejó detrás de sí su aguijón venenoso bajo la forma de proscripción del trabajo productivo por los hombres libres. Tal es el callejón sin salida en el cual se encontraba el mundo romano: la esclavitud era económicamente imposible, y el trabajo de los hombres libres estaba moralmente proscrito. La primera no podía ya y el segundo no podía aún ser la forma básica de la producción social. La única salida posible era una revolución radical.(2)

En ese texto podemos ver claramente de qué manera una actitud ("el desprecio hacia el trabajo productivo"), se convierte en un obstáculo al desarrollo de las fuerzas productivas y cómo Engels estima que sólo una revolución completa podía transformar suficientemente el elemento de la superestructura para que fueran posibles nuevos progresos.

Ya que hemos recordado el anterior texto de Engels, que tiene su equivalente para otras épocas en multitud de análisis marxistas,(3) no es inútil recordar igualmente que Engels prolonga su análisis de la revolución que tuvo lugar entre el quinto y el noveno siglos de nuestra era, ya que se trata esencialmente de una revolución que se efectuó al nivel de las superestructuras ideológicas y que adaptó estas últimas a las exigencias de las nuevas fuerzas productivas.(4)

Engels subraya que a lo largo de los cuatro siglos durante los cuales tuvo lugar dicha revolución, no hubo prácticamente ningún progreso, ni en las fuerzas productivas, ni en las relaciones de producción. A pesar de los grandes cambios a que dio lugar la caída del Imperio Romano y las invasiones de las tribus germánicas, encontramos bajo una nueva etiqueta, las viejas formas de propiedad y las viejas relaciones de producción.

Escribe Engels: "Así, pues, parecía como si al cabo de cuatro siglos la masa de la población hubiese vuelto a su punto de partida".(5) Sin embargo, añade inmediatamente, se había avanzado, porque aun cuando las clases sociales seguían siendo casi las mismas, "los hombres que formaban estas clases habían cambiado".(6)

La referencia a estos análisis sólo en apariencia nos aleja de nuestro tema, el del lugar especialmente importante que se atribuye en China a la adhesión de las masas al sistema de valores, de actitudes y comportamiento que corresponde a las exigencias de la construcción de la sociedad socialista.

Por otra parte, los anteriores análisis nos conducen a rechazar ciertas interpretaciones mecanicistas de las relaciones entre la base económica y la superestructura. Incluso autores que, por lo demás, abordan buen número de problemas desde un punto de vista dialéctico, han sugerido interpretaciones de ese tipo.

Así, hay una cierta interpretación mecanicista en el capítulo 2 del Tomo I del Tratado de Economía Política de Oskar Lange. En ese texto, la eliminación de la no-correspondencia entre las relaciones de producción, por una parte, y el nivel de desarrollo de las fuerzas productivas y el carácter de esas fuerzas, por la otra, aparece como el resultado de la "acción de la primera ley fundamental de la sociología". Esta última, afirma Oskar Lange, "restablece la correspondencia entre las relaciones de producción y las nuevas fuerzas productivas".(7)

En la misma obra, se dice: "Es la acción de la segunda ley fundamental de la sociología (quien) restablece la correspondencia entre la superestructura y las exigencias de la nueva base económica..."(8)

Tales formulaciones sugieren la acción unilateral de las fuerzas productivas sobre las relaciones de producción, y de la base económica sobre la superestructura. El mismo esquema aparece en la página 38 de la obra mencionada; en ese esquema, las "flechas" sólo significan que hay un movimiento de "abajo hacia arriba".

Un corolario lógico de esta concepción es la idea del "carácter conservador tanto de la base económica como de la superestructura".(9) Una y otra son vistas esencialmente como obstáculos al progreso de las fuerzas productivas y como algo incapaz de adaptarse sin retraso, bajo la acción de las dos "leyes fundamentales de la sociología".

Aun cuando Oskar Lange reconoce que el cambio de una forma social a otra constituye un proceso dialéctico, porque resulta de la solución de una serie de contradicciones, la descripción que ofrece de dicho proceso es unilateral. Se limita a invertir la dialéctica hegeliana, pero deja escapar la especificidad de la dialéctica histórica. Esta última se desarrolla a través de contradicciones no sólo operadas, sino pensadas. Por otro lado, las contradicciones no se resuelven por la intervención de una "ley" abstracta, sino por la intervención de las clases o capas sociales que integran objetivamente uno de los polos de la contradicción principal de una época, y que toman conciencia de ella.

Sólo así puede nacer una ideología o una conciencia revolucionaria, es decir, los elementos de una nueva superestructura. La superestructura, lejos de tener un carácter conservador, conduce, por el contrario, a la transformación de la base económica y a un nuevo progreso de las fuerzas productivas.(10)

Cuando se analizan en términos marxistas las transformaciones de la superestructura que condicionan un nuevo progreso de las fuerzas productivas, con frecuencia se consideran esenciales en el análisis las transformaciones políticas y jurídicas, la sustitución de un tipo de Estado por otro, del dominio de una clase por otra, de relaciones de propiedad y de producción por otras. En efecto; se trata de transformaciones decisivas, ya que permiten la sustitución de una vieja superestructura que obstaculiza el desarrollo de las fuerzas productivas, por una nueva, mejor adaptada a ese desarrollo. Sin embargo, tales transformaciones son posibles porque las clases antes dominadas han rechazado la ideología anterior (que les había hecho aceptar el antiguo orden de cosas) y se han adherido, al menos en lo esencial, a una nueva ideología que expresa mejor las exigencias de las fuerzas productivas y de las relaciones de producción correspondientes, es decir, las exigencias de la base económica. En este caso se hace evidente que la ideología no es un factor de resistencia al cambio, sino, por el contrario, uno de sus elementos motores.

El papel de la ideología no se limita a la fase más aguda de una transformación social. De hecho, toda nueva forma social sólo puede desarrollarse si la ideología que exige su funcionamiento es cada vez más profundamente, la ideología dominante. Así, según la naturaleza y el grado de dominación y penetración en las masas de una ideología dada, ésta puede frenar el desarrollo de las fuerzas productivas o, por el contrario, contribuir a su desarrollo.

Las indicaciones precedentes no sólo tienen un interés teórico. En efecto; si se subraya de una manera unilateral el papel de la base económica, existirá la tendencia a impulsar esencialmente el progreso de esta base, y en particular, el progreso de las fuerzas productivas, el surgimiento de una superestructura ideológica adecuada (en virtud de la "segunda ley fundamental de la sociología").

Por el contrario, al se reconoce que hay una acción recíproca entre la base y la superestructura, al mismo tiempo que se impulsa directamente el desarrollo de las fuerzas productivas (por la política económica), se buscará también en las masas el progreso de la ideología que corresponde a la nueva base económica, en particular a través de la educación. Esta última debe procurar que desaparezcan las actitudes y comportamientos heredados del pasado y sustituirlos por actitudes, comportamientos y sistemas nuevos de valores, correspondientes a las exigencias mismas del desarrollo de las fuerzas productivas.

Parece indispensable reconocer que este papel de la educación y de la ideología es tanto más necesario, cuando más avanzadas estén las relaciones de producción y propiedad, establecidas por un proceso revolucionario, sobre el nivel de desarrollo de las fuerzas productivas en un país dado.

El avance (11) del régimen político y social sobre el nivel local del desarrollo de las fuerzas productivas, da lugar, en efecto, a un tipo particular de contradicción, a una contradicción que favorece el progreso rápido de las fuerzas productivas, con la condición de que esté influida correctamente y conscientemente dominada. Esta última formulación no significa que sólo a través de un desarrollo de la conciencia se encuentra asegurado el desarrollo de las fuerzas productivas (12), sino más bien que, en ese caso, la conciencia de las relaciones reales de producción y de las contradicciones que pueden caracterizarlas, así como la capacidad de dominar estas contradicciones por un comportamiento adecuado, son necesarias al progreso de las fuerzas productivas.

Para ser socialmente significativas, la conciencia y la capacidad deben expresarse no sólo en términos de conceptos y conocimientos, sino también en forma de organización y actitudes que interpreten de manera apropiada los sistemas de valores y de acción. Si faltan estos últimos, las categorías conceptuales y el conocimiento o la conciencia no son más que abstracciones sin eficacia social.

Sólo después de este largo rodeo podemos volver a ciertas características específicas de la construcción del socialismo en China.

1. En realidad, la misma interpretación mecanicista de las relaciones entre los diferentes niveles de la vida social, ha llevado a algunos marxistas a pensar que el progreso de las fuerzas productivas es suficiente para engendrar todas las condiciones de la transformación revolucionaria de un modo de producción, mientras que en realidad dicho progreso es la condición básica de esa transformación; finalmente, la transformación no se produce sino a través de las contradicciones sociales y de la acción política que engendran estas últimas, es decir, por una acción consciente de los hombres.

6. (Ibid., página 281). El análisis que presenta Engels de esta "transformación de los hombres" ("amos y esclavos") es extraordinariamente interesante. Engels subraya que los hombres de la Europa occidental del siglo noveno, no se habían formado "con la decadencia de una civilización agonizante, sino entre los dolores del parto de una civilización nueva".
Esta "nueva civilización", "en plena vitalidad de desarrollo", debía sus características a las instituciones, actitudes, comportamientos e ideas específicas que introdujeron las tribus germánicas.
Hablando de esas tribus y del origen de su contribución revolucionaria, en el preciso sentido de la transformación de los hombres, Engels escribe:
"Su capacidad y su valentía personales, su espíritu de libertad y su instinto democrático... en una palabra, todas las cualidades que los romanos habían perdido... ¿qué eran sino los rasgos característicos de los bárbaros del estadio superior de la barbarie, los frutos de su constitución gentilicia?"
(Ibid., página 295), y precisa: "Sus hábitos de gentiles, las supervivencias, vivas entre ellos, de los tiempos del derecho materno" y sus "comunidades de las pequeñas ciudades".
Aquí, Engels subraya el aporte decisivo de las instituciones, de las ideas y de las cualidades morales características del "estadio superior de la barbarie" a la revolución que se desarrolló entre el quinto y el noveno siglos. En tanto que la sociedad surgida del antiguo esclavismo había perdido toda su vitalidad, "sólo bárbaros eran capaces de rejuvenecer un mundo servil que sufría una civilización moribunda". (Engels, Ibid., página 280).

Dicho progreso revolucionario es descrito brevemente y de manera parcial por Oskar Lange en la obra citada (páginas 47 y 48), pero sin demostrar que en esto consiste el proceso real de toda transformación social radical, ya que tal proceso implica necesariamente una acción revolucionaria que no se presenta sino cuando ciertos elementos de la superestructura, las ideas, las actitudes, etcétera, se han integrado y encarnado en la "conciencia de clase revolucionaria", y en la forma concreta de organizaciones a través de las cuales esta conciencia de clase toma cuerpo y se expresa.

LA PALMA DE LA MANO

José Lezama Lima

La palma de la mano sobre el río.
La palma paso a paso, hacia mí, leyéndome.
Narciso mascado por la niebla ascendente, vuelven los dioses descensores, Orfeo
y Stephanophorophoro.
El índice demuestra, señala la inflexible llanura de la nieve, demuestra.
El índice demuestra la carreta sobre un hilo, la diagonal con cuerpo de cocodrilo
y cabeza de gavilán, el anillo de oro en el tumor de la luna.
La mano se extiende sobre la llanura de nieve, la palma de la mano acompasa la boga del río.
La carreta conduce un canoso reloj de pared. Icaro con dos guadañas.
Saturno se come las alas de cera.
Se extiende, demuestra, se deja leer.
Icaro, ya caído, nadando, habla con el Resucitado sentado en el légamo.
El vencido por el sol regresa con las estaciones
y el que triunfa de la muerte se vuelve a morir.
Es un bodegón de cebolla, manzana y amapolas.
El aire está exprimido en el puño que se cierra, el arador por la palma de la mano deja el reminiscente batido y batihojas, el deseo paliducho, la serpiente, el doble del comienzo, el truchimán vindicativo, círculo que golpea en las narices.
La capota caída se mide por su sombra.
Icaro vencido y el Resucitado vencedor, el Resucitado esperando la muerte
y el Icaro eterno relator.
En su sangre el laberinto y el torete oscuro luchando con el tigre dormido.

¿Quién de bruces acompasado en la ebriedad del relojero?
Arrugado, puro detesto, cara de rompeolas.
El Príncipe de Praga, relojero sin deseos, ahogado en el reloj de agua, ola por ola, ola sin sucesión,
ola para ojos.
El tiempo caminando detrás de las pestañas como elefante; casquetes, medialunas, ensortijados moños lloricones, verde portezuela y amarillo prestidigitador, abrían el bostezo en la cantina escandinava, un penique por cada bostezo
y va de contra el bigotillo para el perrequete circulante, pero el tiempo no es como el aguacero que tapa las grietas
y baldea el puente parabólico de la guitarra.
Tenemos que medir el tiempo por el vaivén de los ojos y cerrar los ojos
y el murmullo que nos va devorando cuando nos sumergimos en la madre de carbón.
Sumergidos toda inocencia puede llegar a ser culpa, tan pronto surge la polifemaida del otro, los martillazos desconchados en el cálculo de la resistencia sombreada.
Los entorchados del fusilamiento, el pez egipcio saltando al sol, pueden hacer el pecado inocente.
El tic-tac raspado es pecador en Isis
y después es inocente en Osiris.
El jinete escita pero sin testes y la franja celeste rompe el cántaro de las bodas.
Así seguimos colocando ladrillos en el muro y sobre los muros cascos de botella, así nos cosimos la oreja en el cancán.

LA CASA DE CARLOS

Roque Dalton

Carlos Jurado sufrió tanto en su infancia, que en cuanto se casó escogió como hogar aquella casa de la zona 12 del DF, adornada con una cabeza de caballo en el portón. Era una casa enorme, dividida en innumerables pisitos, buhardillas y simples rincones, donde las veraneras y los jacintos parecían engordar de humedad y de sol matutino, como pupilas de matrona provinciana que llevase una alacena repleta de mermelada de grosella en vez de corazón y quien, luego de la merienda de las diez, hubiese gastado un cuarto de hora en consumir su puro de mariguana que le abriría el apetito para el almuerzo. En el laberinto de sus jardines y corredores se perdió hace años Chaflán, aquel olvidado cómico de cine mexicano, del cual tuvieron luego que decir que había muerto, ahogado o apopléjico, en el extranjero. Precisamente la mujer de Carlos, Chichai, encontraría su esqueleto bigotudo detrás de una maceta de geranios en marzo de 1965 y, a fin de rescatarlo para hacerlo clavar en la gran cruz de la biblioteca dormitorio, tuvo que disputarlo seriamente durante toda una mañana a una vasta jauría de cucarachas doradas. Carlos paradójicamente, se había enamorado a primera vista de las rejas españolas que adornaban muchos de los ventanales interiores de la casa, porque le recordaban las de San Cristóbal de Las Casas y las de su propio hogar allá, que por cierto le servían de jaula-prisión cuando lo castigaban por mojar la cama a los ocho años de edad, exponiéndolo a las miradas de los transeúntes que marchaban friolentamente a misa, con aquel cartel autocrítico colgado del pecho: "Soy meón y cagón". Carlos nunca perdonó a su familia la imputación calumniosa del segundo pecado. Aquella casa, para empezar a decir algo funcional a su respecto, era deliciosa de habitar, tal esos sueños que se nos repiten de cuando en cuando y nos van configurando poco a poco un ideal de no se qué, cuyos definitivos perfiles y texturas venimos tan sólo a comprender 23 horas antes de morir. Hablamos, desde luego, para personas que han nacido o viven en el Hemisferio Norte. Era eso sí, una casa enemiga del invierno. Cuando llegaban las lluvias, el caballo del portón se volvía rojo de ira y desde debajo de las tejas surgían miles de tentaculillos vibrátiles, rematados en diminutos paragüitas color sangre azul que formaban una especie de pleura monumental que rechazaba el agua y convertía las calles adyacentes en Niágaras de barrio. Las paredes echaban una pelusa lanosa de un centímetro de espesor, lo cual no les impedía, sin embargo, tiritar en las madrugadas, derrumbando en los interiores reproducciones de Siqueiros, depósitos de agua bendita, diplomas de Abogados y Dentistas. Desde sus patios, ventanas, claraboyas, no se podía ver nunca la luna en esa temporada, aunque esplendiese, llena, en las escampadas; para ello había que cruzar la calle. De allí que algunos opinen que, además de la pleura aquella, la casa se erigía entonces una cúpula invisible que para el ojo humano no detenía sino los rayos de la luna. Porque las estrellas se miraban lo mismo. Y los pájaros. En el invierno cambiaba en la casa el tono del eco hasta adoptar el de un viejo bajo acatarrado impostando la voz con pésimo oficio teatral para demostrar ira patética. No importaba entonces que la voz original fuera del niño de una familia de violinistas, acostumbrado a hacer sus requerimientos fundamentales a fuerza de chillidos especialmente agudos, o de una señorita asustadita, ubicable en algún Buró Político de la Orden Tercera del Santísimo Sacramento, en plena reacción oral ante los sustos curativos del hipo. No es que la casa se volviese en aquel tiempo incómoda o agresiva. Todas aquellas transformaciones poseían su propia gravedad y hermosura y más bien construían un mundo especial de seres objetos y fenómenos relacionados entre sí con una disciplinada, responsable armonía, similar a la de las pasiones shakespeareanas, que, desde luego, podríamos objetar, en uso de una moralidad aguafiestas, únicamente con el argumento de que toda ella estaba basada en el odio al invierno. Y hablar luego con toda hipocresía de las necesidades de la producción de cereales, de los pastos para el ganado de leche, de las sequías en el Brasil y sus hambrunas concomitantes. Hasta allí somos capaces de llegar, estéticamente cobardes como, de vez en cuando, somos. Oh, queridas lectoras, pero ¡qué indiscutibilidad reinaba sobre la belleza de aquella casa cuando llegaba la primavera! Ni los espíritus más audaces serían capaces de racionalizar a primera vista la absoluta integralidad de la misma y más bien comenzarían por confundirla con una simple, aunque esplendente, paz, un orden de integración a los días en que la naturaleza se despereza y se lava la cara, una —con el perdón de ustedes y en última instancia— táctica. Por el contrario, la casa en primavera era la casa como nunca, lógicamente cerrada sobre sí, poblada de innumerables datos que nos decían de su relación directa con lo Absoluto, fulgurante en medio de una sequedad de agua dura, como una esmeralda o una espada pulimentada para muestrario, soberbia en fin, como una bailarina de dieciséis años cuando se incorpora del lecho sobre la segunda hora de amor y nos deja, mientras se mete en el cuarto de baño para sentarse en el bidet, con una mano en alto, lánguida y expectante a la vez, como en el instante de iniciar el Pas de Quatre, y nos deja, decía, felices, pero con una bolita de duda entre las manos que de pronto comienza a crecer hasta tomar un tamaño tal que nos vemos abismados a iniciar con ella (o sea, la ex-bolita de duda), angustiados, un nuevo cuerpo a cuerpo con el que no contábamos, que a lo mejor no nos permitirá ese cuarto episodio, el que decimos preferir por cuanto nos permite conocer desde ahora las urgencias de los placeres de la madurez y cuya misma posibilidad se nos torna de pronto problemática porque Ella nos ha llamado con suavidad desde el baño y nos ha dicho que no encuentra la llave del agua caliente, pero a pesar de todo nos quiere mucho y además va a pedirnos que nos asomemos porque se le antoja vernos desnudos un poquitín. Como un joven jefe de Estado Mayor que dirige, antes que nadie, la batalla. Pero me parece que hablábamos de alguien, en algún lugar de México. Y como momentáneamente no sé si se trataba de alguna referencia, en algún sentido, política, permítaseme que haga un paréntesis preventivo para ubicarme en mi normal estado de responsabilidad. Alguno de ustedes podría ayudarme, digo yo.

PRIMAVERA EN JEVANI

Colores andróginos, una verdadera Patagonia de colores, acechantes, anfitriones de la duda, impermeables a la mayor voracidad, organizadamente salvajes, manducables como una neo sinfonía japonesa escuchada junto al sol que te ha despertado de la más larga noche de amor. Los pajarillos no temen de Oswaldo Barreto ni de mí, posiblemente nos confunden con dos obreros de las fábricas de embutidos de Praga. Por el contrario, silban sobre nuestras cabezas valses para Banda Municipal y nos hacen avergonzarnos (vergonzosa vergüenza) de los gritos de nuestras urracas y nuestros querques, de la chachalaquería de las bandadas de pericos, de la pescozada sonora del azacuán herido en tiempo de frío. "A las seis de la mañana no va bien la cerveza —nos dice Ingra al traer los tarros humosos. Es, pues, este, un peligroso lugar. Como para decir, a la hora del crepúsculo (aunque es aún demasiado temprano para pensar en él, estimadas todas las cautelas): "La vida, en general, ha sido bella". Precisamente ayer, después de discutir sobre la excesiva carga sexual de la literatura moderna, visitamos una granja de cerdos. Veterinarios con gabacras blancas examinaban a los gigantescos animales rosados con estetoscopios respetantes, a la vez que conmovedores, mientras demandaban de nosotros que no habláramos en voz alta. Antes de entrar, nos habían cubierto el rostro con bozales de gasa, para evitar que nuestros microbios personales se quedaran allí. Se nos dijo que el lugar estaba incluso alejado de las carreteras y las vías de ferrocarril, pues todo ruido extraño asusta infinitamente a los cerdos, los hace perder peso y los puede matar del corazón. Nunca vi cerdos con más aspecto de hijo de puta que éstos. Son jamones vivientes, con horribles venitas azules por todos lados, insolentes, idénticos a Monseñor Francisco Castro y Ramírez, un exageradamente soberbio obispo del oriente de mi país. Oswaldo Barreto, de pronto y sin advertírmelo, emitió el más agudo alarido que recuerdo haber oído en los últimos cinco años. El desconcierto cundió como diría un novelista hondureño, sobre todo porque los cerdos comenzaron a mostrar síntomas de angustia que pronto se transformaron en una especie de ataque de asma colectivo. Los veterinarios corrían espantados de aquí hacia allá y nuestro guía, absolutamente furioso y temblón, le dijo a Oswaldo: "La regla aquí es el silencio". "Yo suelo gritar —contestó éste— soy venezolano". "Al país que fueres haz lo que vieres" —citó, popular, pero no menos tensamente, el guía. "Cuando Uds. lleguen a Venezuela no los obligamos a gritar" —sentenció Oswaldo imperturbable antes de que yo lo sacara casi a empujones del lugar. Casi vomité de la risa. Como cuando vi aquel rótulo en una calle de Santiago de Chile: "Zorobabel Galeno, sastre militar". Aunque ahora no recuerdo lo que tal anuncio tenía de gracioso. Oswaldo pagó, no obstante, su delito: anoche soñó que lo habían echado para atrás en sus estudios y que se encontraba de nuevo en cuarto año de secundaria, iniciando un examen final de trigonometría sin saber ni siquiera pronunciar la palabra cateto. Despertó sudando en plena madrugada y me ha despertado también para pasear un poco y buscar cerveza. Entonces es que yo he decidido hablar sobre la primavera. Época del año en que florecen hasta los futbolistas, como todo el mundo sabe. Y que en Checoslovaquia se transforma en una orden edilicia para bañarse entre las truchas o buscar hongos y muchachas desnudas bajo el sol que los pinos del bosque dejan bajar al suelo. Mañana volveremos a Praga con la cara quemada por ese sol. Oswaldo Barreto y yo debemos salir de estos lugares lo más pronto posible, so pena de ponernos a tener hijos rubios con Zdenas y Janas y engordar a fuerza de grandes filetes, algodonosos melocotones y fresas con crema, hasta olvidar que alguien está muriendo mal en nuestra vieja casa, preguntando por nosotros con perentoriedad. Viva esta primavera, sin embargo.

DEBATE CON ALBERTO MORAVIA

"L'Espresso" de Roma organizó, recientemente, un debate entre el escritor Alberto Moravia y los estudiantes Massimiliano Fuksas, Sergio Petruccioli y Duccio Staderini, quinto año de Arquitectura; Valerio Veltroni, primer año de Filosofía, y Oreste Scalzone, tercer año de Filosofía. El tema del debate se centra en la crítica y en la oposición a esta última generación de intelectuales contra aquellos que se dicen izquierdistas y contra aquellos que dominan el mundo de la cultura oficial. Este debate polémico pone de manifiesto las contradicciones entre ideología y vida práctica de algunos intelectuales.

Moravia: Yo pertenezco a ese tipo de proletario que se llama a sí mismo artista. Los objetos que yo fabrico son novelas y dramas, o sea, que logro crear de la nada, con mis manos o mejor dicho con mi mente, algo que antes no existía, y lo vendo. Si estuviera en la China no podría colocar mis productos porque no hay demanda, en la China de hoy, para productos como los míos. En Italia esa demanda existe parcialmente; de todas formas yo vendo estos productos a quien los paga según las leyes del mercado, porque, como he dicho, vivo de mi trabajo en un país, que es Italia. No podría colaborar en diarios partidarios pues no pertenezco a partido alguno, es decir tengo mis propias ideas que, en ciertas ocasiones, pueden o no coincidir con las de algún partido. Si yo colaborara con Unitá (Organo del Partido Comunista), por ejemplo, no podría escribir todo lo que se me ocurriera; y por otra parte, si bien actualmente no tendría dificultad en compartir la línea de Unitá con respecto a Viet-Nam, durante veinte años en cargo (hasta el XX congreso) el stalinismo me habría impedido colaborar en forma absoluta. De manera que yo publico mis novelas en el Corriere della Sera. Sin embargo, ustedes no encontrarán en el Corriere della Sera una sola palabra en favor del sistema existente hoy en Italia.

Scalzone: Quisiera recordarle a Moravia que cualquier obra literaria, cualquier producto intelectual es un hecho político. Ignorar todo eso significa hacer ya una elección política, entrar en el juego de los intereses creados, en otras palabras integrarse. Publicando novelas en el Corriere della Sera, cualquiera que sea su contenido, usted, Moravia, está tomando una posición política bien definida.

Moravia: No más que cualquier proletario en un régimen capitalista. ¿Por qué entonces los pintores deberían eximirse de esa acusación? ¿Por qué los profesores? ¿Por qué los arquitectos, o los directores de cine? ¿Por qué los obreros que trabajan, supongamos, en una fábrica de armas?

Scalzone: En efecto, nosotros no proponemos como modelo la figura del obrero esclavizado, sino la del obrero que se libera de la esclavitud. El obrero puede liberarse políticamente, volviéndose revolucionario militante. El escritor, en cambio, manipula material intelectual y a menudo identifica y limita su actividad en el acto de escribir.

Petruccioli: El obrero dentro del sistema, es un esclavizado. El intelectual, en el momento en que acepta moverse dentro del aparato de la cultura dominante, acepta un papel que no es el del esclavizado: se vuelve un intermediario entre la clase que está en el poder y los consumidores. Cuando, para vender su producto, él usa como medios de comunicación justamente aquellos canales que constituyen la fuerza y la continuidad de la cultura dominante, entonces está asumiendo una posición clara, prescindiendo del contenido de sus obras.

Scalzone: En otros términos, no se trata sólo del contenido o de las ideas, sino de la función que el libro pasa a asumir en la estructura económica.

Moravia: En un sistema capitalista los editores son capitalistas y el escritor es un proletario al igual que cualquier otro que está en condiciones de ser aprovechado (y a menudo lo es), y el libro es un producto a ser consumido. Si ustedes afirman que el arte no es expresión sino producto, entonces, no pueden pretender que el escritor sea un intelectual, o sea un creador con privilegios y responsabilidades mayores que los demás. Deben en cambio admitir que es una especie de artesano, o sea un proletario. Hay contradicción entre el papel que ustedes le exigen al intelectual, y el valor de producto que le atribuyen al arte. Por otra parte, habría que ver si el producto literario está hecho para el consumo o para la representación. Hay una gran diferencia entre la industria cultural y la expresión artística. La primera produce un arte de élite, que en los países capitalistas obedece a las leyes del beneficio y en los países comunistas, a las leyes del Estado: es lo mismo, por lo menos para los fines del arte.

En Occidente existe el límite del beneficio; en Oriente el de la propaganda. Se trata siempre de un arte de élite. O sea una literatura que tiene que ser consumida, no importa dónde, en el tren o en los bancos de las escuelas. Nunca revolución alguna quiso eso. Las revoluciones quieren la libertad de la expresión artística. Es decir, considerando que para ustedes los contenidos (o sea la crítica del poder) no cuentan, quieren la libertad del lenguaje.

El escritor que no quiere ser intermediario entre las clases dominantes y el público puede encontrarse operando en tres situaciones históricas diferentes. Si la situación lo permite, o sea los tiempos son cómodos, puede hacer arte de cualquier tipo; si los tiempos apremian deberá abandonar la representación y la poesía para el ensayo, el artículo; finalmente, si los tiempos no dejan otra alternativa, dejará de ser escritor, hombre de cultura, y será el ciudadano que defiende su libertad con un fusil. Ahora yo les pregunto: ¿en cuál de estas situaciones nos encontramos hoy? En mi opinión podemos trabajar todavía con un margen bastante amplio, en Italia por lo menos, como para hacer representación artística aunque, como sabemos, es ambigua de por sí. Cuando los tiempos apremian ciertamente la poesía ya no alcanza: se necesita la publicación periodística. Cuando finalmente empiezan a entrar los nazis en la casa de uno (como me pasó a mí) entonces es necesaria la lucha armada.

Petruccioli: Me parece que la diferenciación de Moravia entre el momento del artista, del periodista y del ciudadano, vuelve a presentar el error que ha existido en la cultura izquierdista en los últimos veinte años. ¿Qué significa individualizar tres niveles de integración para un intelectual que opera en el interior de un cierto régimen? Significa procurarle una protección ideológica.

Scalzone: Significa darle la posibilidad de considerarse inocente cuando vende las novelas al Corriere en nombre de la búsqueda estilística y comprometido cuando firma un cartel por la paz en nombre de sus recuerdos de la Resistencia. Significa darle la posibilidad de jugar en dos mesas.

Scalzone: Esa forma de razonar refleja la personalidad del intelectual de izquierda de la década del 30. Refleja la psicología de cierta generación de intelectuales de izquierda para los cuales el compromiso político ha sido exclusivamente actividad de resistencia, que es algo muy diferente de una orgánica actividad revolucionaria. ¿No le parece, Moravia, que usted se está quedando estérilmente atado a ese mundo?

Moravia: Creo que no soy extraño a lo que está pasando alrededor de mí. Antes de la guerra teníamos el fascismo. Después de la guerra, la lucha de clases. Hoy tenemos la civilización industrial o de los consumos. Hoy, a pesar de que siguen existiendo las clases y las luchas de clase, me interesan principalmente los males de la civilización industrial.

Veltroni: Yo quisiera hablar de nuestra situación de universitarios, de nuestra polémica. Nosotros nos damos cuenta de que la universidad, en la sociedad occidental, sólo sirve para proveer los técnicos que contribuyen al fortalecimiento de la estructura capitalista. No es instrumento de libertad, no sirve para sustituir la recepción policial con el libre juego intelectual. Por eso criticamos tanto a un determinado tipo de hombre de cultura. Ciertos intelectuales para nosotros son simplemente agentes. Fingen representar a la izquierda, pero en realidad no hacen otra cosa que servir al sistema.

Moravia: La relación entre arte y política no es tan simple como ustedes creen. Cuando escribía Gli indifferenti, por ejemplo, yo era prácticamente apolítico. Sin embargo todo el mundo vio ahí una denuncia política.

Siciliani: Mire señor Moravia, a mí no me interesa cómo usted organiza sus relaciones con la sociedad. Sólo me preocupo de que usted no trate de justificarlas que no trate de salvar su alma, como han estado haciendo los intelectuales de izquierda en los últimos veinte años. Han conciliado lo que no es conciliable. Han repetido a cada instante "Soy un comunista, soy un marxista y por lo tanto no estoy de acuerdo con esta sociedad". Pero enseguida agregaban: "Pero ésta es la sociedad en que vivo y la actividad que yo puedo desarrollar en ella es el arte". En otras palabras han reservado para sí mismos una intervención que no cambia nada. Es una manera de integrarse, aunque sea una manera un poco hipócrita.

Moravia: Yo no deseo salvar mi alma aquí en Italia, ni en Rusia, ni en Estados Unidos ni en ninguna otra parte.

Veltroni: Usted dijo que la autogestión de las fábricas por parte de los obreros y el aprovechamiento de los obreros, aun bajo un dueño iluminado son la misma cosa. Como comunista, cuando escuchamos cosas como ésa nos rebelamos: Es una posición social-demócrata.

Moravia: Ya dije solamente que el eslabón de la cadena de montaje es factor de alienación tanto en una fábrica en autogestión como en una fábrica capitalista. En otros términos, la cuestión de fondo sigue sin resolverse: el hombre integrado en una cadena de montaje, ¿cómo hará para ser hombre? ¿Cómo hará para comunicarse?

Fuksas: Este es el secreto y la finalidad de la revolución cultural: permitirle comunicarse.

Moravia: Si usted hubiera leído mi libro sobre China, habría encontrado aquí que, para mí, una de las grandes esperanzas de la revolución cultural consiste justamente, en hacer pasar al hombre desde la condición campesina a la tecnológica sin que tenga que pasar por la etapa burguesa de los consumos.

Petruccioli: El intelectual de izquierda está atado a un tipo de actividad desarrollada en el pasado, que hoy él llama revolucionaria pero que objetivamente no lo es.

Moravia: ¿Qué actividad?

Petruccioli: A la actividad desarrollada durante la Resistencia, que actualmente se usa para justificar una serie de operaciones equivocadas.

Cuando usted dice que hoy el problema ya no consiste en la lucha de clases sino en la lucha contra la civilización industrial y la ética de los consumos, asume una actitud de esclavo. Su posición es análoga a la de aquellos que creen que es suficiente el hecho de estar inscritos en alguna organización política para calificar sus productos. Ese es un razonamiento falso. En otras palabras, serían más sinceros si se limitaran a decir: "Yo necesito ganar plata. Trato de cumplir con mi trabajo libremente, pero cuando no lo consigo tengo el atenuante del estado de necesidad". Este es el discurso que hay que rebatir; vuestra mala fe es demostrada por la venta misma de vuestros productos. Presentando vuestros productos de esa forma, como fruto de la ideología de la clase obrera ustedes desacreditan a la clase obrera misma. Ustedes se presentan como inocentes de cómo andan las cosas en el mundo capitalista a pesar de compartir la responsabilidad de todas esas cosas.

Scalzone: Quisiera recordarle la frase de Carmichael, el líder del Poder Negro, "El intelectual no nos interesa por lo que hace, sino por lo que hace por nosotros". Esto es también nuestro criterio. Con él medimos la posición política del artista.

Moravia: Ustedes, en otras palabras, quisieran un arte completamente politizado. Por mi parte, yo no escribo artículos políticos en el Corriere, como no los escribía en Unita. No tengo partido, odio a los partidos. No me afiliaría a ninguno de ellos. Me transformaría en un instrumento y no podría serle útil a nadie, ni siquiera al partido al cual estuviera afiliado.

Fuksas: ¿Pero usted está seguro, en su condición actual, de no ser un instrumento?

Moravia: Permítame definir al artista. El artista es el hombre, el único hombre que tiene el deber de mantenerse parecido a un niño, o sea no reprimirse y condicionarse en favor de sociedad alguna. La función social del artista, en otras palabras, es la de ser en alguna medida un antisocial.

Veltroni: Y afirmando eso, ¿usted sigue creyéndose marxista?

Moravia: Desde luego soy marxista. Pero no existe sólo el marxismo. Creo que éste es un excelente instrumento de conocimiento, pero no el único.

Scalzone: El marxismo no es un instrumento de conocimiento, sino de transformación del mundo.

Moravia: Conocimiento, para un artista, quiere decir transformación del mundo. Yo no soy hombre de acción: si lo fuera todo sería mucho más simple, aceptaría al marxismo como instrumento de transformación, como doctrina para la acción.

Veltroni: El "Che" Guevara ha dicho: "Los intelectuales deberían suicidarse, como clase". Eso significa que el intelectual no debe usar su pluma como instrumento para hacer lo que le gusta y evitarse el enfrentamiento con la realidad. ¿Qué piensa usted de esa frase, que en parte es aceptada también por Mao?

Moravia: Digo que es la frase de un hombre de acción, revolucionario de profesión. Un hombre que coloca la acción política por encima de todo lo demás. Pienso también que la pluma es un instrumento para hacer lo que nos gusta y en consecuencia enfrentarnos a la realidad.

Veltroni: ¿Su juicio sobre las obras de Mao y Guevara?

Moravia: Opino que Mao es un excelente escritor. Permítame citar mi libro sobre China. Página 45: "Ha sido al mismo tiempo el Lenin, el Trotski y el Stalin (pero también el Maiakovski) de China". En cuanto a Guevara, lo conozco poco como escritor. Como hombre de acción su figura (lo afirmé en una entrevista a Paese Sera) es heroica.

Scalzone: Usted, Moravia, ¿cree que sus reportajes desde China o desde Corea, o sobre Podgorny, pueden contribuir a la lucha que los países socialistas o del tercer mundo están llevando en contra del imperialismo?

Moravia: Nunca escribí nada acerca de Podgorny. El artículo desde Corea (Ver ANALISIS, No. 334) era una descripción verídica de la espantosa situación de Corea del Sur. Léanlo, o vuélvanlo a leer, y verán. Junto con otros escritores europeos he firmado en una página del New York Times, un llamado contra la guerra de Vietnam. Llamé hace poco tiempo a la Academia de Artes y Letras americana, de la cual formo parte como miembro honorario, con el fin de que se decidan a tomar posición en contra de la guerra. Naturalmente firmé manifiestos contra la guerra, no se hace otra cosa desde hace veinte años. ¿Pero para qué sirve? Se debiera hacer mas. Deberíase impedirle a Estados Unidos hacer la guerra. Pero yo, como escritor, ¿qué puedo hacer?

Veltroni: Debería hacer dos cosas. Primero: en el momento en que usted escribe reportajes o artículos por ejemplo, no debería apoyar al imperialismo. Segundo: no debería preocuparse sólo de lo que escribe, sino también de donde lo escribe, y quien lo leerá.

Scalzone: Otra pregunta a Moravia. La relación entre hombre y cadena de producción es de todas formas una relación alienada. La contradicción que interesa en el plano social es la relación entre aprovechador y aprovechado. ¿Usted de qué lado está? Si está con el segundo, ¿piensa combatir el primero? ¿Con cuáles medios? ¿Piensa que pueden ser los propios de su profesión de escritor? ¿O que se pueda y deba combatir con otros medios?

Moravia: Representar, en arte, es combatir, porque la representación es acusación y juicio. Fuera de ello, queda la acción política o armada.

Fuksas: La "generación intermedia" a la cual Moravia pertenece, ha formado una especie de monopolio cultural y económico de toda la producción. Esta es la razón por la cual renegamos de los hombres de cultura de aquella generación.

Moravia: Yo no participo de ningún monopolio cultural ni mucho menos económico. He protestado siempre, en mis libros. Protesten ustedes también. Prueben a escribir una novela en contra del monopolio.

Staderini: Una última pregunta: ¿Usted dijo que firma llamados por la paz en Vietnam?

Moravia: Es cierto.

Staderini: Firma también en el Corriero de'la Sera, que es el órgano de la opresión imperialista en Italia. ¿No es una contradicción?

Moravia: Si es cierto que el Corriere della Sera es el órgano de la opresión imperialista en Italia, es una contradicción. De todas formas no escribo artículos ideológicos, y si los escribiera, no los publicaría en el Corriere della Sera. Finalmente, a pesar de que yo no sea stalinista, permítame citar a Stalin: "Dicen que nos contradecimos. Pues sí, nos contradecimos". Sólo los agit-prof no se contradicen.

Subject: LIRING/3 [illegible] tact with LIRING Office.

1. During the period 4-15 November,1968, Rowton met with LIRING/3 on four occasions to debrief him on his activities. LIRING/3 agreed with Rowton that there were several phases to his renewed operational activity that needed careful planning and co-ordination. He commented on these as follows:

(a) Maintenance of Contact with FAR: LIRING/3 sent a letter to Rafael Argueta A. giving him his current address so that "Pavel" could be informed how to contact him. In response to this letter, LIRING/3 received a note fromthe mother of the Miguel and Juán León Barrios on 14/11/68 enquiring about his health. Since the letter was addressed to LIRING/3's new address he felt it was proff that his reply to Argueta's letter had been received. He stated that he hoped "Pavel" or some one else representing FAR would soon appear.

(b) RE-establishment of Contact with LIRING AND PERUMEN: LIRING/3 agreed with Rowton that his ultimate objective would be a trip to PERUMEN to act as liaison between the authorities there and FAR. Rowton stressed the need to keep the local LIRING establishment informed and in support of his activities, to avoid hurting their feelings by going over their head (as happened before the last trip). LIRING/3 commented that he would have to maneuver matters so that he was extended an invitation. He would try this through LIRING/10, but if it did not succeed he would try a discreet approach through Orlando Suarez who, he felt, could arrange a cultural invitation without difficulty.

LIRING/3 subsequently reported to Rowton that he met with LIRING/10 on the morning of 15/11/68 in the patio area of the LIRING establishment and that the latter had introduced him to his replacement, who invited LIRING/3 to meet with him any morning about 1100 except Mondays and Fridays. LIRING/9 also asked LIRING/3 to meet with him privately at his convenience so that he could debrief him on his experiences. LIRING/3 commented that LIRING/2 was very cordial but did not ask him any specific questions or show interest in debriefing him. LIRING/3 promised Rowton that he would attempt to gain access to LIRING/10's office for the debriefing.

(c) Cover Problems: LIRING/3 told Rowton that he would make every effort to obtain some kind of cover employment so that he could justify any funds given to him by Rowton. He stated that he was attempting to arrange for an exposition to display his products and at the same time persuade a leading member of his profession to permit him to work in his establishment (for a nominal salary). LIRING/3 then suggested a better possibility - an exposition in Montreal, Canada, where he had contact with a person who could arrange matters for him. LIRING/3 confessed that he favored Canada for another personal reason. He explained that LIRING/4's father was suffering from what appeared to be terminal cancer of the throat or esophagus and that L/4 was very anxious to see him before he died. L/4 had stated several times that she planned to request a visa for travel to New York since it was out of the question for her father to travel to Mexico City to visit her. LIRING/3 told Rowton that in any case he felt it unwise to permit L/4 to visit New York where she would inievitably fall in with all sorts of refugees who would report on her attitudes. He preferred to travel with her to Montreal under cover of the exposition and then ask her father to join them there - a trip within reason for a person in his condition. L/3 added that he felt he and L/4 could travel by boat at a modest fare and this would permit him to carry as many of his products as possible for the exposition.

Rowton agreed that this might be a solution, but recommended that L/3 look into the possibility of returning to Mexico via IBRUMEN (on the boat) since this would kill two birds with one stone. Rowton suggested that L/3 determine whether L/4's father was actually in a condition to travel even the relatively short distacne. If not it might be possible for L/4 to travel to New York via Montreal by train at less expense than by air.

1. LIRING/3 received letter ~~acknowledging~~ from "Marta" postmarked 9 November, Guatemala, C.A. acknowledging receipt L/3's letter and expressing relief from anxiety. Gives greetings from "los canchitos" Miguel, Elsa, "La Negra", "La Chiquitia", Felisa, Maria Elena, "La gordita" Envelope written by other hand is addressed to L/3 at his new residence and bears return address: M.Bol., 28c "B" 8-25 Zona 8. LIRING/3 told Rowton this letter from mother Juán and Miguel ~~xxxxxx~~ León Barrios, sent apparently to test commo channel. L/3 replied to letter 22/11/68 stating he expects soon make trip "outside country" and asking ~~xxxxx~~ Marta to tell "los canchitos" (her sons Miguel and Juán) to send him the assignment ("encargo") soonest since he in position to help them in some way. L/3 enclosed clipping from "Siempre" of letter to editor describing his experiences in Guatemala.

2. L/3 also turned over ~~to Rowton~~ letter from "Espinoza" postmarked 7 November, Guatemala, C.A., sending warmest greetings, but containing phrase, "the León Barrios send you greetings", which L/3 interprets to be signal from Juán and Miguel that contact with FAR imminent. Envelope addressed to L/3 at his new address bears return address: Oscar Moises Raldán E., Granja Penal Pavón, Fraijanes, Guatemala.

3. LIRING/3 also reported ~~that~~ he had private talk with LIRING/9 on late morning 21 November in which L/9 stated he most interested in any observations L/3 might wish make concerning attitude and opinions his FAR contact with respect to PBRUMEN support. He asked L/3 to put his thoughts in writing and submit them to him at 1730 on 26 November. At L/3 request he promised invite LIRING/10 and other interested LIRING officials to this meeting. LIRING/9 expressed opinion that LIRING/3 should subsequently travel to PBRUMEN for "more detailed" discussions and offered arrange cultural cover invitation. He added that it would not be necessary for L/3 make formal application for visa.

4. LIRING/3 will submit to Rowton draft of his report on afternoon 25/11/68 so that Rowton may amplify as desired. L/3 told Rowton he plans take line that PBRUMENs do not understand local problems and that their aid in past has been dissapated in factionalism. L/3 asked Rowton for as many details as Rowton can gather to strengthen his report (such as local FAR attidute toward César Montes and CPG leaders through whom PBRUMEN has worked in past. Also in French girl who executed recently about whom L/9 asked L/3 a number of questions, indicating PBRUMEN interest in exact role she played via-á-vis FAR.

Subject: LIRING/3 Report of Meeting with LIRING/9.

1. LIRING/3 reported to Rowton at the safehouse (Identity B) at 1015 on 22 November,1968, that he had met with LIRING/9 at the latter's private office late the previous morning for a very serious discussion. L/3 explained that he had visited the LIRING offices with LIRING/4 to pass out invitations to the exposition scheduled to begin on 23/11/68, and that L/9 approached him immediately and asked him to come into his office for a chat,"if he could spare the time." Early in the conversation, Rowton's reconstruction of which follows, LIRING/3 got the impression that L/9 had been delegated by LIRING/10 to talk privately with him on the matters he broached:

9/ "I'm glad, chico, that you have a few minutes, since I wanted to talk over a few things very seriously and in private."

3/. "I'm at your disposition. What do you have in mind?"

9/."Well, what are your plans?"

3/."What plans do you mean? After all I have a lot of plans for different things,as you can imagine."

9/."I mean your plans for the immediate future."

3/."Well, I pllan giving this exposition (to which you are invited, of course) in the hope of raising enough money to take a trip to Montreal where I expect to have another exposition already being arranged by CPIC. This will enable LIRING/4 to come up there to see her father who is very ill, as you probably know. Her father will gladly help us financially to cover some of the cost of the trip."

9/."Yes, but I mean what about your plans for continued political activity?"

3/" Well, that's different. As you know I have had a long standing interest in Central America politically, and, despite the fact that it has cost me a great deal personally, I hope to continne helping my friends within my capabilities. Fortunately, there in really nothing that I know of against me here in Mexico,since I have not become involved with organizations and parties."

9/."I see. But has your experience in Guatemala affected your attitude towards us?"

3/."Frankly it has. I have a much better idea of the struggle from first-hand experience, and much more sympathy for the difficultie that the comrades there had had to undergo."

9/."But could you be more specific?"

3/."Well, it's a long story. I had hoped to discuss it in some detail with several of you together, particularly LIRING/10 and his replacement."

9/."Yes, that will be arranged. But first I would appreicate your going over everything with me."

3/."Well first of all, I would like to have present Iden A with his wife since I want once and for all to clear up any questions about the circumstances of our mutual experience there."

9/. "Don't be childish. We know all about Iden A, just exactly what kind of person he is as well as his wife. Such a confrontation is a waste of time, as far as we're concerned."

3/."But don't forget the fact that the parents of the wife of Iden are ~~x~~ very close friends of the LIRING Chief and it's quite natural that they'll present their point of view when they see him."

9/. "Don't worry about that. It's a purely social relationship,and, in any case, our Chief really hasn't got very much to do with these things,and his opinion won't matter."

3/. "I hope so. I'd feel better in any case to talk about the detail in Iden's presence, so that he will agree,as he must on his responsibility. You realize, of course, that he carried with him such compromising material that it was a miracle that we were not assassinated on the spot."

9/."Yes, but that is unimportant now. What is important isthe fact that you have learned a great deal about the mentality of our friends down there, and that this could prove very useful to us in our future dealings."

3/."Yes,for instance, they told me among other things that César Montes had spent too much time with your people, on trips to your country and to Mexico, and had completely lost touch with the revolution. That's the reason he was "destituido".

9/."So, you know that!"

3/."Yes, and many more details of wh y they are unhappy - the lack of adequate financial support, the inability of ~~xprixx~~PBRUMEN to embarrass PBPRIME In their increasing trade success."

9/." Very interesting! I have a suggestion. Suppose you prepare a written report (informe) and bring it in at 1730 sharp on 26 November. I'll have some of my colleagues present so that we can all discuss your opinions and suggestions. I suggest 1730 because it will be quieter then and we can go to a better place to talk privately."

3/."Fine, but I would like to be able to amplify my report in person inthe PBRUMEN capital. Perhaps I could stop off there on the way back from Montreal."

9/."But there are no passenger ships making that run. Only cargo ships. I have a better suggestion. We could arrange an invitation for a cultural exposition that would appear innocuous."

3/."Fine. I agree that would be best. Do I have to make any formal application?"

9/."No. It won't be necessary. I'll handle everything. But what about LIRING/4?"

3/. "That's a rather delicate matter. She has not quite gotten over my experience,and might object to my re-involvment in political matters. I therefore would request you not to mention this aspect to her. She could go off to her home town and visit her family and think that the whole trip is cultural."

9/."Yes,I agree that would be best under the circumstances."

AVENTURA DE JURADO EN GUATEMALA

Sr. José Pagés Llergo
Director de SIEMPRE!

Hace unos días volví a la ciudad de México, después de haber permanecido encarcelado durante casi 7 meses en Guatemala, sujeto a un juicio —del cual salí absuelto— acusado por las autoridades de aquel país de "atentar contra las instituciones democráticas".

No pretendo hacer una crónica de las circunstancias de mi detención, del proceso judicial, etc., pues estos detalles en parte fueron dados a conocer en su oportunidad por SIEMPRE!; pero sí quisiera relatarle en una forma breve algunas de las cosas que observé durante esos meses en el campo de concentración de Pavón, mal llamado "Granja Penal Pavón", donde estuve confinado.

Dicha "granja" está situada a más o menos 20 Kms. de la ciudad de Guatemala en el Departamento de Fraijanes y consiste en un hoyanco artificial rodeado de cercas electrificadas y torretas de vigilancia, como eran los campos de concentración nazis. Se supone que en los países civilizados los sistemas carcelarios disponen de los medios suficientes para proporcionar a los reclusos un mínimo de comodidades o elementos que le permitan su desarrollo o rehabilitación; pero en este sitio sólo imperan el terror y el hambre, así como las condiciones más infrahumanas y espeluznantes, ya que la insalubridad y la falta de atención en todos los aspectos es lo que allí impera.

La población aproximada de "la Granja" oscila entre 1,300 y 1,500 reos, de los cuales los "presos políticos" no llegan a 20, ya que los detenidos por delitos de esta naturaleza son generalmente asesinados después de su detención y estar sujetos a torturas.

Por lo tanto, la casi totalidad de los presos son "delincuentes comunes", pero podría decirse que en un 40% son inocentes del delito de que se les acusa: pues en Guatemala, para ser encarcelado no es necesario tener pruebas en contra. Una simple acusación policíaca o de particulares basta para quedar sujeto a un proceso en el cual es común salir absuelto después de uno o dos años de encarcelamiento.

La administración interna del penal está encomendada a los reclusos, para lo cual se escoge a los delincuentes más depravados y que tienen condenas largas: asesinos, drogadictos, etc.

Para mantener la disciplina se ha formado un cuerpo de represión denominado "servicio especial" o "garroteros", como vulgarmente se les llaman. Este grupo, cuya impunidad es ilimitada, mantiene a los reclusos en terror constante, ya que basta la falta más mínima para que golpeen con saña brutal al infractor, llegándole a causar hasta la muerte.

El penal no proporciona a los reclusos ningún medio de trabajo, pero sí propicia la formación de mafias internas que explotan a quienes tienen mayores necesidades, haciéndolos trabajar en fábricas elementales de algunas artesanías: canastos, juguetes rudimentarios o pelotas de futbol; productos que envían a la calle para su venta y de los cuales esas mafias obtienen grandes ganancias que comparten con la dirección del Penal.

Uno de los negocios más productivos, y del cual participan las autoridades en combinación con los reclusos influyentes, es la venta de seconales sódicos y mariguana a los reclusos; drogas con las que una gran mayoría trata de borrar su desesperación y angustia, pero trayendo por consecuencia reyertas que degeneran muchas veces en el asesinato.

Como mencioné antes, la "Granja Penal de Pavón" consiste en un hoyanco artificial cuyo espacio habitable se reduce a un rectángulo de 170 por 70 metros, aproximadamente, el cual incluye 5 cuadras y una explanada al aire libre, irónicamente llamada "campo deportivo". Cada una de las cuadras alberga un promedio de 250 personas que viven en la más absoluta promiscuidad. Para agravar esta situación funciona diariamente —durante 12 horas— un altoparlante, audible en todos los rincones, y que se utiliza para acrecentar el amedrentamiento y el terror. Por ese altoparlante se llama a los recluidos, que son solicitados para presentarse a la autoridad del penal, pero siempre haciendo hincapié en la amenaza y en la intimidación.

Los reincidentes o reos peligrosos, están confinados en el "Triángulo", que es un espacio pequeño, protegido por alambradas, del cual no pueden salir ni siquiera a la explanada. En las cuadras, sólo una parte de los reclusos dispone de literas; la mayoría duerme en el suelo cubriéndose con trapos viejos o cartones. La alimentación que el penal proporciona consiste en dos pequeños panes y café por la mañana, seis tortillas y un poco de caldo o de frijoles al mediodía, y otro poco de frijoles por la tarde. Una parte de los reos se alimenta con los escasos medios que sus familiares les llevan los días de visita o en pequeñas fondas que algunos han instalado para obtener ingresos. Tampoco existe atención médica adecuada: sólo una barraca con algunos implementos rudimentarios [illegible], para cualquier enfermedad, se proporcionan cuando mucho dos aspirinas, o un [illegible] y gasa, si es una herida, ya sea leve o grave.

Un hecho que reviste gravedad extrema para los reclusos acusados de delitos políticos, es el de cómo llegar seguros de vuelta a sus hogares el día que reciben su libertad de ese infierno. En todas las "cárceles" del país el total de presos políticos no llega a 100. Una gran mayoría de ellos [illegible]

En general, la "Granja Penal Pavón" es posiblemente una de las prisiones más terroríficas que existen en Latinoamérica y sería oportuno que la Comisión de Derechos Humanos de la ONU organizara una revista de inspección, para desenmascarar así una de las tantas formas de violencia que imperan hoy día en tan bello pero desafortunado país.

Le agradezco muy sinceramente las informaciones y defensa que la revista SIEMPRE! ha hecho de mi caso.

Atentamente,

Carlos Jurado.

1. Forwarded herewith is one copy each for Headquarters and the Guatemala City Station of the report covering the debriefing by Wallace B. ROWTON of LIRING-3 on his imprisonment in Guatemala. Identity A of ROWTON's report is a Guatemalan rebel living in Mexico who, as addressees will remember. accidentally shot himself in the leg a few days prior to his departure for Guatemala with LIRING-3. This wound may have convinced the Guatemalans that he had recently been involved in terrorist activities and may, in fact, have cost him his life. Identity B of the same report is the nephew of Identity F, a Mexican Communist who was arrested on 19 September 1968 during a student demonstration in Mexico City; he is still in jail.

2. As this dispatch is being written, LIRING-3 has an appointment to talk at length about his experience in Guatemala with the LIRING Station Chief, LIRING-10. The general idea is for LIRING-3 to go to PBRUMEN in the hope that he can be used to penetrate PBRUMEN-sponsored subversion efforts in Latin America or become, at least for a time, a reporting source in PBRUMEN.

3. ROWTON and the undersigned are prepared to travel to Guatemala to discuss the LIRING-3 case and its Guatemalan/FAR implications whenever the Guatemala City Station, after reviewing the available information, feels ready for such discussion. Please advise.

Subject: Report of Debriefing of LIRING/3.

1. Upon his return from TDY, Rowton made discreet efforts to re-establish contact with LIRING/4 as directly as possible. He checked on the last known residence of L/4 on the nights of 24 and 25 October but found the third floor apartment totally blacked out. He therefore assumed that LIRING/4 had abandoned the apartment either because of fear of the Gobernación agents that had attempted to exort 500 pesos from her (as indicated in LIFEAT take for 11 Sept) or as a result of her inability to pay the October rent, or both. Rowton checked his telephone answering service but found no message from LIRING/4 as he had hoped. Rowton concluded that L/4 must have assumed that Rowton had left the country on an extended trip, since prior to his departure (15 September) Rowton had left a note on the afternoon of 11 September under the door of the apartment advising L/4 that he had to leave the country and hoped to see her the following morning at 1000 at the "consultorio". LIRING/4 did not show at 1000 the following morning or the next, probably because of the visit of the police to the apartment.

2. Rowton then telephoned Identity C and,on the pretext of interest in the watercolors of LIRING/3, asked srta Carillo who answered for the address of LIRING/4. Srta Carillo replied that unfortunately she did not have the present address but did have the watercolors and could show them to Rowton. She added that LIRING/3 was in Guatemala and that LIRING/4 passed by Iden C from time to time to check on the sale of the pictures. When she offered to give L/4 any message Rowton might have, the latter asked her to tell L/4 to telephone Rowton at his telephone answering service(alias)

3. Rowton then felt his only other source of L/4's whereabouts that would not attract undue attention (particularly on the part of the LIRING office) would be a check with LIRING/3's first wife, since he recalled that she had taken care of LIRING/3 and /4's child almost every week-end,even after L/3's arrest. Rowton therefore obtained the telephone used by LIRING/3 to contact his first wife (from the Station file) and decided to call on the morning of 29 October. In the meantime, however, Rowton learned from the Station that LIRING/3 had been released and returned to Mexico City on 18 October.

4. When Rowton called the number of the frist wife (apparently a small store in the Casas Grandes development), he asked for Carlito, the eldest son of L/3,(whom Rowton had already met) rather than for the first wife of L/3 whom Rowton did not know. A young girl replied saying that her brother Carlito was not at home at the moment. Rowton then explained that he was actually trying to locate LIRING/3. The child then exclaimed that L/3, her father, was at that very moment upstairs in her home. Rowton asked her to ask her father to come to the phone as soon as possible. After a few minutes delay. L/3 came to the phone and talked directly to Rowton.

5. LIRING/3 appeared from his tone of voice to be rather depressed and showed no sign of enthusiasm in re-establishing contact with Rowton. Rowton explained that he had been out of the country and had unfortunately not been able to see I/4 before he left. Rowton added that he had returned on 19 Oct, the day after LIRING/3 himself had returned (Rowton said this for effect, since he knew it would impress L/3 to indicate that he was fully aware of the exact date of L/3's return). When he then asked to see L/3, the latter replied "of course, when?" Rowton then made a date for 1200 that same day at the Kiss restaurant on Reforma. He then telephoned Identity D and reserved a room for that afternoon so that he would be able to give L/3 the safehouse at their first meeting..

6. LIRING/3 appeared on time and looked reasonably well, despite his long confinement. He explained that he had been able to recuperate during the past ten days and felt much better for the normal diet he had been able to resume. The only physical effect he still felt, besides the weakness from loss of weight and dysentery, was a recurring pain in the side, which L/3 feared resulted from a fractured rib that had healed without medical treatment. He explained that he had been beaten severely on several occasions during the initial interrogation both by the military and the police and "of course" did not have the benefit of medical treatment afterwards.

7. Rowton then alleged to LIRING/3 that he had done "everything possible" to arrange his release, principally through a notional GNA colonel whose brother was a business friend of Rowton. He explained that when he had learned that L/3 had left Mexico City for the trip as planned, he telephoned the colonel and explained that a Mexican friend, LIRING/3, was planning to visit his country and might conceivably need help at some point. Rowton continued that this gesture proved to be literally a life-saver for L/3, since a few days later, the colonel called Rowton back and reported the arrest of L/3 in the company of "very dangerous persons." At the colonel's request, Rowton met with him several days later at the border and they both planned the best course of action to save L/3. Rowton alleged that the colonel on his own initiative arranged to have L/3 transferred from the frontier to Guatemala City so that he could be released from army custody to the civilian authorities. L/3 apparently accepted this story at once, remarking that it did appear strange to him that he was flown with his companions in a twin engine plane and that the Minister of [illegible] was present at the airport when they disembarked. L/3 told Rowton that he felt certain that had he remained in the control of the army he would have been executed without trial or publicity of any kind.

8. LIRING/3 added that when he arrived he found LIRING/4 in a state of virtual exhaustion from nervous tension and worry. He stated that L/4 had become understandably bitter at the attitude of the police and felt abandoned by everyone, including Rowton, during the last weeks of L/3's imprisonment. L/3 added that, as Rowton suspected, L/4 was not anxious for him to resume any kind of political activity and would try her best to dissuade him from resuming collaboration with Rowton, if it meant reinvolvement with FAR and the LIRING office. In reply to Rowton's query, L/3 stated that L/4 had managed financially since Rowton's departure by selling a few of his paintings, one of which was purchased by a "northamerican woman" at an excellent price and then donated to Bellas Artes (after the purchaser learned of L/3's plight)

9. Rowton met with L/3 again that same evening at 2000 in the safehouse of Identity D and was able to debrief him at some length under more secure conditions. LIRING/3 showed no reluctance to provide Rowton with all the details of his trip to Guatemala and to answer Rowton's questions frankly. At Rowton's request L/3 gave the following chronological account of his experiences over the past six months:

"Idens A and B and myself crossed the border on Easter Saturday(April 13) without incident, Iden A using the false Mexican documents I had provided and Iden B and myself traveling with our legal passports that had been properly visaed in Mexico City before we left. I had originally planned to get Iden A across the border illegally north of Mesilla and meet him subsequently in Guatemala City, but I was dissuaded from this plan partly by Iden A's fear of traveling alone without properly visaed papers and partly by the fact that it was an important holiday and there was more than usual movement across the border.

"Incidentally Iden B joined us at the invitation of Iden A when Iden B expressed an interest in concluding an interview with Nestor Valle of FAR (the first interview had occurred some months previously during Iden B's last trip to Guatemala). Iden B did this on his own initiative to impress his uncle with his newspaper initiative and ability, and Iden A felt that bringing Iden B with him would enhance his own prestige in the eyes of the FAR headquarter officials he hoped to meet. I myself realized that Iden B's presence was not altogether unfavorable for me, since if anything happened I would not have to bear the responsibility alone but could share it with Iden B.

"In any event we passed through the Mexican immigration and customs without difficulty, although Iden A was told that he would have to stop off at the Guatemalan consul's office (strangely enough on the Guatemalan side) to get a tourist visa, which was described as a "mere formality". At this point Iden A began to show signs of nervousness and refused to enter the Consul's office alone. I therefore accompanied him to calm him down. We found that the Consul was a colonel in the GNA, and a very observant person, despite his rather polite treatment of Iden A. Iden A, incidentally had dyed his hair at my suggestion to reduce the chances of his being spotted by an acquaintance.

"But I forgot to mention that the real reason for Iden A's nervousness was an unfortunate incident at the immigration office shortly before. One of the immigration officers mistook Iden B for a person wanted for some sort of fraud and insisted on examining him closely and even checking his height with a tape measure. Fortunately Iden B proved to be several centimeters taller than the person wanted by the police and we were alowed to pass on. This delay however did attract considerable attention and produced a state of nervous tension in both Iden A and, of course, B.

"Iden A was granted the tourist visa without delay and we proceeded to the Customs, about 200 yeards up the road. Iden A, who had only a briefcase, refused to enter the Customs shed, but waited for us in a nearby cafe to keep as calm as possible. Iden B and I had to open our valises in Customs for the routine check. It was then that I myself got a nervous shock. My own bag had nothing but clothing in it, but Iden B was carrying a camera, a Czech recording machine, Soviet-made hiking boots, and, worst of all, a Mexican magazine between the pages of which he had concealed (very crudely) several FAR propaganda leaflets (which he told me later he was carrying to "impress" the FAR with the work being done on his uncle's press in Mexico City). Altho the Customs officers asked no questions and allowed Iden B to proceed I am certain that they spotted the leaflets and noted the rather unusual equipment Iden B was carrying with him.

"When we joined Iden A at the cafe, he asked anxiously, 'No hubo clavo?' and when we assured him that there hadn't been an problem ('clavo') he regained his composture. He then hailed a small, six-passenger autobus that was bound for Huehuetenango with three passengers (Guatemalans) already aboard. About 3 kilometers outside the town (Mesilla) the driver told us we were approaching the military outpost of 'El Cable' and that we would be checked again. He, to our surprise, warned us to hide any guns we might have been carrying "under the seats" since the military would search the bus. Just then we saw a car pass us a rather high speed and recognized the Consul in the driver's seat. Iden A's nervousness gained him again and he shoved into my hand his Guatemalan passport and a few other of his legal papers. I quickly put them into my pocket and hoped that I would not be searched.

"When we reached the control point, we saw the Consul, by then wearing a side-arm, leaning against his car, waiting for the arrival of the bus. As soon as we stopped, he shouted to a nearby soldier to have the Colonel Commandant come out. When the soldier refused saying that it was more proper for him, the Consul, to goto the office of the Commandant, the Consul insisted in a rather stern voice. Finally the soldier disappeared and returned in a few minutes with the commandant, a young officer of excellent bearing. After a few minutes conversation with the Consul, the Commandant ordered us (Iden A,B and myself) out of the bus. The driver then returned our fare and was allowed to proceed on to Huehuetenango, after we had removed our luggage. We then found ourselves surround by soldiers and escorted into the "El Cable' compound. There we were assigned to different prefabricated huts and questioned separately. At an opportune moment, when the soldier guarding me (through the window of the hut) went off to get me some water, I managed to squeeze the passport of Iden A and his other papers through a crack in the floor boards where I felt sure that they would not be discovered.

"The Commandant, who was fairly polite and even gave us coffee, asked me the purpose of my trip and how well I knew the other two. I replied that I was simply sightseeing and that I had known Iden B in Mexico City since he was a well-known catedrático at the University but that I had run into him at San Cristóbal. With regard to Iden A, I alleged that I did not know him and had simply run into him by chance at the Immigration Office and had joined him and Iden B on the bus to save money in traveling to Huehuetenango. The Commandant then asked me to open my valise and he proceeded to search the contents carefully. He was particularly attracted to a clay bell which Iden A or B had placed there without my knowledge. (I later found out that they had stolen three bells from the hotel at San Cristóbal in a spoof and had put one on my valise). I told the Commandant that I did not know the bell was in my valise but recognized it as one sold at the tourist stand of the Hotel in San Cristóbal. I subsequently realized that they thought that the bells were some sort of recognition signal and wanted to get to the bottom of the apparently perplexing matter.

"After about three or four hours an army truck arrived drived by sergeant who appeared to have been drinking heavily (it was Holy Saturday and a festive occasion in the village). He ordered us tied hand and foot and literally thrown into the back of the truck. He then took off at reckless speed without any thought of the pain he was causing us (our hands were tied behind our back and we were forced to remain lying on the floor of the truck). At one point he stopped and instructed the soldiers to shoot us if we made any attempt to escape. Later one of the soldiers brutally kicked Eden A in the side when he moved suddenly, apparently to ease the strain on his arms.

"We were finally taken from the truck at the village of Buenos Aires, on the outskirts of Huehuetenango, and escorted into another military establishment where we were again interrogated. I stuck steadfastly to my original simply story, and, although I am sure that they did not believe me, there was no incriminating evidence in my luggage or on my person to serve as a basis for their suspicions. After several hours, from a good vantage point just inside the main door, where I had been deposited (still tied up) by the last interrogator, I overheard an officer sending a radio message to the Ministry in Guatemala City reporting our arrest and asking for instructions. He must have been told that a helicopter would be coming to pick us up, becasue I heard him reply that a helicopter would not be adequate and that a plane should be sent, since we were "dangerous types".

"The plane, a twin engine military aircraft, finally arrived and we were hustled into it and forced again to lie on the floor even while in flight. When we landed at the Guatemala City airport we were not removed from the plane for several hours. I recall hearing someone say,'Leave then inside. The Minister hasn't arrive yet.' Shortly thereafter, a Northamerican army officer came aboard the plane and came straight toward me. He rolled me over roughly with his boot and began interrogating me. He appeared under the impression that I was a FAR leader and at first did not believe him when I gave him my true identity. I remember him very well since he spoke with a distinct northamerican accent and had a bandage around one of his legs (apparently he had been wounded in a skirmish).'

"We were finally removed from the aircraft and taken directly to the 2nd Police Corps Headquarters in Guatemala City and assigned to cell block 400, which is reserved for political prisoners (incidentally I later learned to my amazement that they are no more that 40 political prisoners in Guatemala - the others all having been executed before trial.

"In cellblock 400 of the Pavón prison, where I spent several weeks awaiting arraignment, there are six cells with thick wooden bars, three on each side, in three of which Iden A, Iden B and myself were confined. I discovered that in one of the other cells was Rolando "Cebollito", an important FAR leader, and in another cell were two young FAR members, the brothers Miguel and [illegible] Juán León Barrios, who later told me that they were members of the G-2 of FAR. In the remaining cell were three members of the 'Mano Blanca', one of whom I later learned was named Inez Nufio Padilla.

"As soon as we became acquainted, 'Cebollito' made an investigation of the circumstances surrounding our arrest, as he said, on behalf of FAR. 'Cebollito' who had already been arraigned had more freedom than the others and was able to wander in and out with relative ease (I noted that the door of his cell was often unlocked). He therefore was able to talk discreetly with each of us through the bars to 'interrogate' us to his satisfaction. After several days he reported that he found Iden A's conduct 'inexcusable' and Iden B completely stupid in his unnecessarily exposing his companions with the compromising material he was carrying. He told me that he felt I had been the victim of very unfortunate circumstances and my only mistake was to have attempted to cross the frontier with the other two. He added that he intended to sent his report to FAR via his mother, who was able to visit him more or less regularly. Several weeks later I saw 'Cebollito' being pushed into an army truck and learned from the León brothers that he was taken out and executed before his trial was completed. The last time I saw Iden A was about April 25, when he waved to me from his cell (I had already been taken out of cellblobk 400 and moved into the large compound).

"Fortunately the Mexican Consul, Serrano, recognized my family name and told me that he was a friend of my father. He did what he could to help me get messages out to my wife and to supply me with materials to write and do some painting. Also of great help and comfort to me was Mario Armando Amador, the First Secretary, whose life, I learned later, was threatened befause of the interest he took in me and Iden B. Armando confided to me on one occasion that he had to be very discreet in sending messages to Relacions Exteriores in Mexico since the "North-americans decipher and read everything we send." He therefore had to send everything concerning me by diplomatic pouch despite the delay involved.

"I managed to get a message out to the press in a very strange way. I had gotten to know one of the 'Mano Blanca' (the oldest of the trio that had been arrested for the kidnapping of the Archbishop), Inez Nufio Padilla, and felt he was sympathetic toward us. I therefore prepared a brief message on the inside of an empty package of cigarettes 'To whom it may Concern' stating that we had been arrested and were being held unjustly, and on the day that the trio were called out to appear in court, where I knew there would be newspaper reporters are present I slipped the note to Nufio with a plea that he give it to a reporter as soon as he could. I later learned that he did so and that my note appeared verbatim in the local press.

"Several weeks later the mother and wife of Iden B visited us and either because of what he told them or on their own initiative spread the nasty rumor that I had been responsible for the arrest and that I was a Trotskyite (the wife and mother of Iden B are both members of the CP Mexico). This proved very disquieting to me but I was reassured to some extent by the León brothers who told me that they would 'investigate' and clear up the matter as soon as they could. About two months later, they took me aside in the prison compound and show me a report they stated they received from "FAR sources in Mexico". In this report I was described as "an anarchist without party affiliations, of good character and conduct, trustworthy and responsible but difficult to control". Iden B, on the other hand was described as "an opportunist, without sincere ideology, in reality a bourgeois of superficial convictions."

"From that moment the León brothers took me into their confidence. They revealed that FAR had broken completely with the CP Guatemala becasue of complete dissatisfaction with the party's handling of support matters. They pointed out to me Francisco Corado in the compound as the CP representative and commented that all financial help from the outside was being channeled through him despite the fact that he distribute the aid to his friends who were not even party members and neglected everyone else. The brothers also told me that FAR had stripped César Montes of all his authority and that he was in exile in Mexico. They commented that Montes had spent almost all his time outside Guatemala and had not accomplished the missions he was sent on. They also stated that financial and material aid from Cuba had dwindled to almost nothing because of FAR refusal to accept Cuban terms. They explained that the Cubans insisted on sending their experts to direct everything and channeled all their financial aid through the CP Guatemala.

"The León brothers also suggested that if and when I returned to Mexico, I should maintain contact with a "genuine FAR representative" and that I should do everything possible to convince the Cubans to take a more realistic position vis-a-vis their revolution. I welcomed this suggestion, assuring them that I could and would make a trip to Havana as soon as feasible. Since I was not certain of my wife's whereabouts, I asked the brothers to have their representative in Mexico, whom they described simply as 'Pavel', contact me through Identity C . I suggested that 'Pavel' could contact the director, Identity E or her secretary Srta Carillo, and introduce himself as a person representing a certain Srta Violeta who was interested in purchasing the watercolors I had already sent to my wife. 'Pavel' could then ask for my address or leave a message telling me where I could contact him. They agreed and promised to communicate with me as soon after my release as possible.

"The trial of myself and Iden B was nothing more than a formality, since the judge was well aware that the prosecution had no solid evidence (fortunately for us Iden A had already been eliminated and could not testify even under duress). Since at least three attempts had been made to execute us before the trial (on the well-known pretext of removing us from the prison and assassinating us while supposedly attempting to escape), I demand an escort after the acquittal to accompany us to the airport. We arrived in Mexico City on 18 October and I was met there by my wife."

10. After relating the above, LIRING/3 asked Rowton to keep the proposed contact with 'Pavel' in strictest confidence, particularly from his wife, since he felt she would be very upset to learn that he, L/3, was planning to resume political activity on behalf of FAR. In reply to Rowton's query, L/3 stated that as yet he had not had time to recontact anyone in the LIRING office but promised to do so as soon as the opportunity presented itself. He agreed with Rowton that LIRING/4 would be the logical person to arrange a discreet meeting with LIRING/10. L/3 told Rowton incidentally that L/4 had protested to LIRING/10 some weeks previously that Rodolfo Reyes was spreading rumors to the effect that the LIRING office did not trust LIRING/4. L/10 replied indignantly that if there was anyone they did not trust it was Rodolfo Reyes, and that L/4 could bring him in and L/10 would tell him such to his face.

Subject: Review and Assessment of LIRING Operation.

I. Background, Character and Assessment of LIRING/3:

1. Liring/3 (Subject) is a 26-year-old Mexican artist of the Diego Rivera School and an atheistic existentialist oriented toward the philosophy of Jean Paul Sartre, with relatively strong leftist political convictions. He has produced a fair amount of painting and had relatively good success in murals both in Cuba and Mexico, but has not succeeded in selling many of his works despite numerous expositions, sponsored by the Mexican Government plastic arts organization (Bellas Artes). Because of his family, educational and environmental background, Subject feels that his work has not been appreciated for its intrinsic worth by the Mexican Government and tends to blame his political convictions for this lack of acceptance. Subject, however, has, as he himself asserts, no feelings of bitterness or resentment. Although he frequently experiences the "anguish, forlornness and loneliness" of the existentialist, but he has not permitted himself to degenerate into a beatnik either in his personal or artistic life. Subject has confided to Rowton that he has no real friends and that he has withdrawn from society, the dictates of which he cannot accept. He enjoys the prospect of travel, especially abroad, "to develop his art" but also as an escape from the pressures and obligations of the social life he has been forced to lead in Mexico.

2. Shortly after he met Rowton, in April, 1966, Subject confessed that he felt himself at a critical point in his personal and artistic life. He indicated that he felt the paradoxes inherent in his philosophy were overwhelming and depressing him and that he welcomed friendship with Rowton, an experienced foreigner whom he felt he could trust implicitly. At one critical point, Subject quit his rather tedious job with the Ministry of Education (teaching art in a public school) with the comment that "everyone must make personal decisions and take risks, and I have decided to throw my lot in with you (Rowton) for better or worse. and so have quit the job since it was interfering with my availability". This he did without knowing any more about Rowton than his name, which technical surveillance revealed he did not accept as a true name, and with no guarantees of future financial support from Rowton. Rowton, in his conversations with Subject, has been careful not to reveal any data concerning his personal life and background, including his permanent or local address, providing Subject only with the number of a telephone answering service, and using the safehouse rented by Subject as a principal point of contact. Subject has accepted money from Rowton, at first only for previously approved expenses, and subsequently for his personal use, but has accepted Rowton's initiative in this matter, and made no demands on Rowton for remuneration for services rendered. He has been meticulous in accounting for funds and shown no reluctance to sign receipts presented to him by Rowton (with his true-name signature). Subject has confessed (and shown) an almost complete lack of experience in business and intelligence work, but has accepted Rowton's guidance, where required, without hesitation.

B- Development of [illegible] by Rowton:

6. Rowton met Subject in April 1966 by cold approach in the art studio where Subject at the time was presenting his latest works under sponsorship of Bellas Artes. Rowton posed as a Greek businessman interested in Subject's style and his immediate objective at the time was to ascertain the address in New York City of Subject's wife's father (a Cuban of Chinese origin who had left Cuba as a refugee). Rowton, feeling that he had to present an above-board prospect to Subject to permit future meetings, alleged that he was anxious to arrange for the painting of a mural to be installed in a New York nightclub owned by a Greek friend of his (Nina Dmitri, owner and performer at the "La Chansonette"). Rowton felt that the painting [illegible] New York nightclub" would have the double advantage of determining Subject's sentiments toward working in New York City and in a bourgeois environment.

7. Subject reacted very favorably to the [illegible] approach and accepted Rowton's invitation to dinner in the company of Subject's wife the next evening. Both Subject and his wife were cautious in revealing any specific data concerning [illegible] but neither concealed their mutual approval of Castro's regime and dislike for the corruption in Mexico. As a result of this meeting Rowton realized that any attempt at a direct approach to either Subject or his wife, who was then employed part-time at the Cuban Consulate, would be counterproductive and that a more subtle approach would have to be developed. Rowton decided that a strong personal relationship developed with Subject would be productive and could eventually lead to useful production on Subject's part.

8. When, therefore, on 2 May 1966, Subject expressed gratification at having met Rowton and indicated that he wished to continue his friendly contacts, regardless of whether Rowton purchased his painting or arranged for the mural, Rowton ~~xx~~ moved in with an offer to "hire" Subject as his business associate on an unofficial basis, so that Subject could acquire a degree of independence financially and perhaps do some traveling for Rowton. In order to develop as much clandestinity as possible in his future contacts with Subject, Rowton explained that he was simply a tourist in Mexico and as such not permitted to engage in lucrative business activities. He would therefore have to depend on Subject's discretion in any dealings he might have with him. Subject accepted this as quite normal but pointed out to Rowton his limitations ~~xas~~ far as business training and experience went. In reply to Rowton's query, he did confess, however, that he had excellent contacts in Havana that could be exploited for business dealings with Cuba. He volunteered to make an exploratory trip to Havana to renew his friendship with the persons concerned. Rowton accepted this offer, not only to test Subject's story but also to seize the occasion to be in a position to provide Subject with money to make the trip and thus compromise him somewhat at the outset.

9. Rowton's next move was to explain to Subject that he had a long-term interest in Cuba and hoped to do a great deal of business in the future but first felt it was essential that both he and Subject develop the proper contacts inside to ensure success. Subject readily agreed to this and felt relieved that Rowton did not expect him to produce concrete results overnight. When Rowton, therefore suggested that Subject find and rent a safehouse for entertainment and development of prospective contacts, Subject set to work immediately without question. (Although Rowton's suggestion was first made on 17 June, Subject did not succeed in finding a suitable place until the end of July.) This project, however, gave Subject something specific and relatively clandestine to do for Rowton without seriously compromising any of his principles. Subject, as it developed later, was interested in such a hide-away, unknown even to his wife, for his own purposes.

off [illegible] with some friends. [illegible] then [illegible] Rowton his criticism of López' [illegible] that [illegible] but [illegible] his [illegible] functions(in the [illegible] López had [illegible] off his admonitions with the comment that there were more important things to do for the revolution. [illegible] with which López as well as [illegible] other Cuban officials, had treated Subject's friendly advice in the past, obviously cut Subject to the quick and fostered in him the resentment of a peasant toward his master. Taking this into consideration and in the hope of stirring up as much trouble for López and the Embassy as possible, the Station permitted Rowton to pass to Subject the highly restricted information that López had actually been arrested by the Mexican police for complicity in the arms smuggling ring that had recently been uncovered in their operations from Mexico into Guatemala. Rowton gave Subject enough details to make the story convincing and asked Subject to attribute the information to "Central American friends" and to stress that it was already inthe hands of the press. In addition Rowton suggested that Subject pass this information [illegible] to López as a hot tip so that López could discreetly disappear before the reporters managed to question him. When Subject did as requested by Rowton, López was apparently so overwhelmed with gratitude for Subject's good intentions that he informed the Ambassador the following morning (just before his [illegible] departure for Havana). Events then moved swiftly. The Ambassador called in Subject and expressed his personal appreciation for Subject's interest and help in this delicate matter and agreed with Subject that the involvement of Embassy personnel in arms smuggling was placing Cuban-Mexican relations in jeopardy. Overnight this raised Subject's status in the eyes of the Ambassador and his closest advisors (Curbelo and Cepeda) to that of a valued confident rather than simply a friend of the revolution. This obviously pleased Subject and made him all the more anxious to conceal the role of Rowton in the affair so that all the credit would continue to fall to him.

13. As a result Subject was subsequently called in by Curbelo and Cepeda and asked to offer his services to help the Tricontinental in its work in Central America. On Rowton's advice (which Subject sollicited) the offer was accepted on condition that the work to be done would be serious (i.e. worth the personal risks Subject would have to run) and that Subject would be permitted to work without the overt involvement of the local Embassy, These conditions were promptly accepted and Subject was invited to visit Havana again so that he could be briefed on the spot by Osmani Cienfuego and his staff.

14. Subject was thus catapulted into the level of IS activites,with Rowton maneuvered into a position of éminence grise. It remains to be seen following Subject's return from Havana (estimated at 21 November,1966) whether Subject will be entrusted with secret requirements by the Tricontinental, but it appears certain at this point that Rowton will be able to provide full guidance to Subject and to steer the operations he might be engaged in toward targets of interest to ______ : WOFACT

C- Biographical Data Elicited from LIRING/3:

15. Subject was born in Mexico City in 1930 of a middle class family. Subject's grandfather was a well-known textile merchant who served some 12 years as president of the Chamber of Commerce. At least one of Subject's aunts is currently well-to-do and the owner of several apartment houses in Mexico City. Subject has at present little or no contact with his family.

16. At the age of 15 Subject left home to join the Mexican Navy. Subject has commented to Rowton that his childhood was not particularly happy and that his mother and father separated, eventually, when he was in his teens. It appears likely that Subject left home as a result of family dissension. Subject states that his desire to travel and see the world was very strong at the time he joined the navy.

17. Inasmuch as the legal age for enlistment was 18, Subject had to have his birth certificate altered to show that he had been born in 1927 rather than [illegible]. As a consequence [illegible] Subject's official documents now show his birth-date as [illegible], including his passport.

18. Subject served a three-year hitch in the Navy and visited nearly all the ports of Mexico and many of Central America. Subject's speciality appears to have been in the quarter master branch. There he learned the rudiments of navigation and ship-handling. [illegible] he left the naval service. Subject entered the University of Mexico and took courses in Archaeology and Anthropology for the next two years. Subject simultaneously developed a strong interest in painting and sculpture and over the next five or so xx years, studied under such masters as Rivera and Siqueiros.

19. Subject was married in 1950 at the age of twenty years to a young Mexican woman from Leon, GTO. and during the next ten years had at at least four children by her. He divorced his wife in about 1960, just prior to his departure for Cuba, but he had not been on good terms with her for several years prior to the divorce. From about 1954 to 1960, subject worked in the Mexican Government Social Service among the Indians in the southern states of Mexico. Subject attributes some of the tension that arose between him and his wife to this employment venture. He commented to Rowton that his first wife wanted to live a quiet normal life in Mexico City and was unwilling to share with him the hardships of social work in remote areas of tropical Mexico. During this period Subject gradually developed his own style in painting and began to establish close contacts with Mexican art circles.

20. Subject went to Cuba in about 1960 "to join the revolution", apparently as a result of his increasingly leftist political sympathies. He did a relatively large amount of painting and mural work during his four-year residence in Cuba, while at the same time working in the Ministry of Labor and Education. In about 1961 he married a Cuban woman of Chinese origin from Santiago de Cuba and the following year a (girl) child was born to them in Havana. Subject has told Rowton that he has had very little contact with his first wife since his divorce and pays no alimony. He added that his family, however, has continued to take an interest in his first wife and the children of his first marriage and has helped to support them financially. During his stay in Cuba, Subject developed close friendship with many Cuban revolutionaries, particularly Arnol Rodriguez, whose wife worked with Subject in the Ministry of Education at the time when Arnol Rodriguez was serving as Minister of Labor.

21. Subject returned to Mexico City in 1964 with his new wife and child (whom he had naturalized as a Mexican citizen). By this time Subject had become a professional artist but supplemented the rather modest income he acquired from the sale of his painting by teaching art privately and in Mexican public schools. His monthly income during [illegible] and early 1966 did not exceed 3.000 pesos.

WH/C/ SP

1. GUATEMALA CITY STATION IS WILLING TO USE ITS LIAISON RELATIONSHIP IN ANY WAY NECESSARY TO SUPPORT UNILATERAL WOFIRM OPERATIONS. NEVERTHELESS IT MUST BE REALIZED THAT AFTER 6 MONTHS, REVEALING WOFIRM INTEREST IN LIRING-3 IS SOMEWHAT AWKWARD. WHILE GUATEMALAN CITY STATION IS NOT FULLY COGNIZANT OF ALL OPERATIONAL IMPLICATIONS LIRING-4 OPERATION AND ITS VALUE TO WOFIRM, WE CONTINUE TO BELIEVE THAT BY ALLOWING MORE TIME LIRING-3 AND COMPANION WILL BE RELEASED WITHOUT NEED INDICATE WOFIRM INTEREST. THIS APPEARS MORE IN LINE WITH MEXICO CITY STATION POSITION THEY DEFINITELY NOT IN FAVOR INTERVENTION WITH GUAT AUTHORITIES WHICH WOULD FINGER LIRING-3 AS SOME TYPE WOFIRM ASSET (MEXICO CITY 5984).

REF: HMMA 34682, 17 May 1968

Action Required: For your information.

1. Forwarded under separate cover are twelve reports prepared by Wallace B. ROWTON on the activities of LIRING-3, LIRING-4, and contacts of the latter.

2. The main topic covered in ROWTON's reports is LIRING-4's efforts to obtain help in getting LIRING-3 out of jail in Guatemala as soon as possible. LIRING-4 is almost penniless (ROWTON has made only token payments to her after 15 June) and has been moving from one apartment to a cheaper one living on the sale of paintings left by LIRING-3 and small loans from leftist contacts. In the hope that she may be able to do something for LIRING-3, LIRING-4 has resisted all of ROWTON's efforts to get her to undertake a clandestine mission to PBRUMEN, a mission, as Headquarters knows, was planned long ago. As a foreigner, LIRING-4 cannot work in Mexico without taking the chance of being deported, if caught. Although she has not tried it, she would probably be refused a visa to go to Guatemala to visit LIRING-3. She might also face difficulties in Guatemala including possible detention and interrogation if she succeeded in obtaining an entry permit to that country.

3. By mid-September 1968 LIRING-4 had received very little help from her Mexican leftist or outright Communist friends. In spite of promises to try to bribe the Guatemalan judge scheduled to try LIRING-3 all LIRING-4's "friends" succeeded in doing was to print several articles in the local press (some of them with LIRING-3's photo) claiming that LIRING-3 was unjustly imprisoned, that he was about to be executed, etc. If anything, these articles did little to prejudice the Guatemalans in favor of LIRING-3. As a matter of fact, the latter who succeeded in sending LIRING-4 a few letters via the Mexican Consul in Guatemala City who comes to visit him in jail, recently claimed that he was saved from a prison "transfer" by the Guatemalan army by the arrival of the Mexican Consul. LIRING-3 viewed this "transfer" purely and simply as an execution attempt.

4. LIRING-4 received even less help from LIRING who told her that there was nothing it could do to help LIRING-3. LIRING-4, on the advice contained in one of the notes sent from prison by LIRING-3, kept away from LIRING and its employees until she met LIRING-10 by accident at the office of one of the leftist papers on 27 July. LIRING-10 convinced her to resume her visits to LIRING. That the local PBRUMENs still have doubts about LIRING-3 despite his imprisonment in Guatemala is indicated by the statements made by Rodolfo REYES (see ROWTON's 17 July report) to the effect that the latter would not be willing to help LIRING-3 until he found out on what side of "el griego" (ROWTON under false identity) he was. REYES added that LIRING suspects the "griego" of WOFIRM connections, although it has no definite proof of this.

5. Statements such as those made by REYES confirm the Station's belief that LIRING, upon orders from home, is still attempting to investigate ROWTON. Such statements also re-enforce the decision of the Station not to attempt, through liaison, to obtain the release of LIRING-3. Such an attempt, if it leaked, would not only expose LIRING-3 to PBRUMEN and Guatemalan FAR reprisals. It would probably also have adverse repercussions on ROWTON's security. LIRING-11 whom ROWTON met briefly on 5 July (see ROWTON's report dated 9 July) said nothing about LIRING-3's arrest when ROWTON complained that mail which he said he sent to LIRING-3 remained unanswered. It is also to be noted that REYES, who of course knows that LIRING-4 is in Mexico, told ROWTON that she was probably in PBRUMEN. This shows clearly the distrust with which LIRING views ROWTON. [illegible]

6. LIRING-4 developed close relationship with Orlando SUAREZ of the Ministry of Culture now in Mexico at the invitation of the Mexican Communist mural painter David ALFARO Siqueiros. By mid-September, in fact, SUAREZ was staying at LIRING-4's apartment although LIRING-4 claimed to ROWTON that there was no romancing between the two and that SUAREZ used her apartment because he was too broke to get one of his own. In view of LIRING-4's assessment of SUAREZ as very leftist and pro-AMTHUG-1 no effort was made to approach him.

7. Contacts between ROWTON and LIRING-4 have taken place with decreasing frequency because the usefulness of LIRING-4 to WOFIRM has sharply decreased and because LIRING-4 is more and more convinced that ROWTON cannot or will not help her obtain the release of LIRING-3. In her frantic efforts to do something for LIRING-3, LIRING-4 has in fact not had any contact with ROWTON since early September. Unless LIRING-3 is released by the Guatemalan authorities or receives only a light sentence keeping him in jail only a short time longer, it is doubtful that LIRING-4 will be of much use to ROWTON and the Station.

Subject: Wallace B. Rowton Meeting with LIRING/4.

1. Rowton met with LIRING/4 at the Punto Blanco Restaurant from about 1900 until 2015 on 16/5/68. LIRING/4 had telephoned Rowton's answering service and left a message that "Dr. Barragán would see him at his office"at that time and date.

2. LIRING/4 reported that she had learned that seven Guatemalans residing in Mexico City had been arrested along with Rodolfo Sandoval. She had learned this from Manuel Marcué Pardiñas but was not able to learn the identities of the other seven. She recalled that Marcué had said that Sandoval had been arrested on 5 May,1968, just after his wife had arrived from Guatemala, and that he, Marcué,was burdened with the support not only of Francisco Lara's family (wife,mother and children) but now of Sandoval's wife. LIRING/4 understood that Marcué had moved these dependents into one of his several houses in the city. LIRING/4 added that finally she decided to avoid any further contact with Marcué since he has become a complete nuisance, telephoning and droppping in unannounced at all hours of the night.

3. LIRING/4 also reported that she had obtained a job at the Secretaría de Comercio y Industria,paying 1,200 pesos permonth, through Sergio Gonzalez Marin, and had started working regular hours (1000-1400) on 13/5/68. When she,however, mentioned this to Zacosta (FNU,phon.),Director of the office of Relaciones Culturales of the Sec Relaciones Exteriores, he told her to quit the job immediately since it was not legal for her to work, particularly in a government office where official records were kept. He promised to help her find a job where she could work on the Q.T. without jeopardizing her immigration status.

4. LIRING/4 also reported that she had received three short notes from LIRING/3 mailed from the prison where he is being detained. She stated that she was reassured by these letters that L/3 is in reasonably good health, despite the fact that he and his fellow arr/estees were not given any food for nine days following their arrest on 13/4/68.

5. LIRING/4 stated that she had talked to LIRING/2 after his return from PBRUMEN and found him very suntanned and thinner. L/2 told her that he had been cutting cane and had gotten engaged to a local woman while he was "on vacation". L/2 stated that he most probably would remain in Mexico through the Olympics,although he did not state when he planned to get married. L/2 regretted that he and his office could not help L/4 financially,but he encouraged L/4 to visit the office whenever she wished.

6. LIRING/4 also told Rowton that she had managed to find a suitable apartment in the Edificio Condesa, Letra A, #6, for 1,100 pesos per month, through her friend, Blanca Peña, who lives in apartment 2 of Letra O. She added that she had overcome the problem of the fiador by applying to a sr. Muñoz who advertised in the newspaper and provided her with a certain sra. Gloria Beltrán, Calle Tajin 24, Col. Navarte (at a fee of 330 pesos). She also stated that she has already given the administrator of the edificio Condesa at 300 peso "gratificación" to hold the apartment until she can arrange the fiador contract.

7. Rowton then suggested that LIRING/4 might consider making her trip to PBRUMEN in the near future since it appeared to him an ideal time. L/4 replied that, although she felt obliged to make the trip in view of her previous commitment to Rowton, she felt it premature. She stressed her continued anxiety over the welfare of L/3, commenting that she was the only person who could be counted on to correspond with him, and that such correspondence from PBRUMEN would be very difficult and slow. Rowton then suggested that perhaps L/4 might be able to obtain a visa to visit L/3 for a short time to discuss with him the desirability of the trip and arrange to provide him with paints and canvasses. L/4 agreed that this would ease her mind and permit her to make the trip to PBRUMEN with less concern but she wondered whether a trip to Guatemala, provided, of course, that she could get the visa, might possibly make matters worse for L/3 since L/4 would have to travel on her PBRUMEN passport. Rowton agreed with this and suggested the following: (a) L/4 write immediately to the Mexican Consul asking him his opinion and requesting him to check it out with L/3; (b) L/4 discuss the matter soonest with L/2, explaining that she has decided to make her trip to PBRUMEN during L/3's imprisonment but that she hoped to visit him before leaving Mexico. I/4 agreed and added that she would invite L/2 to dinner at the home of Blanca Peña (de Amand) where she was currently staying as a house guest.

8. Rowton stressed that he did not wish under any circumstances to "force L/4 to make the trip to PBRUMEN, but he felt the time most opportune and he was not in a position financially to assist L/4 to any significant degree if she remained in Mexico. Rowton added that he failed to see how L/4 could earn enough in any "unofficial" job she might obtain. L/4 agreed to think the matter over and give Rowton her decision at their next meeting scheduled for 1300 on 20/5/68.

Subject: LIRING/4 Report of Conversation with LIRING/2.

1. At 1300 on 20 May,1968, LIRING/4 reported to Rowton at the Punto Blanco restaurant that she had seen LIRING/2 at the LIRING offices and, as instructed by Rowton, discussed with him her difficult financial situation resulting from the detention of LIRING/3. She then stated that she was seriously considering taking her long planned trip to IBRUNE, since there she would be able to resolve the problem of living expenses. LIRING/2 sympathized with her but asked her not to make any rash decision. He pointed out that although her temporary financial problem would be solved, the moral obligation she had to follow LIRING/3's case from as close to Guatemala as possible would argue in favor of her waiting a little more. LIRING/4 told Rowton that she felt that LIRING/2 was prompted to say this in light of a comment she had just made to him that a certain Lic. Castillo, a Guatemalan lawyer affiliated with the Mexican Embassy in Guatemala City, had gotten in touch with her over the weekend and told her he had come to Mexico City in connection with LIRING/3's case which he was handling at the request of the Embassy. (LIRING/4 told Rowton that Castillo was staying in room 904 of the El Presidente Hotel and that she talked to him there for about 15 minutes.)

2. LIRING/2 then said that he would do everything he could to find some sort of work to help LIRING/4 financially. He commented that work in the LIRING offices proper was out of the question, since the only persons employed there now are party members sent from the IBRUNEN capital. He added, however, that he would propose to the LIRING "consejo" that LIRING/4 be given a position in the outside cultural office. He stressed that he could not promise anything, but he would do what he could to convince the powers that be.

3. LIRING/4 promised Rowton to press LIRING/2 for this job since it would indicate the extent to which the LIRING Chief trusted her and give her some official access to the establishment, limited though it might be.

Subject: WALLACE B. Rowton Meeting with LIRING/4.

1. Rowton met with LIRING/4 at the Diana Restaurant,Calle Mississippi, from 1300 until about 1410 on 11 June,1968. LIRING/4 reported that she had finally moved into the apartment in the Edificio Condesa with the few pieces of furniture of the Tacubaya apartment. She stated that she intended to remain in close touch with her friend Blanca Peña de Amand and, of course, Catalina Cepero, at whose homes she hoped to be able to take her main meals. LIRING/4 added that she was still attempting to find some sort of work to help her meet her expenses, as well as to find a person, preferably a PBRUMEN student, to rent a room in her apartment.

2. With regard to employment LIRING/4 stated that LIRING/2 had told her the previous week that his recommendation that she been employed in the (outside) LIRING cultural office had been turned down and consequently she had appealed to Mexican friends to help her find employment. She also told Rowton that she had queried LIRING/2 about PBRUMEN students who might share her apartment but was told that the only female students (two) at present in Mexico were studying in Pátzcuaro.

3. LIRING/4 continued that she had been receiving letters regularly from LIRING/3 directly from his place of confinement. She showed Rowton a portion of one of the letters in which LIRING/3 stated that there were about 2,000 prisoners in all and that he feels obliged to share whatever food he can purchase with the money sent to him by LIRING/4 with six others who are closest to him and whose relatives cannot provide even the essentials of a basic diet. According to LIRING/4, LIRING/3 has not complained about what appear to be very difficult conditions but has revealed his constant fear of physical violence, the threat of which he feels hangs over the prison. LIRING/4 told Rowton that she had finally obtained officially notarized statemants from the proper Mexican authorities testifying to LIRING/3's bona fides as an artist, as requested by the Mexican Consul. She gave Rowton a letter from the latter which requests this information(copy of which is attached).

4. LIRING/4, in reply to Rowton's queries, stated that she still hoped to be able to make the trip to PBRUMEN but could not consider leaving Mexico at this time in view of LIRING/3's situation and the fact that she was the only point of contact he had on the outside. Rowton sympathized with her but stressed that his ability to help her financially was limited by her performance in terms of the contract between them. Rowton reminded LIRING/4 that he contract had terminated as of 15 May, 1968, and could be extended only on the condition that she would be able to make the trip. He added that he felt he could pay her for the period 15 May until 15 June, 1962, but that would have to constitute a final payment unless LIRING/4 could commit herself to future production. Rowton added that in addition he would have to deduct the 1,875 pesos he gave to her as a travel advance inasmuch as this money was not used for the purpose intended.

5. LIRING/4 replied that, much to her regret, she could not make any firm commitment regarding the trip at the moment. She stated that she was attempting to maintain friendly relations with the LIRING personnel but had to be cautious in the light of LIRING/3's admonition to her to avoid contact with the establishment ("la casa grande" as he described it. She then stated that she had attended a play on the evening of 7 June at which she met socially with LIRING personnel in the audience. She added that LIRING/10 greeted her cordially and that she spoke briefly with LIRING/9 and LIRING/13 as well as LIRING/16. LIRING/4 also stated that she had learned from LIRING/17, who had just returned from an unexpected TDY that their mutual friend "Echemendía" had been called up on the carpet for the inferior job he had done during his last commercial mission to Mexico City. LIRING/4 also reported that she had been given a very brief note from her friend Yolanda hand-carried by LIRING/17 in which Yolanda wrote that she as still hoping that LIRING/4 would be able to make the trip.

ROWTON COMMENT: Rowton feels that LIRING/4 will make the trip to PBRUMEN wit in the next two months or sooner, provided she is assured that LIRING/3 is resigned to his fate and that everything has been done to support his appeal. Rowton has told LIRING/4 that he can give her only minimum financial support in the future, and that only on behalf of LIRING/3. Rowton feels that LIRING/4 will have great difficulty supporting herself even on a subsistence level during the next month, and will probably reconsider her decision regarding the trip. Rowton feels he should not put any direct pressure on LIRING/4 in the light of her personal situation.

Estimada Sra:

Me refiero a su grata carta de 17 del actual para informar a Ud. que Carlos se encuentra sin novedad, su aspecto físico es inmejorable y su ánimo muy levantado, pues ha sabido asimilar esta emergencia con filosofía.

Respecto a su situación, estamos bastante optimistas pues confiamos ampliamente en la rectitud del juez. Yá se presentaron tres testigos de descargo y el el curso de la presente semana se tomará declaración a otros dos. Hemos corrido con la suerte de que para todas las diligencias los plazos se han acortado al máximo.

Ni un solo momento lo hemos dejado solo, tanto a él como a Manuel, pues constantemente se les ha estado visitando, unas veces nuestro Encargado de Negocios, otras nuestro abogado asesor y el suscrito.

Su carta anterior la recibió en propias manos y tambien le informé de la tarjeta que Ud. me puso.

Tanto la Sra. Marcué de Persabal, como la esposa de Manuel, los estuvieron visitando casi a diario durante su estancia en ésta. No les ha faltado nada pues la Sra. Marcué dejó 175 dolares para que se les estuviera proviendo de lo necesario. A Carlos se le llevó un block para dibujo que pidió y se les llevan periodicamente cigarros, etc.

El jueves iré a verlos de nuevo y yá le informaré de su carta.

No creo que sea necesario que venga Ud. pues puede tener la seguridad de que estamos haciendo todo lo que está en nuestras manos por resolverles su situación a la brevedad posible. No sería de lo malo que esté Ud. en contacto con la Sría de Relaciones para estar al tanto del caso, pues estoy informando constantemente del curso del proceso. Creo que será cuestión de más o menos tiempo pero tengo confianza en que todo se resolverá favorablemente.

Por conducto de la esposa de Manuel le envié recado que sería conveniente enviara una constancia de Bellas Artes abonando la conducta de su esposo y que este documento lo llevara a legalizar ante el Consulado de Guatemala en México (Vallarta # 1) pues ayudaría mucho para probar su solvencia moral.

3. Date and Site of Next Meeting: 1030, 20/6/68; Diana Restaurant.
4. Information/Reports Passed by Agent: LIRING/4 reported to Rowton that she had received two distressing letters from LIRING/3 complaining about the miserable conditions under which he is living - very meager food, unsanitary quarters,and the constant fear of physical violence. LIRING/4 showed Rowton a paragraph of one of the letters in which LIRING/3 asks her to appeal to the "socio" to influence the judge by a gratificación of 100 quetzals so that he would dismiss the case when it finally came to trial early the following month. LIRING/3 stated that the judge to be influenced was a certain Juan Sanchez, Oficial Tercero del Juzgado Cuarto de Primera Instancia. LIRING/3 added that he felt there was no other solution, since it had become evident that the Mexican Embassy could do nothing to speed up the final release and that if Rowton could not intervene, anything could happen.

   LIRING/4 also reported that she had been asked by LIRING/9 to see him the next day (19/6/68) at his office. She did not know the purpose of the invitation, but assumed LIRING/9 wanted to be briefed on the latest developments in the LIRING/3 case.
5. Information/Guidance Given to Agent: Rowton sympathized with LIRING/4 in her distress over the desperate situation being faced by LIRING/3 but stressed that intervention on his part was not as easy as LIRING/3 might think. He pointed out that since LIRING/4 to date had not been able to make the [illegible] trip he could not ask his own colleagues in Europe to intervene through their Guatemalan government contacts and that therefore anything that he could do himself would not be effective. LIRING/4 did not volunteer any indication of her intention regarding the trip, and Rowton felt he could not press her in view of her frame of mind at the time. He suggested that they meet again after LIRING/4 talked with LIRING/9 in the hope that the latter might make some important comments on the case.

1. After several days of attempts by Rowton to met with LIRING/11 in the vicinity of his (LIRING/11's) residence(which is about six blocks from Rowton's home) Rowton finally succeeded at about 1600 on 5 July,1968.

2. Rowton hadchecked the home address of LIRING/11 about 1550 that day and when he had found that LIRING/11's car had not beeen parked in front, hailed a cab passing in the opposite direction. As an after-thought,however, Rowton asked the cab to go around the block on the off chance that he might catch LIRING/11 approaching his home from the intersection of Gutenberg and Ejercito Nacional. Fortunately just as Rowton's cab approached LIRING/11's apartment house, he spotted LIRING/11 alighting from his car in front of the building. Rowton stopped the cab and ran over to greet LIRING/11.

3. LIRING/11 although obviously surprised at seeing Rowton in that area, responded cordially. Rowton alleged that he had been in Switzerland and Canada most of the time since he had last seen LIRING/11, and to his regret had lost contqct withtheir mutual friends?LIRING/3 and Iden A. Rowton continued that he had written LIRING/3 at least five letters from Europe but had not received any answer, and had found that he had moved from his Atoyac address as well as his Tacubaya studio. LIRING/11 did not volunteer any information concerning the whereabouts of LIRING/3 but immediately gave Rowton the news that Iden A was working at a sort of night club (giving the name and street on which it was located.)

4. Rowton then said that he had hoped to be able to invite LIRING/11 to lunch but he had to take a short trip to Nuevo Laredo to attempt to arrange for the purchase of a car. (This was thrown out as bait in view of a comment by LIRING/4 that LIRING/11 was scheduled to return PCS and would have to sell his car). LIRING/11 did not react to this, simply suggesting that Rowton get in touch with him as soon as Rowton returned.

5. Rowton then returned to the waiting cab and continued his trip, taking the opportunity to mention to the driver in the course of conversation that he was a businessman from Europe (Switzerland) who often visited Mexico.

Subject: LIRING/4 Report of activities.

1. Rowton met with LIRING/4 at 1900 on 8 July, 1968, at the Sears Restaurant on Insurgentes. He had not seen her for the previous ten days because of his leave (28/6/68-5/7/68).

2. LIRING/4 reported that an old friend, Iden A, had arrived the previous week from the [illegible] capital, and that she had seen him several times prior to his moving to Cuernavaca. She commented that Iden A was divorced and lived alone (his wife having been a notorious model of loose morals). She added that his apparent age is 40, and that he must have political influence since he obtained a six-month exit permit following the invitation of Siqueiros.

3. LIRING/4 then related that she received a message early in the previous week that Iden A was trying to get in touch with her and she accordingly went to the LIRING offices on 27/6/68 to find his address. When she entered the office of LIRING/9, she found it crowded and was on the point of leaving (after getting the address of Iden A) when LIRING/9 approached her and asked her to take a ride in his car so that he could "chat "with her. LIRING/4 told Rowton that she assumed that LIRING/9 was enroute to one of the Secretariats in a rush and had asked her to accompany him to that he could save time by talking to her on the way. She was therefore surprised when he drove her to the Vaca Negra en Insurgentes and later returned with her to the offic

4. According to LIRING/4, LIRING/9 asked her routine questions as to how she was making out living as she was on her own. LIRING/4 relied that she was doing the best she could to raise enough money to survive, through part-time work arranged by Sra. Chumaceira of Artes Plasticas, the sale of some of LIRING/3's paintings and financial help from her father (all of which is partly true). She then asked LIRING/9 for a "loan" to tide her over the weekend, to which he responded with a 100 peso bill. LIRING/9 commented that things were going well with his office financially as a result of the increased fees. He dropped the figure $6,000 (US) as receipts for the previous mont LIRING/4 asked Rowton for his opinion as to why LIRING/9 would take off an hour or so on such a busy day to drive her around town, commenting that she herself could not understand his motives. She did not get the impression that he was interested in her"personally" since in that case he would have invited himself to her apartment to asked her out to dinner in the evening

5. Rowton replied that he assumed that LIRING/9 had received some sort of official request from his superiors to determine the conditions under which LIRING/4 was living as well as her general attitude following the arrest of LIRING/3. LIRING/4 promised to continue to see LIRING/9 and her other LIRING friends as often as possible, but stressed that she could not throw herself at them without attracting undue attention.

6. LIRING/4 then continued that when she finally got in touch with Iden A he was most cordial, inviting her for a trip to Cuernavaca, and expressing concern for the welfare of LIRING/3. Iden A commented to LIRING/4 that he had arrived from the PBRUMEN capital with only twenty Mexican pesos which he had left from a previous trip and that he would have to count on the generosity of Siqueiros for his living expenses during his anticipated three-month stay in Mexico. LIRING/4 told Rowton that she felt certain that Iden A was not a CP member, although she could not as yet determine whether or not her was pro-regime. She explained that at their first meetings she felt it best to steer clear of politics and let Iden A do the talking. LIRING/4 added that she expected to see Iden A whenever he came to Mexico City and if and when she herself could take a brief trip to Cuernavaca (if Rowton felt that necessary).

7. LIRING/4 then asked whether Rowton had been able to arrange some sort of intervention with the judge who would preside over the court in LIRING/3's case. When Rowton replied that he had asked some of his friends to inform hi as to the status of the case, she commented that Iden B had offered to do what he could since he had close friends among the Guatemalans. Rowton sugge ted that LIRING/4 get in touch with Iden B again and find out as many detail as possible concerning the channels he would use both in Mexico Cit and Guat mala City. LIRING/4 explained that at that point all she knew was that Iden whom she described as an active member of the CP Mexico, had a close friend among the Guatemalan exiles and that this friend could forward bribe money to the judge through his family in Guatemala City. LIRING/4 promised Rowton that she would try to meet with this Guatemalan to get details from him.

8. LIRING/4 also reported incidentally that LIRING/16 had left PCS and that her friend, the wife of LIRING/17, was planning to go on home leave in the near future. She added that she thought that LIRING/16's replacement was a bit "tonto". LIRING/4 also mentioned that she had learned from Iden A that Iden C had been forced to take "indefinite leave" from her job ~~xxxxxx~~ whcih was tantrount to dismissal.

Subject: LIRING/4 Report of Activities.

1. Rowton met with LIRING/4 at a saferoom of the Suites Marne for about two hours on the morning of 10 July and again on 12 July,1968. Rowton attempted to clarify his position for the future with LIRING/4, as well as LIRING/3. He stated that he was doing the best he could to determine the probable outcome of the case of LIRING/3, and stressed that any precipitous intervention, even if could be arranged, might do more harm to LIRING/3 than good at this point. LIRING/4 confessed that her only concern at the moment was somehow to get LIRING/3 out of prison and back to Mexico. She admitted that it was hard for her to be concerned about the future. particularly about either her or LIRING/3's usefulness to Rowton, in view of what had happened to him. She said that she felt he had sacrificed enough during his three month imprisonment in such a "horrible" place, and that Rowton should himself "influence" the judge to speed up the formalities and issue a verdict simply expelling LIRING/3 and his companion. She did not see any other solution in view of the inability of the Mexican Consulate to arrange the release.

2. In reply to Rowton's query, LIRING/4 stated that she had seen Arturo Serrano of the CP Mexico during lunch at his home on 10 and 11 July,1968, and that the latter had told her that he would arrange for the 100 Quetzal bribe to be transmitted to the judge concerned via the CP Mexico and the CP Guatemala. He added that, of course, the bribe would finally be offered by a person in Guatemala completely clean of any CP ties. LIRING/4 continued to Rowton that she then alleged to Serrano that she would telephone her father at once so obtain the money. Serrano suggested that a letter or telegram might be more advisable, at which LIRING/4 wrote a letter to her father in his presence and accepted an offer from him to accompany her to the post office to mail the letter at once. LIRING/4 told Rowton that in fact she does not expect any further financial help from her father (who is unwitting of LIRING/3's situation) since he is very ill with cancer of the throat and in no position to help her at this time.

3. Rowton then expressed to LIRING/4 his doubts that the bribe would work but he agreed that it might be worth trying,particularly through Serrano. Rowton added that if this did not work, there would be only one alternative. Rowton, through his contact in Europe, might be able to approach the Guatemalans on a level higher than the judge and offer to supply them with information on the Guatemalan rebel activities in PBRUMEN. This would of course necessitate LIRING/4's traveling to PBRUMEN and remaining there at least two months to obtain such information. Rowton felt morally certain that through this offer he could arrange for a mild sentence for LIRING/3 and (possibily 6 months, three months of which he has already served) and subsequent expulsion to Mexico.

4. LIRING/4 took this proposal very seriously, at first expressing revulsion at the thought of providing information that would most probably mean the arrest and execution of revolutionaries who might be the subject of her report. but subsequently accepting the idea, when assured by Rowton that he himself would control the dissemination of such information. Rowton stressed that he was presenting this proposal on his own so that he could get her initial reaction. Rowton added that even if this were acceptable to the Guatemalan authorities, the release of LIRING/3 could not be expected for several months this is until LIRING/4 had accomplished her mission in PBRUMEN, although his living conditions might be improved by removal to another prison (if such existed) where he could be treated more humanely.

Rowton Comment: Rowton made the above proposal to LIRING/4 to determine her true attitude toward the release of LIRING/3 and to establish stronger control over her in the event she does make the trip.
Rowton feels that it might be feasible for Guatemala liaison to arrange the eventual release of LIRING/3 or at least to speed up the formalities (in the event that it is planned to issue a stiff sentence) in exchange for the alleged recruitment of LIRING/3's wife who could be sent to PBRUMEN for the collection of information of interest not only to WOFIRM but also Guatemala. This would, of course, blow LIRING/4 to the Guatemalans, but this might be the only solution if LIRING/3 is given a long prison term.

LIRING/4 stated that she had again spent the week-end in Cuernavaca with Orlando Suarez, staying at the Casino de la Selva with her daughter in a room of an artist friend of Suarez (who had gone to Mexico City for the week-end). She added that she had been to visit the CIDOC (Centro Internacional de Documentación) again with Orlando Suarez and was impressed by its extensive library as well as the loftist orientation of its staff. She recalled the name of the director as Larry Green and one other northamerican McGregor (fnu) from the University of Puebla. She said that she learned in the course of conversation that a group of the students (possibly ten in number) had been invited to PBRUMEN [illegible] [illegible] the government there (LIRING/4 said that she did not believe that the PBRUMEN consulate was as yet invloved). LIRING/4 also commented that Orlando Suarez had been invited to give a lecture on PBRUMEN culture (for a fee of 200 pesos) although as yet the date had hot been determined.

2. LIRING/4 then stated that she had again visited the home of Arturo Serrano of the Mexican CP and that on this occasion Serrano's wife had told her that he had succeeded in locating Rodolfo Reyes and had told him about the current financial plight of LIRING/4 and urged him to help her if he could. Serrano's wife continued that Reyes then remarked: "I won't help her until I find out on what side LIRING/3 is. If he's with "El Griego I won't help since the G-2 of LIRING told me that they suspect him of being with WOFIRM, although they have no proof ("datos"). They also think he's an arms smuggler." Serrano's wife added that Reyes concluded with the statement that if it turns out that LIRING/3 acted on his own, then he would personally go to the LIRING Chief and have him request the President of Mexico to intervene.

3. LIRING/4 stated that although these comments of Rodolfo Reyes were apparently not taken seriously by Serrano or his wife (Serrano at this same occasion offerred again to pass bribe money to the CP Guatemala via the CP Mexico), she herself was badly shaken and angry with Reyes whom she described as a homosexual gossip, worse than a woman. She stated that she intended to tell LIRING/9 that Rodolfo Reyes owed her money for the use of her telephone to call the PBRUMEN capital several months previously and had never paid her. Rowton agreed that this would not only serve to collect the badly need- money but also dispel any notion Reyes might have that Ro the telephone call.

1. Rowton saw LIRING/4 again briefly at 1000, 18/7/68, at the Duca d'Este tea shop, to pass her 800 pesos to forward to LIRING/3 with vitamins.

2. LIRING/4 reported that she was continuing to see Orlando Suarez and hoped to ascertain the exact date when he would be giving the lecture at CIDOC in Cuernavaca. In reply to Rowton's queries, she stated that she had first gotten in contact with CIDOC through Prof. Jerjes Aguirre, whom she and LIRING/3 had known in PBRUMEN where Aguirre had spent some six years (part of the time at the University which LIRING/4 had herself attended). LIRING/4 continued that Aguirre had recently mentioned to her at a chance meeting that he was giving a series of lectures at CIDOC and was being well paid ($25.00 US) per lecture. When LIRING/4 met Aguirre again in Cuernavaca he introduced her to the director, a certain Larry Green, and to an American Prof McGregor, who both invited her, LIRING/4. to give a lecture on PBRUMEN women.

3. LIRING/4 told Rowton that, although she was interested in the compensation she felt totally unqualified, and took the occasion of Orlando Suarez' visit to introduce him and recommend that he give a lecture. Orlando Suarez jumped at the chance to make some money to supplement the meager allowance doled out to him by Siqueiros, and is prepared to give the lecture when a definite date is set.

4. LIRING/4 continued that when she casually mentioned this developments to the wife of Arturo Serrano (Ruth), the latter exclaimed: "Oh, don't you know that CIDOC is just an instrument of WOFIRM. You might as well recommend Orlando to the PBPRIME Embassy here." LIRING/4 was shocked by this and after reflection thought is best to repeat the comment to Orlando Suarez. She did this when he visited Mexico City on 15-16 July (and stayed at her apartment). Suarez' only comment was that such people as Ruth Serrano were "sectarian" and whether CIDOC was with WOFIRM or not did not bother him.

5. LIRING/4 also commented incidentally that Ruth Serrano was escorting a group of French journalists from L'Humanité" around town and that she had complained to LIRING/4 that she had been given only 200 pesos by the CP Mexico to cover the expenses (figate!). L/4 recalled that Ruth Serrano had mentioned that these Frenchmen had been to PBRUMEN and were planning to return very shortly.

Subject: Wallace B. Rowton Recontact with RODOLFO REYES.

1. Rowton met Rodolfo Reyes at about 2230 in the dining room of the Vendimia Restaurant and night club (60 calle Liverpool) by design on 15 July,1968. Rowton had previously been informed by LIRING/11 that Reyes was currently working at the Vendimia and felt that he should meet Reyes again to pass along the story that he had given to LIRING/11 that he was unable to locate LIRING/3 or LIRING/4 in the hope that Reyes would disclose LIRING/3's arrest.

2. As soon as Rowton met Reyes the latter invited him to a corner table with what appeared to be superficial cordiality. He asked Rowton how he had located him and appeared a little surprised when Rowton said that LIRING/11 had given him hthename of the night club and the address. Rowton then alleged that he had been away for the past three months in Switzerland and Canada and just the previous week in Monterrey and Nuevo Laredo trying to buy a car (Rowton had given the same story to LIRING/11). Rowton continued that when he returned he had been unable to locate LIRING/3 or his wife and that they had not replied to his letters from Europe.

3. Reyes then revealed that LIRING/3 had been arrested in Guatemala and charged with the murder of three men! Rowton feigned surprise,shock and fear at this news. He told Reyes that this might have serious consequences for his commercial contacts, whose names LIRING/3 might reveal,as well as for himself. Reyes then said he thought LIRING/3 was very stupid to get himself arrested in such a country where anything can happen inside as well as outside of jail. In reply to Rowton's query Reyes stated that LIRING/4 was probably in PBRUMEN.

4. When Rowton remarked that he could not believe that LIRING/11 had refused to tell him the news about LIRING/3, Reyes replied that it was quite possible that LIRING/11 did not know about it, especially since he, Reyes, had just leanred about it some three days previously. At this point the conversation was interrupted by the arrival at the table of a negro choreographer and his (white) Mexican wife,who appeared to be close friends of Reyes. Rowton sat with them through the floorshow and in the course of conversation Rowton discovered that the negro was a Cuban who had emigrated to Mexico some fifteen years previously. Neither he nor his wife appeared to be interested in politics. They both seemed dedicated to his career in Bellas Artes.

CONTACT REPORT

1. Agent: LIRING/4
2. Date and Site of Meeting: 1700, 21/8/68 and 1600, 22/8/68; Suites Marne.
3. Next Meeting: 1000, 28/8/68; Duca d'Este coffeeshop.
4. Information/Reports Passed by Agent:

LIRING/4 stated that she had been doing her best to get Mexican leftist writers and artists to show interest in LIRING/3's case by sending telegrams and letters to the Guatemalan government urging his prompt release. She showed Horton the article in Sucesos which she claimed credit for (attached herewith) but did not appear to have any knowledge of the notice in the 5 August edition of the News, commenting that it must have been picked up from articles she had planted in other Mexican papers

LIRING/4 reported that she had purposely avoided direct contact with the LIRING office, especially during the student demonstrations, since it appeared to be closely watched by the local police. She stated that she was maintaining some contact, however, through her friendship with Iden A, who called on her whenever he came to Mexico City and on occasion stayed at her apartment overnight. She added that Iden A generally stayed at the apartment of LIRING/2 when he was in town although he commented to her that he felt he was imposing on LIRING/2 and his roomates in the already crowded quarters. LIRING/4 added that Iden A informed her that LIRING/9 had returned to PBRUMEN AND was remaining there during the student unrest "in order to protect himself", implying that LIRING/9 had been in direct touch with some of the student leaders and could not afford to compromise himself and his office by his physical presence in Mexico City during the demonstrations.

In reply to Horton's query, LIRING/4 stated that although Iden A appeared to be quite liberal in his views and mixed easily with all sorts of people he ran into, he was definitely a "revolutionary" at heart and she assumed loyal to the present PBRUMEN GOVERNMENT.

LIRING/4 aslo reported that she hoped to persude and influential lawyer from Chiapas to travel to Guatemala City on her behalf to investigate LIRING/3's case and possibly influence the judge in his favor. She added that she was quite sure that the lawyer, who was a personal friend of LIRING/3, would take the case without a fee, but she felt obliged to offer to cover his expenses. Rowton suggested that she talk this over with the family of Iden 3 who would also benefit from any success the lawyer might have.

5. Administrative: LIRING/4 told Rowton that she had spent a "considerable" amount of money (some 300 pesos) on telegrams, postage stamps and vitamins for LIRING/3 since his arrest. She stated that she was able to survive and meet these expenses by supplementing the money given to her by Rowton through the sale of works produced by LIRING/3 and sent to her periodcially. Rowton asked LIRING/4 to keep account of such incidental expenses, since he felt it better to charge these items off as operational expenses rather than to continue to charge money given to her on LIRING/3's behalf simply as "servicios".

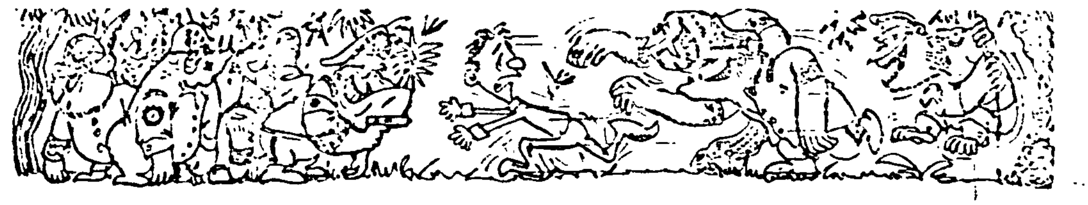
SUCESOS Y SUCEDIDOS

Por AZOR



Carlos Perzabal, catedrático de la Universidad de México, y Carlos Jurado Delmar, destacado pintor mexicano, son víctimas de la cacería de brujas instaurada en Guatemala con extremos que llegan al absurdo.

Los dos mexicanos están propiamente secuestrados por las autoridades guatemaltecas desde el 15 de abril del año en curso. Se les hacen una serie de cargos dignos de la mentalidad de un mosquito. Desde luego, como es costumbre en estos casos, cuatro meses después de su ilegal aprehensión ni siquiera han sido puestos a disposición de un juez que los juzgue.

El licenciado Antonio Carrillo Flores, nuestro secretario de Relaciones Exteriores, ha venido interviniendo en defensa de estos infortunados compatriotas, pero hasta ahora sus gestiones oficiales no han sido atendidas debidamente por el gobierno de Guatemala.

Para que usted, lector, tenga idea del atropello incalificable de que son víctimas los dos mexicanos, publicamos copia de la carta que Carlos Jurado Delmar y Carlos Perzabal dirigieron recientemente a la Comisión de Derechos Humanos de la ONU:

Comisión por los Derechos Humanos.

ONU.

Por este medio nos dirigimos a ustedes, pidiéndoles su intervención en nuestro caso.

El día 13 de abril de 1968, mientras nos dirigíamos pacíficamente a la República del Salvador y Honduras, fuimos detenidos con lujo de violencia por elementos del Ejército de Guatemala, en un lugar llamado "El Cable" a cuatro kilómetros escasamente de la frontera de México con Guatemala denominada "La Mesilla".

De ahí, llevados a un lugar llamado "Buenos Aires" donde permanecimos por una noche sujetos a torturas físicas y morales. Al día siguiente fuimos conducidos en un avión (No. 540) de la FAG a la ciudad capital, donde quedamos encarcelados en el 2o. Cuerpo de la Policía Nacional, sujetos también a torturas físicas y morales que hicieron y hacen peligrar nuestra vida.

Tan obvio es el error cometido con nosotros, que a pesar de que nuestra detención se llevó a cabo desde el día 13 de abril, como puede ser probado fácilmente con testigos presenciales y desde entonces mantenidos en prisión, el gobierno guatemalteco nos acusa de haber sido detenidos el día 17 del mismo mes, en las calles de la ciudad. ¡¡Repartiendo propaganda subversiva!! Incongruencia mayor no cabe en ninguna mente que se precie de normal.

Desde el día 26 de abril de 1968 fuimos confinados al campo de concentración de Pavón, mal llamado "Granja Penal". Donde las condiciones de vida para los reclusos y la violencia al que están sometidos, son espeluznantes como puede ser fácilmente comprobado por la H. Comisión de los Derechos Humanos.

Hemos sido sujetos a un "juicio" que el gobierno guatemalteco alarga deliberadamente con el único propósito de cubrir su error y a la vez perjudicarnos; por ésto y sobre todo por considerar en grave peligro nuestra integridad física, pedimos la rápida intervención de la H. Comisión de los Derechos Humanos para que se exija nuestra inmediata libertad.

Atentamente, Cárcel de Pavón, Guatemala, Julio 68.

CONTACT REPORT

1. Agent: LIRING/4
2. Date and Site of Meeting: 1000, 28/8/68;Duca d'Este Tearoom.
3. Next Meeting: Same time and place, 2/9/68.
4. Information/Reports Passed by Agent:

LIRING/4 informed Rowton that she had run into LIRING/10 and his assistant, Iden A, the previous afternoon (27/8/68) at about 1345 at the office of the director of Siempre, where she had gone in connection with added publicity for LIRING/3. She stated that LIRING/10 greeted her cordially with an embrace and asked how she was doing. He seemed genuinely disturbed to hear that things were no better, and commented that he had been hearing about her from time to time from Iden B, but felt that she should make her problems known to the LIRING office herself. When LIRING/4 commented that Iden C had told her and Iden B that it might be wiser for her to avoid contact openly with the LIRING office, LIRING/10 brushed this off, remarking that he felt it would be perfectly alright for LIRING/4 to come in whenever she felt it necessary for moral and whatever material help could be offered.

LIRING/4 told Rowton that in view of this comment of LIRING/10, she visited the LIRING office early that same morning (28/8/68) and found that LIRING/2 had returned from his TDY. She said that LIRING/2 greeted her cordially as usual, but he apparently did not have time to chat with her on that occasion.

5. Information/Guidance Given to Agent:

Rowton asked LIRING/4 to follow up on her contact with LIRING/10, especially since he appeared so friendly. Rowton suggested that L/4 ask L/10 to appeal to the Director of Siempre to give L/3's case good publicity. L/4 promised to do so and commented that L/10 appeared to be quite chummy with the director and apparently had a luncheon date with him for that same day.

SUBJECT
PBRUMEN: Activities of LIRING-3, LIRING-4 May through Mid-September 1968

ACTION REQUIRED - REFERENCES

REF: HMMA 34682, 17 May 1968

Action Required: For your information.

1. Forwarded under separate cover are twelve reports prepared by Wallace B. ROWTON on the activities of LIRING-3, LIRING-4, and contacts of the latter.

2. The main topic covered in ROWTON's reports is LIRING-4's efforts to obtain help in getting LIRING-3 out of jail in Guatemala as soon as possible. LIRING-4 is almost penniless (ROWTON has made only token payments to her after 15 June) and has been moving from one apartment to a cheaper one living on the sale of paintings left by LIRING-3 and small loans from leftist contacts. In the hope that she may be able to do something for LIRING-3, LIRING-4 has resisted all of ROWTON's efforts to get her to undertake a clandestine mission to PBRUMEN, a mission, as Headquarters knows, was planned long ago. As a foreigner, LIRING-4 cannot work in Mexico without taking the chance of being deported, if caught. Although she has not tried it, she would probably be refused a visa to go to Guatemala to visit LIRING-3. She might also face difficulties in Guatemala including possible detention and interrogation if she succeeded in obtaining an entry permit to that country.

3. By mid-September 1968 LIRING-4 had received very little help from her Mexican leftist or outright Communist friends. In spite of promises to try to bribe the Guatemalan judge scheduled to try LIRING-3 all LIRING-4's "friends" succeeded in doing was to print several articles in the local press (some of them with LIRING-3's photo) claiming that LIRING-3 was unjustly imprisoned, that he was about to be executed, etc. If anything, these articles did little to prejudice the Guatemalans in favor of LIRING-3. As a matter of fact, the latter who succeeded in sending LIRING-4 a few letters via the Mexican Consul in Guatemala City who comes to visit him in jail, recently claimed that he was saved from a prison "transfer" by the Guatemalan army by the arrival of the Mexican Consul. LIRING-3 viewed this "transfer" purely and simply as an execution attempt.

4. LIRING-4 received even less help from LIRING who told her that there was nothing it could do to help LIRING-3. LIRING-4, on the advice contained in one of the notes sent from prison by LIRING-3, kept away from LIRING and its employees until she met LIRING-10 by accident at the office of one of the leftist papers on 27 July. LIRING-10 convinced her to resume her visits to LIRING. That the local PBRUMENs still have doubts about LIRING-3 despite his imprisonment in Guatemala is indicated by the statements made by Rodolfo REYES (see ROWTON's 17 July report) to the effect that the latter would not be willing to help LIRING-3 until he found out on what side of "el griego" (ROWTON under false identity) he was. REYES added that LIRING suspects the "griego" of WOFIRM connections, although it has no definite proof of this.

5. Statements such as those made by REYES confirm the Station's belief that LIRING, upon orders from home, is still attempting to investigate ROWTON. Such statements also reinforce the decision of the Station not to attempt, through liaison, to obtain the release of LIRING-3. Such an attempt, if it leaked, would not only expose LIRING-3 to PBRUMEN and Guatemalan FAR reprisals. It would probably also have adverse repercussions on ROWTON's security. LIRING-11 whom ROWTON met briefly on 5 July (see ROWTON's report dated 9 July) said nothing about LIRING-3's arrest when ROWTON complained that mail which he said he sent to LIRING-3 remained unanswered. It is also to be noted that REYES, who of course knows that LIRING-4 is in Mexico, told ROWTON that she was probably in PBRUMEN. This shows clearly the distrust with which LIRING views ROWTON.

6. LIRING-4 developed close relationship with Orlando *SUAREZ of the Ministry of Culture now in Mexico at the invitation of the Mexican Communist mural painter David ALFARO Siqueiros. By mid-September, in fact, SUAREZ was staying at LIRING-4's apartment although LIRING-4 claimed to ROWTON that there was no romancing between the two and that SUAREZ used her apartment because he was too broke to get one of his own. In view of LIRING-4's assessment of SUAREZ as very leftist and pro-AMTHUG-1 no effort was made to approach him.

7. Contacts between ROWTON and LIRING-4 have taken place with decreasing frequency because the usefulness of LIRING-4 to WOFIRM has sharply decreased and because LIRING-4 is more and more convinced that ROWTON cannot or will not help her obtain the release of LIRING-3. In her frantic efforts to do something for LIRING-3, LIRING-4 has in fact not had any contact with ROWTON since early September. Unless LIRING-3 is released by the Guatemalan authorities or receives only a light sentence keeping him in jail only a short time longer, it is doubtful that LIRING-4 will be of much use to ROWTON and the Station.

E. LIRING-3: During this period, LIRING-3 was introduced to members of a Guatemalan exile group by the husband of the sister of his mistress. LIRING-3 agreed to help one or more representatives of this group cross the Guatemalan border. At the urging of these representatives he also agreed to meet in Guatemala with a woman in charge of logistics for the FAR movement. LIRING-3 spent the better part of the period under review manufacturing false documentation for the Guatemalan exiles. The Station used the LIEMBRACE surveillance team to cover some of the meetings between LIRING-3 and some of his nervous Guatemalan friends. Copies of photographs taken by the LIEMBRACEs of these meetings were forwarded to the Guatemala City Station and Headquarters. Due to several postponements, LIRING-3 and his Guatemalan contacts had not left for Guatemala by the end of the period under review.

Office Memorandum • UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

TO : Chief, Contact Division
Attn: [illegible] Branch

DATE: 22 Aug 64

FROM : Chief, Detroit Office

SUBJECT: Interview with Wilbur Coe, [illegible] Patient at USPHS Hospital, Detroit

1. Wilbur Coe, born at [illegible], N.Y., [illegible] Jul [illegible], called the Detroit Field Office on the afternoon of 19 Aug 64 and requested an interview. He said he had information he thought 'would help us'. In response to his request, a D/S called on him the same afternoon at the hospital.

2. Physically, Coe gave the appearance of having been down on his luck for [illegible]. He is married to a Venezuelan citizen, and his wife and two children live in Maracaibo. He is a [illegible] operator by profession. He suffered an injury to his foot in line of duty in Cleveland on or about 11 August, and has been at the Detroit USPHS Hospital since that date. He carries passport no. 250[illegible], re-validated at Maracaibo, Venezuela on 17 Jul 59. Coe has a sister-in-law, Ana [illegible], whom he describes as a pro-[illegible] newspaperwoman of Maracaibo, and a member of Accion Democratica. The following is the gist of what he said in the course of the two and a half hour interview.

3. Communist-backed Anti-Somoza Movement: Through his sister-in-law, Coe met in 195[illegible] a [illegible] newspaperman by the name of Pena, a reporter for the Diario [illegible] Occidente of Maracaibo. Pena introduced him to people connected with an anti-Somoza movement composed mainly of Nicaraguan exiles in Venezuela. Coe makes the [illegible] that they would have employed him, but he found out the movement was backed by the Communist Party of Venezuela, and so he dropped them.

4. Shortly after his meeting with the anti-Somocistas, Coe came in contact with a Professor [illegible], Director of the Colegio Jose Marti, and head of the 26 of July Movement in Maracaibo. [illegible] was under the impression that Coe was an airplane pilot, and expressed an interest in using him to run arms into Cuba, to supply the Castro forces. This was prior to the Batista overthrow of January 1959.

5. Coe took a job in Miami, working on contract on a dredging operation. In [illegible] in July 1960, he met a man named [illegible], who introduced him to [illegible], leader of an anti-Castro group. [illegible] took Coe into the group and told him he would like to employ him when his job on the dredging operation ended. [illegible], according to Coe, was the one who dispatched the "Invading Force" composed of [illegible], [illegible] and [illegible]. All of them were caught and [illegible] shortly after their landing in Cuba. Coe says [illegible] had intended [illegible] of three, but a [illegible] of the [illegible] Coe unavailable. [illegible] however, [illegible] Coe [illegible] would be kept in with the "[illegible]" and [illegible] arrived there, he [illegible] contact the "[illegible]". [illegible]

CONFIDENTIAL

6. Gee's opinion of [illegible] Rodriguez is low. He thinks Rodriguez is an agitator, who is only interested in the anti-Castro movement for the money he can get out of it. Rodriguez told Gee he has a brother in Cuba who is a [illegible]. He also volunteered to Gee that he was a member of the group who attacked the Cuban Consul in the Consulate in Miami, [illegible] received that Marco, Fuller and Thompson were [illegible] executed. He says [illegible] is in a "[illegible]".

7. When Gee [illegible] and he was finally available to enter the Masferrer group full time, he met a fellow by the name of Harry [illegible], in the company of Rolando and [illegible] Masferrer. [illegible] is Rolando's [illegible] and walks with a much more pronounced limp than does Rolando. Harry had an office in the same building as the Cuban Consulate, and seemed to act as a [illegible] for Masferrer, as well as a procurer of weapons on a small scale. Harry apparently has serious character flaws, also, for he swindled two of the members of the Masferrer militia out of $[illegible] each on the pretext of taking their checks from home to have them cashed for them.

8. Murder of Russ Mashor: When Masferrer started actively recruiting Americans for the group, he did not make any effort to check them out. Among them were Russ Mashor, who claimed to be an airplane pilot formerly in the service of Castro. One night Gee was in a bar next to the Masferrer task force's barracks at Key [illegible] West with Mashor, Juan (also known as El Musico) and a former member of the Castro secret police, whom he could not name. There were many other Cubans and Americans as well. Juan was a Portuguese who claimed to have entered the US illegally at Key West after jumping the Havana-Key West Ferry. His nickname derived from his musical talents. He also claimed to have had no military experience, but he proved so adept at military tactics that he later became second in command of the task force. The former Castro secret policeman was in his early 20's, about six feet tall, husky build and claimed to have been a schoolteacher. In the course of the evening at the bar, one of the three - Mashor, Juan, or the ex-secret policeman - made the remark that, on the occasion of their landing in Cuba, they should break away from the Masferrer group and try to join up with some other. Gee overheard the remark and reported it to the task force leader, though he said he could not identify which of the three had made it. The ex-secret policeman was thereupon thrown out of the task force, but Mashor was also strongly suspected of being the author of the dissident remark. As a result of this suspicion, Mashor was not allowed to take any firearms with him when the group went into training on No-Name Key. Gee, however, was allowed to take a .22 pistol. Besides Gee's weapon, the only other firearms at No-Name initially were a 12-gauge shotgun and a .22 rifle. Mashor was unable to keep up with the rigorous physical training schedule of the group, and so absented himself from that part of the training. Mashor adopted the habit of rising early in the morning and going out to hunt in the woods, having managed somehow to appropriate the .22 rifle. Because of his [illegible] attitude toward the training, plus the suspicion that surrounded him as the possible author of the dissident remark in the Miami bar, an acute bitterness grew between him and the group leader at No-Name, Lago, also known as [illegible] Lago. Lago was a former Batista police sergeant who had been tried and condemned to death in absentia. Lago proposed shooting it out with Mashor, but Mashor declined the invitation. Masferrer visited No-Name once in the company of Craig ---, an ex-G.I. who had served in Korea. Masferrer brought with him a .45 service automatic and a Garand rifle. These guns were left by Masferrer, upon his departure the next day, in the custody of [illegible] Companero, who had been a [illegible] man in Batista's army and claimed to have killed [illegible]. Companero was married to an American [illegible] who lived in Miami. Mashor arose early one morning and went hunting, according to his custom. About breakfast time, the men in the camp heard shots, and then [illegible] [illegible] in the pool [illegible] police [illegible] and no further investigation was made.

9. Bill Bishop and CIA Contacts: About two days after [illegible], [illegible] the group received word from Masferrer that they had to leave No-Name, [illegible] of the [illegible]. They went to Little Pine Key, [illegible] Bill Bishop was sent out to take charge of them there. They spent about one week at Little Pine with no supplies whatever, and then returned to Miami. Bishop impressed the group as being a psycho, and no one would take orders from him. He left the Masferrer group after the return to Miami, but shortly thereafter contacted Gee and asked him to join him in his [illegible] with [illegible] Tabernilla. Gee visited Bishop in his apartment in Miami, and described it as a rather expensive set-up. [illegible] apartment, Bishop called Charles, Tom [illegible], Miami, gave him a report, and had a discussion. At the conclusion of the call Bishop appeared upset, and explained that he had been denied an expected pay-off. He confided to Gee that all information from Tabernilla went to CIA. He said he was fed up with Cubans and felt like getting out.

10. Other members of the Masferrer group included Henry Procter, --- Rice, and a man known as "Ocho" not otherwise identified. Julio Fernandez, Administrative Assistant to Masferrer, paid these three a total of [illegible] to waylay and beat up Julio Lopez and his wife, in revenge for an article Lopez had written for a Miami newspaper which displeased Masferrer. The Lopezes were hospitalized. In the Masferrer group there was also a - - - Weary (phonetic). Blond, with a blond mustache, claimed to be a German and a Nazi sympathizer. Weary tried to organize a group that would be armed with torpedoes for the purpose of raiding Russian shipping en route to Cuba, in the vicinity of the Bahamas. Henry Procter got drunk one night, and he and several others beat up Weary, sending him to the hospital. Upon release from the hospital, Weary moved in with the Millers, the family of the [illegible] executed in Cuba along with Carta and Thompson. Procter, incidentally, claimed to have been a POW of the Communists in Korea, one of the famous 21 or so who refused repatriation in 1953.

11. Breakup of the Masferrer group occurred around early January 1961, when Masferrer was asked by the police to close up the barracks. The members of the group were told to go their several ways, but they were nearly all flat broke. Julio Fernandez took Gee to the home of Dr. Anselmo [illegible] Alliegro, ex-President of the Cuban Senate. While Gee waited outside in the car, Julio went into the house and returned shortly with a "wad" of money. He turned [illegible] to Gee [illegible] to pay each of the men [illegible], constituting final pay-off and liquidation of the employment agreement. Gee was able to find [illegible] of the men, to each of whom he gave [illegible] dollars [illegible] still has in his possession. All of the men declared their [illegible] to get to Cuba of some kind. Six of them had left in a group before the payoff, and stolen a [illegible] at [illegible], and set sail for Jamaica hoping to reach a "training camp" there. [illegible] navigation, apparently, they ended up instead in Havana where they were arrested and sentenced to 30 years each. Gee added [illegible] that one of the six was a [illegible]. Another small group of the ex-trainees stole a boat [illegible] with the [illegible] intention of sailing to Cuba. They were picked up by Miami Police before they got out of the harbor.

12. All Anti-Castro Terrorist Activity in the Miami area, according to Gee, is under the direction of [illegible], of the [illegible] organization, whose residence is at S.W. 1st and 15th Ave., Miami. Gee says she provides, or makes, bombs and sees to their delivery on target.

13. Jimenez-[illegible] anti-Betancourt Plot: (Gee says that he gave the following [illegible] who met him in response to his phone call sometime early this year to the [illegible] office in Miami.) Sometime early this year, Gee is vague about the time, he met a man named Edward Davis who upon hearing that Gee was interested in returning to his family in Maracaibo, introduced him to one Luis Phillip Prato of [illegible] Collins Ave., Miami. Prato arranged an interview for Gee with a Colonel Casanova, who was introduced to him as the head of the anti-Betancourt movement in Miami. Casanova asked Gee and Davis if they could - on 30 days notice - organize and arm a group of 400 ex-G.I.'s. He assured Gee and Davis that unlimited cash would be at their disposal for the task. Casanova said all kinds of arms would be needed, including artillery and flame throwers. He was most interested in whether or not Gee and Davis had any channel for procuring the arms. They assured Casanova they could raise the 400 men and obtain the desired arms and equipment. Casanova said he had already arranged transportation for the force via commercial airline, that they would be flown to a mountain site "behind" Caracas, leaving the US disguised as tourists, and they would be given 30 days rigorous training under the direction of English-speaking Venezuelan army officers. Casanova explained that the tentative plan was for an attack by the 400 on Caracas, simultaneously with an Army revolt within the city and at other unspecified points. The attempted coup in early 1961, involving an attack on [illegible], resulted in the arrest of several army officers involved in the Casanova plot, and according to Prato, necessitated an indefinite delay. Prato told Gee, however, that Perez-Jimenez was still interested in the plan, and that it would be carried out.

14. Contacts with Gun-runners: Through [illegible] Santiago, who lives with [illegible], a relative of the ex-dictator, Gee met [illegible] Rose, former owner of the hotel [illegible] in Miami. Rose told Gee that, if he were provided with one thousand dollars cash for expenses, he would go to Belgium and buy any kind of arms needed, and he could guarantee delivery to any part of the world. Another gun-runner with whom he came in contact was Charlie Adams, 1010 NW 9th Ave., Miami, telephone number [illegible]-2764. Adams told Gee that he could obtain, for $175.00 each on minimum orders of one thousand, a weapon described as Armalite (Fairchild), with NATO ammunition. A third arms dealer that Gee contacted was [illegible] Castle, [illegible] SW 21st St., Miami, telephone CA [illegible]. He provided Gee with a list of surplus US arms which he could obtain in any quantities desired.

THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION

SOURCE Cuban national, A [illegible], age 29.

Former owner of a tourist concession at Havana Riviera Hotel for three years, source served a prison term at Isle of Pines for being anti-Castro. Released after 20 months on 24 Dec 62 with the 2506 Brigade prisoners. Source studied three years of law at Villanueva University in Havana. He speaks English fluently, appears to be very pro-US. One of a series of reports from this source.

[This report was developed by an Air Force representative assigned to the Office of Collection.]

1. The following US citizens were in Circular 1, Isle of Pines Prison, as of 24 Dec 62:

a. Robert John Gentile, age 28-30, 6'2", 150 lbs. brown eyes and hair, divorced; home address: 13517 Kelso Ave, Cleveland, Ohio. He was caught in the Copacabana Hotel, Miramar, Havana, in December 1960 for being a counterrevolutionary. He allegedly belonged to a secret anti-Castro movement. He was supposed to have helped in an uprising in the Escambray Mountains in early 1961. He is serving a 15-year prison term. He is in urgent need of medical care, has a stomach ulcer, and is losing weight daily. He has lost 70 lbs since he has been in prison. I saw him before I left. He is nothing but skin and bones.

b. Eustace Danbrunt, age 37-40, 5'10", 187 lbs, dark brown eyes and hair; married; home address: 3915 Dorfield Blvd, Baltimore, Md. He was caught on north coast of Cuba because of counterrevolutionary activities in 1961 traveling in a yacht with seven or eight other Americans. He is serving a 15 to 20-year prison term. He has lost some weight but otherwise is doing fine. I saw him and talked to him before I left.

c. Peter Lambton, age 24, 5'10", 175 lbs, dirty blond hair, brown eyes; single; home address: Nassau, Bahamas. His father is an American residing in the Bahamas; his mother is English. He was an airplane pilot and water skiing and skindiving instructor in the Bahamas. THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION

SOURCE: Cuban national, A 12 856 761, who arrived in the US on 16 Sep 62 as a political refugee.

Source is a Cuban of Ecuadorian extraction and was employed as a clerk by the Ecuadorian Embassy until September 1962.

[This report was developed by an Army representative assigned to the office of preparation.]

1. The majority of the Cuban asylees in the Ecuadorian Embassy were bonafide victims of the Communist regime. However, during the time I served as secretary of the Embassy I observed that some men and women of unsavory reputation entered the Embassy as political refugees. The following are those whom I consider to be undesirable: Manuel [illegible], organizer of the G-2 activities in the Isle of Pines and who executed many opponents of the regime, entered the Embassy to avoid being arrested for black market activities and embezzlement of public funds. [illegible] is an accomplished bully and terrorized the rest of the asylees with his reckless display of weapons he brought into the Embassy. As far as I know he is still in the Embassy.

2. Juan Garcia [illegible], a hired killer who was one of the most notorious members of the gang known as "Los Tigres" led by former Senator Rolando Masferrer. Evaristo Garcia [illegible], a professional gambler, who organized gambling within the Embassy and his son Evaristo Garcia, Jr. Garcia and his son are in Miami. [illegible] del [illegible], a notorious prostitute who was in [illegible] and her companion [illegible]. These two females have been in Miami for [illegible].

3. Among the suspected [illegible] agents were: Vladimir Iser, an Ukrainian [illegible] of the [illegible] who resides at 770 N.W. 2nd St., Miami, Florida. [illegible] Communist Party who is presently in [illegible], Ecuador. [illegible] also in [illegible], Ecuador. [illegible] who is in a refuge in Miami, Florida. Juan [illegible] also a Communist organizer [illegible] in Miami. Captain [illegible], former Fidel Castro bodyguard who entered the Embassy because of his participation in the automobile [illegible]. Jesus [illegible], [illegible] who was involved with a ring of [illegible] counterfeiters. He is also a [illegible] pilot.

UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

Memorandum

TO : Chief, Contact Division
ATTN : Support Branch

FROM : Chief, Miami Field Office

DATE: 5 April 1963

MIA(S) - [illegible]

SUBJECT: Plan to Unite the Cuban Exiles

1. At their request, Luis G. Rodriguez met with Dr. Eduardo Rafael Sardiñas, secretary of the Cuban Cane Planters Association in Exile and with Juan Amador Rodriguez, former Cuban Senator and editor of the Spanish language radio newspaper "El Periodico del Aire," [illegible] advised that they have been meeting with several personalities of the exile colony in an effort to organize all the exiles into a single group which will represent all the exiles regardless of former affiliations.

2. They feel that after the sorry spectacle provided by the Cuban Revolutionary Council, they must avoid getting involved in matters which are in conflict with the policies of the US Government. Therefore, they would like to discuss this project with Mr. John Crimmins.

3. The following personalities have been approached and have indicated their desire to cooperate to the fullest extent in an effort to unite all the Cubans in exile: Antonio Manuel de Varona, Dr. Julio Sanguily, Dr. Carlos Prio, Dr. Carlos Marquez Sterling, Carlos Hevia, Jose Ignacio Rivero, Jose Alvarez Diaz, Raul Menocal, Aureliano Sanchez Arango, Luis Conte Aguero, Manuel Artime, Eusebio Mujal, [illegible] Lizaris, Orlando Cuervo Calzada, Jose Ignacio Rasco, Mario [illegible], Herminio Portell Vila, Gustavo Cuervo Rubio, Lomberto Diaz, Santiago Alvarez, Ruben de Leon. Also included in this roster are General Generoso Campos Marquetti, veteran of the War of Independence, and Facundo [illegible], leader of the Transportation Workers, because both are Negroes.

4. Representatives of the Medical Association, Bar Association, Teacher and Newspaper Associations and the Students Directory have also been contacted and indicated their desire to assist in this endeavor.

5. Amador and Sardiñas stated that Former President Prio indicated that former members of the Castro regime who are exiled in the US should also be invited to join because their presence in the organization will indicate to the people of Cuba that the aim of the organization is not the return to certain conditions that prevailed before 1 Jan 59. Dr. Prio maintains that with former Fidelistas joining the organization the members of the Rebel Army and the militia plus the Government bureaucracy will not fear reprisals if and when the Castro regime is ousted. Dr. Prio added that with names such as Felipe Pazos, Rufo Lopez Fresquet, Raul Chibas and even controversial Manolo Ray, the chances of defection by members of the Armed Forces will increase.

CONT'D TWO.

6. The organization will also invite to join many prominent Cubans who served under the Batista Administration and who were given a clean bill of health after the Revolution. However, such notorious criminals like Colonels Esteban Ventura, Conrado Carratala, [illegible], [illegible] Irenaldo Garcia Baez and others, will not be admitted. Eloy Gutierrez Menoyo and his group will not be invited because they are considered to be agent provocateurs.

7. If this works out, the new organization will be ruled by a five man board selected by a general assembly of all the above mentioned personalities. The chairmanship of the board will be rotated periodically.

1. Attached per referent telephone conversations is copy of Dun and Bradstreet report as requested on Military Armament Corporation, headquartered in Powder Springs, Georgia. Please note that Chairman of the Board, is Mitchell Livingston Werbell, III. Werbell is a former Office of Strategic Services (OSS) officer known to this writer during assignments in China during WWII.

2. This Agency, as well as other government agencies, have considerable information on Werbell. He is an old and unsavory, unsolicited, contact of the Miami Field Office dating from 1959. He is of dubious character and reputation who had and has been involved in grandoise schemes and international arms deals. He has ~~had~~ perpetual financial difficulties.

3. Werbell was involved with Roland Masferrer, Senior, in connection with the abortive Haitian invasion in 1967. This may throw a different light on possible source development of young Rolando Jr. Any approach to him should be executed with some degree of caution. We do not desire to get involved with Werbell. However, we cannot foresee any objection to planned debriefings of Masferrer Jr., following his trips to Latin America and other areas, in pursuit of FPI and possible information of operational significance.

4. If we can be of further assistance in this matter, please advise.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: Assessment of Recruitability - Rolando Masferrer, Jr.
Vice-President, Sales, Military Armament Corporation

A168762

1. Subject seems to have inherited that particular Latin American penchant for involvement in covert political activities. However, the Subject's involvement is not merely pastime or recreation but it is instead intimately connected with his chosen profession as an arms salesman. Here the phrase "for fun and profit" seems aptly suited. He seems to be a man of action with the ability to exploit an opportunity, rather than a towering intellect.

2. Subject has excellent contacts and access in Latin America. This access developed from his extended family, professional appointments, and his involvement with Cuban exile groups. His family is well-known (infamous) throughout many sectors of Latin America and opens many doors for him (although it also closes others). It should also be mentioned that his family has recently developed a rather checkered association with this Agency. The particular nature of his military products gives him contact with high military, police, and security officials throughout Latin America. He seems to be well versed on the status of various arms deals (both official and under-the-table) in the countries he travels. He has been involved with several Cuban exile political and para-military organizations.

3. Politically, Subject is a staunch anti-Communist. This position is probably ingrained from his family, but also reinforced from his various political and professional activities. He has voiced a particular hatred for Cuban Communists. He seems to view them not as respected enemies, but as hated traitors. He is vehemently anti-Castro.

4. Subject has developed what could be interpreted as a certain patriotism for this country. During conversations he referred a few times to "my country" meaning the U.S. I believe that the fact he volunteered for U.S. military training reflects not only the selfish motives of becoming Special Forces qualified but also a sense of duty. I also believe that his recent statements to me regarding international security matters is not merely empty loquacity but is evidence of his desire to contribute something and become involved in the national interest.

5. Subject would need sober briefings on the responsibility of any Agency association as well as subsequent careful handling. He would need to get away from the "Flagler Street Commando syndrome" of visual and verbal bravado. He would need instruction to discern rumor from fact, to identify sources, and to assess the reliability of acquired information.

6. I am sure that the Subject is recruitable. The question is what degree of association with the Agency would be appropriate. If the decision is made to approach the Subject, may I suggest that his association be initially limited to Agency briefings and debriefings before and after his trips to Latin America. Once his reliability is established and the accuracy of his reporting is proven then further utilization may be possible. Since his financial situation seems to be secure I am sure he could be handled on a non-pay basis.

7. Subject is scheduled to leave on a two-week business trip to Venezuela and Colombia beginning in early August 1972. He claimed to have appointments with a Venezuelan Air Force General and with Venezuelan national security officials in DISIP.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: Rolando MASFERRER, Jr.

1. Please be informed of a possible future contact--Rolando MASFERRER, Jr., recently promoted to Vice-President of Sales, Military Armament Corporation, Washington D.C. office, 905 L' Enfant Plaza, #4020. He is also associated with Parabellum Corporation, another military weapons firm. Subject, born approximately 1945, in Habana, Cuba, is believed to be a naturalized citizen.

2. Subject makes frequent sales trips to Latin America. Because of the nature of his main product(machine pistols with silencers) he has good access to top Latin American governmental officials and military and security officers. He has personally met many Latin American presidents. He should be a good source of information on the current status of arms sales in Latin America; internal security, military armament levels, order-of-battle, and internal politics in host countries; and, if needed, status of Cuban exile movement. He is presently on a sales mission to Colombia and is scheduled to return in mid-June.

3. MASFERRER, Jr. has been a Miami resident since 1959 and more recently lived in Atlanta. He will permanently locate in the Washington, D.C. area when he returns from his Colombian trip.

4. Subject is not to be confused with his father by the same name, the infamous Rolando Arcadio MASFERRER y Rojas(201-42669). Masferrer Sr. was a former Cuban Senator and leader of a dreaded private army of Batista enforcers called "Los Tigres(The Tigers)". He is presently serving in a U.S. federal prison for attempting to organize a 1967 invasion of Haiti in order to set up a base of operations against Cuba. Masferrer Sr., violently anti-Castro, was involved in numerous Cuban exile operations against Cuba during the last decade.

5. I was Subject's Commanding Officer in the Florida National Guard and sometimes saw him socially while in Miami. Although Cuban by birth, he now feels that he is an American. Politically anti-Communist,he joined the National Guard(while not under duress from the draft) to become a "Green Beret." He is polite and correct in his social relationships. I received a letter from him, 7 June 1972, informing me of his impending move to the Washington, D.C. area. He solicited my aid in finding a local army reserve unit.

6. If you are interested in exploring this possibility further, please feel free to contact me at any time. I could suggest cautions and method of contact or introduction. Subject is unwitting of my Agency employment.

Yglesias is certainly a fraud and should come to the attention of the FBI and police authorities. Masferrer should also be known to your office since we sent some background info on him to MIM F.O. He is a slick operator. Be very cautious in your dealings in the hunt.

1. On 26 June 1973 the Miami Field Office responded to a call on the listed line from a man who identified himself as Rolando Masferrer. Mr. Masferrer requested to meet with Matt MacVane of the Miami Field Office. Mr. Masferrer said that he had some information concerning one Guillermo Yglesias (subject of 00A(S) 322/17013-73) that would prove to be of interest to the Central Intelligence Agency. Rolando Masferrer lives at 6080 W. Flagler Avenue, Miami, Florida. As a result of his request Matt MacVane and Luis Desa-Soto of the Miami Field Office responded to the call and met with Rolando Masferrer that afternoon.

2. Mr. Masferrer related details of his relationship with one Guillermo Yglesias, age about 38, an individual on whom there are other Agency references. According to Masferrer, Yglesias approached him in late March 1973 and identified himself as working for the Central Intelligence Agency. Yglesias said that he was trying to raise a large sum of money to finance secret CIA operations. Yglesias said that CIA funds have been tied up as a result of the Watergate affair. He referred to these operations as black operations. Mr. Masferrer said that he knew several high ranking government officials in Colombia, Venezuela, and Guatemala. Masferrer contacted several of these friends in South America and asked them to aid the Central Intelligence Agency in raising funds for secret operations in South America and the Caribbean. Masferrer has contacted Manuel Vega, a retired Colombian army colonel and presently head of the Colombian Internal Police. He has also contacted one Alvaro Vargas, who is an advisor in armaments to the Colombian National Police. Masferrer also passed Yglesias the name of Carlos Fabri, head of the Venezuela Internal Police. Yglesias showed a great interest in small arms of all types. Masferrer said that he personally turned over five M-26 fragmentation hand grenades, one M-16 automatic rifle, one AR-15 semi-automatic rifle, and several handguns 38 caliber type. Masferrer was led to believe that the weapons would be used in a secret CIA operation in Puerto Rico. This operation was described by Yglesias as a black operation.

3. During our conversation with Masferrer, he raised an additional point. Masferrer said that he contacted Manuel Vega in Colombia and that Vega agreed to help all that he could. Vega expressed deep concern to

1. At 1700 hours on 14 May 1973 the Miami Field Office received a telephone call on the listed line from an individual who ultimately identified himself as Rolando Masferrer. It is believed that Masferrer is identical with former Cuban senator and Batista associate Rolando Masferrer Rojas who is of dubious reputation and is well known for several nefarious actions in Haiti, Guatemala and perhaps elsewhere. Rolando Masferrer was convicted of conspiracy to invade Haiti in 1967. It is believed that there are extensive Agency files on Rolando Masferrer.

2. Masferrer was very reluctant to provide details, but finally said he could be reached at local telephone 261-3689. A separate check reveals this number to be registered to Daniel Bermudez, 6080 W. Flagler, Apartment #17.

3. In any event the listed line caller indicated that he had been approached by one Guillermo Iglesias and asked to engage in certain activities which he did not further describe. According to Masferrer, Iglesias carried credentials or other identifying material which seemed to link him with the U.S. Coast Guard in San Juan, Puerto Rico. Masferrer said, however, that Iglesias indicated also that he was in some way representing the Central Intelligence Agency. Masferrer then said that the purpose of the telephone call was to check on the bona fides of Guillermo Iglesias.

4. Masferrer was told that the name Guillermo Iglesias meant nothing to the Miami Field Office and was otherwise given a rather noncommital response.

1. Attached per referent telephone conversations is copy of Dun and Bradstreet report as requested on Military Armament Corporation, headquartered in Powder Springs, Georgia. Please note that Chairman of the Board, is Mitchell Livingston Werbell, III. Werbell is a former Office of ~~Strategic Services (OSS) officer~~ known to this writer during assignments in China during WWII.

2. This Agency, as well as other government agencies, have considerable information on Werbell. He is an old and unsavory, unsolicited, contact of the Miami Field Office dating from 1959. He is of dubious character and reputation who had and has been involved in grandoise schemes and international arms deals. He has had perpetual financial difficulties.

3. Werbell was involved with Roland Masferrer, Senior, in connection with the abortive Haitian invasion in 1967. This may throw a different light on possible source development of young Rolando Jr. Any approach to him should be executed with some degree of caution. We do not desire to get involved with Werbell. However, we cannot foresee any objection to planned debriefings of Masferrer Jr., following his trips to Latin America and other areas, in pursuit of FPI and possible information of operational significance.

4. If we can be of further assistance in this matter, please advise.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: Rolando Masferrer, Jr.

1. On Monday, 3 July 1972, from 2100 to 2400 hours at Clyde's Bar, Washington, D.C.; and Tuesday, 4 July 1972, from 1300 to 1600 hours, poolside, 7625 Matera St., Apt. 201, Falls Church, Virginia, the undersigned talked with Rolando Masferrer, Jr.

2. I mentioned to Masferrer that my superiors (supposedly in the State Department) were interested that some responsible U.S. Government authority be informed of his story regarding U.S. citizen involvement in drug trafficking and guerrilla training in Mexico. Masferrer said that last February he told the story up to that date to Miami, F.B.I. Agent Bob Dyer, and also certain information to U.S. Customs Bureau Agent Buchanan (fnu). Masferrer said he had not informed any government entities of events subsequent to February. I mentioned that such information was not necessarily within the unique purview of the State Department, but that my superiors would probably be interested in anything further.

3. Rolando Masferrer, Jr., related to me four different occasions when an insurgent organization, "Force Seven", comprised of American adventurers in Mexico, was brought to his attention.

4. The first time the Subject heard of "Force Seven" was from Francisco BRAVO (or Brabo) [NFI], Chief of Judicial Police, State of Morelos. Subject had met Bravo "a few years ago". They met again in Atlanta, Georgia, late December 1971, when Bravo came for a weapons demonstration at the Military Armament Corp, Powder Springs, Georgia, some 20 miles outside Atlanta. Bravo told Masferrer of the insurgency problem in the Mexican states of Morelos and Guerrero. Bravo mentioned the existence of "Force Seven". Bravo indicated his police needed weapons to fight the insurgents and subsequently invited Masferrer and Anselmo Alliegro [son of a former Cuban Senator, naturalized citizen, and Masferrer's partner in Parabellum Corporation] to come to Mexico. Bravo promised to introduce Masferrer and Alliegro to Mexican police authorities competent to purchase firearms.

5. Subject again heard the name "Force Seven" in Miami, January 1972, from Oliverio CASTANEDA Paiz, former First Vice-President of the Guatemalan Congress. [Castaneda was head of the Guatemalan civilian counter-insurgency forces in the Zacapa region during 1967-68, and, according to Masferrer, the chief of the Mano Blanco. Castaneda was killed 12 June 1972. The Guatemalan insurgent group, F.A.R., "took credit" for the killing.] Castaneda was travelling to the U.S. with Messers. Sandoval and Figaroa. [Probably Mario SANDOVAL Alarcon, President of the Guatemalan Congress and head of the M.L.N. party; and Alvaro CUEVAS Figaroa, Castaneda's predecessor as First Vice-President of Congress. Several TDCS reports during January and February 1972 indicated Cuevas Figaroa was trying to smuggle arms from the U.S. to Guatemala supposedly for a planned coup in Costa Rica] Masferrer said Castaneda was trying to arrange the release from U.S. federal prison Rolando Masferrer, Sr. Castaneda wanted Masferrer, Sr., to emigrate to Guatemala to become involved in state security matters and also to organize an anti-Communist army. Castaneda mentioned to Masferrer, Jr., the growing insurgency problems in the Peten area of Guatemala. Castaneda mentioned that U.S. insurgents operating under the name "Force Seven" entered the Peten from Mexico. The Guatemalan Army's Mariscal Zavala Brigade had been dispatched from Guatemala City to the Mexican border in Peten province to counter the infiltration, but had recently been shifted to the border adjacent British Honduras. Masferror said Castaneda believed that former U.S. "Green Berets" were involved with the insurgents. Castaneda said that a list of all U.S. Special Forces-trained Guatemalans had disappeared when the U.S. military training mission was terminated. Now the guerrillas in Guatemala are pinpointing those U.S. trained, local military personnel with uncanny accuracy. From that evidence, Castaneda believed that "Force Seven" must include some of the U.S. "Green Berets" that had originally trained the local Guatemalan military.

6. During the first three months of 1972, Subject made two trips to Mexico. During his first trip, three weeks in late January and February, Masferrer travelled with Alliegro and Mitchell Werbell (Mitchell Livingston Werbell III, 201-259010, former OSS member in C-B-I in World War II; former President of Military Armament Corporation; and presently associated with Defense Systems Incorporated, Powder Springs, Georgia.) In Mexico City, Francisco Bravo introduced the delegation to Mexico City Police Chief Santos [Daniel GUTIERREZ Santos] and Miguel NAZAR Haro, "Chief of Political Police". [Actually Deputy Director of the Federal Security Service, DFS, a political and intelligence organization working within the Secretariat of Government.] During conversations Nazar admitted Mexico's insurgency problems and specifically named "Force Seven". Masferrer mentioned that both Nazar and Gutierrez Santos were angry with President Echeverria because of the Mexican Government's policy of light criminal punishment and short prison terms for bandits and/or guerrillas painstakingly captured by the police.

7. Bravo took the three to Cuernavaca where he showed them a house on the outskirts of the city that the police used for unofficial detentions and heavy-handed interrogations. Bravo complained that the local Catholic Archbishop was implicated with the insurgents as well as certain U.S. film personalities who vacation in the American community in Cuernavaca. Bravo also implicated a professor that was kidnapped in Guerrero in late 1971. Bravo believed that the professor [Jaime CASTREJON Diez, Rector of the University of Guerrero] actually conspired with the insurgents for his own kidnapping in order to raise the ransom money for the insurgent movement. [The ransom was finally paid by President Echeverria.]

8. Subject travelled again to Mexico in March 1972 with Bernardo DE TORRES. [Mexico 2038, 4 December 1969, mentions that LITEMPO-12, WH/MIAMI, received a phone call from one Bernardo De Torres regarding a supposed Swiss contraband arms dealer in Mexico City.] Nazar had invited Masferrer to return to Mexico to go on a "hunting party", that is, to participate in an actual counter-insurgency operation. Masferrer and De Torres arrived in Acapulco and were met by Bravo. They travelled by police vehicle for about an hour east of Acapulco to an area near La Treintas (NFI).

Just before they arrived they heard on the police radio that the Army had just "shot down" a twin-engine Beechcraft. When they arrived, a search of the wreckage yielded a few weapons. A short firefight (about 15 minutes) ensued with insurgents that left two soldiers dead. Masferrer said he did not know the number of insurgent casualties. One insurgent was captured along with his .45 caliber pistol.

9. The captured insurgent turned out to be a U.S. citizen, white, male, approximately 27 years old. (Masferrer claimed he forgot the prisoner's name, but that he had it in Miami.) Bravo did not trust the Acapulco or the Guerrero state police and had his men take the prisoner to the detention house outside of Cuernavaca. Masferrer said he witnessed the interrogation in which the prisoner's head was repeatedly dunked in a rain barrel to make him talk. The prisoner eventually revealed the following information about "Force Seven": participating Americans were ex-ranger, airborne, Marine or Special Forces types, many with Vietnam combat experience. They were armed with CAR-15 (M-16) rifles and some had M-79 grenade launchers. Other Americans operated elsewhere in Latin America. "Force Seven" provided training to the insurgents and, whenever possible, supplied weapons. In return, the Americans were paid in money and drugs, mostly marijuana, but some cocaine. Masferrer said no heroin was mentioned. The prisoner said the insurgents used the money from the drug smuggling to finance operations. Bank robberies had become increasingly difficult since the Army began posting armed guards at area banks. The prisoner said he had worked under Genaro VASQUEZ [Mexico's infamous bandit-turned-guerrilla; killed in a car accident last February]. The prisoner put guerrilla strength at about 2,000 men. Masferrer, however, said Bravo felt that figure to be high. The prisoner also mentioned that some of the insurgents had previously received guerrilla training in North Korea.

10. Masferrer said that later, upon Nazar's orders, the American prisoner was shot and killed. The whole affair was never reported in the local press because, according to Masferrer, such information, if revealed, would damage the area's tourist trade.

SUBJECT: Rolando MASFERRER, Jr.

1. Please be informed of a possible future contact--Rolando MASFERRER, Jr., recently promoted to Vice-President of Sales, Military Armament Corporation, Washington D.C. office, 905 L' Enfant Plaza, #4020. He is also associated with Parabellum Corporation, another military weapons firm. Subject, born approximately 1945, in Habana, Cuba, is believed to be a naturalized citizen.

2. Subject makes frequent sales trips to Latin America. Because of the nature of his main product(machine pistols with silencers) he has good access to top Latin American governmental officials and military and security officers. He has personally met many Latin American presidents. He should be a good source of information on the current status of arms sales in Latin America; internal security, military armament levels, order-of-battle, and internal politics in host countries; and, if needed, status of Cuban exile movement. He is presently on a sales mission to Colombia and is scheduled to return in mid-June.

3. MASFERRER, Jr. has been a Miami resident since 1959 and more recently lived in Atlanta. He will permanently locate in the Washington, D.C. area when he returns from his Colombian trip.

4. Subject is not to be confused with his father by the same name, the infamous Rolando Arcadio MASFERRER y Rojas(201-42669). Masferrer Sr. was a former Cuban Senator and leader of a dreaded private army of Batista enforcers called "Los Tigres(The Tigers)". He is presently serving in a U.S. federal prison for attempting to organize a 1967 invasion of Haiti in order to set up a base of operations against Cuba. Masferrer Sr., violently anti-Castro, was involved in numerous Cuban exile operations against Cuba during the last decade.

5. I was Subject's Commanding Officer in the Florida National Guard and sometimes saw him socially while in Miami. Although Cuban by birth, he now feels that he is an American. Politically anti-Communist, he joined the National Guard(while not under duress from the draft) to become a "Green Beret." He is polite and correct in his social relationships. I received a letter from him, 7 June 1972, informing me of his impending move to the Washington, D.C. area. He solicited my aid in finding a local army reserve unit.

6. If you are interested in exploring this possibility further, please feel free to contact me at any time. I could suggest cautions and method of contact or introduction. Subject is unwitting of my Agency employment.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: Assessment of Recruitability - Rolando Masferrer, Jr.
Vice-President, Sales, Military Armament Corporation

A168762

1. Subject seems to have inherited that particular Latin American penchant for involvement in covert political activities. However, the Subject's involvement is not merely pastime or recreation but it is instead intimately connected with his chosen profession as an arms salesman. Here the phrase "for fun and profit" seems aptly suited. He seems to be a man of action with the ability to exploit an opportunity, rather than a towering intellect.

2. Subject has excellent contacts and access in Latin America. This access developed from his extended family, professional appointments, and his involvement with Cuban exile groups. His family is well-known (infamous) throughout many sectors of Latin America and opens many doors for him (although it also closes others). It should also be mentioned that his family has recently developed a rather checkered association with this Agency. The particular nature of his military products gives him contact with high military, police, and security officials throughout Latin America. He seems to be well versed on the status of various arms deals (both official and under-the-table) in the countries he travels. He has been involved with several Cuban exile political and para-military organizations.

3. Politically, Subject is a staunch anti-Communist. This position is probably ingrained from his family, but also reinforced from his various political and professional activities. He has voiced a particular hatred for Cuban Communists. He seems to view them not as respected enemies, but as hated traitors. He is vehemently anti-Castro.

4. Subject has developed what could be interpreted as a certain patriotism for this country. During conversations he referred a few times to "my country" meaning the U.S. I believe that the fact he volunteered for U.S. military training reflects not only the selfish motives of becoming Special Forces qualified but also a sense of duty. I also believe that his recent statements to me regarding international security matters is not merely empty loquacity but is evidence of his desire to contribute something and become involved in the national interest.

5. Subject would need sober briefings on the responsibility of any Agency association as well as subsequent careful handling. He would need to get away from the "Flagler Street Commando syndrome" of visual and verbal bravado. He would need instruction to discern rumor from fact, to identify sources, and to assess the reliability of acquired information.

6. I am sure that the Subject is recruitable. The question is what degree of association with the Agency would be appropriate. If the decision is made to approach the Subject, may I suggest that his association be initially limited to Agency briefings and debriefings before and after his trips to Latin America. Once his reliability is established and the accuracy of his reporting is proven then further utilization may be possible. Since his financial situation seems to be secure I am sure he could be handled on a non-pay basis.

7. Subject is scheduled to leave on a two-week business trip to Venezuela and Colombia beginning in early August 1972. He claimed to have appointments with a Venezuelan Air Force General and with Venezuelan national security officials in DISIP.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: Jeffrey G. Peterson's Conversation with Rolando Masferrer, Jr.

1. On Sunday, 2 July 1972, from 1800 to 2000 hours at the [illegible] Restaurant, Arlington, Va., I met with Rolando Masferrer, Jr. (Masferrer is unwitting of my Agency employment. My cover story is that I am a Program Officer with the State Department. I supposedly work in a research capacity for the American Republics Area until the time I can be programmed to enter the next Foreign Service Institute class.)

2. Masferrer and I, old National Guard comrades, had not seen one another for 5 months. We had dinner and later went on a tour of apartment sites in the District and northern Virginia. During the course of the conversation, he related the events of his trips to Mexico and his recent trip (June 1972) to Colombia in the course of his job as Vice-President, Sales, Military Armament Corp.

Mexico: Subject mentioned the trouble the Mexican Government is having with leftist guerrillas, particularly in two western states. He claimed the rebels were being trained in part by U.S. adventurers who claimed to be ex-ranger, airborne Marine or Special Forces types, many with Vietnam experience. The Americans were training the rebels in return for money and marijuana and a piece of the drug smuggling action. The Americans operated under the nom de guerre "Force Seven". This same "Force Seven" claimed to have connections and affiliations in Guatemala. Subject claimed even to have participated in a small firefight with the Mexican Army and the Judicial Police against the guerrillas in an effort to prove the worth of his particular military products.

Colombia: Subject mentioned Colombia's increasing alarm with the problems of drug trafficking within the country. While in Colombia he claimed to have stayed in the house of his family friend MG Jaime [illegible] Porlo, Chief of Staff of the Colombian Army.

2. The entire conversation was kept on the level of buddies swapping war stories. Subject, however, swore to the veracity of his statements. I mentioned that the State Department was currently interested in the problems of drug trafficking in Latin America and maybe there would be some interest in pursuing the matter further. I also indicated I would ask my superiors at the State Department if they had ever heard anything about the existence of a "Force Seven" or anything on the curious [illegible] of U.S. adventurers, drug smuggling, and leftist guerrilla movements in Mexico.

3. On Monday, 3 July 1972, I coordinated with the following people at Headquarters:

Robert Brugger, Acting Desk Chief, Colombia
Richard Wheeler and John Murray, Branch 1, Mexico
Robert Weicha, C/WH/FI
Drake Reid, WH/NARC

Their collective suggestions and instructions were:

a. Go slow on efforts to elicit information so not to arouse suspicions of Agency involvement.

b. Find out any information regarding the Colombian Army's B-2 battalion, U.S. citizen's involvement in drug trafficking in Latin America (names, dates, and places), Cuban involvement in cocaine traffic, and any ties between leftist guerrillas and drug smuggling.

c. Write a memorandum and Subject evaluation (where he works, where he goes, who he meets, and an assessment of recruitability).

4. I made arrangements to meet McFerrer again the evening of 3 July 1972 and the afternoon of 4 July 1972.

1. Attached for your information and background orientation is some material pertaining to Rolando Masferrer, who appears to be identical to subject of reference.

2. Subject should not be confused with his uncle by the same name, the infamous Rolando Masferrer y Rojas (erroneously reported as father of subject). The elder Masferrer was imprisoned in 1967 for organizing an unsuccessful invasion of Haiti. Young Masferrer may be engaged in dubious activity and contact with him should be viewed with cautious circumspection. He may be on a "fishing expedition" to obtain some information on Guillermo Iglesias; or he may be seeking to cement an affiliation with the Agency via the Miami Field Office. Masferrer may not be the good guy that the attached material represents him to be. He is known to be a wheeling and dealing fast dollar artist. Should he volunteer any information in the future, please note it, and send it to Headquarters. Of specific interest would be any information he may provide on narcotic trafficing and those involved in this illicit trade.

3. DDO has no interest in young Masferrer. If we can be of further assistance, please advise.

OPERATIONAL INFORMATION REPORT

This report has been prepared by the DOMESTIC CONTACT SERVICE, DDI. The operational information contained herein may not be disclosed to personnel outside of the CLANDESTINE SERVICE, CIA, without the prior permission of the Domestic Contact Service.

1. At 1750 hours on 14 May 1973 the Miami Field Office received a telephone call on the listed line from an individual who ultimately identified himself as Rolando Masferrer. It is believed that Masferrer is identical with former Cuban senator and Batista associate Rolando Masferrer Rojas who is of dubious reputation and is well known for several nefarious actions in Haiti, Guatemala and perhaps elsewhere. Rolando Masferrer was convicted of conspiracy to invade Haiti in 1967. It is believed that there are extensive Agency files on Rolando Masferrer.

2. Masferrer was very reluctant to provide details, but finally said he could be reached at local telephone 251-3639. A separate check reveals this number to be registered to [illegible] Bermudez, 6050 N. Flagler, Apartment #17.

3. In any event the listed line caller indicated that he had been approached by one Guillermo Iglesias and asked to engage in certain activities which he did not further describe. According to Masferrer, Iglesias carried credentials or other identifying material which seemed to link him with the U.S. Coast Guard in San Juan, Puerto Rico. Masferrer said, however, that Iglesias indicated also that he was in some way representing the Central Intelligence Agency. Masferrer then said that the purpose of the telephone call was to check on the bona fides of Guillermo Iglesias.

4. Masferrer was told that the name Guillermo Iglesias meant nothing to the Miami Field Office and was otherwise given a rather non-committal response.

Yglesias is certainly a fraud and should come to the attention of the FBI and police authorities. Masferrer should also be known to your office since we sent some background info on him to MIA F.O. He is a [illegible]. Be very cautious in your dealings with him.

OPERATIONAL INFORMATION REPORT

This report has been prepared by the DOMESTIC CONTACT SERVICE, DDI. The operational information contained herein may not be disclosed to personnel outside of the CLANDESTINE SERVICE, CIA, without the prior permission of the Domestic Contact Service.

1. On 26 June 1973 the Miami Field Office responded to a call on the listed line from a man who identified himself as Rolando Masferrer. Mr. Masferrer requested to meet with [illegible] of the Miami Field Office. Mr. Masferrer said that he had some information concerning one Guillermo Iglesias [illegible] prove to be of interest to the Central Intelligence Agency. Rolando Masferrer lives at 6030 N. [illegible] Avenue, Miami, Florida. As a result of his request [illegible] and [illegible] of the Miami Field Office responded to the call and met with Rolando Masferrer that afternoon.

2. Mr. Masferrer related details of his relationship with one Guillermo Yglesias, age about 38, an individual on whom there are other Agency references. According to Masferrer, Yglesias approached him in late March 1973 and identified himself as working for the Central Intelligence Agency. Yglesias said that he was trying to raise a large sum of money to finance covert CIA operations. Yglesias said that CIA funds have been tied up as a result of the Watergate affair. He referred to these operations as black operations. Mr. Masferrer said that he knew several high ranking government officials in Colombia, Venezuela, and Guatemala. Masferrer contacted several of these friends in South America and asked them to aid the Central Intelligence Agency in raising funds for covert operations in South America and the Caribbean. Masferrer has contacted Manuel Vega, a retired Colombian army colonel and presently head of the Colombian National Police. He has also contacted one Alvaro [illegible], who is an advisor [illegible] to the Colombian National Police. Masferrer also passed Yglesias the name of Carlos [illegible], head of the Venezuela National Police. Yglesias showed a great interest in small arms of all types. Masferrer said that he personally turned over five M-26 fragmentation hand grenades, one M-16 automatic rifle, one AR-15 semi-automatic rifle, and several handguns 38 caliber type. Masferrer was led to believe that the weapons would be used in a covert CIA operation in Puerto Rico. This operation was described by Yglesias as a black operation.

3. During our conversation with Masferrer, he raised an additional point. Masferrer said that he contacted Manuel Vega in Colombia and that Vega agreed to help all that he could. Vega expressed deep concern to

1. Attached for your information and background orientation is some material pertaining to Rolando Masferrer, who appears to be identical to subject of reference.

2. Subject should not be confused with his uncle by the same name, the infamous Rolando Masferrer y Rojas (erroneously reported as father of subject). The elder Masferrer was imprisoned in 1967 for organizing an unsuccessful invasion of Haiti. Young Masferrer may be engaged in dubious activity and contact with him should be viewed with cautious circumspection. He may be on a "fishing expedition" to obtain some information on Guillermo Iglesias; or he may be seeking to cement an affiliation with the Agency via the Miami Field Office. Masferrer may not be the good guy that the attached material represents him to be. He is known to be a wheeling and dealing fast dollar artist. Should he volunteer any information in the future, please note it, and send it to Headquarters. Of specific interest would be any information he may provide on narcotic trafficing and those involved in this illicit trade.

3. DDO has no interest in young Masferrer. If we can be of further assistance, please advise.

MEMORANDUM FOR: National Security Agency

Background Use Only

1. Reference is made to information orally furnished by your office to representatives of this Agency to the effect that William Hamilton MARTIN at one time mentioned the fact that prior to his resignation from his civilian contract employment with the Department of the Army in Tokyo, Japan, and prior to his actual return to the United States in late August or early September 1955, he had been offered a job as a rug salesman by one George PARIS of Tokyo, Japan.

2. A check of the indices of this Agency reveals that William MARTIN's Tokyo acquaintance, who offered him a job as a "rug salesman", and whom MARTIN called "George PARIS" is undoubtedly identical with one George S. PERISTEROPOULOS aka PERISTEROPOULOS aka PERISTEROPOULOU aka George S. PARIS, aka George PARIS, born 2 January 1909 at Constantinople, Turkey, but of Greek nationality since birth. According to information provided abroad to representatives of this Agency by a Japanese liaison service, George PERISTEROPOULOS in about 1946 abbreviated his name to George PARIS. The liaison service added that he operated the Pickels Rug Company in Tientsin and Shanghai, China, as his own business" between 1927 and 1941, at which time the firm was closed down because of the war. Between 1942 and 1945 he was under house arrest, or "confined to his home in Shanghai, but significantly was not interned by the Japanese. From 1946 to 1950 he operated the George PARIS COMPANY in Shanghai. He claimed to have been unemployed between 1950 and 1952, at which time he emigrated to Tokyo, Japan, from Shanghai, obtaining employment in Tokyo with the firm of SUNDOVICH

[illegible] INCORPORATED, and in 1951 he became the manager of the Tokyo branch of this firm. In 1954 he established his own firm under the name of PARIS ASSOCIATED ENTERPRISES, which firm appears in the trade indices published for Japan, and is reflected in attachment. In 1955 George PERISTEROPOULOS aka PARIS was appointed to the position of Honorary Deputy Greek Consul in Yokohama, in which position he was the deputy to Antonios A. PAPPADOPOULOS aka Anthony A. PAPPADOPOULOS, the Honorary Greek Consul in Yokohama. PERISTEROPOULOS appears to have continued in this diplomatic post until sometime in mid 1959, when an official Royal Hellenic Diplomatic Mission to Japan was accredited to the current government of Japan, and the functions of the Yokohama Consular Office were taken over from the two honorary consuls.

3. Liaison reported that on 28 January 1960 George [illegible] departed from Japan [illegible] Seoul, Korea, and that he had not returned to Japan as of 30 August 1960. Through a sensitive source in Seoul, with whom representatives of this Agency are in operational contact, and who is believed to be reliable, it has been ascertained that George PARIS left Haneda Airport in Tokyo on 28 January 1960 aboard regular CAT scheduled flight to Seoul, Korea, where he was to assume the position of resident representative in Seoul, Korea, of the firm of CLAGGETT-NOLAN COMPANY, INCORPORATED, an export-import firm, with offices in the Hotel Bando, in Seoul. This firm is listed in the Foreign Directory for Seoul as having headquarters in the United States, located at 24 California street, San Francisco, California. PARIS replaced a British national named Adrian James PRIOR, as representative of the CLAGGETT-NOLAN Company in Korea.

4. On basis of an official inquiry by a representative of our Agency to the United States Embassy in Seoul, it was learned that the above firm of CLAGGETT-NOLAN Company enjoys a good reputation locally and deals in the sale of electrical and mechanical machinery and equipment. It was also learned that the capital stock of the firm is controlled by one Mortimer C. COOKE, Junior, and a Richard W. CHILD, both of whom are United States citizens. The indices of this Agency reveal that Mortimer C. COOKE, Junior, of the above mentioned firm is identical with Mortimer Claggett COOKE, Junior, co-owner with Richard William Nolan CHILD of the firm of BALCOM TRADING COMPANY INCORPORATED, which has offices in Tokyo, Japan, and is incorporated under the laws of Panama. Additional information concerning the above firms and regarding Richard William Nolan CHILD and Mortimer Claggett [illegible], Jr. will be furnished separately.

5. The activities and contacts of George PERISTEROPOULOS aka PERIS in Japan and Korea are currently being investigated by this Agency.

6. George S. PERISTEROPOULOS aka PERIS, identified above, and known to William H. MARTIN as "George PARIS", is identical with the individual whom Valentin HAHN aka Valentin Vasiliyevich KHAN aka Won-Shin HAN, admitted former (1947) Soviet agent, identified as "George PARIS, a Greek businessman in Tokyo", and as one of HAHN's close contacts and friends in Japan. When interviewed by representatives of this Agency in 1958, Valentine HAHN advised that the above "George PARIS" was the person who introduced HAHN to a Tokyo nightclub, located off the Ginza, the name of which HAHN gave only as "The Tomorrow Is Too Late Club". HAHN claimed that this was an exact and direct translation into English of the actual Japanese name, which, however, he never mentioned during the interview. Date of HAHN's visit to this "club" in company of George PERIS aka PARIS, is estimated to have been somewhere between 1954 and 1957. HAHN stated that at the "Tomorrow Is Too Late Club" he was introduced to a Japanese hostess by the name of Noriko MATSUZAKAYA alias Noriko AWAJI, with whom HAHN subsequently enjoyed dates. It is believed that Noriko MATSUZAKAYA @ AWAJI became the mistress of Valentine HAHN for an undetermined period of time following his original introduction to her at the above "Club" while in the company of George PERISTEROPOULOS aka PERIS aka PARIS. HAHN also advised, that following his original introduction to this establishment by PERIS, HAHN had taken a number of unnamed married American nationals, who were stationed in Tokyo, to the same club, where such persons had also been introduced to and had enjoyed dates with the hostesses. At this time, there is no information to indicate that either William Hamilton MARTIN or Bernon Ferguson MITCHELL were among the United States nationals HAHN referred to as having been taken to the aforementioned club by HAHN. Neither is there any information currently available to reflect that William Hamilton MARTIN was known to Valentine HAHN through their mutual acquaintanceship with George PERISTEROPOULOS.

7. As attachment herewith, we are forwarding a chronologically organized biographical outline of all information on George PARISTEROPOULOS aka PARIS, developed to date. Attachment to this communication indicates that PARIS has been or may still be a contact of Emanuel Abraham OSTROVSKY, suspect Soviet Agent, who is the Tokyo Branch Manager of the firm of SONDOVICH BROTHERS INCORPORATED, which firm has long been suspected of being a front or cover organization for Soviet intelligence operations. Attention is invited specifically to the fact that Attachment reflects that the 1954 Japan Directory of Foreign Firms lists E. OSTROVSKY as Tokyo representative of this firm, which has offices at 61 - Tamura-cho, 4-chome, Shiba, Minato-ku, Tokyo, and telephone lines: 43-1509, 43-4369, 43-4287, whereas in 1958 subject is officially listed as George PARIS, of PARIS ASSOCIATED ENTERPRISES, located at 64-3 Chome, Tamura-cho, Minato-ku, Tokyo, Telephones: 43-1509 and 43-4287, reflecting that he shared telephone numbers with SONDOVICH BROTHERS, and presumably with Emanuel A. OSTROVSKY. It is suggested that the Department of the Army, Office of the Assistant Chief of Staff, G-2, Intelligence, and the Federal Bureau of Investigation may have additional information on George PARISTEROPOULOS aka PARIS and associates.

8. No additional information, to supplement that which is reported in paragraph 6 above, identifiable with Noriko MATSUZAKAYA & AWAJI, would be located in the indices of this Agency.

9. With reference to the 'Tomorrow is Too Late Club', mentioned in paragraph 5 above, to which Valentine HAHN claims to have been taken by George PARIS, an exact and direct re-translation of the club name into Japanese from the English as given by HAHN, would read "Asu de wa Ososugiru". It is noted that the Tokyo Telephone Directory for 1957 contains a listing for an establishment of this name, as follows: ASU DE WA OSOSUGIRU, located at Chuo-ku, Ginza, 8-Chome, 3 Banchi, Tokyo-to, Telephone Nos.: 57-0945, 57-6363, 57-6928. A reliable source, who is familiar with the city of Tokyo, advised in October 1960, that as of 1959 this establishment was still operating at the listed location, and that it is a coffee-house rather than a nightclub in the western sense, although alcoholic beverages are available for consumption on the premises by the patrons. The same source also advised that the above coffee-house employs "Japanese hostesses", as is customary in such establishments in Japan, and that such females might be "dated" under the circumstances indicated by Valentine HAHN. However, it should be noted that the same source also indicated that the coffee-house known as ASU DE WA OSOSUGIRU to which he was referring, which is identical with the establishment of this name listed in the 1957 Tokyo Directory, is the type of place which is not frequented in general by American nationals stationed in or visiting Tokyo as tourists; rather it caters mainly to indigenous patrons and their guests, or to foreign residents of Tokyo who have been introduced to the place and the management by indigenous patrons. These foreigners then become regular patrons after becoming known to the management. Inasmuch as the above described ASU DE WA OSOSUGIRU coffee-house generally fits the description of the "Tomorrow is Too Late Club" mentioned by Valentine HAHN as a "nightclub" to which he was taken by George PERIS, it is suggested that they are one and the same establishments.

10. In light of the mutual acquaintanceship of William H. MARTIN and Valentine HAHN with George PERISTEROPOULOS aka PERIS, and in turn, PERIS' role vis-a-vis HAHN's introduction to the ASU DE WA OSOSUGIRU coffee-house, it is suggested that PERIS may have played a similar role in terms of introducing William MARTIN to Japanese night-life. This may have eventually led to MARTIN's contact and involvement with Japanese individuals, who introduced him to or indulged his masochistic interests.

11. Additional information on the individuals mentioned above will be forwarded as developed. It is requested that addressees forward to this Agency any information on George PERISTEROPOULOS aka PERIS, his contacts and activities, and on the other individuals mentioned herein.

Stated on arrival in Yokohama to Japanese Police that he had come to Japan "to seek peace and freedom". Employed by Tokyo Branch of Sandovich Brothers, Incorporated, through 1952. Other indices consulted reflect that Subject in 1952 operated the firm of George PERIS in Tokyo, Japan during 1952.
1953:	Subject was elevated from the position of "employee" to that of Manager of the Tokyo Branch of Sandovich Brothers in 1953. Also, Subject was reported still operating the George PERIS Company in Tokyo in 1953.

1954: Subject reportedly terminated his employment with Sondovich Brothers sometime during 1954, exact date not known, and established his own firm under the name of PARIS ASSOCIATED ENTERPRISES.

The 1954 Japan Directory of Foreign Firms lists SONDOVICH BROTHERS as a United States firm, with offices at #1 - Tamura-cho, 4-chome, Shiba, Minato-ku, Tokyo, Japan. Telephones: 43-1609, 43-4369, 43-4287, and lists E. OSTROVSKY as the Tokyo Representative.

E. OSTROVSKY, of course, is Emanuel Abraham OSTROVSKY, who is known to have been the Tokyo Branch Manager of the above firm, who resided in 1954 at 19 Kouncho-Mita, Minato-ku, Tokyo. Home telephone: 43-6773.

1955: Subject continued in his position as President of PARIS ASSOCIATED ENTERPRISES.

During 1955, exact date not specified, Subject was named to the position of Honorary Deputy Greek Consul in Yokohama, in which position he became the Deputy to Antonios E. PAPPADOPOULOS, the Honorary Royal Greek Consul in Yokohama.

It is presumed that the Consulate in 1955 was probably located at the same address given in the December 1957 Gaimusho "Consular List", which reports the following information:

"Royal Greek Honorary Consulate in Yokohama, Sutherland Building, No. 75, Yamashita-cho, Naka-ku, Tel. 8-1713.

Mr. George PERISTEROPOULOS, Honorary Deputy Consul."

A separate listing is also carried in the name of George PERISTEROPOULOS with office telephone listed as: Yokohama 8-1713, which is the same telephone number given in the December 1957 Consular List for the Royal Greek Honorary Consulate in Yokohama, above.

1959: Subject continued as president of PERIS ASSOCIATED ENTERPRISES, and is listed as George PERIS, in connection with this firm, whose offices according to the 1959 Japan Times Directory are located at 46-3 Chome, Tamura-cho, Shiba, Minato-ku, Tokyo. Telephone 59-1666.

It should be noted that this is the same address listed for subject and the PERIS ASSOCIATED ENTERPRISES in the preceding year, but there is a change in the telephone exchange.

1960: On 28 January 1960, Subject departed by air from Haneda Airport, Tokyo, enroute to Seoul, Korea. It was learned from a source believed to be reliable that subject was going to Korea as the Seoul Resident Representative of the American-owned firm of Claggett-Nolan Company, Inc., which has its home office at 25 California Street in San Francisco, California, and maintains an office in Seoul in the Bando Hotel. Subject allegedly replaced one William James PRICE, a British National, in this post. The capital stock of Claggett-Nolan Company, Inc. is controlled by Mortimer Claggett Cooke, Junior, and Richard William Nolan CHILD, both American citizens, who are also the principal controlling stockholders and officers of the BALCOM TRADING COMPANY, which has its main offices in the Fukoku Building, 2-Uchisaiwai-cho, 3-Chome, Chiyoda-ku, Tokyo, Japan, but also has branches in Seoul and Pusan, Korea. BALCOM TRADING COMPANY also controls another subsidiary firm known as Allied Distributors, Incorporated, with which firm Thomas Robert KIRK aka Boris YASHIN has been affiliated for a number of years.

Subject has been identified as having remained in Korea since 28 January 1960, presumably in the above position.

PERSONS WITH WHOM GEORGE PERISTEROPOULOS IS KNOWN TO HAVE BEEN IN CONTACT:

1. Kenneth C. MILLER, Chase Manhattan Bank, Tokyo, Japan. Listed as a personal reference by Subject in 1957.

2. Al (Alphonse) RIGOD (name of firm illegible but probably L. RONDON and Company, of Tokyo, Japan), listed as a personal reference by Subject in 1957.

i. George PARIS (Spelling as picked up originally by Office of Security in written report of Polygraph examination report, and therefore likely phonetic.) - Greek businessman in Tokyo.

3. In the course of further debriefing in connection with his Polygraph Test, HAHN claimed that George PERIS or PARIS was the individual who had introduced HAHN to a club in Tokyo located off the Ginza, the name of which club translated into English is "Tomorrow is Too Late". At this club HAHN met a Japanese hostess by the name of Noriko AWAJI, whose real name was later established to be Noriko MATSUZAKAYA, whom he subsequently dated. There is no further information currently available on this hostess. In the interim, HAHN has obtained a divorce from his wife, who had been a witting participant in his agent activities for the Soviets, and is known currently to be living in a common-law relationship with a Japanese girl who may be identical with Noriko MATSUZAKAYA. As indicated above, HAHN and his current mistress are currently in Sapporo, Hokkaido.

4. The ex-wife of Valentin HAHN, whose full name is not known to the writer, and the two HAHN sons, are currently being sponsored for resettlement by the Agency in the United States, where all three are scheduled to receive their U.S. citizenship under CIA sponsorship.

5. With reference to the "Tomorrow is Too Late" Club, HAHN stated that a number of CIA Staff Employees of the 13-3 [Tokyo Station] frequent or have frequented this establishment and have dated the Japanese hostesses employed there. Date of HAHN's introduction to the Club and to Noriko MATSUZAKAYA by George PARIS aka George PERIS was estimated by Mr. Sayle to have been somewhere between 1954 and 1957. With regard to Valentin HAHN's own inclinations toward sharing his knowledge of romance with others, Mr. Sayle advised that Security Office had established that while employed as a contract agent of the Tokyo Station HAHN had pimped for CIA Staff personnel in Tokyo.

6. As attachment herewith, the writer appends additional background data on the professional intelligence activities and contacts of Valentin HAHN and family as noted during the oral briefing by Sayle.

7. On basis of the above, it can be safely assumed that the George PARIS known to HAHN is identical with George PERISTEROPOULOS aka George PERIS, well-known Tokyo businessman and Honorary Deputy Consul of the Royal Greek Consulate in Yokohama, Japan, as reported in SCTOKY-63 and SCTOKY-64. It is noteworthy that PERIS' contacts throughout his career, commencing with his original reported employment in Tientsin, China, through his activities and contacts in Shanghai, China, and later in Tokyo, not excluding his marriage to Aurelia CZERWINSKA, have been exclusively with individuals of Russian or Eastern European background, many of them of Russian Jewish background, who are either highly suspect or have been identified as long-time agents of Soviet Intelligence. PERIS' reported route of arrival in Tokyo via Harbin, Tientsin and Shanghai, as well as his employment by Sondovich Brothers and contacts with individuals who tie in with the Boris SOLOMONIK complex and Borsol Fur Trading Corporation, smacks very strongly of the old Comintern Apparat of the 20's and 30's. Also it parallels the travel patterns of a number of individuals involved in the SOBLE case, principally the SOBLES themselves who were exfiltrated from the Soviet Union via Tokyo, Japan, to the U.S.A. and who, most notably of all, also were under cover of operating a Bristle Business as is Sondovich Brothers.

8. According to earlier reporting in the ZRGRACE investigation, George PERIS is alleged to have been a contact of William Hamilton MARTIN in Tokyo, and to have offered MARTIN some type of job or business partnership deal in connection with the rug business.

9. Mr. Carrico informally indicated that he personally suspects that MARTIN's introduction to the fine art of masochistic torture by an unidentified Japanese female, as reported by Mrs. Ardelle GASDA to FBI agents, may have been effected at or through his patronage of the "Tomorrow is Too Late" Club to which he may well have been taken or introduced by his friend PERIS. This possibility, however, is subject to further investigation.

10. As initial follow-up to SCTOKY-63 and SCTOKY-64, outgoing cable of 7 Sept. 60 requesting further check-out of the Club, etc. was prepared.

A second cable to be sent by Privacy Link to Seoul, Korea, has also been drafted, and requests check of PERIS' arrival, activities and contacts, departure from Korea subsequent to 28 January 1960. This cable has been presented separately for your approval and may likely be subject to revision, wherefore no copy is attached. It is further suggested that Office of Security be authorized to pass to NSA Security Officials working on this case the information on PERIS relayed in above SCTOKY cables, such information to be properly sterilized of course, and that NSA in turn be requested to check and obtain from U.S. Navy Personnel Records full copies in duplicate of the original reports on the specific duty stations or assignments, including dates of service at each, to which MARTIN and MITCHELL were detailed, also detailed leave records, travel records, and other pertinent background data contained in such files, to cover the entire period of their respective service with the U.S. Navy. It is also suggested that NSA officials be requested to obtain similar detailed original reports in duplicate from the Department of the Army to cover the period of MARTIN's civilian employment in Japan, with special emphasis on any reports of MARTIN's extra-curricular activities, contacts, club memberships, identified personal contacts with persons not employed in his own office, leave travel, etc., which may be reflected in official records. One copy of all such reports are requested for this Agency, to permit further checking of known or newly identified contacts he may have had in Japan.

COUNTRY Costa Rica/Haiti

DOI 9 February-4 March 1968

SUBJECT Indications by Fernando Melo, Cuban Exile in Costa Rica, that Negotiations Between Ludwig Starke, Costa Rican Right-Wing Extremist, and Rolando Masferrer, Cuban Exile Involved in Plotting Against Haitian Government, Were Not Progressing Well

ACQ Costa Rica, San Jose (4 March 1968)

FIELD NO. HRS-4108

SOURCE An official Costa Rican service.

1. (Field Comment: The following report should be read in conjunction with TDCS-314/01096-68, HRS-4065 and CS-311/02024-68, HRS-4099, which reported that Fernando Melo Fontanills, a Cuban exile in Costa Rica, was serving as an intermediary in negotiations between Ludwig Starke Jimenez, a Costa Rican right-wing extremist, and Rolando Masferrer, a Cuban exile in the United States who was involved in plotting against the government of President Francois Duvalier of Haiti. The negotiations dealt with a plan whereby Starke would provide a staging area for an invasion of Haiti by Haitian and Cuban exiles under Masferrer's leadership. In return Masferrer, if successful, would subsequently support a move by Starke against the Costa Rican Government. Melo was reported to be planning a trip to New York on 21 February 1968 to talk with Masferrer and the latter's representative in the negotiations, Father Diego Madrigal Alvarez.)

2. When Melo returned to San Jose on 2 March after visiting New York City and Miami, Florida, he was detained and searched by security officials at the airport. Among Melo's possessions the security officials found a letter, signed by Melo, addressed to Father Diego Madrigal, New York. The letter was dated 9 February 1968. It was typewritten on letterhead stationery of Rogelio E. Pinto Impresos. (Costa Rican Service Comment: Melo sells printing equipment and thus may have a business connection with the Pinto firm.)

3. Melo's letter acknowledged receipt of a cable from Madrigal; it then went on to state that "Rogelio obtained the visa" and now "the Haitian can come when he wishes." (Field Comment: Rogelio may be Rogelio Pinto. CS-311/02024-68 quoted Melo as saying that Starke had obtained a visa for Jacques Moringlane, a Haitian who would be the first of the Masferrer group to arrive in Costa Rica.) Melo then wrote that because nothing had been heard from Madrigal since the latter's visit to Costa Rica "the friends here" had begun to believe that "everything has been a pipe dream of mine; that we neither are going to do anything nor have anything." Melo complained that Madrigal's silence appeared to have "lessened the enthusiasm of this man of action and of rapid resolutions, who does not like to be made to waste his time." Melo warned Madrigal that if the Masferrer group had not reached a decision to move ahead with the plan, it would be better for the Haitian not to come to Costa Rica. Melo also warned that if there were no Cubans participating in Masferrer's project, he, Melo, would not support it, since he was interested only in the Cubans' problems and not those of the Haitians. Melo informed Madrigal that he expected to arrive in New York on 18 February; he suggested that they discuss the subject in detail at that time.

4. On 4 March Melo again left San Jose for Miami. He told the Costa Rican security officials that he would be away from Costa Rica for a month.

ACQ Costa Rica, San Jose (15-23 February 1968)

FIELD NO. HRS-4099

SOURCE A high-level member of the National Liberation Party (PLN) who has access to and the confidence of top leaders of his party. His strong identification with the PLN and the knowledge that his reporting will reach U.S. official circles probably cause him to present his reporting to the best advantage of the PLN. He has submitted reliable information during the past year, but he has been known to withhold pertinent information. He received the information from Daniel Oduber.

1. (Field Comment: TDCS-314/01096-68 reported that Ludwig Starke Jimenez, a right-wing extremist who is the leader of the security forces of the Movimiento Costa Rica Libre (MCRL), anti-Communist businessmen's group, had informed Daniel Oduber Quiros, of the National Liberation Party (PLN), that he was making plans and seeking support for a possible move against the Costa Rican Government in the event that it should appear to be in danger of passing into the hands of leftists. To that end Starke was negotiating with sympathetic groups outside of Costa Rica. He was in indirect contact with Rolando Masferrer, a Cuban exile involved in plotting against the Governments of Haiti and Cuba, through Fernando Melo Fontanilla, a Cuban exile in Costa Rica who was in touch with a priest associated with Masferrer.)

2. In mid-February Oduber said that he had contacted Melo, whom he had known for some time, in an effort to learn more about the negotiations between Starke and Masferrer, in which Melo had been acting as an intermediary. Melo said that the objective of the negotiations was to work out a plan whereby Haitian and Cuban exiles, with Starke's

3. Melo later informed Oduber that he was planning to go to New York City on 21 February, ostensibly to visit members of his family. However, the true purpose of his visit is to talk with Masferrer and Father Diego Manuel Abilio Madrigal Alvarez, the priest who has represented Masferrer in the negotiations, through Melo, with Starke. Melo has been commissioned by Starke to ascertain the quantity and source of arms that the Masferrer group will make available to Starke if the group succeeds in overthrowing Duvalier. Melo also is to find out what other assistance the Masferrer group will provide to Starke, how many Haitian and Cuban exiles Masferrer will send to Costa Rica, and when they will arrive.

4. Melo said that a Costa Rican visa already has been obtained for Jacques Moringlane, a Haitian, who will be the first of the group of Haitian and Cuban exiles to come to Costa Rica to set up their staging area. Moringlane's visa was obtained by Starke through Rodrigo Arauz Bonilla, who until recently was the chief clerk (oficial mayor) of the Ministry of Public Security.

5. (Field Comment: Melo has the reputation locally of being an inveterate intriguer and a braggart. Therefore, his veracity is open to question. It is possible that the information he has given to Oduber is to some extent exaggerated or distorted. It is also possible that Starke will find Melo to be a less than trustworthy intermediary.)

6. Field Dissem: State Army CINCSO. (Also sent Managua and Port-au-Prince).

7. (Headquarters Comment: An official Costa Rican Service reported on 23 February 1968 that Fernando Melo Fontanils, left San Jose for Miami and New York on 21 February 1968 via LACSA flight 620.)

[redacted] TYPIC MASFERRER TRIAL

17 Nov 67 IN 95853

1. TRIAL TURNED OUT TO BE NO PROBLEM FOR AGENCY OR STATION. DEFENSE PLAN TO TURN IT INTO ANTI-CIA CIRCUS WAS TOTALLY FRUSTRATED BY JUDGE CABOT'S FIRM RULING AND BUSINESS-LIKE APPROACH OF U.S. ATTORNEY MEADOWS. AMSVIRL-1 WAS NEVER CALLED AS WITNESS, NOR WERE ANY OF OTHER FORMER AGENCY ASSOCIATES OR EMPLOYEES WHOM DEFENSE HAD ASKED TO HAVE SUBPOENAED. ONE PROSECUTION WITNESS ABOUT WHOM WE HAD BEEN WORRIED, DAVID CABEZA, FORMER AGENT AND RECENTLY PERSISTENT HARASSER OF CIA AND JMWAVE, HANDLED HIMSELF EXTREMELY WELL. COURT RULINGS PREVENTED DEFENSE FROM LURING HIM INTO OPERATIONAL REVELATIONS DURING CROSS-EXAMINATION.

2. SIGNIFICANT LEGAL PRECEDENTS APPEAR TO HAVE BEEN ESTABLISHED BY MANNER IN WHICH THIS TRIAL WAS CONDUCTED WHICH CAN BE HELPFUL IN FUTURE LITIGATION INVOLVING AGENCY. E.G., COURT ISSUED ORDER ON FIRST DAY OF TRIAL WHICH PRECLUDED TAKING OF PHOTOGRAPHS IN COURTROOM AND RESTRICTED PUBLICATION OF ANY TESTIMONY OR ARGUMENTS MADE OUT OF PRESENCE OF JURY.

Rolando Masferrer 17 Nov 67

THE LATTER WAS MOST SIGNIFICANT RESTRICTION AS IT RELATED DIRECTLY TO QUESTIONS INVOLVING CIA. U.S. ATTORNEY PUT FORTH MOTION, WHICH COURT GRANTED, WHICH REQUIRED THAT QUESTIONS TO WITNESSES ON CROSS-EXAMINATION WHICH MIGHT LEAD TO MENTION OF CIA BE ASKED AFTER JURY HAD LEFT COURTROOM.

3. LOCAL PRESS COVERAGE WAS LIGHT AND FACTUAL. PRESS SHOWED NO DESIRE TO EXPAND UPON OR INVESTIGATE ALLEGATIONS OF CIA CONNECTION. AS FAR AS WE HAVE BEEN ABLE TO DETERMINE, THERE WAS NO NATIONAL PRESS COVERAGE OF TRIAL. INTEREST IN TRIAL IN LOCAL CUBAN AND HAITIAN COMMUNITIES MINIMAL.

4. TRIAL REPRESENTS SETBACK FOR ROBERT K. BROWN. ONE OF HIS LOCAL HENCHMEN, MARTIN CASEY, WAS CONVICTED. ANOTHER OF HIS LOCAL HENCHMEN, RALPH EDENS, WAS PRESENT AS OBSERVER DURING ENTIRE TRIAL AND WAS OVERHEARD BY FERENCE MAKING ANTI-CIA REMARKS AND ALLEGATIONS IN CONSULTATION WITH DEFENDANT MARTIN CASEY AND DEFENSE COUNSEL NEGRETTI. NOTHING CAME OUT IN TRIAL THAT BROWN COULD FIND OF MUCH USE IN BOOK HE IS REPORTEDLY WRITING.

5. LIKEWISE ABSOLUTELY NOTHING DEVELOPED IN TRIAL THAT COULD PROVIDE ANY GRIST FOR JIM GARRISON'S ANTI-CIA MILL

6. CASTRO GOT NOTHING OUT OF TRIAL EITHER. ITS VERDICT UNDERMINES HIS CONTENTION THAT U.S. GOVERNMENT IS CONTINUALLY AIDING AND ABETTING EXILES IN SUBVERSIVE EFFORT AGAINST CUBA.

7. ONLY IRONY ABOUT THIS TRIAL IS FACT THAT ITS FAVORABLE OUTCOME TENDS TO UNDERMINE IN RETROSPECT ORIGINAL AGENCY ARGUMENTS AGAINST HOLDING IT IN FIRST PLACE. WE BELIEVE THAT OUR PREVENTIVE EFFORTS NEVERTHELESS SERVED VERY USEFUL PURPOSE--HAD DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE NOT BEEN IMPRESSED WITH POTENTIAL SENSITIVITY OF THIS CASE FOR CIA, THEY WOULD PROBABLY NOT HAVE TAKEN CARE THEY DID IN PREPARING AND CONDUCTING IT. OUR OWN EXTENSIVE PREPARATION, OUR COOPERATIVE POSTURE WITH COURT AND CAREFUL BRIEFINGS OF THE U.S. ATTORNEY BY FERENCE ON ALL ASPECTS CONCERNING CIA ALL CONTRIBUTED GREATLY TO WHOLESOME CLIMATE IN WHICH TRIAL WAS CONDUCTED AND HELPED DEMORALIZE THE DEFENSE WHICH, IN ALL, DISPLAYED VERY LITTLE SKILL AND NOT MUCH OF THE FIENDISHNESS WE HAD EXPECTED.

8. STATION ESPECIALLY WISHES TO COMMEND EDWARD K. FERENCE[2]

1. FOR FIRST TIME IN MORE THAN A WEEK TRIAL HAS MADE FRONT PAGE OF 17 NOV MIAMI HERALD WITH STORY HEADLINED "SIX CONVICTED OF CONSPIRACY TO INVADE HAITI". LONG STORY WITH EXTENSIVE BACKGROUND ON THE CASE CONTINUES ON PAGE-23A UNDER HEADLINE: "CIA ROLE IN PLOTTING DISCOUNTED".

2. EXCERPTS FOLLOW: "MAXIMUM SENTENCE EACH COULD RECEIVE IS A $35,000 FINE AND SEVEN YEARS IN PRISON. SENTENCING WAS DEFERRED PENDING BACKGROUND INVESTIGATIONS. FATHER GEORGES... HAD NO COMMENT. HOWEVER, MASFERRER LABELED IT A 'POLITICAL TRIAL'. HE SAID IT "REFLECTED THE CURRENT FOREIGN POLICY OF THE U.S." "DOCUMENTS INTRODUCED AT THE TRIAL INDICATED THAT THE HAITIAN INVASION WOULD GET SOME MILITARY BACKING FROM THE DOMINICAN REPUBLIC. THROUGHOUT THE SIX-DAY TRIAL, U.S. ATTORNEY WILLIAM MEADOWS AND HIS ASSISTANT, LLOYD BATES, PUT ON 30 WITNESSES. THE DEFENSE RESTED WITHOUT OPENING ARGUMENTS AND WITHOUT CALLING A SINGLE WITNESS. THE ONLY DEFENSE OFFERED

"LAWYERS FOR RALANDO MASFERRER AND FIVE OTHERS ON TRIAL FOR CONSPIRACY IN AN ATTEMPTED INVASION OF HAITI CANNOT INDISCRIMINATELY RAISE THE GHOST OF THE CIA IN CROSS-EXAMINATION, FEDERAL JUDGE TED CABOT HAS RULED.

"THE JUDGE'S RULING CAME YESTERDAY ON A MOTION--OUT OF THE JURY'S PRESENCE--BY U.S. ATTORNEY WILLIAM A. MEADOWS.

"MEADOWS ASKED THE COURT TO REQUIRE THE DEFENSE, BEFORE ASKING A WITNESS ABOUT POSSIBLE CONNECTIONS WITH THE CIA, TO SHOW OUT OF THE PRESENCE OF THE JURY WHAT IT HOPES TO ELICIT FROM THE WITNESS.

"OTHERWISE, 'SAID MEADOWS, 'WE HAVE COUNSEL ASKING ABOUT CIA CONNECTIONS WHEN THERE MAY NOT BE ANY, BUT NEVERTHELESS LEAVING THE JURORS WITH THE WRONG IMPRESSION.'

MIAMI HERALD OF 8 NOVEMBER HAS STORY ON 7 NOVEMBER DEVELOPMENTS AT TRIAL ON PAGE 12-A ENTITLED "DEFENSE MANEUVER STYMIED IN HAITIAN 'INVASION' TRIAL". FOLLOWING ARE EXCERPTS MOST PERTINENT PASSAGES.

"A GOVERNMENT WITNESS IN MIAMI'S HAITIAN INVASION TRIAL WAS THE MAN WHO TIPPED THE U.S. TO THE RUSSIAN ROCKET BUILDUP IN CUBA, A DEFENSE ATTORNEY SAID TUESDAY.

"THE COMMENT BY GINO NEGRETTI WAS PART OF A DEFENSE MOVE TO TIE THE CIA INTO THE CONSPIRACY CHARGED IN AN INDICTMENT AGAINST SIX ANTI-CASTROITES IN FEDERAL COURT.

"HOWEVER, THE INFORMATION AND THE FACT THAT THE WITNESS, DAVID CABEZA COUPAU, 601 SW 11TH ST., ONCE WORKED FOR THE CIA NEVER REACHED THE JURY'S EARS.

"U.S. ATTORNEY WILLIAM MEADOWS HAD BEATEN DOWN THE DEFENSE MANEUVER BEFORE IT GOT OFF THE GROUND. JUDGE TED CABOT AGREED WITH MEADOWS THAT THE DEFENSE WOULD HAVE TO OFFER SUPPORTING TESTIMONY FOR ANY QUESTIONS INVOLVING THE CIA OUT OF

THE PRESENCE OF THE PANEL. AND ANYTHING THAT WOULD GO TO THE JURY WOULD HAVE TO GET THE APPROVAL OF THE BENCH.

"BUT THE FACT THAT CABEZA, WHO NOW RUNS AN AMUSEMENT PARK IN MIAMI, HAD SEVERED HIS CONNECTIONS WITH THE CIA IN 1964 CAUSED CABOT TO TURN THUMBS DOWN ON FURTHER QUESTIONS.

"THE GOVERNMENT HAD ARGUED THAT THERE WAS NO EVIDENCE SHOWING THAT HE WORKED FOR THE FEDERAL AGENCY DURING THE TIME THE ALLEGED HAITI INVASION WAS BEING HATCHED IN LATE 1966.

"CABOT ALSO RULED OUT ANY QUESTIONS ABOUT CONNECTIONS WITH THE CIA OF A BROTHER OF CABEZA.

"CABEZA, ONE OF 23 WITNESSES THE GOVERNMENT EXPECTS TO CALL, TESTIFIED EARLIER THAT HE HAD A ROLE IN THE INVASION PLOT.

"HE SAID HE WAS TO ACT AS A PROPAGANDIST IN THE STATES AND TELL THE PUBLIC THE AIM OF THE INVASION: A REVAMPING OF THE DUVALIER DICTATORSHIP AND MAKING HAITI A BASE FOR A CUBAN INVASION.

"BUT THE LITTLE ARMY THAT HAD BEEN RECRUITED MET ITS DEFEAT THE DAY AFTER NEW YEAR'S 1967--AT THE HANDS OF CUSTOMS

AGENTS IN KEY WEST.

"CABEZA TESTIFIED THAT EARLIER HE HAD DRIVEN A TRUCKLOAD OF AMMUNITION AND EXPLOSIVES TOWARD KEY WEST BUT FELL INTO THE HANDS OF OFFICIALS WHO DIDN'T BELIEVE HIS STORY THAT HIS PANEL TRUCK CARRIED ONLY PAINT.

"THE GOVERNMENT ALSO CALLED A MIAMI MAN, JULIO NORMILLA, OF 1450 SW 17TH ST., WHO TESTIFIED HE ACTED AS A SORT OF ADVANCE MAN FOR THE LIBERATION OF HAITI."

SUBJECT: Attacks on the U.S. Government and its departments and agencies

SOURCE: Bulletin entitled "El Feo de Holguin" of September 1967

REF: EE-7314

1. Attached herewith is a copy of the bulletin, "El Feo de Holguin," Year 1, No. 1, dated September 1967. This bulletin calls itself the "Official Organ of the Municipality of Holguin in Exile."

2. The author of this bulletin is Rolando MASFERRER Rojas, who uses in it some of the pseudonyms he formerly in his articles in the paper, El Tiempo, of New York, such as "Ignotus," "Miguel Peralta" and "Criso."

3. It is false to say that the bulletin is the official organ of the Municipality of Holguin, as MASFERRER and his group do not belong to that organization and at a meeting held on 9 July 1967, when MASFERRER and his group tried to oust the directorate of the organization, they were completely routed.

4. This bulletin follows the same line as the other bulletin put out by MASFERRER under the name Ahora, which was also called the "official organ of the Municipality of Holguin." (See EE-7314.)

5. In this bulletin MASFERRER attacks the U.S. Government and its departments and agencies. These attacks are underlined in red in the attached copy.

NUM. 1 SEPTIEMBRE DE 1967 AÑO I

Según la "hard intelligence", en los años 70, China dispondrá de los medios de acarreo (cohetes intercontinentales) que amenazarán a Estados Unidos y Rusia.

Sábese que los chinos han impreso mapas con las fronteras del imperio de Mao en los Urales.

El potencial humano y los grandes saltos en tecnología militar de China y la realidad de su gran masa cargando sobre el sureste de Asia, Japón y Filipinas son un serio desafío para el poderío norteamericano en el Pacífico. Al extremo de que tanto Norteamérica como Inglaterra, planean ya una cadena de bases en el océano Indico.

Esto explica el acuerdo defensivo ruso-americano que contempla ya, previsoramente, tan inquietante perspectiva que solo puede resolverse en una guerra de E. U. y la URSS contra China.

Y explica los motivos norteamericanos para amarrar las manos a los exiliados cubanos que quieren golpear al tirano Castro, hasta el presente bajo la protección del acuerdo Kennedy-Kruschev.

Norteamérica no puede poner en riesgo su luna de miel con la URSS y de [illegible] Sam se convierte en el más eficaz [illegible] de Castro.

Toda la charlatanería de los incapaces dirigentes anticomunistas cubanos levantando falsas esperanzas en la Organización de Estados Americanos de quienes se espera, vanamente, una actitud viril frente a las provocaciones del hediondo bandido de La Habana, revela incomprensión y cobardía de gentes oportunistas que no tienen el coraje para llamar las cosas por su nombre. BOBBY FULLER

Bobby Fuller era un americano de Holguín. Hijo de otros dos holguineros nacidos en Norteamérica: Guillermo Fuller y Jenny Jewett, colonos de Lewiston, próximo a Cacocum.

Notable atleta en sus días de estudiante en Miami, Bobby fue destacado miembro del glorioso cuerpo de Infantería de Marina de Estados Unidos.

Tras haberse jugado la vida en tareas clandestinas, en los primeros tiempos de la tiranía comunista, Bobby desembarcó en la primera expedición armada llegada a la costa Norte de Oriente, en ayuda de los alzados en la región de Guantánamo-Baracoa.

Fue capturado tras penosa odisea en las montañas. Y fusilado en Santiago de Cuba, junto a otros dos valerosos norteamericanos amigos de Cuba: Tony Barba y Dale Thompson.

Los holguineros, que ven con tristeza como muchos de sus hermanos de la patria chica de Calixto García, olvidan sus deberes con los que han quedado atrás, tienen un altar en sus corazones para Bobby Fuller, como para Barba y Thompson, que un día no muy lejano, tendrán un monumento al pie de las empinadas lomas de Oriente.

Los Renegados

Por Miguel Peralta.

Estados Unidos prefería, a todas luces, una vecina Cuba democrática al régimen de opresión [illegible] de Fidel Castro.

Pero es evidente que mucho más que la situación de miseria y terror que padecen los cubanos interesa a Norteamérica la posición de enemistad internacional y de peón de los rusos y los chinos que juega la nación cubana en el tablero de la guerra fría.

yanquis los escojan a ellos para administrar a Cuba libre los convierte en vulgares cómplices de esta política que ha condenado a la esclavitud al pueblo cubano que se creía, en su ingenuidad, amparado en su soberanía por los papeles mojados de los acuerdos de Rio, Caracas, Bogotá y por la letra muerta de la doctrina Monroe.

La OEA, como ha dicho valientemente el dirigente venezolano Carlos Andres Pérez, hace lo que mande Washington, y éste, al presente, baila al son de la balalaika.

Se trata, pues, de convenir en que nadie nos va a sacar las castañas del fuego. Y que nosotros, debemos pelear por nuestras libertades. Como lo hemos hecho siempre: solos.

En Cuba ocurrirá una guerra únicamente cuando desde el destierro, llegue una fuerza armada de decenas de miles de hombres. Y es evidente que Estados Unidos, por estas realidades de política mundial, no permitirá jamás que aquí se organice esta fuerza.

Pero los cubanos podemos conquistar, en alianza con luchadores democráticos de otros países, un santuario donde alistar ese ejército con aviones y tanques.

Castro no tiene más poderío militar que el que mantenía España en Cuba en 1695-98. Y hoy, la emigración tiene más potencial humano y económico y las posibilidades de adquirir armamentos en Europa y América son incomparablemente mayores que a fines del siglo pasado.

Este es el único camino para cumplir con nuestro deber y salvar nuestro honor y escaparnos de los hospitales y los cementerios bajo la nieve que son hoy la única amarga alternativa del destierro.

Quien no lo comprenda es un asno. Quien no toma esta senda es un cobarde, no importa qué pretextos o argucias esgrima para ocultar su infamia y desvergüenza.

HAY MAS DE MIL MILLONES DE DOLARES DE LOS CUBANOS RICOS Y ACOMODADOS, EN LOS BANCOS DEL DESTIERRO. ALGUN DIA, LOS SABROSONES, LOS QUE TIENEN PROPIEDADES EN CUBA, TENDRAN QUE HACER, QUIERAN QUE NO, SU CONTRIBUCION AL TESORO DE LA GUERRA.

CUBANOS MALOS Y BUENOS

Algunos cubanos han sufrido el decomiso de sus armas, la prisión o la expulsión de la Florida por intentar hacer llegar armas y municiones a Cuba o por hacerle la guerra al bandido Castro en Méjico o el Canada. En cambio, otros, más afortunados, se han hecho ricos o han gozado de una vida muelle en sus trajines de luchadores contra la tiranía.

Esto ha causado la división del destierro. A la vez que la corrupción y el escepticismo.

Si alguien quiere ganarse algunos dólares, o ser incluido en la nómina de la CIA o la Aduana, no tiene más que delatar, meterse impúdicamente a chivato y soplón. Hasta se le autoriza a portar un arma. Pero si alguien quiere arriesgarse a sufrir cárcel y persecuciones, a que le chequeen el teléfono; y aun a que se le difame por la prensa y la radio, pues que se atreva a desafiar la neutralidad norteamericana y trate de hacer una incursión a la costa de Cuba o adquiera, una embarcación para llevar armas de contrabando a la isla. O se meta en trajines de sabotaje contra Castro.

Nunca con más vigencia el viejo postulado bíblico: Por sus obras los conocereis ...

Esos dirigentes de hoteles y jets, son los bien pagados.

Los que han sufrido encierros, expedientes de deportación ... esos son los de fiar.

Que obras son amores y no buenas razones.

El alto nivel de vida de Estados Unidos, que absorbe a los desterrados cubanos en el disfrute de los bienes materiales de la sociedad americana, conspira contra el patriotismo y la abnegación que deben primar en el espíritu de la emigración. Quizá si hubiésemos dado en otras playas más inhospitalarias, en el Matto Grosso, en el Peten o en la Tundra canadiense, ya habría comenzado la guerra de independencia.

y la abyección de los cubanos, en ocho años que dura su martirio, no ha llevado ni a Estados Unidos ni a las naciones del hemisferio que siguen su política exterior, sin discrepar en una coma, a librarlos de su sufrimiento.

Ni siquiera en el mero cumplimiento de lo que mandan los compromisos internacionales escritos en Caracas, Bogotá y Río de Janeiro.

Estados Unidos y las mal llamadas repúblicas hermanas del Continente, no solo no mueven un dedo para ayudar, como vienen obligadas, a que el pueblo de Cuba reconquiste su soberanía y restablezca sus libertades, sino que impiden con la fuerza, todo intento de los patriotas cubanos por hacer llegar a los que desafían el paredón de las ejecuciones en la isla, su mensaje solidario en la forma de armas y municiones.

Esto, más que fariseísmo e hipocresía, es un acto canalla, que convierte en una mojiganga a la OEA y los tratados.

Si no fuese por el eficaz rol de guardaespaldas del asesino y bandido Castro a que ha sido llevada Norteamérica, quizá habría ya una guerra civil en Cuba.

Norteamérica dice que simpatiza con los cubanos libres. Pero el aparato de represión de las actividades de los patriotas en esta nación, es cien veces más amplio y costoso que el que existía cuando los comunistas en la Sierra Maestra usaban a la Florida como base de apoyo logístico para su insurrección.

Es un secreto a voces que las armas que llevaron Hubert Matos y Díaz Lanz a Cienaguilla, Oriente, desde Venezuela, que incluían cien rifles automáticos y millones de tiros, sin los cuales Castro habría sido aplastado por el general Eulogio Cantillo, fueron adquiridas por la Agencia Central de Inteligencia. Lo de la "Campaña del Bolívar" para pagar estas armas compradas en Alexandria, Va. a la "Interarmco", fue una cortina de humo.

El afán de defender la absurda ley de neutralidad no era tan vigoroso como hoy, a pesar de que Estados Unidos no tiene relaciones amistosas formales con el barbudo de La Habana.

Quien crea que Estados Unidos o la OEA van a hacer algo contra Castro es un idiota incurable o es un vendido miserable.

Quien, por mantener estos espejismos, cobra dinero, que es el caso de muchos malos cubanos, mañana tendrán que responder de su felonía.

Norteamérica y Rusia, a pesar de sus discrepancias en público, están de acuerdo en el gran plano mundial. Nada los separa. Y solo les preocupa a ambos el peligro amarillo que para los años 70 dispondrá de los cohetes intercontinentales para agredir a la URSS y a EE. UU.

Quizá Norteamérica no tenga otra alternativa en su estrategia global y en la defensa de su vida misma.

Para que se sepa que en ese idilio de Washington y Moscú, el pueblo cubano ha sido clavado en la cruz.

Y que se diga que también los malos cubanos que anteponen los intereses de Estados Unidos a los de la patria, haciéndose pagar 30 dineros por su negra traición son una piara de cerdos.

Las organizaciones que no tienen armas, ni barco ni dinero, ni sus dirigentes desafían la hipócrita ley de neutralidad, son organizaciones de mentira.

ABUSO CRIMINAL

Jesús Fanjul, responsable militar del Municipio de Holguín en el Exilio, ex-oficial del ejército de Estados Unidos, graduado en una academia militar de este país, descendiente de muy respetable familia de nuestro término, ex-preso político en Cuba y uno de los dirigentes de la abortada expedición a Haití, fue condenado a dos meses de prisión el pasado miércoles.

Un periodista provocador y un juez de esos que destilan odio discriminatorio contra los cubanos que no se venden a la CIA ni a Castro, lo mandaron por 60 días a la temible cárcel del Condado, bajo la falsa acusación de haberle pegado al periodista que lo retrataba cuando Fanjul y otros 70 cubanos anticomunistas se hallaban presos tras el fracaso del 3 de Enero en Cayo Maraton.

De nada valieron los numerosos testigos que afirmaron que Fanjul no fue quien le pegó al impertinente cínico. El juez y el reportero, que aparentemente goza de grandes influencias en la corte, donde ejerce de cronista judicial, se reían burlonamente del condenado, en un odioso abuso de poder.

En todo caso, estas riñas se penan con una pequeña multa. Quizá con cinco días de arresto.

Fanjul tiene una esposa y una pequeña hija que ahora tropiezan, amén de con la merma de sus ingresos, con la dificultad de trasladarse al trabajo y a la escuela.

Maldito juez que en su furia anticubana, recuerda los tribunales populares del castrato.

Son los mismos endiablados chupatintas que mantienen a Felipe Rivero en las propias ergástulas sin fianza ni juicio, en violación flagrante de sus derechos civiles y humanos, desde hace más de tres meses.

Loma de La Cruz

?PODEMOS GANAR SOLOS LA GUERRA?

Yo creo que sí, pero ese no es el tema del artículo. Lo que sí creo es que los cubanos no estamos haciendo todo lo necesario para ganar. En efecto, podemos formar un ejército invasor de 25,000 cubanos bien adiestrados y apertrechados, adquiriendo armas, aviones y barcos para desembarcar por distintos puntos extratégicos, al mismo tiempo que la resistencia interna inicie en toda la isla una campaña de sabotaje que propicie el triunfo.

Eso lo podemos hacer sin la ayuda de nadie, nos bastan nuestros hombres y nuestro dinero.

Si para entonces, Rusia ha retirado sus tropas de la isla, el triunfo será clamoroso y rápido, pero de lo contrario, a la América Libre y a los Estados Unidos, no le quedará otra alternativa que apoyar nuestra guerra justa y necesaria.

La iniciativa asumida por los propios cubanos, descarta la posibilidad de una guerra internacional, que es el único valladar que hasta ahora, se ha opuesto a las determinaciones de la OEA y de Washington.

Se necesita mucho sacrificio por parte de los cubanos aptos para la guerra y de los adinerados, porque ellos son los que tienen que dar vida y hacienda por la independencia de la patria y la felicidad de las generaciones futuras.

Ambos sacrificios están acreditados por nuestros antepasados: Carlos Manuel de Céspedes, Antonio Maceo, Francisco V. Aguilera, Ignacio Agramonte, y un pueblo entero, Bayamo, y otro pueblo, Guáimaro, ardieron para iluminar el camino de la libertad, a la par que infinidad de cubanos ofrendaron vidas y fortunas en aras de la independencia.

Estamos incurriendo en las mismas privaciones, en identicos sacrificios, en iguales inmolaciones y ejemplos nobles, porque estamos defendiendo la misma causa sagrada.

Hay que hacer conciencia de guerra, conciencia de sacrificio. No importa quien ha de dirigir la guerra, que a la patria se sirve desde cualquier lugar.

El triunfo no será de los jefes, sino de todos los que participemos en la lucha; todos tenemos que trabajar: la hora es de sacrificios y renunciamientos. A lo único que no podemos renunciar es a pelear por Cuba y morir por ella.

La patria es ara y no pedestal; es agonía y deber, dijo el Apóstol, y murió en Dos Ríos.

Por CRISO.

Hay 10 mil holguineros en Estados Unidos. La mayor parte exiliados. Aunque abundan los emigrados que no muestran interés alguno en vengar agravios ni reconquistar su perdida dignidad de hombres.

10 mil hombres y mujeres en pie, poniendo cada día su grano de arena en el edificio de la libertad, podrían hacer mucho. Pero los comecheques que hasta aquí dirigían la organización del término en el destierro, ni se reunían, ni juntaban armas ni dinero, ni hacían una publicación, ni movilizaban a nadie en actos patrióticos. Eso sí, algunos vivos recibían su cheque de la CIA por debajo de la mesa. Y a yantar. Su consigna: "tu no comedes. Yo sí comedes..."

En la asamblea en que obtuvieron 16 votos y fueron echados de la organización del municipio por sometidos a la política de apaciguamiento y convivencia de E. U. con Castro, los "chivos" llevaron como guapitos a algunos soplones de la CIA con sus pistolitas al cinto.

Entre ellos, un chiquito hijo de españoles de apellido Ugartemendía que hace poco andaba por los portales de Holguín vestido de miliciano metiéndole miedo a las gentes y mostrando orondo, su carnet del G-2.

¡Jesús, que miedo..!

Rumores circulantes al cierre de esta edición del boletín de la gente de La Chomba afirman que le "cortaron el tubo del potaje" al ínclito picúo Luis Conte Aguero, el hombre que aplaudió el asesinato de su hermano Nicolás en Santiago de Cuba a manos de la "maffia" castrista. La sabrosona "mulata de fuego" llegó a recibir la friolera de 15 mil dólares al mes de manos de la próvida CIA. Lo cual quiere decir que si no ha montado negocios privados como su parigual Manolito Artime, ahora empezará el exilio para quien dijo: "Fidel, me miro en tus ojos..."

No se deje engañar: no hay ni mil cubanos que que se reunan cada semana con su grupo, que se multen con unos pesos al mes, o que sueñen con el fusil que nos quitará de la frente la ceniza del deshonor.

CUBA POR DENTRO

Por IGNOTUS

Un ex oficial del ejército castrista recién llegado a Miami desde Cuba, dijo que los alistados de la famosa división 50 del ejército comunista con acantonamiento en Mangos de Baraguá, son todos del servicio militar obligatorio y de menos de 20 años y que no muestran entusiasmo por "la tía Tata" como llaman a Fidel Castro.

Agregó que si no hay un desembarco desde afuera, cualquier mañana las amas de casa, desesperadas por la crisis de los alimentos, salen por cientos de miles a la calle y derriban al régimen.

Finalizó diciendo que en San Luis, sólo hay 13 comunistas. Y que esto es poco más o menos la situación en Cuba entera.

El pseudo escritor Lee Lockwood que ha puesto en circulación un lujoso libro que se vende a 10 dólares en Estados Unidos, con decenas de fotografías de la "tía Tata" y una amplia descripción de su apetito de Fantagruel (almuerzo en Uvero: Lechón asado, arroz, frijoles, yuca y fufú de plátano, pollo frito, cerveza, vino, coñac, filete mignon y tabacos), dice que abunda un excelente pasto para el ganado llamado "marabú", al que el INRA da mucha atención.

Ana Laura Infante, que era quizá la señora más aristocrática y discriminatoria de Holguín, casada con un tipo parasitario, gallego, llamado Fernando Zorrilla, es de las de "patria o muerte", y en sus alardes democráticos barre las calles de la ciudad. Su hijo "Pincho" bebedor, parrandero y alborotador, que llegó a robar a sus parientes, es todo un jefe del INRA en Holguín....

Y un candidato seguro a la soga y el sebo en la guásima cuando caiga la satrapía rusa del Caribe.

Se ven muy pocos rusos en Holguín y en toda la provincia de Oriente. Corre el rumor de que se van los que quedan. Una muchacha cubana que trabajaba como doméstica de una rusa, dice que esta le regaló alguna ropa y le dijo que se marchaba a su país.

Armando Acosta Cordero, antiguo concejal comunista de Sancti Spiritus, que desertó de la vieja guardia, siendo premiado con el bajalato de la provincia oriental, estaba entregado a la "dolce vita", practicaba el contrabando y la bolsa negra, disponía de muchos autos, fincas y casas. Bebía como un demonio. Días pasados hizo una boda fastuosa a su hija en Santiago de Cuba. Ahora está en desgracia. Le han quitado el mando.

Se han destruido las vallas de gallos en las ciudades del interior. Pero se mantienen las de los pobladitos monte adentro. Se apuesta fuertemente en las lidias. Son frecuentes las "paradas" de cinco mil pesos. El dinero es producto de la enorme corrupción de las autoridades, la bolsa negra y el juego de terminales protegidos por milicianos y comités de vigilancia. Es normal que los genízaros del régimen "decomisen" pero no encausen a los infelices que matan un cerdo o venden, a hurtadillas, un racimo de plátanos o unas frutas.

Es de viejo sabido que la corrupción de la administración es siempre el preludio del derrumbe.

Con motivo de la conferencia de OLAS se ordenó la reparación y pintura de fachadas de los edificios de las avenidas y carreteras. Se acopió carne y cerveza en todos los pueblos y se llevó a los hoteles donde se alojaría la "maffia" comunista latinoamericana. En Cuba todo es simulación y mentira. Mucho periódico y revista mal escrito, y peor impreso en pésimo papel. Nadie cree ya en Fidel Castro. Ni lo respetan. En especial, son virulentos los comentarios de las mujeres, incluyendo miembros del partido, en los establecimientos vacíos de mercancías.

DEMOCRACIA Y COMUNISMO

EL ECO, se escribe con letra de pueblo, con acento de libertad y por eso emplea el mensaje directo a los obreros y campesinos, a los estudiantes, militares, profesionales, propietarios y a todas las clases que integran la sociedad democrática.

Cuba, Hungría, Rumania ..... no tienen actualmente estudiantes ni centros de cultura; en esos pueblos no pueden haber actividades docentes porque éstas exigen necesariamente un clima de libertad y derecho que es imposible en los estados comunistas.

El estudiante, el profesional y el intelectual, como el artista, el político, el atleta, el trabajador y el campesino, el militar y el industrial, necesitan de la libertad como del aire mismo. El hombre fue hecho para la libertad y sin ella prefiere la muerte.

En los pueblos esclavizados por el comunismo no pueden haber institutos militares, porque los ejércitos constitucionales son instrumentos que garantizan el imperio de las leyes y los derechos de la ciudadanía, y en los países comunistas no se respetan esos principios, sino que se violan constantemente para mantener al individuo bajo un estado de terror permanente.

Allí no pueden haber profesionales ni intelectuales, ni políticos, porquela libertad de pensamiento está restringida y solo se pueden repetir las consignas.

En esos países comunistas no hay prensa libre, todo está bajo el control del estado, lo mismo que las organizaciones obreras, cívicas, etc.

Los propietarios y los industriales han sido despojados de sus bienes y negocios, porque la propiedad privada y la iniciativa particular están terminantemente prohibidas.

El hombre no puede tener ni ideas ni bienes propios.

La madre no puede educar sus hijos, porque estos son servidores del Estado y desde pequeños el Partido Comunista los somete a adoctrinamiento.

Se suprimen y se racionan los alimentos, porque un pueblo sano y fuerte es rebelde.

Cumplimos nuestro deber de incorporarnos al movimiento general para salvar a la América; queremos coadyuvar en los esfuerzos que se realizan en ese sentido y para ello no escatimaremos ningún sacrificio.

Somos demócratas y, por tanto, somos esencialmente anticomunistas.

Somos cristianos y, por tanto, somos esencialmente anticomunistas.

Somos libres y, por tanto, somos esencialmente anticomunistas.

La Libertad o la prisión; la Patria o la esclavitud; Dios o el materialismo.

Junto a la Libertad, junto a la Patria y junto a Dios, está la Democracia; al lado de la opresión, el crimen, la miseria y el materialismo, está el comunismo.

No nos ha soprendido la actitud postrera del Gobierno de Venezuela, al retirar prácticamente, la denuncia que "valientemente" había presentado ante la OEA, contra el gobierno comunista cubano por su agresiva política de intervención y subversión.

El camarada Leoni ha venido jugando con dos barajas; tan pronto manda a prender a los comunistas como los pone en libertad; los persigue ahora y los ampara luego. Su gobierno ha sido una obra perfecta de malabarismo político.

Estamos seguros, absolutamente seguros, que si el Ejército venezolano no se hubiera mantenido firme en su disciplina militar y obediencia a la Constitución, ya los comunistas se hubieran apoderado del gobierno venezolano y la patria de Bolívar estaría viviendo el mismo calvario que sufre la patria de Martí.

No dudamos que al presidente de Caracas le retoza el experimento marxista y por eso, hemos seguido atentamente sus pasos. Cuando las fuerzas de la democracia derrocaron al Presidente Goulart del Brasil, Leoni no reconoció al nuevo gobierno, lo mismo sucedió en el caso de Santo Domingo, apelando a una precaria y absurda doctrina de su antecesor y mentor, don Rómulo Betancourt.

¿Qué quería el camarada, qué se quedaran en sus puestos Bosch y Goulart? ¿Y si los patriotas cubanos derrocan al tirano Castro y se constituye en la isla un gobierno provisional, será reconocido por Leoni?

Hay hombres por cuyas venas no corre sangre, lo que corre es petróleo . . .

¿OPTIMISMO O PESIMISMO?

En el ambiente del exilio cubano, flota la interrogante de si conviene ser optimista o si perjudica que los voceros de la opinión pública del destierro, se excedan en sus pronunciamientos, torciendo quizá la dirección de los acontecimientos, al precipitar a los patriotas en una dirección que, por su naturaleza requiere más tiempo y mayores reflexiones.

Unos estiman que es fatal para la causa cubana, que los periodistas y los líderes de la acción anticomunista se muestren demasiado optimistas porque así desorientan a los patriotas del exilio y a los de la resistencia interior, desalentándolos para proseguir la lucha al hacerles creer que no son ya necesarios sus heroicos esfuerzos, porque de todos modos, con el concurso de los norteamericanos, los acuerdos de la OEA, la colaboración de los gobiernos latinoamericanos y la concurrencia de factores imponderables, Cuba ha de ser libre en una fecha próxima.

Otros creen que lo que resulta altamente perjudicial para la causa de la independencia cubana es el pesimismo que derrochan algunos comentaristas y dirigentes, porque al formarse ese derrotismo en la masa cubana, dentro y fuera de la isla, todos nos resignaremos a continuar viviendo en el extranjero o iremos pensando en adaptarnos a las exigencias del régimen castrista.

Nosotros reconocemos que ambas tesis estén avaladas por buenas razones y por lo tanto se justifica que cada una tenga numerosos prosélitos que defienden calurosamente sus postulados.

Pero, creo que no debemos caer necesariamente en uno de los dos bandos extremos. Debemos ser optimistas sin llegar a la fantasía; un optimismo sensato que lejos de confundir a la opinión pública y desalentar a los patriotas, sea capaz de formar una opinión más firme y canalizar los esfuerzos de todos en la lucha a muerte contra el comunismo opresor.

Nuestro optimismo debe ser medido, ha de dar la sensación precisa de que sí lo podemos hacer, pero con el esfuerzo y el sacrificio de todos. Nuestro optimismo ha de ser fe en el triunfo, resolución heroica de luchar hasta vencer.

El optimismo ha de ser sincero, que muestre grandeza; debe ser valiente y generoso para que se contagie a los que aun están equivocados o indecisos.

El pesimismo debe ser suprimido de raíz; nadie debe sentirse pesimista, no podemos perder la batalla antes de que comience. Morir anticipadamente, por nuestra irresoluta voluntad, equivale al suicidio y nadie tiene derecho a desoir el llamado urgente de la Patria; nadie puede inhibirse.

El pesimismo debe ser suprimido netamente por el realismo; pesar nuestras fuerzas no es encontrarnos débiles sino ponemos más fuertes para vencer.

El pesimismo debe ceder su lugar a la estrategia guerrerista, para atacar cuando seamos suficientemente poderosos para derrotar al enemigo. No es cobarde aplazar el combate.

Tenemos que hacernos fuertes y tener un plan; debemos estar conscientes de nuestra fuerza, de nuestra moral y de nuestro valor; y estar seguros del triunfo definitivo.

Y, sobre todo, despojarnos de ambiciones personales, de vanidades y complejos. El momento es de guerra y sacrificios, para todos hay un lugar de peligro y gloria; que cada cual ocupe su puesto.

LOS CHOMBEROS EN EL EXODO

Llama grandemente la atención la eterna juventud del Dr. Eduardo (Guarro) Ochoa en sus 56 años que parecen 40. Atribuye el ex-alcalde este milagro a su equilibrio espiritual logrado en estudios y meditaciones en las disciplinas de la orden mística de los "Rosacruces".

Dice "Guarro": "A fines de año se cumple el ciclo espiritual del azote comunista en Cuba. Eso marca el final de Fidel Castro".

Dónde están y qué se han hecho los ex-legisladores Andrés (Pupito) Pupo y Rodrigo Suárez Bester. No han concurrido a una sola reunión dominical del Municipio. Causa extrañeza esa desición después de su airada condenación de la mediatización de la CIA en la organización.

* * *

La organización acaba de perder un valioso cuadro de trabajo en el Ingeniero Andrés Poseiro, quien se mudó para Inmokalee, donde se desempeña como profesor de Ciencias en un High School.

* * *

Honró la última reunión de los holguineros, la presencia del batallador anticomunista y patriota de pinta firme, Evelio Borrego, actualmente Capitán del Ejército de los Estados Unidos. Durante un año, Borrego combatió en Vietnam, como oficial de un batallón de la 9a. división de infantería. Viene destinado de nuevo a Fort Benning, Georgia.

Hace un tiempo le preguntó a un jefe en Washington como podría ir a pelear en Cuba si se precipitaban los acontecimientos allí. Y el general le contesto: Donde quiera que se halle, estaré a menos de 20 horas de su patria".

EL GENERAL OLIVA

Cada cierto tiempo, el señor capitán del Ejército de Estados Unidos, Erneido Oliva, se pone su traje de paisano y hace media docena de declaraciones en la primera página de la prensa anunciando que "prepara un ejército secreto para cuando llegue el momento de derrocar a Castro".

Se da unos cuantos viajes por el mundo y regresa a sus funciones militares. Estamos por tercera vez en presencia del fenómeno, después que Oliva salió de las prisiones de Castro, tras el fiasco de Bahía de Cochinos.

Al presente, quedan unos 70 oficiales cubanos en las fuerzas armadas de Norteamérica. La mayor parte de ellos combatiendo en el Sureste de Asia. Sólo Oliva se ha perdido la magnífica experiencia que enriquecería su aval de soldado profesional.

Ahora Oliva anda trajinando de la mano del travieso Enriquito Huertas, el hombre del Banco José Martí, que ya rompió los records de viajes de Manolo Artime, Juanita Castro y Luis Conte Agüero.

En su afán de ser aceptado por los influyentes izquierdistas de Washington, Oliva, ex-oficial del ejército constitucional que cuando cayó Batista cursaba en una escuela militar yanqui en Panamá, apareció en la primera plana del "Herald" de Miami como ex-ayudante de Fidel Castro en la Sierra Maestra. Y en unas declaraciones mal aconsejadas, Oliva hizo una desafortunada incursión en la política atacando a sus antiguos jefes militares en Cuba.

Todo lo cual ha ayudado poco al ex-segundo en el mando de la Brigada 2506, quien no debía gastar pólvora en salvas ni dejarse "chotear" por los vivos.

MEMORANDUM FOR: Chief, WH Division

ATTENTION: Mr. Walter Cini

SUBJECT: Masferrer Trial, Miami, Florida

1. I called Mr. Philip Morris, attorney in the Department of Justice responsible for the Masferrer case, and ascertained from him that the conspiracy trial is scheduled in the United States District Court in Miami, Florida, for 6 November 1967. Of the original defendants indicted, the only one dropped was Mitchell Livingston Wer Bell of Powder Springs, Georgia. A recap of the current defendants is as follows:

ROLANDO MASFERRER ROJAS, also known as
ROLANDO MASFERRER, also known as "PANCHO"
JEAN BAPTISTE GEORGES
ANTONIO LEON ROJAS
RENE JUARES LEON
JULIO ATON CONSTANZO PALAU
MARTIN FRANCIS XAVIER CASEY

2. Mr. Morris further said that Orlando Bosch was scheduled for trial in Valdosta, Georgia, on Monday, 18 September 1967; however, he was in an automobile accident in the Miami area sometime during the week of 4 September, and therefore there would be a hearing in Valdosta, Georgia, requesting a continuance of this trial until sometime in October. Bosch is now scheduled to go on trial in Miami, Florida, on 2 January 1968.

3. It was deemed appropriate to ask the Department of Justice the status of these trials in view of Martin Casey's name appearing in cable traffic relative to "the Brown interview."

23. Approximately in July 1964 I-1 had a second interview with "Nordicc in the presence of "Jim" and "Enrique."

24. At the special request of the "friends," in September and October 1964 we sent forward reports on the officers of the Revolutionary Armed Forces in the six provinces, including any background data and information we had on them. Afterwards, the work of making Summaries of Information was intensified.

25. During August-September-October 1964 picket lines were formed in front of the airline companies that had flights to Mexico, and in front of airports, Mexican tourist agencies, and Mexican Consulates as a protest against the Mexican Government and its policy with relation to Cuba This was done in Puerto Rico, Venezuela, Miami, New York and other place in the United States. This was done daily in Miami and New York. On different occasions pickets were placed in front of theaters which were showing Mexican films. In October pickets were placed in Miami and Miam Beach and propaganda was handed out at the time of the holding of the ASTA (Thirty-fourth World Congress of Travel Agencies).

26. In November 1964 we began to pass information to the "friends" abou the training camps which were being opened in New Jersey to prepare and train people for the invasion of Haiti. We infiltrated some of our peop into this group and thus kept informed of everything that went on.

27. At the end of 1964 and up to April 1965 we continued to make studie Among them were those on the Cuban Telephone Enterprise, the Department of Port and Coastal Vigilance, censorship of correspondence, Cuban natio al budgets 1964/65, radio programs heard in Cuba.

28. At the request of the "friends" we collaborated in the reception activities for Juanita CASTRO and obtained the support of the exile organizations for rallies organized in Miami and New York.

29. In December 1964 we organized a great propaganda campaign, mobilizi all the Masonic lodges so they would back the proposal of the Masons who were supporting LOPEZ Mateos at the UN.

30. We acted as a support mechanism to the "friends" in the matter concerning Mrs. LIPPERT.

31. In the first months of 1965 an attempt was made on three different occasions to carry out Rescue Operation No. 1.

32. During the first months of 1965 we kept informed about the situatio in the Dominican Republic and the participation of the Cubans and Dominicans in the Miami area in what was going on.

33. During this whole period, in view of the division existing among the exiles and of the formation of so many new exile groups, we infiltrated our agents into all the organizations and reported on all the movements of leaders of these groups and their activities, on all their statements and action plans. Our aim and purpose was to report everything about the movements of the Cubans and the exile groups.

34. During this period we also began carding all our reports for the

1. In accordance with our conversation, I am sending you the facts as I know them regarding the 7 August meeting in New York City between Rolando Masferrer and Averell Clark.

2. Apparently Masferrer knows Stanley Ross, the Editor of El Tiempo, a Spanish-language newspaper published in New York. The office is at 78 Fifth Avenue and the telephone number is WA 4-2750. Possibly Masferrer did not previously know Ross. But at any rate, either on his own or through someone else, he got in touch with him in late July or early August and said that he wanted to be put in touch with an American with an aviation and military background. I do not know too much about Ross at the moment except that he has had considerable Latin American experience and would be a logical person for any Latino to approach. It would be very easy to obtain additional evidence on him if desired.

3. I am attaching for your information a list of the stockholders in El Tiempo, Inc. to provide some indication of who is behind Ross. In addition, we have a list of all the senior officers of El Tiempo.

4. Ross knew of Clark through the Hitchcocks listed, as you will note, as stockholders. Mrs. Margaret Hitchcock is Clark's aunt, while Thomas Hitchcock III is his first cousin as presumably, is William Hitchcock. During the war Clark was an outstanding fighter pilot, having flown with the RAF through the roughest days of the Battle of Britain, and thereafter shifted to the Americans with whom he flew many missions as a P-47 pilot. He is still in the Air Force Reserve.

5. At Ross's request Clark met Masferrer at the El Tiempo office in New York City on 7 August. Ross left the room so that the session was only between Clark and Masferrer. As a pro-Batista Cuban, Masferrer was known to us at the time of the Bay of Pigs. In fact, at one point just before the invasion, the U.S. Department of Justice arrested him and put him in jail in Florida for violation of the provisions of the Neutrality Act.

6. Masferrer alleged to Clark that he was representing some twenty Cuban exile organizations, and that he was working with a Haitian, Charles Forben, head of an anti-Duvalier organization known as "Capois La Mort." Forben allegedly asked Masferrer to help his organization by leasing or buying a PBY-5 aircraft for use against Duvalier. Masferrer claimed that Forben's group was in a position to take control of the Ile de la Gonave, an island just off the west coast of Haiti in the gulf north of Port au Prince. It is conceivable that this is the wrong island since Clark did not have the name of the island in question, but based on the description of its location by Masferrer, I am assuming this to be the island involved. At any rate, in return for help from Masferrer, Forben was to be asked to let Masferrer and some of his Cuban exiles use the island in question as a base from which to harrass the eastern end of the Island of Cuba.

7. Clark told Masferrer that as a member of the Air Force Reserve, he would have to report the conversation to the USG and could not do anything without clearing with the USG. Masferrer said that he had no objection to this, particularly with regard to the activities of Forben and his group, but he asked that Clark not mention his intention to harrass Cuba, since he maintained that the USG would forbid this as being against USG policy. Clark said that Masferrer would have to leave to him what matters he chose to discuss with the USG. It was then agreed that Clark could reach Masferrer through Ross's office for about a week, and thereafter could pass a message to him through Ross.

8. Clark got in touch with me because I had known him during the war; I had known his family for many years, and one of his closest friends, James B. Watriss, is a cousin of mine and was, until about a year ago, associated with the Agency. Incidentally, I believe that Clark has had some discussions with SOD with the idea of possibly being used in connection with special operations.

1. On 20 August 1965 an associate of Rolando Arcadio Masferrer Rojas, former Cuban senator, said that Masferrer is in touch with General Leon Cantave regarding a plot to invade Haiti from the Dominican Republic. Masferrer is trying to recruit unmarried Cubans in New York who are willing to go to the Dominican Republic and eventually to live in Haiti. He does not want Cubans who would want to return to the United States because of family or for any other reason.

2. Masferrer asked Antonio Rojas Masferrer, his cousin, to manage a farm in the Dominican Republic which will be used as a training and staging area for about 100 men which Masferrer will recruit. This group will be enlarged by men which Cantave has in the Dominican Republic.

3. Cantave is negotiating with Dominicans to determine whether the recruits from New York will travel to the Dominican Republic with visas or whether they will enter the country illegally.

SOURCE:

Former Latin American diplomat who maintains relationships with officials of Latin American countries. Source is a trained reporter and his information has been reliable in the past.

1. As of about 16 April 1965, Rolando Masferrer Rojas, a Cuban exile leader, had been sending weapons to Miami, Florida, for use by Haitian exiles in an attempt to overthrow Haitian dictator Francois Duvalier. The arms were being stored in the home of Aurea Esther Poggio Aragon,[1] a Cuban woman whose last known address was 1451 E. 8th Court, Hialeah, Florida. The weapons were to be transported to an undisclosed destination outside the United States.

2. In early April 1965, Poggio went to the Dominican Republic on behalf of Masferrer regarding the Haitian exile scene. When Poggio was out of Miami, the keys to her residence were left with Antonio Rojas Masferrer.

1. Field Comment: The same source reported in CSDB-3/661,878, dated 18 June 1964, that Masferrer had met with Poggio, among others, on 29 May 1964 regarding an expected revolt in Cuba.

Letters to Defence, State & Justice

~~It has come to the attention~~
~~of this Agency that on 28 February~~

This Agency is in possession of information which was obtained from a confidential source the substance of which is as follows: On Feb 28 Mr. Rodolfo Masferrer was interviewed in Miami, Florida. He stated that he had recently received a letter from his brother Rolando Masferrer [illegible] in which he claimed that he was visited by two U.S. Government officials in New York. These two officials allegedly asked him if he was ready to participate in an armed action against Cuba. Masferrer replied that he had been preparing himself for such action since his arrival from Cuba. In this letter, Masferrer made it clear that this was the first time that he had been under consideration by the U.S. Government. He further estimated that he could round up immediately between 300 + 400 men.

This agency does not now ~~[illegible]~~ ~~[illegible]~~ ~~and~~ does it ~~not~~ currently have any relationship with Rolando Masferrer. It would be ~~apprec~~ appreciated if your Department would ~~check~~ investigate and let this agency know, at your earliest convenience, if any member or members of your organization has been or ~~is~~ currently in contact with the subject. ~~and if any previous inquiries were [illegible] directed to him along the lines outlined above.~~

THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION. SOURCE GRADINGS ARE DEFINITIVE. APPRAISAL OF CONTENT IS TENTATIVE.

SOURCE: A member of a group of Cuban émigrés trained in the elements of information collection. This group has provided useful reports for about three years. This information was obtained from an individual with first-hand knowledge.

1. On a week-end during the latter part of September 1964, a group of about 250 Cuban exiles were receiving military training at the "Jose Marti Encampment" which was on a farm owned by a New Jersey councilman or individual of similar political position. The farm is in a mountainous region just off Interstate Route 80 about one and a half hours by automobile out of Union City, New Jersey. The camp is directed by Martinez Morejon (fnu) and Bienvenido Cueto; it is active only on week-ends, but there is a permanent armed guard at the camp.

2. Training consists of storming and capturing hilly redoubts, and training in the use of weapons which range from semi-automatic to fully automatic rifles, submachineguns, and .30- and .50-caliber machineguns.

3. Rolando Masferrer Rojas and about 50 of his followers were among those undergoing training. Masferrer was overheard to say that the camp was being operated without any financial assistance from the United States Government. Masferrer also said that rather severe measures would be effected against any United States Government informer who might be discovered at the camp.

4. According to some of the individuals who were undertaking training, small groups of Masferrer's men were periodically being sent from the New Jersey area to Miami, and Alfaro (fnu) aka "Sacramento" was administering the transfers. After arriving in Miami they were taken to Sheriff's Key, or some small key in the vicinity of Sheriff's Key,[1] where they were being staged prior to invading Haiti, which was to be the first step in the plan for an eventual landing in Cuba.

5. There was no apparent degree of ill-feeling between many former Castro adherents and the "Masferrer's Tigers" at the Camp. Some Puerto Ricans were also in training there.

FIELD REPORT NO. UFG-5966

SOURCE AND APPRAISAL: CUBAN EXILE (C) WHO HAS CONTACTS IN THE CUBAN EXILE COMMUNITY IN MIAMI AND NEW YORK. APPRAISAL: 2 (THAT THESE RECRUITING OPERATIONS ARE GOING ON AND THE STATEMENTS WERE MADE AS REPORTED).

1. ON 20 SEPT 64, PAUL TOUSSAINT, ACCOMPANIED BY RICARDO ZARAGOZI, JOSE A. MARTINEZ, AND ANOTHER UNIDENTIFIED CUBAN, ARRIVED IN MIAMI FROM NEW YORK. MARTINEZ, ZARAGOZI, AND THE UNIDENTIFIED CUBAN CAME TO MIAMI TO CONTACT CUBAN FRIENDS OF THEIRS FOR A PROPOSED FORCE OF 100 CUBAN EXILES WHO WOULD BE USED TO INVADE HAITI "WITHIN A TEN-DAY PERIOD". ALLEGEDLY THE INVASION WOULD BE SUPPORTED BY THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT. ON THE EVENING OF 20 SEPT, TOUSSAINT RETURNED TO NEW YORK BY AIR IN ANSWER TO WHAT HE SAID WAS "AN URGENT REQUEST FROM UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT REPRESENTATIVES". TOUSSAINT HAD PLACED SEVERAL CALLS TO NEW YORK AFTER HE ARRIVED

2. WHILE IN MIAMI THE CUBANS CONTACTED FRIENDS OF THEIRS IN AN ATTEMPT TO GAIN RECRUITS FOR THE HAITI OPERATION. AMONG THOSE WHO WERE CONTACTED WERE OTTO SIRGO PRIETO, MEMBER OF THE ANTONIO MACEO BRIGADE, FRANK DIAZ, AND EUGENIO PEREZ COWLE. SIRGO SAID THAT HE COULD PROVIDE 25 MEN FOR ANYTHING RELATING TO CUBA. DIAZ SAID THAT HE WOULD NOT COMMIT HIMSELF. OR 15 MEN WHOM HE COULD PROBABLY RECRUIT, UNTIL HE COULD OBTAIN CLARIFICATION OF THE ENTIRE AFFAIR. PEREZ, WHO HAD RENTED THE HUMBOLDT 7 APARTMENT IN CUBA FOR YOUNG STUDENT LEADERS WHO WERE LATER KILLED BY THE BATISTA FORCES, SAID HE WOULD BE INTERESTED IN JOINING THE OPERATION, AND HE PLEDGED SIX MEN FOR THE INVASION FORCE.

3. ON 22 SEPT, TOUSSAINT INFORMED ONE OF HIS MIAMI REPRESENTATIVES THAT THERE WAS NO MONEY TO GIVE THE RECRUITED MEN. HOWEVER, TOUSSAINT SAID THAT THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT WANTED 200 MEN INSTEAD OF THE ORIGINALLY PLANNED FORCE OF 100 MEN AND THAT EXPENSE MONEY FOR THE TRIP FROM MIAMI TO NEW YORK COULD PROBABLY HE PROVIDED FOR THE RECRUITS, BUT NO FURTHER FINANCIAL OBLIGATIONS COULD BE ASSUMED BY THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT.

4. ON 24 SEPT TOUSSAINT CALLED ONE OF HIS MIAMI REPRESENTATIVES AND INSTRUCTED HIM TO GET TO NEW YORK AS SOON AS POSSIBLE BECAUSE "TIME IS DRAWING NEAR." HE SAID THERE WAS A TRAINING BASE FOR THE HAITI INVASION FORCE AT AN UNIDENTIFIED LOCATION IN NEW JERSEY, WHICH WAS HEADED BY CAPTAIN MIR, FORMER OFFICER FOR FIDEL CASTRO RUZ.

THE GROUP HAD THREE AIRPLANES READY FOR USE IN THE INVASION, AND LARGE QUANTITIES OF ARMS, SOME OF WHICH WERE STORED IN THE OFFICE OF ROLANDO MASFERRER ROJAS, IN NEW YORK CITY. ARMS WERE ALSO CACHED AT AN UNIDENTIFIED LOCATION IN MIAMI. TOUSSAINT SAID THAT CUBANS COULD USE HAITI AS A BASE OF OPERATIONS AGAINST CUBA IF THE INVASION WAS VICTORIOUS AND DUVALIER WAS REMOVED.

THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION. SOURCE GRADINGS ARE DEFINITIVE. APPRAISAL OF CONTENT IS TENTATIVE.

SOURCE: Former high-level Latin American Government official (C) who has travelled frequently throughout the Caribbean and Central America where he maintains close friendships with a wide range of military and political leaders. Source is a rightist, a trained reporter, and his information has been fairly reliable in the past. This information was obtained from Rolando Arcadio Masferrer Rojas.

1. Rolando Arcadio Masferrer Rojas, prominent Cuban exile and financial backer of several Caribbean paramilitary operations directed against Fidel Castro Ruz, revealed on 11 July 1964 that he is maintaining close contact with Dominican Consul Carlos Peguero Guerrero, the brother of General Belisario Peguero Guerrero, Dominican Police Chief. Masferrer said that he is collaborating with Consul Peguero by giving his full support to the Partido Liberal Evolucionista (PLE, Liberal Evolutionist Party) and that he is ready to go to the Dominican Republic should Luis Amiama Tio, a leader of the PLE, call for him. When discussing the method by which Masferrer was participating with the PLE, Masferrer suggested that he was prepared to offer his Cuban assets to the Dominican supporters of Amiama should the latter decide to carry out action against the triumvirate government.

2. Concerning the future of Joaquin Balaguer as a Dominican presidential candidate, Masferrer said that Balaguer was "mistaken" in his belief that he would soon be able to return to the Dominican Republic. The Dominican authorities will not permit the return of Balaguer because Diego Bordas Hernandez, former leader of the Partido Revolucionario Dominicano (PRD, Dominican Revolutionary Party), was successfully financing a "stop Balaguer" movement.

CONTROLLED DISSEM

[illegible]

According to Masferrer, Bordas recently paid Stanley Ross, editor of the New York publication "El Tiempo", $5,000 to assist Bordas in stopping Balaguer from obtaining favorable publicity in the Ross publications.

3. Concerning the next candidate supported by the PLE, Masferrer said that the PLE political machine had planned to promote General Antonio Imbert Barrera instead of Amiama although Amiama had previously been pushed for the presidential candidacy with the support of the PLE.

4. Concerning Cuba, Masferrer said that he has 250 highly trained men available for paramilitary action against the Castro regime. He is personally carrying out daily practice sessions in a light twin-engine aircraft in preparation for future flights to be made by Masferrer in distributing propaganda and attacking strategic points in Cuba. He has no immediate plans, however, for an invasion nor did he reveal the locations of arms and money which he claims to have at his disposal. He said, however, that he has much faith in the United States Government and its appraisal of the Cuban problem and expected a "green light" to be forthcoming from the United States Government soon.

5. Masferrer said that unfortunately several prominent politicians and government officials have been recommending that he not be permitted to return to the State of Florida in spite of an earlier petition signed by many Cuban exiles requesting an amendment to an earlier court ruling prohibiting Masferrer from returning to Florida.[1]

6. When asked about the participation of other Cuban exile leaders with Masferrer's group, Masferrer did not comment other than to say that Carlos Marquez Sterling was a "lyric poet" but that his association with Masferrer had not been productive.

[1] Field Comment: Refer to CSDB-3/661,878, dated 19 June 1964, regarding the efforts of Masferrer's brother to obtain the signatures of Cuban exile leaders, which he intended to submit to the Immigration and Naturalization Service in Miami with a request for Masferrer's legal return to Miami.

The information in Paras. 1-3 were obtained from a former Latin American military officer who at one time resided in Haiti and the Dominican Republic. He still maintains fairly close friendships with officials of those countries. Source is a trained reporter and his information has been reliable in the past.

no 201 1. On 29 May 1964 Rolando Arcadio Masferrer Rojas, a Cuban exile leader, met with Miguel Taberno Blas, former member of the Cuban House of Representatives; Cecilio Ignacio Napoles Hidalgo, former army major during the administration of Fulgencio Batista; Pedro Duque, former army lieutenant under Batista; and Aurea Ester Poggio Aragon, a Cuban woman. Masferrer said that within the next 60 days there would be a revolt within the ranks of Castro's forces and that anti-Castro groups would become active both in Cuba and outside.

no 201

2. Masferrer said that Manuel Ray Rivero, leader of the Junta Revolucionaria Cubana (JURE, Cuban Revolutionary Junta), would play an important role in the events that were to transpire in the next two months. Although he did not elaborate on just how the revolt would come about, Masferrer did say that the uprising would be possible because those persons participating in the revolt would have access to weapons and ammunition already cached in Cuba.

3. On 4 June 1964 Enrique "Kiki" Masferrer Rojas, Rolando's brother, had obtained the signatures of several Cuban exile leaders, which he intended to submit to the Immigration and Naturalization Service at Miami requesting authorization for Masferrer to return to Miami.[1] It was expected that the document would be submitted sometime in early June 1964.

The information in Para. 4 was obtained from a former high-level Latin American Government official who has travelled frequently throughout the Caribbean and Central America where he maintains close friendships with a wide range of military and political leaders. Source is a rightist, a trained reporter, and his information has been reliable in the past.

4. Masferrer arrived in Miami on 27 May with an undetermined quantity of arms and ammunition which he plans to use against Castro.

The information in Para. 5 was obtained from a local law enforcement officer who is well acquainted with maritime matters in Florida. Source has submitted a large number of reports based on the debriefing of Cuban refugees and has been a consistently reliable reporter on the plans and activities of anti-Castro groups engaging in boat operations. This information was obtained from an unidentified informant described as reliable.

5. As of 22 May, Masferrer was alleged to have equipment in Miami to arm about 200 men. The plan called for moving this equipment from the United States mainland to an unidentified key where it would be buried. When the fighting began in Cuba, about 200 men were to proceed to the key, arm themselves with the cached materiel and proceed to Cuba. In this way they could also claim to be the liberators of Cuba.

1. Field Comment: Masferrer has been prohibited from returning to the State of Florida following an order issued by the United States Immigration and Naturalization Service.

The Honorable J. Walter Yeagley
Assistant Attorney General
Internal Security Division
Department of Justice
Washington, D. C. 20530

Dear Walt:

After you informed me on 29 November 1966 of the possible indictment by the U. S. Attorney in Florida of Rolando Masferrer and others concerned in the plan to launch an expedition from Florida against President Duvalier of Haiti, I asked for a report on our knowledge of, or involvement in, this activity.

As you know, we have installations in the Miami area which utilize a variety of sensitive covers. The Chief of Station coordinates his activities closely with the Federal Bureau of Investigation, the Immigration and Naturalization Service, and the Bureau of Customs of the Department of the Treasury and disseminates to those offices in the area pertinent intelligence information.

Our Station was well informed on the plans of Masferrer and his cohorts and disseminated this information in the normal manner. Part of this reporting included information that Masferrer and some of his associates repeatedly asserted that their plotting had been approved by the U. S. Government. On some occasions they stated this approval came from this Agency, and the other times they intimated that the Federal Bureau of Investigation had approved their actions. These claims were apparently used to persuade various persons, primarily Cuban exiles, some of whom formerly had contact with the Agency, to join the plot. It appears logical to assume that Masferrer would continue to claim that he had received what he interpreted to be U. S. Government approval of the scheme to overthrow President Duvalier, and if he has nothing more positive he can take the approach that he considered the U. S. Government tacitly approved his plot since it obviously knew about it and did not take any action against him.

For the record, it can be flatly stated that neither by statement nor by implication has the Central Intelligence Agency indicated to anyone that it approved or was supporting the plot. On the contrary, those who queried people they knew were connected with our Agency concerning possible participation in the plot were told that it had no U. S. Government backing whatsoever. Some of the plotters attempted to contact this Agency through various intermediaries, and the intermediaries were told that the Agency wished to have nothing to do with the undertaking and that any information concerning violations of U. S. laws should be passed to law-enforcement agencies, particularly the Bureau of Customs and the Federal Bureau of Investigation. Technically, therefore, the Agency has stayed clear of the plotters, and we would be in a position to state that we had no connection with the plot and had given it no encouragement or backing of any sort.

As a practical matter, however, if prosecution were pursued, Masferrer, and perhaps other defendants, would probably claim that they had CIA backing and some might even believe it to be true. This might well lead one or more defendants to seek a subpoena duces tecum for an Agency witness and the Agency documentation on the subject. As noted above, the witness can testify to the fact that the Agency had in no way participated or encouraged the activity. If it proved impossible to quash the requirement for production of documents, however, we would be faced with a situation where we would almost certainly have to claim the documents were privileged on the grounds of security. Aside from the sensitivity of the reports and their possible compromise of sources, we would have the problem of identification of our personnel under cover and of protecting the sensitive cover arrangements.

The same is true to a lesser extent of action against Masferrer in connection with violations of his parole. In view of the flagrant and numerous violations which were actually known to and reported by Government agencies without any punitive action resulting, it would appear that he could make a plausible claim that the Government had at least winked at, if not condoned, his activities. It would seem preferable to have him immediately put under a more stringent parole, perhaps with an accompanying requirement of bond. In the event he violated this new status, prompt action could be taken on those circumstances alone.

Sincerely,

[This report was developed by a Navy representative assigned to the office of preparation.]

1. During the night of 22 Nov 66 a decision was reached to call off the proposed invasion of Haiti by the group sponsored by Rolando Masferrer. The invasion is off indefinitely.

2. Father Jean Baptiste Georges and Colonel Rene Leon have been arguing with Masferrer which has caused confusion and disorganization in the movement. Many Cubans scheduled to participate have pulled out and military chief Napoleon Villaboise (sic), a Cuban national and alleged military expert, has resigned because of dissension in the group.

3. It is believed that US Government agencies have infiltrated the movement and the leaders fear that all weapons and equipment would be confiscated if plans for the invasion proceeded.

MEMORANDUM OF CONVERSATION between

Andrew St. George -- CBS photographer.
William G. Bowdler.

SUBJECT: Invasion of Haiti

Andrew St. George called me from Miami.

He said that he and the CBS film crew, headed by a Mr. McMullin (phonetic), were back in Miami to cover the departure this weekend of the expedition which Rolando Masferrer was organizing to invade Haiti. St. George claimed that Masferrer had recruited 300 men and arranged for the use of one B-25, two C-46s and a large boat. He said that all the preparations were so much in the open that it was evident that Masferrer and his Haitian colleagues had received the "green light". Recent events in Haiti, plus Masferrer's activities, were attracting a lot of newsmen to Miami.

I told St. George that he was mistaken about the "green light". We will not tolerate violation of our neutrality laws. Our enforcement agencies, whose duty it is to enforce these laws, will not permit what he described taking place. I wanted him and those with whom he was dealing to be clear on this point. He said he would inform Mr. McMullin.

SOURCE: US national with wide travel experience in Latin America. He speaks some Spanish, and has many social and business contacts in the Dominican Republic.

[This report was developed by a Navy representative assigned to the office of preparation.]

1. On 28 Oct 66 I spoke with Rolando Masferrer Rojas, a Cuban exile, and he told me that he has organized a military force of approximately 250 men to invade Haiti. The invasion force consists of Cuban and Haitian exiles residing in the US, the Bahamas, and the Dominican Republic. The invasion will probably be launched from the Dominican Republic sometime between 5 and 13 November and the target is Port-au-Prince. The invasion force will strike in the early hours of the morning selected. It is well armed, and will have air cover; the presidential palace will be bombed.

2. Masferrer stated that Eugene L. Maximilien, Haitian Consul in Miami, Florida, is aware of the invasion, but he has no knowledge of the invasion date. Maximilien is presently in Haiti informing President Duvalier that the invasion can be prevented by paying off $200,000 to Masferrer. Maximilien will return to the US on 3 November and he has agreed with Masferrer that if Duvalier agrees to the pay-off, Maximilien will receive $50,000 and Masferrer $150,000.

3. Masferrer told me that the invasion will take place in any event and the $150,000, if received, would be used to further support the invasion.

4. Masferrer stated that he met within the past 10 days with several dissident Haitian army officers and he had received their support. The Haitian army officers told Masferrer that they would revolt as soon as informed that the invasion had commenced. They do not know that the target will be Port-au-Prince; they believe that it will be in the cap Haitien area.

5. Masferrer stated that he was confident that the invasion will succeed, and if successful, Father Jean Baptiste Georges would be appointed provisional president. Masferrer stated that Colonel Rene Leon, Haitian exile, will participate in the invasion.

SOURCE: Former Latin American diplomat who maintains relations with officials of Latin American countries. Source is a trained reporter and his information has been reliable in the past. He obtained this information from Aurea Esther Poggio.

1. On 21 September 1967 in Miami, Florida, Aurea Esther Poggio, Cuban emigre who is a secretary to Rolando Masferrer Rojas, said that plans had been made to assassinate persons linked with revolutionary movements in Miami opposing President Francois Duvalier of Haiti. Poggio said that the first such attempt was against Julio Aton Constanzo Palau on 17 September 1967.[1]

2. Poggio said that Masferrer's group was investigating the matter in an effort to find out who was carrying out the assassination plans for Duvalier.[2]

[1] Field Comment: Constanzo, Cuban emigre, was among those indicted with Masferrer, former Cuban senator, and Father Jean Baptiste Georges, Haitian emigre, by a federal grand jury in Miami in February 1967 on charges of conspiring to launch an invasion of Haiti from the Florida Keys. No coverage of an attempt to kill Constanzo has been noted in the local press.

[2] Headquarters Comment: According to TDCS-314/08728-67, about mid-1967 Duvalier instructed Andre Elie, Haitian Consul in New York, to keep close surveillance on Haitian exiles and to report all plans for invasions of Haiti.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: Liaison Meeting with FBI New York Agent Frank O'Brien

1. At 1500 hours on 13 September, Ken Millian and I met with FBI Cuban specialist Frank O'Brien at a cafe/coffee shop at 72nd St. and 3rd Ave., two blocks away from the Bureau's New York headquarters. I had arranged the meeting by telephone from Washington and advised O'Brien that I wanted to review and coordinate a number of items with him. I also informed him that I would be accompanied by Millian, a colleague interested in the Cuban UN Mission.

2. The meeting opened at an easy pace with an uninhibited review of happenings of mutual interest: O'Brien noted that in his view the Cubans at the Mission had been relatively inactive and had not recently been involved in subversive activities of any magnitude. He reviewed FBI coverage of as yet not fully explained purchasing activity by Mission personnel which included procurement from various New York area military surplus outlets of ponchos, leggings, and other similar equipment. He implied that in the process of covering the activities, the Bureau had acquired a substantial amount of surplus equipment itself but he didn't provide details and we didn't pursue the matter.

Mission Staff for Che's group? etc.

3. He noted that blanket Bureau coverage of the activities of Rolando Masferrer was continuing and that he occasionally talked with Masferrer by telephone or in person. He indicated that the Bureau was intimately aware of efforts on the part of Masferrer and other Cubans both in New York and Florida to procure arms in the U.S. and position them in the Dominican Republic. He reported that an attempt to move a shipment of such arms from the Florida Keys to the D.R. currently was underway and that the U.S. Customs Service was alerted to move in at the appropriate time to confiscate the material. (Although acknowledging Masferrer's gangster background, O'Brien complemented him on his intelligence and efficiency and indicated that Masferrer was one of the ablest Cuban refugees he had met.)

4. O'Brien also surfaced his current contact with former Rebel Army Captain Raimundo F. Antonio de la Torre y

Ugarte, 81-11 Pettit Ave., Elmhurst, Long Island, tel. NR 2-5487. De la Torre apparently is involved with Cuban refugees in the U.S. who are attempting to re-establish the 26th of July Movement here in the United States minus the Communist implications contributed by Fidel. O'Brien apparently is impressed with De la Torre's sincerity and ability and believes that De la Torre should be of interest to us. De la Torre has until recently stayed away from exile activities and according to O'Brien is pushing the revitalized 26th of July idea by personal contact rather than make any splash. According to O'Brien De la Torre is now operating a successful painting business and at one time held a good position with Union Carbide International. In conversations with O'Brien De la Torre has been critical of CIA. When queried O'Brien indicated that De la Torre's only real gripe was the Bay of Pigs. (C/O note: We should look into De la Torre to see if he could be used in any revitalized effort abroad to establish lines of access to non-Communist 26th of Julyers still in Cuba - Carlos Franqui etc.) We indicated that we would evaluate information available to us and discuss De la Torre with him again in the future.

5. Note: O'Brien has been working the Cuban target in New York for over ten years and is impressively conversant with the subject. It is, therefore, sometimes difficult to stay with him when he covers various complicated subjects with abbreviated statements, e. g., during subject meeting, he alluded to one Miguel Morales, the former husband of Nellie Barletta, daughter of Batista's ambassador to Argentina Amleto Barletta. He apparently feels there may be mileage in Morales. We will, therefore, review Morales, Barletta, et al, and resurface the subject with him when time permits.

6. The two principal action items on my agenda were the coordination of my planned luncheon meeting with photojournalist Lee J. Lockwood (201-78771), and discussion of NEKNIFE, who allegedly was interviewed by the Bureau in New York several years ago. O'Brien advised me that he had reviewed their Lockwood file and talked with the Bureau agent responsible for the Lockwood "case". He stated that he had not uncovered any derogatory information on Lockwood and saw no reason to prevent my meeting with him. I told him I would advise him of my meeting arrangements with Lockwood when they were firm and that I would brief him after the meeting was over. (It is of interest to note that during my briefing of O'Brien on the morning of the 16th, the day following my luncheon with Lockwood, O'Brien noted that some of his superiors in Washington thought Lockwood was an opposition (sic) "spy". When I asked if there was anything to support this theory, O'Brien said absolutely not, it was pure speculation.)

7. O'Brien checked the Bureau's New York indices on NEKNIFE but without success. If he was in fact interviewed by the FBI in New York there apparently was no record of it. I told him that NEKNIFE was expected in New York City in late September to visit his daughter and son-in-law and that we probably would attempt a meeting with him at the time. He had no objection.

8. Specific items of business concluded, we moved into a general and historical discussion of the Cuban Mission to the UN, which was the main purpose of Millian's attendance at the meeting. Recent changes in Mission personnel, including the assignment of Ricardo Alarcón Quesada (201-347590) as Ambassador, were discussed and itineraries of Cubans arriving for the General Assembly were noted. Early in the conversation, O'Brien surfaced his long term contact with Cuban UN Advisor and Alternate Representative Antonio de Souza Carvajal (201-354048), a friend of Cuban Foreign Minister Raúl Roa, who has served the Cubans in New York for the past ten years or more and has been with the Cuban Foreign Service for 40 years. The Souza subject was not new to me, since O'Brien had brought it up in conversations I had with him earlier this year. I did not choose to pursue the subject with him at that time, however, without first reviewing all implications of the case with Agency officials in Washington. O'Brien indicated no interest in Miguel Juan Alfonso Martínez (201-354041), Counselor at the Mission, whom we suspected they might be in contact ~~with~~.

9. O'Brien's eagerness to discuss the Souza matter seems to imply that he is deeply interested in it and may suggest that he is not satisfied with results thus far obtained. At one point he indicated that his headquarters was not at all happy with the take from Souza. He reviewed the history of the contact with complete candor beginning with his initial contacts with Souza in the mid/late 1950's when O'Brien had open access to the Cuban Mission in New York and was a frequent visitor there. From his description, Souza would appear to be a thoroughly experienced and skilled diplomat who has survived the numerous changes in the Cuban government because of his friendship with Roa and other influential Cubans, and because of his ability to implement effectively for the Cubans the more subtle diplomatic maneuvers required by membership in the UN community. In fact, O'Brien feels that the Cubans utilize Souza exclusively on these latter duties and tend to exclude him from high level matters involving political, military, or economic policy.

This, according to O'Brien, accounts for Souza's inability to provide information of real value. O'Brien did indicate, however, that the usual P.I. requirements had no punch. He cited, for example, the requirements after Souza's return from Hawaii, which in effect amounted to: What's new?

10. Despite the long history of the Souza contact, O'Brien is not now meeting with Souza in person. Souza feels that O'Brien is too well known in the Cuban community in New York and even the most elaborate contact arrangements would not be free of danger. Souza also shys away from talking on his home phone for fear that it may be tapped. O'Brien can, however, telephone Souza and lay on alternate telephone or even meeting arrangements. We did not establish the frequency of O'Brien's current contacts with Souza nor did we establish at what point in the history of the contact the decision was made to dispense with personal meetings; the nature of our meeting with O'Brien did not permit elaborate and detailed questioning. He did recount, however, an interesting aspect of the case which followed from the fact that a State Department security officer assigned to New York, (fnu) Swazey, occupied the apartment directly above Souza during his tour in New York and became quite friendly with Souza. O'Brien apparently used Swazey as an informal go-between on the case. (Should we choose to pursue the Souza lead, an attempt perhaps should be made to locate and debrief Swazey with O'Brien's concurrence. Note: This could be Anthony Clinton Swezey, DOB 9 August 1913, who was Special Assistant to Secretary General of U.S. Mission to UN 1946 to 1947. In 1963 he was First Secretary, FSO-2, in Paris.)

11. It is difficult at this point to identify with accuracy the true nature of O'Brien's tie with Souza. Based upon O'Brien's comments, it does not appear that Souza should be classified as an "agent" of the Bureau in the classical sense, particularly at this point when there apparently are no formal arrangements for contact, no remuneration or even instructions given, and apparently no reports received from Souza. It is probable that a critical point in this operation was reached about three years ago when, according to O'Brien, Souza talked about his advancing age (now 65), his retirement equities with the Cuban government, and his financial needs in general. O'Brien thought that Souza was looking for guarantees which would provide for his future should he choose to cooperate fully and ultimately be surfaced and forced to forego his retirement and remain in the U.S. O'Brien apparently presented Souza's case to his superiors but was unable to generate any substantial enthusiasm. He stated they were not willing to give Souza a stipend. The Bureau's position, both then and now, apparently is that Souza has little potential as an asset for internal security matters and therefore would not justify any substantial financial obligation. In very low key, it was made clear to O'Brien that the Agency was interested in Souza's Positive Intelligence potential (his access in Havana should be good, given his long friendship with Roa and his closeness to María Celia Girona Fernández (201-327421), cousin of Celia Sánchez Manduley) and well might find justification for providing modest security for Souza's old age.

12. Throughout our conversation it appeared clear that O'Brien was of the opinion that there may be a role for the Agency in the Souza operation. We asked him, therefore, whether or not he felt Souza may still be interested in feathering his nest and, if so, if it would be bureaucratically possible to get word to Souza that such a possibility existed. O'Brien felt that Souza would still be interested and he was of the opinion that he could get the point across to Souza via double talk in a telephone conversation. This approach was accepted and it was agreed that O'Brien would advise us of the results after the call was made. If prospects appeared encouraging, it was agreed that we would then get together again to discuss the next step which might entail arranging direct contact with Souza. O'Brien noted that Souza lives in Jackson Heights and usually drives to work. Possibly a contact could be arranged somewhere along the route. The foregoing generally covers the extent of our discussion regarding Souza. When I met with O'Brien again on 16 September just prior to my departure for Washington, I requested that he not take any action on the Souza case in our behalf until he heard something further from me.

13. During our meeting we reviewed other members of the Cuban Mission with particular reference to DGI types. O'Brien noted that Chafik Homero Saker Zenni (201-335014) undoubtedly is the senior member of the DGI group but even so he was not thought to be particularly active. He reported that Saker had been in contact with Lee Lockwood (see above) on several recent occasions but nothing was known of the nature of the meetings. He also noted that the Bureau was in contact with Saker's Cuban girl friend in New York City whom they had just traced without surfacing any derogatory information. She is cooperating and the Bureau is optimistic about her potential. He did not provide the girl's name but indicated that we should hear about her shortly through channels. O'Brien also acknowledged that the Bureau has a penetration of Prensa Latina in New York. He did not provide the name or any details but on the basis of his comments we presumed it to be Francisco V. Portella (201-281963). It would be helpful if we could obtain additional details on both these latter cases.

Cobos
Ricardo [illegible] Rivero

14. Without prompting, O'Brien surfaced the AMBIG-3 double agent case. He noted that he had been involved to a degree and actually was present at the hotel bar in downtown New York when the agent made his meet with the Cuban case officer. O'Brien, accompanied by at least one other Bureau man, reported that AMBIG-3 winked at them while passing close by them at the bar on one occasion. O'Brien took this to mean that AMBIG-3 presumed that O'Brien and his friend were Bureau men assigned to surveil the meeting. O'Brien also stated that after his meeting with his Cuban DGI contact, AMBIG-3 called for an emergency meeting with the Bureau and they gave him $200.

15. It was close to 2000 hours before our meeting terminated. We parted on a cordial note with agreement reached that we would talk soon again when some of the material discussed had been further sifted.

MEMORANDUM OF CONVERSATION September 6, 1966

SUBJECT: Andrew St. George -- free lance photographer now working with CBS

Mr. St. George came to see me at his request. I have known him from the time that he went to Cuba in the late fifties to film the Castro movement.

He said he wanted to see me as an old friend to tell me that CBS is filming a story of gun-running from the U.S. to the D.R. for use against Haiti. He is working with the CBS crew.

Mr. St. George said that the CBS team had completed its filming in Miami and in the near future would be travelling to Santo Domingo to film the operation at that end. He claimed that in Miami Rolando Masferrer and Mitchell Warbel (phonetic) had permitted him to film what he described as a large arsenal in Masferrer's house.

In response to my question about the identity of Warbel, he said that he is a soldier-of-fortune - arms merchant type from Atlanta who is working with Masferrer in the acquisition of arms. St. George claimed that Warbel had been responsible for the seizure of Manuel Ray's vessel "Venus" in the Dominican Republic and the acquisition of the arms (mostly sub-machine guns) which were on board.

St. George stated that the base in the Dominican Republic was on Beata Island. Arrangements in the DR are being handled through Santiago Rey with Martires Araña and others whom he did not name. St. George said that Balaguer had given his nod to the operation. I told him that I did not believe there was any truth to this latter point as President Balaguer has recently normalized diplomatic relations with Haiti and is not interested in foreign adventures of this type.

In closing, St. George said he had come to see me because he believed that someone in the United States Government should know about the gun-running and the CBS film. I told him that our law enforcement agencies were aware of Masferrer's past activities and would take whatever action is necessary to prevent violation of our laws. On the film, I told him that I seriously doubted whether an objective treatment of the facts of Haitian and Cuban exile efforts would add up to the type of story he described. Therefore, I questioned the wisdom of making such a film. He responded that the facts were quite different from what I thought.

MEMORANDUM

SUBJECT: The Activities of Rolando MASFERRER Rojas

1. Reference is made to a memorandum from this office, Subject: Plot to Overthrow Haitian Government, dated July 6, 1966, concerning a visit to a farm in the Atlanta, Georgia area by an informant who witnessed the loading of arms at the farm for shipment to temporary cache sites in homes in Miami and Coral Gables, Florida; the pickup of arms from these homes; their transfer to small boats already on trailers; and the offloading of latter at Miami River docking sites for shipment to Santo Domingo and ultimate sites on the Haitian Coast. While the information below may not be related to the incident reported in reference, the similarity of the two reports merits attention.

2. A friend of Rolando MASFERRER Rojas told a usually reliable source of this office that on 27 June 1966 MASFERRER went to a house in Miami where 200 firearms were stored. He was accompanied by two American newsmen, one of whom was a photographer. The arms were removed from the premises by agents of MASFERRER whose faces were covered. The American photographer took photographs during the removal of the arms.

3. The same usually reliable source of paragraph two reported in conjunction with the above that as of early July 1966, action groups such as the Second National Front of the Escambray, ALPHA-66, Comandos-L, and Los Pinos Nuevos, possessed only small quantities of arms. The only substantial amount of arms in the area was in the hands of MASFERRER.

4. This information is being disseminated to the Federal Bureau of Investigation and the Department of State.

SOURCE: A member of a group of Cuban emigres trained in the techniques of information collection. The group has provided useful reports since 1961.

1. On 27 or 28 April 1966, in New York, Rolando Masferrer Rojas, former Cuban senator who has been involved in plans for action against President Francois Duvalier of Haiti, received a letter from the Haitian who is heading the operation against Haiti. The Haitian instructed Masferrer to send a trusted person to the office of Bill Harris, 7150 N.W. 77th Avenue, Miami, Florida, to talk with Vernon Johnson, a Negro. The Haitian described Johnson as a trustworthy person who would be in charge of getting arms. Under no circumstances was Masferrer's ~~emisarry~~ emissary to talk with anyone else.

2. Antonio Rojas Masferrer, Rolando Masferrer's cousin in Miami, contacted [illegible] Johnson, who said that he had in the Miami area all the equipment and arms needed for the operation [illegible] ~~was only awaiting the orders to~~ release them.

3. Rojas and Enrique Masferrer Rojas, Rolando Masferrer's brother, asked a son of Cesar Camacho Coveni, who was Minister of Justice in Cuba under Fulgencio Batista [illegible] Zaldivar, to investigate Johnson. Camacho's son, who conducts private investigations, reported later that Johnson is an arms runner who also deals in military equipment.

ment. Rojas said he had also been able to learn that although Johnson dressed in a suit and necktie he lived in a small, cheap room in one of the poor, Negro sections of Miami.

4. After writing the letter, the Haitian visited Rolando Masferrer in New York, brought to him equipment worth $2,000, and told him to be patient, for the operation against Haiti would be accomplished.

5. On 6 May Antonio Rojas Masferrer received a long-distance telephone call from the Haitian, who was in Canada. According to Rojas, the Haitian had told him that when Duvalier goes to Argentina he will not return to Haiti.[3] Rojas added that the United States Government knows this; that some of the Ton Ton Macoutes (Duvalier's personal police) were already giving up their jobs and others had been killed in the streets. The United States Government therefore fears that the Communists may take over in Haiti.

6. Rojas said that Rolando Masferrer was worried about the lapse of time in initiating the Haitian operation and feared that the plan might never materialize. However, Rojas felt that if the Haitian plan did not work out, the arms, which would have supplied about 150 men, could be used in attacks against Cuba.
against Cuba.

Field Comments:

1. Source gave the Haitian's name as Vicemart (sic). Henri Vixamar, who has been identified earlier as the Haitian in charge of the anti-Duvalier plan, is undoubtedly the person referred to. Vixamar left Kingston for Toronto by air on 12 April. For two related reports, see ~~UFG-8275~~ and ~~UFG-8281~~.
CSDB-316/01431-66

2. The telephone directory for the Greater Miami area lists Central Truck Sales at this address.

3. Duvalier has announced that he will attend meeting of heads of State scheduled to be held in Buenos Aires in July.

PADA : United States, Miami (27 April 1966)

SOURCE : A member of a group of Cuban émigrés trained in the techniques of information collection. The group has provided useful reports since 1961.

1. According to Enrique Masferrer Rojas, his brother ~~[illegible]~~ Rolando Masferrer Rojas, former Cuban senator who has been planning action against President François Duvalier of Haiti, left Miami, Florida, for New York on 25 April 1966 to settle several matters pending there. He planned to return to Miami afterward to wait for the right time to invade Haiti.[1]

2. Enrique Masferrer stated that his brother had found somebody who had agreed to transport arms ~~xx~~ from the United States to a point where the invasion forces were to meet. ~~[illegible]~~ The acquisition of two aircraft to be used in the invasion effort is still pending. Previously, Rolando Masferrer had said that he would buy or lease them in Miami and then locate a place outside United ~~xxx~~ States territory where they could ~~[illegible]~~ land and be loaded with bombs.[2]

3. According to Enrique Masferrer, the Haitian who was in Canada arranging various aspects of the operation, had traveled to the United States in the company of two former colonels of the Haitian Army who allegedly had the support of ~~[illegible]~~ 80 to 90 Haitian émigrés.[3] The Haitian émigrés were to meet at ~~[illegible]~~ an appointed site and be picked up by [illegible] on the plane when the time to initiate the plan came about. The former Haitian ~~[illegible]~~ colonels have stated that if they succeed in establishing a beachhead in Haiti with the arms and men ~~[illegible]~~ who currently support them, Duvalier will leave the country within 24 hours.

4. Reportedly, Rolando Masferrer had asked representatives of the Institutos Armados de la República de Cuba (Armed Institutes of the Republic of Cuba) to contribute men to the operation. The representatives agreed to ~~xxxx~~ discuss the matter.

5. Rolando Masferrer again mentioned that his ultimate objective was an attack on Cuba using Haiti as his base.

Field Comments

1. Rolando Masferrer has been discussing plans for an invasion of Haiti for many months. TDCSDB-315/00658-66 reported the difficulties he was encountering. See, also, ~~UFG-0326.~~ CSDB-312/01431-66.

2. Among earlier claims by Masferrer was one that he had already purchased the two aircraft. See TDCSDB-315/00289-66 and ~~UFG-0326.~~ CSDB-312/01431-66.

3. The Haitian referred to is probably Henri Vixamar, described earlier as a former Haitian and an official of the Republic of Chad. Vixamar left Kingston for Toronto on 12 April by air. There was a previous report on a telephone conversation between Rolando Masferrer, then in Miami, and "the Haitian in Canada" regarding "Operation Haiti." ~~and UFG-0775.~~

THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION. SOURCE GRADINGS ARE DEFINITIVE. APPRAISAL OF CONTENT IS TENTATIVE.

SOURCE A member of a group of Cuban émigrés trained in the techniques of information collection. The group has provided useful reports since 1961.

1. On 21 April 1966 Enrique Masferrer Rojas said that his brother, Rolando Masferrer Rojas, who was in Miami, had received a telephone call from Canada on an unspecified date from the person who was to be the President of Haiti in "Operation Haiti." The Haitian asked Rolando Masferrer to go to Canada in order to ~~to hold discussions~~ discuss details. Rolando Masferrer replied that he was in a difficult position and could not leave the United States.

The Haitian then asked that Rolando Masferrer send an emissary whom he ~~trusted~~ trusted completely and who was knowledgeable of the ~~details~~ steps necessary ~~to~~ accomplishing the mission in Haiti. An unidentified emissary left for Canada on 18 or 19 April.

the mission in Haiti. An unidentified emissary left for Canada on ~~18 or 19 April~~.

On 21 April Rolando Masferrer received a telephone call from his emissary in Canad ~~and the Haitian. Thxx His representative said~~ said that ~~thexHaitianxhaxxx~~ he had received a check from the Haitian which was sufficient for their needs.

3. Rolando Masferrer bought a boat on an unspecified date from the Junta Revolucionaria Cubana (JURE, Cuban Revolutionary Junta) for $25,000. The boat, which is in Miami, was then used as security for a loan of $5,000 which will be used to buy arms. According to Enrique Masferrer, everything that is needed has been obtained, and the operation will definitely be carried out.

4. Another Cuban émigré in Miami said that Rolando Masferrer has about 400 men and all of the equipment which is needed for a military operation.

5. According to the émigre, Rolando Masferrer said ~~that he has the right to fight for his~~ native country, ~~and~~ that he has all the equipment that is needed, including two planes and several boats, to carry out his plans. Rolando Masferrer added that he had been persecuted by authorities of the United States Government. He said that after Fidel Castro Ruz has been overthrown he, Masferrer, will leave for Cuba immediately, with or without permission from U. S. authorities. He plans to follow the example of Francisco Caamano Deno, who, with a small group, stood firm, and became a recognized power in the Dominican Republic.

Field Comments.

1. TDCSDB-315/00714-66 gives information on the Masferrer's plans to invade Haiti.

2. The Haitian may be Henri Vixamar, who has previously been reported to be involved in the plans to invade Haiti. He left Kingston, Jamaica, on 12 April for Toronto, Canada.

3. Source Comment. Masferrer's involvement in a plan to invade Haiti may be a subterfuge for obtaining a military force and equipment which will be prepared for action in the event an internal upheaval occurs in Cuba.

Field Comment. Masferrer has a tendency to exaggerate, and he is disliked and distrusted by many Cuban émigrés. TDCSDB-315/00658-66 reported on the difficulties he was encountering in trying to complete his plan for an invasion of Haiti.

While we realise that [illegible]-1 is merely an interrogator, he is, nevertheless, the direct source and should be shown as such in the source description—followed by the appropriate subsource description. The approved description for him is "A Cuban exile in Mexico who is in touch with local Cuban exiles and anti-Castro organizations."

Also, please note that when LITAMIL-9's reporting is on Cuba, his description should read "Latin American official in Mexico City who has regular contact with Cuban Embassy personnel; he has been a reliable reporter for about a year and a half." "Person(s) (B)" is not acceptable for SA reports.

Not dissem. Inaccurate. Possibly "open embassies" was meant, rather than "establish diplomatic relations". Both Spain and Brazil have ambassadors in Algiers, and have had for some time. Algeria has announced that it planned to open embassies in several countries, including Brazil and Argentina.

While we realise that AMSWIPE-1 is merely an interrogator, he is, nevertheless, the direct source and should be shown as such in the source description—followed by the appropriate subsource description. The approved description for him is "A Cuban exile in Mexico who is in touch with local Cuban exiles and anti-Castro organizations."

Also, please note that when LITAMIL-9's reporting is on Cuba, his description should read "Latin American official in Mexico City who has regular contact with Cuban Embassy personnel; he has been a reliable reporter for about a year and a half." "Person(s) (B)" is not acceptable for SA reports.

No dissem. Inaccurate. Possibly "open embassies" was meant, rather than "establish diplomatic relations". Both Spain and Brazil have ambassadors in Algiers, and have had for some time. Algeria has announced that it planned to open embassies in several countries, including Brazil and Argentina.

Did station in fact mean to say OAS meeting in JANUARY 1964 or does this report refer to the July 64 meeting? Have presumed to change January to July in the title and in the body of the report. If January is correct please let us known and we will issue a correction.

ATTENTION: Wayne Carley

C-101,331

1. With reference to your memorandum dated 24 June 1963 attaching FRQ Part II and requesting an Operational Approval for Subject's use, your attention is directed to derogatory information forwarded by Station Mexico to the effect that an ODIBEX report dated 25 August 1959 stated that Col. Arturo [illegible], Mexican Army G-2, believed Subject to be a Communist and one of the most influential members of the Cuban Embassy staff.

2. On 18 September 1962 we requested SAS, which then had Headquarters responsibility for this case, to request Station Mexico City to determine the basis for Mexico G-2's allegation, to obtain any evidence substantiating the allegation, and to conduct such investigation as was possible to determine the truth or falseness of the allegation. It was further agreed that SAS would determine whether the Station had direct access to Subject and would recommend polygraphing him if it were feasible. We have no indication that any of this has been accomplished or attempted.

3. On 20 February 1963, because of the exigencies of the situation at that particular time, a Provisional Operational Approval was granted only for training of Subject. The Provisional Operational Approval specified that approval for operational use of the Subject was deferred pending satisfactory resolution of the derogatory information, which CI Staff did not consider to have been accomplished. The FRQ Part II on Subject clearly shows that he has been used operationally for the past year without any approval.

4. Operational Approval for Subject's use cannot be granted until there has been compliance with our previous request to resolve the derogatory information as reported by ODIBEX from Mexican G-2.

SUMMARY OF INFORMATION WITHIN FILE:

LITAMIL-9 was recruited by the Mexico City Station in late 62 while he was assigned to the Cuban Embassy as Cultural Attache. He provided the Station intelligence while he was in this assignment. He was deactivated in March 1965 when he returned to Cuba and was seen only occasionally after that. His contract was terminated in 1970 because of his lack of access. Only one relevant document was found which indicated that Proenza, who worked at the Cuban Embassy, believed that the strong objection to the Mexican Government by the Cuban Embassy over the Duran's detention was a diplomatic error. This document was processed for release.

MEMORANDUM FOR: C/CI/OA

SUBJECT : Operational Approval for LITAMIL-9

1. The Provisional Operational Approval for LITAMIL-9 (C-101331) is due to expire 8 January 1965.

2. In discussions with the field case officer for this operation, WH/1/Mexico has found that there is no way to determine when, or whether, LITAMIL-9 will again leave Cuba. For reasons of personal security, LITAMIL-9 has not been able to function as a reporting source since his return to Cuba in early March 1965. Letters to his brother, LITAMIL-17, and reports from occasional Cuban official travelers transiting Mexico indicate that LITAMIL-9 is well and is employed by the National Cultural Council.

3. LITAMIL-9 is now an inactive agent. The Station has recently proposed that his salary cease accumulating as of 30 June 1966. If and when he again manages to leave Cuba, he will be contacted and a full assessment of his future usefulness will be made. Owing to the fact that his sister-in-law is a secretary to Fidel Castro it is expected that he will be a valuable source of information, at least for an initial debriefing period.

4. It would be appreciated if the POA on LITAMIL-9 could be extended for six months. If at the end of that time he has not left Cuba, it will be proposed that the POA be allowed to expire.

Querido Luis ¿cómo está ud.?

Antes de salir yo le llamé para preguntar su dirección y, claro está, para decir el último adiós (¡por 3 meses!), pero Ud. no estaba. Seguramente Ud. estuvo de cara al campo después del ciclón. Si es así, le deseo que Ud. sube como durante la Guerrilla de Girón, ¡no le sienta muy bien!

Hace ya 3 días que estamos en Bulgaria: un día en Sofía y dos – en Varna, en la casa de descanso del MINREX búlgaro. El viaje pasó bien, pero muy fatigante; no podíamos dormir porque no había la noche – a las 9 se ocultó el sol y a las 12 salió de nuevo. En Praga estuvimos un día, esperando. [illegible] Vimos unas [illegible] de Luxemburgo en un hotel-bar. En Sofía todo está bien. Hace bastante calor durante el día, pero las noches son muy frías. Aquí en Varna la misma historia, pero todas las playas están llenas de turistas que se ponen calientes y se bañan en el mar frío. Nosotros no nos bañamos [illegible] [illegible] Luis, hasta luego. [illegible]

Translation of a post card from Kira KOSOVSKA to LITAMIL-9. Kira is the wife of Anguel KOSOVSKI, who was a Second Secretary in the Bulgarian Embassy in Havana as of October 1965. They are now back in Sofia, Bulgaria. The card was mailed from Bulgaria to Cuba.

Dear Luis, how are you? Before leaving I called you to verify your address and, of course, to say "the last goodbye" (for three months!), but you weren't there. Surely you had your mind on the countryside after the hurricane. If you did, I wish that you could climb like during the fifteen days of Girón, that would suit you very well.

We have been in Bulgaria for three days now: one day in Sofia and two in Varna in the guest house of the Bulgarian [illegible]. The trip went fine, but it was very fatiguing; we couldn't sleep because it wasn't night -- at 9 the sun set and at 12 came out again. In Prague we spent one day while waiting for the plane to Sofia. We are living like Counts of Luxembourg in a luxury hotel. In Sofia everything is fine. It is quite hot during the day, but the nights are very cold. Here in Varna it's the same story, but all the hotels are full of tourists who get brave and go swimming in the cold sea. As for us, we haven't gone swimming yet. And generally after Cuba I am indifferent to the sea. Luis, until later.

¡Buenos días, Luis! ¿C[illegible] andan? ¡Nosotros estamos bien, recordamos frecuentemente a La Habana y a nuestros amigos (yo - a un hombre „aburrido" también). Después del Mar Negro estuvimos una semana en Sofía, y la semana siguiente descansamos en la casa turística de la Radio-Sofía (antes de salir para Cuba yo trabajaba en la Radio-Sofía), situada en la montaña Vitosha, cerca de Sofía. Los búlgaros llaman esa montaña „pulmones de la capital". Es un lugar muy bonito. Nosotros viviendo en las ciudades, olvidamos frecuentemente las alegrías simples - acostarnos en la hierba y mirar el cielo, escuchar el silencio - ¿verdad? En Vitosha recordamos todo eso. Ahora estamos en Sofía preparándonos para continuar nuestro turismo por las montañas. A mí me gusta mucho andar y ahora tengo esta posibilidad. Pensamos subir al pico más alto en Bulgaria - Mus-alá (2925 m.) No es difícil - no es tan alto. Qué buen país es Bulgaria, pero según mi opinión le faltan hombres contemplativos, - sí, verdad, - todos son demasiado prácticos. ¡Hasta luego, Luis!

Good morning, Luis! How are you? We are well. We frequently think of Havana and of our friends (I - of a "bored" man too). After the Black Sea we spent one week in Sofia, and the following week we relaxed at the Radio Sofia tourist house (before leaving for Cuba I worked for Radio Sofia), located on the Vitusha, near Sofia. The Bulgarians call this mountain "lungs of the capital". It's a very lovely place. Living in cities, we frequently forget simple pleasures -- lying down in the grass and looking at the sky, listening to the silence. Isn't that true? On Vitosha (sic) we remembered all that. We are now in Sofia, preparing to continue our tour through the mountains. I like to walk a lot, and now I have the opportunity. We plan to climb the highest peak in Bulgaria -- Mus-ala (2925 meters). It isn't difficult -- it's not very high. What a good country Bulgaria is, but in my opinion she lacks contemplative men. Yes, yes, that's true. They are all too practical. Until later, Luis!

Todavía estamos en Varna, más exacto – a unos 15 km de la ciudad de Varna, eso no importa porque todo aquí es la zona de playas, hoteles etc. El tiempo hizo bueno, y ahora nosotros nos bañamos y tomamos sol, pero lo hacemos sin afán – somos mimados para siempre por las playas Santa María y Atlántico y por el sol cubano! Al mismo tiempo es muy agradable que aquí no hay tiburones y se puede nadar dondequiera.

Durante 2 años nosotros olvidamos muchas cosas y ahora nos admiramos del clima, de la naturaleza etc. Es verdad – aquí el aire mismo es absolutamente distinto, fresco, sano, lleno de olores de la hierba y de los árboles. A unas 300-400 m de la costa comienzan las montañas, cubiertas de bosques. Lamento mucho de que Ud. Luis, no pueda ver todo eso, pero soy optimista y estoy segura que tarde o temprano Ud. visitará Bulgaria. ¿Sabe lo que cuentan acerca de la formación del país? - Cuando Dios dividía la Tierra entre los ingleses, franceses y otros, el búlgaro no pudo venir porque estaba trabajando. Entonces cuando vino, ya no había tierra. Dios le regañó, pero tuvo que hacer algo. Entonces él tomó un cuchillo y cortó para el búlgaro un pedazito del paraíso.

No exagero - en realidad la costa del Mar Negro en Bulgaria es muy bonita. Ahora aquí están de descanso cerca de 25-30 miles de extranjeros. Y lo que es muy interesante - la mayoría eran de los países capitalistas. A cada paso se oye el francés, alemán, sueco. Tenemos un conocido - director de uno de los hoteles; él, por exemplo, dice que en su hotel viven por 28 días algunas familias de Suiza y de Bélgica y que todos están muy contentos, diciendo que el descanso en Bulgaria es agradable y barato al mismo tiempo, más barato que en Nice o en Italia. Así Bulgaria desarrolla intensivamente el turismo internacional y, claro está, gana mucho.

Pero qué cosas aburridas escribo yo! Estoy segura que Ud. ya tiene sueño. De ninguna manera quiero que Ud. piense que son los ejercicios del español para no olvidarlo. Simplemente quiero contar algunas de mis impresiones y observaciones y Ud., un hombre tan bueno y fino, puede comprenderlo, ¿verdad?

Una cosa interesante más acerca del servicio turístico aquí. Están abiertos algunos restaurantes típicos nacionales donde se manifestó la fantasía búlgara. Por ejemplo, uno representa un lugar donde están ovejas (no sé como se llama en español), es un patio grande ~~[illegible]~~ dividido en patios pequeños, todo como en el pueblo; hay un foco de piedra en el suelo, donde hierva algo en un cesto grande, hay cocina de piedra también con el fuego dentro, hay algunas construcciones de campo

- todo verdadero. Para que el cuadro sea completo en uno de los patios pequeños se encuentra un burro, en otro 1 algunas ovejas y... todos respiran un olor terrible! Pero todos están contentos y sacan fotografías etc. Los camareros están vestidos en trajes nacionales y toca la orquesta nacional también. ¿Imagina Ud., Luis? Es muy simpático!

El otro restaurante, por ejemplo, representa el interior de (no sé en español, en francés - le moulin) hay la piedra para moler, hay sacos llenos donde se sienta etc., etc. La comida se sirve en platos nacionales... pero no hablemos de la comida: hay todo en abundancia. Después de las primeras admiraciones („qué sabrosas cerezas!" „qué grandes melocotones!" etc.) yo descubrí un gran peligro en todo eso para mí. Si, por ejemplo, Angel sube 2-4 libras no hacen problema, pero para mí es problema # 1!

Hasta luego, Luis. Le estrecho la mano. La carta - entre nous

Translation of a letter from Kira KOSOVSKA to LITAMIL-9. Kira is the wife of Anguel KOSOVSKI, who was a Second Secretary in the Bulgarian Embassy in Havana as of October 1965. They are now back in Sofia, Bulgaria. The letter was mailed from Bulgaria to Cuba.

Good evening, Luis! How have you been? Working a lot, as always? Which to choose -- of two opinions on work ("horses die from working" and "work created Man") it is better to choose the second, isn't it?

We are still in Varna, more exactly some 15 kilometers from the city of Varna; this doesn't matter because everything here is the area of beaches, hotels, etc. The weather improved, and now we go swimming and sunbathing, but we do so without eagerness -- we are spoiled permanently by the Santa María and Atlantic beaches and by the Cuban sun! At the same time it is very nice that here there are no sharks and one can swim anywhere one wants.

In the course of two years we forgot many things and now we are enjoying the climate, nature, etc. It's true -- here even the air is absolutely different: fresh, healthful, full of the odors of grass and trees. Some 300 - 400 meters from the coast the mountains, covered with forests, begin. I am very sorry that you, Luis, cannot see all this, but I am an optimist and I am sure that sooner or later you will visit Bulgaria. Do you know what they say about the formation of the country? When God was dividing the Earth among the English, the French, and others, the Bulgarian could not come because he was working. Then when he came, there was no land left. God scolded him, but he had to do something. So he took a knife and cut a little piece of paradise for the Bulgarian.

I am not exaggerating -- really the coast of the Black Sea in Bulgaria is very pretty. Now there are about 25 - 30 thousand foreigners here on vacation. And what is very interesting -- the majority from the capitalistic countries. At every step one hears French, German, Swedish. We have an acquaintance -- the manager of one of the hotels; he, for example, says that some families from Switzerland and from Belgium have been living in his hotel for 28 days, and that all are very happy, saying that the vacation in Bulgaria is pleasant and inexpensive at the same time, less expensive than in Nice or Italy. Thus Bulgaria is developing international tourism intensively and, of course, is bringing in a lot of money.

But what boring things I'm writing! I'm sure that you are already sleepy. Not by any means do I want you to think that these are exercises in Spanish so as not to forget it. I simply want to relate some of my impressions and observations, and you, a man so good and fine, can understand, can't you?

One more interesting thing about the tourist service here. There are some typical national restaurants open where Bulgarian fantasy is represented. For example, one represents a place where there are sheep (I don't know what it is in Spanish). It's a large patio divided into small patios, everything like in a town. There is a stone hearth in the floor, where something boils in a big basket. There is a stone stove, also with a fire inside. There are some farm buildings, everything true to life. To make the picture complete, in one of the small patios there is a burro, in another, some sheep, and ... they all have a terrible odor! But everybody is happy and taking pictures, etc. The waiters are dressed in national costumes and the national orchestra plays too. Can you imagine it, Luis? It's very nice! The other restaurant, for example, represents the interior of (I don't know in Spanish, in French -- the mill). There is the stone for grinding, there are filled sacks where you sit, etc., etc. The food is served in national dishes ... but let's not talk about food -- there is everything in abundance. After the first admirations ("what delicious cherries!", what big peaches!", etc.), I discovered a great danger for me in all this. If, for example, Anguel gains 2 - 4 pounds, it's no problem but for me it's problem #1!

I'll close now. Before closing I'll tell you a joke (appropriate!). A family went to bed one night. Suddenly a loud noise was heard -- the cat knocked something over in the kitchen. But the frightened woman cried: "Run, my husband is coming!" and her husband, frightened also, jumped out of the window in his pajamas.

Until later, Luis. I give you my hand. The letter -- between us, is that all right?

1. LITAMIL-9 seems to be trapped inside PBRUMEN. On 18 August the Case Officer met with LITAMIL-17 (L-9's brother) to review two letters received from L-9. One of these, dated 15 July and mailed at Gander, Newfoundland (presumably by an airline crew member), used the term "de lo mas bien." This is an indicator meaning "I expect to leave within a year." In another (undated) letter L-9 reports that he has been promoted to "Secretario de Segunda."

2. L-9 asked for a large quantity of art supplies and mentioned that he is doing a lot of painting since he has not yet gone back to work. The quantity of material requested indicates that he expects to remain inside for some time.

3. The C/O asked L-17 to phone L-9, ostensibly to request further detail on how to ship the art supplies. In the course of the conversation L-17 was to ask L-9 how long he expected to remain in PBRUMEN. L-17 reported on 28 August that he had spoken with L-9. L-9 said he did not expect to leave for "a long time."

4. With the recent defections of AMWASP-1 and a PBRUMEN Ambassador in Europe it may be difficult for L-9 to obtain a foreign post. It is not likely that he could seriously be considered politically reliable by the PBRUMEN Government. With the return of his mother and sister from Spain he no longer has an excuse to request permission to visit Madrid. The only bright spot on the horizon is his sister-in-law's close relationship to AMTHUG. L-17 feels that it is to her advantage to have L-9 abroad so L-9 can send her consumer goods which are unobtainable in PBRUMEN.

5. At present the Station has no reason to believe L-9 will be able to leave PBRUMEN any time soon.

Querido Luis cómo está Ud.?

Antes de salir yo le llamé para precisar su dirección y, claro está, para decir el último adiós (por 3 meses!), pero Ud. no estaba. Seguramente Ud. estuvo de cara al campo después del ciclón. Si es así, le deseo que Ud. sale como durante la Quincena de Girón, eso le sienta muy bien!

Hace ya 3 días que estamos en Bulgaria: un día en Sofía y dos - en Varna, en la casa de descanso del MINREX búlgaro. El viaje pasó bien, pero muy fatigante, no pudimos dormir porque no había la noche y a las 9 se ocultó el sol y a las 12 salió de nuevo. En Praga estuvimos un día, esperando del avión para Sofía. Vivimos como [illegible] de Luxemburgo en un hotel-bar. En Sofía todo está bien. Hace bastante calor durante el día pero las noches son muy frías. Aquí en Varna la misma historia, pero todos los hoteles están llenos de turistas que se ponen [illegible] y se bañan en el mar frío. Nosotros ni nos [illegible] [illegible] de Ud. — muy [illegible] el mar. Hasta luego. Sinceramente [illegible]

Translation of a post card from Kira KOSOVSKA to LITAMIL-9. Kira is the wife of Anguel KOSOVSKI, who was a Second Secretary in the Bulgarian Embassy in Havana as of October 1965. They are now back in Sofia, Bulgaria. The card was mailed from Bulgaria to Cuba.

Dear Luis, how are you? Before leaving I called you to verify your address and, of course, to say "the last goodbye" (for three months!), but you weren't there. Surely you had your mind on the countryside after the hurricane. If you did, I wish that you could climb like during the fifteen days of Girón, that would suit you very well.

We have been in Bulgaria for three days now: one day in Sofia and two in Varna in the guest house of the Bulgarian MINREX. The trip went fine, but it was very fatiguing; we couldn't sleep because it wasn't night -- at 9 the sun set and at 12 came out again. In Prague we spent one day while waiting for the plane to Sofia. We are living like Counts of Luxembourg in a luxury hotel. In Sofia everything is fine. It is quite hot during the day, but the nights are very cold. Here in Varna it's the same story, but all the hotels are full of tourists who get brave and go swimming in the cold sea. As for us, we haven't gone swimming yet. And generally after Cuba I am indifferent to the sea. Luis, until later.

¡Buenos días, Luis! ¿Cómo andan?

Nosotros estamos bien, recordamos frecuentemente a La Habana y a nuestros amigos (yo – a un hombre „aburrido" también). Después del Mar Negro estuvimos una semana en Sofía, y la semana siguiente descansamos en la casa turística de la Radio-Sofía (antes de salir para Cuba yo trabajaba en la Radio-Sofía), situada en la montaña Vitosha, cerca de Sofía. Los búlgaros llaman esa montaña „pulmones de la capital". Es un lugar muy bonito. Nosotros viviendo en las ciudades, olvidamos frecuentemente las alegrías simples – acostarnos en la hierba y mirar el cielo, escuchar el silencio – ¿verdad? En Vitosha recordamos todo eso. Ahora estamos en Sofía preparándonos para continuar nuestro turismo por las montañas. A mí me gusta mucho andar y ahora tengo esta posibilidad. Pensamos subir el pico más alto en Bulgaria – Mus-alá (2925 m.) No es difícil – no es tan alto. Qué buen país es Bulgaria, pero según mi opinión le faltan hábitos contemplativos, ¿verdad? – todos son demasiado prácticos. ¡Hasta luego, Luis!

Good morning, Luis! How are you? We are well. We frequently think of Havana and of our friends (I - of a "bored" man too). After the Black Sea we spent one week in Sofia, and the following week we relaxed at the Radio Sofia tourist house (before leaving for Cuba I worked for Radio Sofia), located on the Vitusha, near Sofia. The Bulgarians call this mountain "lungs of the capital". It's a very lovely place. Living in cities, we frequently forget simple pleasures -- lying down in the grass and looking at the sky, listening to the silence. Isn't that true? On Vitosha (sic) we remembered all that. We are now in Sofia, preparing to continue our tour through the mountains. I like to walk a lot, and now I have the opportunity. We plan to climb the highest peak in Bulgaria -- Mus-ala (2925 meters). It isn't difficult -- it's not very high. What a good country Bulgaria is, but in my opinion she lacks contemplative men. Yes, yes, that's true. They are all too practical. Until later, Luis!

Todavía estamos en Varna, más exacto – a unos 15 km de la ciudad de Varna, eso no importa porque todo aquí es la zona de playas, hoteles etc. El tiempo hizo bueno, y ahora nosotros nos bañamos y tomamos sol, pero lo hacemos sin afán – somos mimados para siempre por las playas Santa María y Atlántico y por el sol cubano! Al mismo tiempo es muy agradable que aquí no hay tiburones y se puede nadar dondequiera.

Durante 2 años nosotros olvidamos muchas cosas y ahora nos admiramos del clima, de la naturaleza etc. Es verdad – aquí el aire mismo es absolutamente distinto: fresco, sano, lleno de olores de la hierba y de los árboles. A unas 300-400 m. de la costa comienzan las montañas, cubiertas de bosques. Lamento mucho de que Ud. Luis, no pueda ver todo eso, pero soy optimista y estoy segura que tarde o temprano Ud. visitará Bulgaria. ¿Sabe lo que cuentan acerca de la formación del pays? - Cuando Dios dividía la Tierra entre los ingleses, franceses y otros, el búlgaro no pudo venir porque estaba trabajando. Entonces cuando vino, ya no había tierra. Dios le regañó, pero tuvo que hacer algo. Entonces él tomó un cuchillo y cortó para el búlgaro un pedazito del paraíso.

No exagero - en realidad la costa del Mar Negro en Bulgaria es muy bonita. Ahora aquí están de descanso cerca de 25-30 miles de extranjeros. Y lo que es muy interesante - la mayoría eran de los países capitalistas. A cada paso se oye el francés, alemán, sueco. Tenemos un conocido - director de uno de los hoteles; él, por ejemplo, dice que en su hotel viven por 28 días algunas familias de Suiza y de Bélgica y que todos están muy contentos, diciendo que el descanso en Bulgaria es agradable y barato al mismo tiempo, más barato que en Niza o en Italia. Así Bulgaria desarrolla intensivamente el turismo internacional y, claro está, gana mucho.

¡Pero qué cosas aburridas escribo yo! Estoy segura que Ud. ya tiene sueño. De ninguna manera quiero que Ud. piense que son los ejercicios del español para no olvidarlo. Simplemente quiero contar algunas de mis impresiones y observaciones y Ud., un hombre tan bueno y fino, pueda comprenderlo, ¿verdad?

Una cosa interesante más acerca del servicio turístico aquí. Están abiertos algunos restaurantes típicos nacionales donde se manifestó la fantasía búlgara. Por ejemplo, uno representa un lugar, donde están ovejas (no sé como se llama en español), es un patio grande dividido en patios pequeños, todo como en el pueblo; hay un foco de piedra en el suelo, donde hierva algo en un cesto grande, hay cocina de piedra también con el fuego dentro, hay algunas construcciones de campo

- todo verdadero. Para que el cuadro sea completo en uno de los patios pequeños se encuentra un burro, en otro 1 algunas ovejas y... todos respiran un olor terrible! Pero todos están contentos y sacan fotografías etc. Los camareros están vestidos en trajes nacionales y toca la orquesta nacional también. ¿Lo imagina Ud., Luis? Es muy simpático!

El otro restaurante, por ejemplo, representa el interior de (no sé en español, en francés - le moulin) hay la piedra para moler, hay sacos llenos donde se sienta etc., etc. La comida se sirve en platos nacionales.. pero no hablemos de la comida - hay todo en abundancia. Después de las primeras admiraciones („qué sabrosas cerezas!", „qué grandes melocotones!" etc.) yo descubrí un gran peligro en todo eso para mí. Si, por ejemplo, Angel sube 2-4 libras no hacen problema, pero para mí es problema #1!

Así termino. Para terminar le cuento un chiste (conveniente!) Una familia se acostó una noche. De pronto se oyó un ruido fuerte — el gato chocó algo en la cocina. Pero la mujer asustada gritó: „Corre, mi marido viene!" Y su esposo, asustado también, salió corriendo por la ventana en pijama.

Hasta luego, Luis. Le estrecho la mano. La carta - entre nous, esta bien

Translation of a letter from Kira KOSOVSKA to LITAMIL-9. Kira is the wife of Anguel KOSOVSKI, who was a Second Secretary in the Bulgarian Embassy in Havana as of October 1965. They are now back in Sofia, Bulgaria. The letter was mailed from Bulgaria to Cuba.

Good evening, Luis! How have you been? Working a lot, as always? Which to choose -- of two opinions on work ("horses die from working" and "work created Man") it is better to choose the second, isn't it?

We are still in Varna, more exactly some 15 kilometers from the city of Varna; this doesn't matter because everything here is the area of beaches, hotels, etc. The weather improved, and now we go swimming and sunbathing, but we do so without eagerness -- we are spoiled permanently by the Santa María and Atlantic beaches and by the Cuban sun! At the same time it is very nice that here there are no sharks and one can swim anywhere one wants.

In the course of two years we forgot many things and now we are enjoying the climate, nature, etc. It's true -- here even the air is absolutely different: fresh, healthful, full of the odors of grass and trees. Some 300 - 400 meters from the coast the mountains, covered with forests, begin. I am very sorry that you, Luis, cannot see all this, but I am an optimist and I am sure that sooner or later you will visit Bulgaria. Do you know what they say about the formation of the country? When God was dividing the Earth among the English, the French, and others, the Bulgarian could not come because he was working. Then when he came, there was no land left. God scolded him, but he had to do something. So he took a knife and cut a little piece of paradise for the Bulgarian.

I am not exaggerating -- really the coast of the Black Sea in Bulgaria is very pretty. Now there are about 25 - 30 thousand foreigners here on vacation. And what is very interesting -- the majority from the capitalistic countries. At every step one hears French, German, Swedish. We have an acquaintance -- the manager of one of the hotels; he, for example, says that some families from Switzerland and from Belgium have been living in his hotel for 25 days, and that all are very happy, saying that the vacation in Bulgaria is pleasant and inexpensive at the same time, less expensive than in Nice or Italy. Thus Bulgaria is developing international tourism intensively and, of course, is bringing in a lot of money.

But what boring things I'm writing! I'm sure that you are already sleepy. Not by any means do I want you to think that these are exercises in Spanish so as not to forget it. I simply want to relate some of my impressions and observations, and you, a man so good and fine, can understand, can't you?

One more interesting thing about the tourist service here. There are some typical national restaurants open where Bulgarian fantasy is represented. For example, one represents a place where there are sheep (I don't know what it is in Spanish). It's a large patio divided into small patios, everything like in a town. There is a stone hearth in the floor, where something boils in a big basket. There is a stone stove, also with a fire inside. There are some farm buildings, everything true to life. To make the picture complete, in one of the small patios there is a burro, in another, some sheep, and ... they all have a terrible odor! But everybody is happy and taking pictures, etc. The waiters are dressed in national costumes and the national orchestra plays too. Can you imagine it, Luis? It's very nice! The other restaurant, for example, represents the interior of (I don't know in Spanish, in French -- the mill). There is the stone for grinding, there are filled sacks where you sit, etc., etc. The food is served in national dishes ... but let's not talk about food -- there is everything in abundance. After the first admirations ("what delicious cherries!", what big peaches!", etc.), I discovered a great danger for me in all this. If, for example, Anguel gains 2 - 4 pounds, it's no problem but for me it's problem #1!

I'll close now. Before closing I'll tell you a joke (appropriate!). A family went to bed one night. Suddenly a loud noise was heard -- the cat knocked something over in the kitchen. But the frightened woman cried: "Run, my husband is coming!" and her husband, frightened also, jumped out of the window in his pajamas.

Until later, Luis. I give you my hand. The letter -- between us, is that all right?

ACTION REQUIRED - REFERENCES

Reference: HMMA 26552, 8 July 1965

1. LITAMIL-9 seems to be trapped inside PBRUMEN. On 18 August the Case Officer met with LITAMIL-17 (L-9's brother) to review two letters received from L-9. One of these, dated 15 July and mailed at Gander, Newfoundland (presumably by an airline crew member), used the term "de lo mas bien." This is an indicator meaning "I expect to leave within a year." In another (undated) letter L-9 reports that he has been promoted to "Secretario de Segunda."

2. L-9 asked for a large quantity of art supplies and mentioned that he is doing a lot of painting since he has not yet gone back to work. The quantity of material requested indicates that he expects to remain inside for some time.

3. The C/O asked L-17 to phone L-9, ostensibly to request further detail on how to ship the art supplies. In the course of the conversation L-17 was to ask L-9 how long he expected to remain in PBRUMEN. L-17 reported on 28 August that he had spoken with L-9. L-9 said he did not expect to leave for "a long time."

4. With the recent defections of AMWASP-1 and a PBRUMEN Ambassador in Europe it may be difficult for L-9 to obtain a foreign post. It is not likely that he could seriously be considered politically reliable by the PBRUMEN Government. With the return of his mother and sister from Spain he no longer has an excuse to request permission to visit Madrid. The only bright spot on the horizon is his sister-in-law's close relationship to AMTHUG. L-17 feels that it is to her advantage to have L-9 abroad so L-9 can send her consumer goods which are unobtainable in PBRUMEN.

5. At present the Station has no reason to believe L-9 will be able to leave PBRUMEN any time soon.

1. A Provisional Operational Approval for LITAMIL-9 as a reporting source in PBRUMEN has been granted as of 8 July 1965.

2. Since the PRQ Part II for LITAMIL-9 in our file dates from June 1963, and in view of his changed mission, Headquarters would appreciate the thoughtful preparation of a revised PRQ Part II for LITAMIL-9. This should reach Headquarters perhaps sixty days prior to the expiration of this POA on 8 January 1966.

PBRUMEN/LITAMIL-9/Operational Progress Report

ACTION REQUIRED - REFERENCES

1. LITAMIL-9 remains in PBRUMEN. On 19 June 1965 the C/O met with L-9's brother who reported he had talked with L-9 by telephone about 1 June. At that time L-9 was in good health and spirits and key words in his conversation indicated that he had not been bothered in any way by the PBRUMEN Security Service since his return. L-9 said that he expected to take it easy for about 3 months at which time he would probably be given a new assignment. He did not reveal whether he expected this to be a foreign assignment.

2. A PRQ Part II on L-9's brother was recently submitted with a request for Operational Approval. As noted therein, it is contemplated that he will be used only as a channel for communications to/from L-9.

3. Any new developments in this operation will be reported promptly.

well. Good.

1. On 6 May 1965 the brother of LITAMIL-9 (Subject of reference B), contacted the case officer. A meeting was held in Mexico City on the night of 7 May. L-9's brother turned over a postcard dated 25 March and a letter dated 8 April, both from L-9. These had been mailed in Mexico City on 20 April, presumably by a PERUMEN Airline pilot.

2. The card and letter revealed that L-9 is still on vacation and unmolested by PERUMEN Security forces. His mother and unmarried sister returned to PERUMEN from Madrid on 22 March and will presumably remain in PERUMEN. L-9 does not know when he will be leaving PERUMEN or where he will be stationed but the tone of his letter conveys the impression that he will be posted abroad.

3. In the letter L-9 again used a code phrase indicating that the regime appears to be leaning away from the Communist bloc.

4. A PRQ, Part II, will be forwarded soon on L-9's brother.

HMMA 25001 explained that henceforth 1 copy only of LITAMIL-9 CR's would be forwarded to WH/SA, attention Urquhart and Labanow. Both of these officers had specifically requested that LITAMIL-9 CR's be forwarded to WH/SA. In the interim, between September and January, CR's for the following meetings were placed in Station files: 10 September 64, 21 September 64, 1 October 64, 4 October 64, 23 October 64, 29 October 64, 5 November 64, and 16 November 64.

3. It is realized that an operational progress report and a contact report are two different items; however, in view of the detailed nature of the LITAMIL-9 CR's the Station has felt that their submission has satisfied the requirements of operational reporting. The criticism of reference is all the more puzzling since such visitors to the Station as Chester D. Dainold, Chief, WHD; Mortán A. Woolley, erstwhile Chief of Operations, WHD; and Thomas W. Lund, present Mexico Branch Chief, have all expressed their approval of the detailed operational reporting on this operation during visits they have made to the Station at which time the reports in question have been brought to their attention.

4. When LITAMIL-9 next exits PBRUMEN, the Station will begin to prepare formal operational progress reports on the operation.

5. As for the questions raised in paragraph 2 of reference regarding operational security, advance information on LITAMIL-9's recall came from LIENVOY but he was not informed of the imminence of his transfer until it was reported routinely by LITAMIL-7 and was generally known by his colleagues. As for the implication that LITAMIL-9 was informed of the Station's capability to intercept Embassy telephone conversations, a careful re-reading of the Memorandum under critique will show that no such acknowledgement was made. LITAMIL-9 was informed that "we have a good chance of being told about such a conversation by one of our friends," i.e. that word will probably get around in Embassy circles that LITAMIL-9 is about to travel to such-and- such a point.

As for the speculation that LITAMIL-9 suspects that Embassy phones are tapped, he has indicated his belief that this is the case ever since he was taken over by the present C/O. In fact, he is prone to say " I called so -and-so on such-and-such a matter, using the phone instead of the intercom so you could hear it." In cases wherein he has spoken this way, he has been told that chances are we will never hear about the matter discussed unless he reports on it specifically in his meetings with his C/O.

MEMORANDUM FOR: C/CI/OA

SUBJECT : Operational Approval for LITAMIL-9

1. An Operational Approval is requested for LITAMIL-9, who has recently returned to Cuba, and has accepted an FI mission from Mexico Station. The Station has expressed its reluctance to interview a Mexican officer who alleged in 1959 that LITAMIL-9 was a Communist, since this course of action would unnecessarily draw attention of this officer to our interest in LITAMIL-9. WH/1 has concurred in this decision, and considers that this unevaluated derogatory information on LITAMIL-9 is far outweighed by his performance record.

2. Realizing the risk involved in working with any Cuban national, WH/1 feels that LITAMIL-9's excellent record of cooperation, plus his acceptance of the idea of continued cooperation in a denied area favor consideration of an Operational Approval. Additionally, we have had audio coverage through the telephone in LITAMIL-9's office for the past two years or more, and during this time the Station has used the installation for spot checking his information, and is satisfied that there are no reasons to question his veracity and security or suspect that he is under control of the Cuban service.

3. Attached for your review are several contact reports of LITAMIL-9, as requested by Mr. Lally. Their prompt return will be appreciated. This office will be pleased to cooperate in any further review of this case which will facilitate the OA.

REF: HMMA-25,670 dated 23 March 1965

1. We are pleased that Barker has prevailed upon LITAMIL-9 to return to Cuba and even more important, of course, to agree to be alert to service the cause and again, still better, to agree to the use of a communications system. Considering LITAMIL-9's known reluctance for this sort of thing we understand that Barker had to be quite convincing with his arguments and also very possibly had to resort to some arm-twisting.

2. Nevertheless, lacking operational progress reports and therefore not knowing the full background of Barker's procedures, we did note that in paragraph 3.ii, page 4, of the C/R attached to reference, the Station tipped off LITAMIL-9 that he would probably be requested to return to Cuba. We assume that the tip came from the LIENVOY or LIFEAT take, and, to complete the record here, would appreciate a note as to the origin of the information that LITAMIL-9 was to be transferred. We further note from paragraph 3 of the Memorandum for the Record dated 11 March, also attached to reference, that, in essence, a further acknowledgement was made to LITAMIL-9 that the Station has the capability to intercept Cuban Embassy telephone conversations.

3. While there may be a simple explanation for this report we are constrained to make known our concern that such apparent revelations, however well-intentioned, obviously could cause unpleasant repercussions and are regarded under normal circumstances as basically unsound violations of operational compartmentation and procedure.

4. This all, of course, again raises the practical difficulties encountered in trying to provide meaningful support to the Station when proper operational reporting is consistently neglected as in the case in the LITAMIL-9 op. Consistency has virtue only when in the right direction. While we are on it, please note that Cuban op dispatches should be addressed to C/WH; the branch will see that all items reach other interested components.

SOURCE: Para. 1: Person (B) with good contacts in the Cuban Embassy in Mexico City.
Para. 2: European businessmen (F).
Appraisal of Content: 2.

1. Since mid-February 1963 Mexican immigration authorities have placed stamps in the passports of travellers to and from Cuba which read "Arrived from Cuba" and "Left for Cuba". The stamps are placed on the page with the picture.[1]

2. All requests for Mexican tourist visas in Cuba must be approved in Mexico before they are issued in Habana.[2]

Field Comments

1. Cuban visas are often issued on a separate piece of paper and not stamped in the passport, so that the passport would not show that the bearer had travelled to Cuba.

2. This regulation was first noticed in February 1963.

Documentation for travel from Mexico to Cuba does not differ from that needed for travel to other Latin American countries. The traveller must have a passport or other travel document, with a valid visa. Mexican citizens within the specified age group must also carry a cartilla militar.

Mexican security services do not screen applications for travel to Cuba. Although the Mexican Government has taken no action to prevent travel to Cuba, it has discouraged government employees from accepting invitations to Cuban-sponsored activities. It also appears to want to avoid recognition of Cuban Government activities by not sending government-sponsored delegations. These steps, plus the bothersome baggage searches, photographs, and questioning by Mexican immigration authorities have probably curtailed travel to Cuba.

SOURCE: Paras. 1,3: Person (B) with good contacts in the Cuban Embassy in Mexico City.
Para. 2: A neutralist diplomat (C) in Mexico City, from Sori Coulibaly.
Appraisal of Content: 2.

1. On 18 February 1963 Sori Coulibaly, the Ambassador of the Republic of Mali to the United Nations and to Cuba,[1] and Mamadou Traore, Deputy Permanent Representative of the Mali Mission to the United Nations, arrived in Mexico from Habana, Cuba. Coulibaly told members of the Cuban Embassy in Mexico City that he had spoken with Raul Roa, Cuban Foreign Minister, who asked Coulibaly to take steps to have the Government of Mali send a resident Ambassador to Cuba.

2. Coulibaly said that the Cubans had put pressure on him to open an office in Habana and that they had in fact given him a building for this purpose. However, Coulibaly said that he did not see how Mali could afford to open an office in Habana, in view of the fact that he had hardly enough money to operate the Mali Mission to the United Nations.[2]

3. Coulibaly and Traore left Mexico City on 20 February for New York. Coulibaly carried Mali diplomatic passport No. 23; Traore carried diplomatic passport No. 42.

[1] Headquarters Comment. Coulibaly presented his credentials in Cuba on 13 February 1963.

[2] Source Comment. Coulibaly confided that he had requested 50 million Mali francs (about $203,000.00) as an annual budget for the operation of the Mali Mission to the United Nations; that he had been allotted only one-tenth of that amount for the first quarter of 1963; and that he had not received even that.

SINOBAS CASADO, RAMON (201-334249)
WAS DELIGHTED WITH THE RECEPTION GIVEN BY PRES LOPEZ MATEOS ON 3 JAN AT THE PRESIDENTIAL PALACE. SINOBAS TOLD L-9, ANDRES ARMONA AND MANUEL SANCHEZ, WHO ACCOMPANIED HIM TO THE PALACE (SANCHEZ AS CHAUFFEUR), THAT PRES. LOPEZ MATEOS DID NOT GIVE HIM A CHANCE TO SEND GREETINGS FROM THE CUBAN REVOLUTIONARY GOV'T BUT RATHER INTERRUPTED HIM TO SAY TRASMITA MIS SALUDOS A FIDEL CASTRO AND PRES. DORTICOS. SINOBAS SAID THAT IN HIS OPINION LOPEZ HAD PREPARED THIS MESSAGE AND WAS WAITING FOR HIM. L-9 SAID THAT HE NOTICED THAT MOST OF THE DIPLOMATS WERE MERELY SHAKING HANDS AND SAYING A FEW WORDS, HOWEVER, IN THE CASE OF SINOBAS HE REMAINED WITH LOPEZ LONGER THAN MOST OF THE OTHER DIPLOMATS. AT ANY RATE, SINOBAS WAS TICKLED PINK BY WHAT LOPEZ MATEOS TOLD HIM.
ON THE WAY TO THE AIRPORT SINOBAS WHO IS A DIPLOMATIC SNOB TOLD ARMONA AND L-9 THAT THE CHANGES TO TAKE PLACE IN THE FOREIGN OFFICE WOULD MEAN THAT THEY (ARMONA AND L-9) WOULD NO LONGER BE DIPLOMATS AS SUCH, I.E. WHILE IN HAVANA THEY WOULD LOSE THEIR DIPLOMATIC STATUS. HE SAID THAT L-9 WOULD FALL UNDER THE MINISTRY OF EDUCATION, CULTURAL SECTION AND WOULD THEREFORE BE A DIPLOMAT ONLY IN A FOREIGN POST. THE SAME WITH ARMONA, WHO FALLS UNDER THE FOREIGN COMMERCE DEPT. L-9 SAID THAT SINOBAS IS ALWAYS TRYING TO IMPRESS OTHER MBRS OF THE EMB STAFF WITH HIS RANK AND THIS WAS ANOTHER EXAMPLE. L-9 CAN'T STAND SINOBAS BECAUSE OF HIS HAUGHTY EGOTISTICAL AIR, BUT IS SATISFIED WITH HIS PLIGHT BECAUSE HE FEELS THAT SINOBAS IS TAKING HIM INTO HIS CONFIDENCE MORE AND MORE AS TIME GOES ON. L-9 DESCRIBED SINOBAS' WIFE AS STRICTLY LOW CLASS WITH NOTHING TO OFFER JAN 63.

Cultural Attaché, Embassy at Mexico City

Cultural Attaché Luis Alberu arrived in Mexico in October 1959, the first Cuban representative since the fall of Batista. Early in 1962 he was transferred to the United Nations section of the Foreign Ministry but returned to Mexico on 16 March 1962 because "conditions were terrible in Cuba." He is reported to be mistrusted by other members of the Embassy.

In 1953 Alberu was identified as an artist residing in Mexico. He is possibly the brother of Mariluz Alberu Souto, Consular employee in Vigo, Spain.

Compañero:

E[illegible] con el interés del joven tunecino que Vd. nos tr[illegible], el cual desea venir a Cuba a estudiar Música, le informamos lo siguiente:

El plan de becas de la Escuela Nacional de Arte no considera hasta ahora, becados extranjeros que vengan de otros países para estudiar en ese Centro.

El MINED sí tiene, a través de Convenios, becados de países del campo socialista que vienen a estudiar según planes del referido Ministerio.

Como Vd. recordará hubo el caso de un grupo de estudiantes de Ghana que vinieron por el MINED a estudiar Idiomas y solicitaron además estudiar Música. Eso se resolvió manteniéndolos como becados de Educación (alojamiento, ropa, manutención y enseñanza del Idioma Español) y matriculándolos en uno de los Conservatorios de La Habana, donde asisten los días y horas en que tienen sus clases.

Esa sería la forma de tratar el asunto que Vd. nos plantea, asegurando ustedes en primer lugar con el MINED que ellos lo absorberán como becado; aunque en este caso no se puede resolver por Convenio ya que el interesado no procede de un país del campo socialista.

Revolucionariamente,

Dra. Carmen Pérez Poncet,
Jefe del Dpto. Nacional de
Enseñanzas Especiales.-

La Sra. Dane que se encuentra en Cuba invitada por nuestro organismo viaja acompañada del folklorista y editor ——— IRWIN SILBER. Ambos han burlado las leyes del Dpto. de Estado norteamericano que prohibe a los ciudadanos de ese país viajar a Cuba. Han llegado con la idea de conocer por ellos mismos nuestra Revolución.

Es compromisos de todos nosotros como revolucionarios recibir dignamente a estos ciudadanos norteamericanos representantes de la más valiosa clase artística de su país.

DIRECCION DE RELACIONES INTERNACIONALES

Eexcelentísimo Embajador de los E.U. Mexicanos, Sres. Miembros del Cuerpo Diplomático

Sras y Sres.

Es para mi un honor quo en ocasión como esta, represente al Consejo Nacional de Cultura en que se inaugura la exposición "Caleidoscopio Fotográfico" del artista mexicano Nacho López.

Creo sinceramente, que el gran artista Nacho López, no necesita presentación, su arte en muy conocido en Cuba a través de revistas internacionales y periódicos que con frecuencia reproducen su trabajo artísitico; además no es la primera vez que tengamos el gusto de tenerlo entre nosotros así como a otors tantos mexicanos ilustres que nos ham visitado desde el triunfo de la Revolución.

Aquí en esta sala encontraremos un exponente gráfico de lo que tan acertadamente nos dice en su introspectiva el artista que nos ocupa.

"El placer en sí - más no la diversión - de producir imágenes que despierten ideas y emociones en el espectador, pretendo hacerlo conscientede que el mundo no son cuatro paredes, trabajo y familia; sino que hay otras formas bellas y horribles, otros rostros que tambien viven, respiran y mueren, en busca de las mismas necesidades eternas: trabajo, vestido, comida y dignidad.

La exposición que nos disponemos a admirar estrecha aún más los lazos que nos une con el gran país hermano México, y no quisiera dejar de destacar en esta oportunidad, la satisfacción que nos produce cooperar con la Embajada de México que ha hecho posible la exposición que se ofrece conjuntamante con la Sociedad Cubano-Mexicana de Relaciones Culturales y el Consejo Nacional de Cultura (Delegación Provincial)

Muchas gracias,

○ PBRUMEN/OA for LITAMIL-9

ACTION REQUIRED - REFERENCES

Action Required: See paragraph 1.

Reference : HMMW-15933, 16 November 1967

1. Forwarded as Attachment One, herewith, is a PRQ Part II on LITAMIL-9. Forwarded as Attachment Two, under separate cover, is the Part I of the same PRQ. As previously reported, Station meets very infrequently with LITAMIL-9, who is very busy, spends most of his time outside Mexico City, and is largely out of touch with PBRUMEN and LIRING. He has, for example, only visited LIRING twice in the last six months. Contacts which LITAMIL-9 made during a recent trip to Europe with PBRUMEN officials stationed in that area were unproductive. Since occasional contact is still desired, however, it is requested that a new OA be processed on LITAMIL-9 to cover his use as outlined in the Part II of the PRQ.

2. Traces were rerun on Subject through LNPURE and the Station, and no derogatory information was turned up except for that mentioned in HMMW-11988, which cannot be resolved any further than the Station's comments in MEXICO CITY-3497 of 19 February 1963.

1. LITAMIL-9 returned to Mexico from Cuba in October 1966. On 8 November he was contacted and debriefed by Mexico City Station. Throughout the month of November he debated the question of whether or not he should return to Cuba. In the first week of December 1966, he decided to remain in Mexico.

2. Since it was believed that LITAMIL-9 would have little access to LIRING or to persons of interest in Mexico, he was terminated and the balance of his escrow account was paid to him on 9 December 1966. However, it has since become apparent that from time to time it would be valuable to WOFACT to contact LITAMIL-9 for information on PBRUMEN personalities. He is acquainted with a large number of persons who themselves are of interest to WOFACT or who could supply information on third persons on whom information is needed.

3. Therefore, provisional operational approval and subsequent operational approval for such occasional contact with LITAMIL-9 is requested. It is not planned to pay him a salary or formalize an agent relationship. LITAMIL-9 would only be contacted when specific needs for information arise and the possibility exists that he has or could obtain the information.

SUBJECT : LIRAVINE Project Renewal

1. Reference is made to your Staff Review (Form 826) of the LIRAVINE Project Renewal Request. In response to your requests, attached are one copy of the report on the 3-6 June 1966 debriefing of Morris A. UXPELET and one copy of the results of his 7 June 1966 SOSWIEL. Copies of these reports are being forwarded to CI/OA with a request for clearance for UXPELET's current use in Mexico.

2. A request for operational approval for LITAMIL-9 was submitted on 16 December 1965, but was not granted because of derogatory information which could not be resolved. However, LITAMIL-9's location and use have changed since that time and a new request for operational approval for his current use will be submitted.

3. A request for operational approval was submitted for LIRING-3 on 27 May 1966. Approval was not granted and he is being handled as a double-agent.

4. LIRING-4 is not recruited or used in any operational capacity and no operational relationship is contemplated.

SUBJECT: LITAMIL-9 and the Latin American Writers Congress in Mexico

ACTION REQUIRED - REFERENCES: FYI

1. Forwarded attached is a memorandum covering a succession of meetings held with LITAMIL-9 in connection with the Latin American Writers Congress in Mexico and it's Cuban delegation.

201-344217

2. In addition to the meetings mentioned in the attached memorandum, the Case Officer, Raymond A. FRADYER, also met L-9 on 28 March. He knew from LIENVOY that Ambassador Joaquin HERNANDEZ Armas was having a reception that night at the Cuban Embassy in honor of Alejo CARPENTIER Belmont. He also knew that CARPENTIER had agreed to meet L-9 earlier that day. FRADYER therefore assumed that L-9 had probably been invited to the Embassy affair. FRADYER had spent some time at his last meeting with L-9 briefing the latter on elicitation techniques and how he felt L-9 would safely bring up the subjects of the Vietnam war and French-Cuban relations, two topics on which CARPENTIER could provide interesting information. FRADYER was disappointed when L-9 told him that he had left his house that morning at 7A.M. and had been at his brother's plant in Toluca the entire day. L-9 added that he would have to spend the next day in Toluca and thus would be unable to talk to CARPENTIER before the latter left.

3. FRADYER is very much aware of Headquarters interest in L-9. Although he plans to meet L-9 regularly, he doubts (as previously mentioned to Clyde K. SHRYOCK when the latter recently visited Mexico) that L-9 will live up to Headquarters expectations. ~~As mentioned by L-9 himself~~:

A. He is acting as the general manager of the coffee grounds to edible oil plant in Toluca in which he and his brother own shares. Not only is this a new firm, but the raw material and process used to make the oil are somewhat of a novelty. The plant is deeply in the red (L-9 has yet to receive a salary and commutes to Toluca by bus) and requires close and time consuming attention. With the best of will, it is and will be difficult for L-9 to get away whenever he is needed by this Station.

B. As pointed out by L-9 himself, L-9 has now been in Mexico for some six months and has succeeded in obtaining from Gobernacion his reinstatement as a resident alien. It must be increasingly evident to the Cubans (despite L-9's request for extended leave from his job in Cuba) that the latter will probably not go back to Cuba. In other words, the Cubans probably view him more and more as an exile.

C. Because he spends most of his time away from Mexico City and because his Cuban friends are becoming more reserved with him, L-9 has less and less contacts with visiting Cubans. In fact, only one, the Subject of Mexico City 0783, has phoned him when visiting Mexico since L-9's return to this country. L-9, who senses that he is now an exile in the eyes of many of his friends in Cuba, is even reluctant to write to them. He feels, for example, that little would be accomplished by writing to Esebio *AZCUE Lopez, as the latter would probably not leave Cuba because of his young wife and child, even though he is fed-up with the Castro regime. On the contrary, L-9 feels that he might not be doing AZCUE any favor by writing to him as the latter who is not known for being an enthusiastic supporter of the regime may be under some observation from the Cuban authorities.

4. Information obtained by L-9 from CARPENTIER, Lizandro *OTERO and Nicolas *GUILLEN indicates

A. Together with information from other sources that the Cubans probably prearranged to take over the Congress of Latin American Writers with the help of the other Communists and use it for political purposes.

B. That Cintio *VITIER is obviously not trusted by the Castro regime and may be in trouble.

C. That the Cubans are making a major effort, in line with their pro-French policy to show themselves in Paris under the best light possible.

D. That CARPENTIER obviously enjoys the confidence of the regime. His trip to Hanoi had certainly nothing to do with cultural affairs. It is regretted that L-9 did not elicit further information from CARPENTIER on his visit to North Vietnam.

FROM

SUBJECT: LITAMIL-9 and the Latin American Writer's Congress in Mexico

1. The undersigned reviewed the list of delegates attending the Latin American Writer's Congress with L-9 on 19 March 1967. The latter indicated he knew all the members of the Cuban delegation - Alejo CARPENTIER Belmont, Roberto FERNANDEZ Retamar, Lizandro OTERO, Nicolas GUILLEN and Pablo NEREDA, a Chilean writer whom he first met some 25 years ago and saw again about 1962. L-9 stressed he did not know the Cuban delegates to the point of calling anyone of them a personal friend as his dealings with them had been confined to professional contacts when he worked for the National Cultural Council. He had never been invited to their homes or invited them to his. The delegate he felt most at ease with was Alejo CARPENTIER with whom he felt he had more in common than with the others. CARPENTIER who has a French father and white Russian mother lived many years in France and spent some time in South America. L-9 considered him to be an intellectual of definite "bourgeois" background and tastes. Not only is CARPENTIER well known for his novels (L-9 recalled that his name had once been mentioned in connection with the Nobel Prize for literature) and his journalistic writing (L-9 still remembered some of the articles regularly written by him in Paris for the "El Mundo" daily in the pre Castro era) but he is also an established music critic and a connaisseur of modern painting, all in all a talented and most impressive man now in his sixties.

att #1 to HMMA-31703

2. L-9 had on many occasions offered to help WOFACT in any way possible. The undersigned pointed out that he now had a unique opportunity to do this with the Writer's Congress. WOFACT was interested in assessing the Cuban representatives at this Congress to determine their possible vulnerability to recruitment. It was also interested in hearing from the Cuban delegates what they thought of the Congress and it's accomplishments since it was apparent that the great majority of it's members were Communist sympathizers and would probably use the Congress for political purposes. Any information on the situation in Cuba and on Cuban Government organizations, particularly on the incorporation of the National Cultural Council into the Ministry of Education would be appreciated. It would also be interesting to know why Cintio VITIER who was scheduled to come to the Congress did not show up. L-9 said he was willing to help but was extremely busy with his brother's edible oil business in Toluca. It would be difficult for him to find time to talk with the Cuban delegates, he felt in addition, that it would be difficult for him to simply walk in on the delegates if he could not be invited, officially, to the Congress or to a social affair connected with it. Finally, L-9 pointed out that he had now been in Mexico for nearly six months, that "everyone" knew that he had no intention of returning to Cuba and that, for these reasons, the Cuban delegates to the Congress might not be anxious to talk to him. After a long "pep" talk by the undersigned and some discussion it was decided that L-9 would call the next morning on Ambassador Joaquin HERNANDEZ Armas who had just returned from Cuba. L-9 would pay his respects and find out if the Embassy planned some social function at which he could openly meet the Cuban delegates (he felt he might wrangle an invitation to such an affair either directly from the Ambassador or from Heberto JORRIN, the ex-Embassy portero whom he has known for years). It was further decided that L-9 would concentrate on CARPENTIER with whom he felt he had the best rapport and who was in his view the delegate with the most "bourgeois" background.

3. At a meeting held on 21 March L-9 related that he had seen Ambassador HERNANDEZ earlier that morning (the delegates to the Writer's Congress which had been held for the last few days in Guadalajara were scheduled to return the next day). He had found the Ambassador nervous and preoccupied. The latter told him almost mechanically that everything in Cuba (political and economic situation, sugar harvest, etc) was fine. He informed L-9 that he did not have the opportunity to see L-9's sister-in-law and that he had given a letter, which L-9 had asked him to deliver to her for passage to the National Cultural Council, to Marta GONZALEZ of the International Relations Bureau of the Council. L-9, in this letter, asked that his three month leave from the Cultural Council be greatly extended. The Ambassador said he ignored what reaction the Cultural people had to his letter. He explained that the Cultural Council is now part of a Bureau headed by Lisandro OTERO (LISANDRO IS V-P OF CNC - how could he head a Bureau over the CNC?) in the Ministry of Education. Carlos LECHUGA Hevia, the previous head of the council has been reassigned to the Tri-Continental conference as a member of the Secretariat of that organization. He was replaced as the head of the council by fnu MUZIO, ex rector of the University of Oriente. The Ambassador insisted that, in spite of this, the National Cultural Council still kept some degree of autonomy. He was rather evasive when L-9 mentioned his desire to call on the Cuban delegates to the Writer's Congress. He said that he did not think that a party would be held at the Embassy for the delegates and did not offer to put L-9 in contact with the people he wanted to see. Since he did not seem to have gotten anywhere with the Ambassador, the undersigned asked L-9 to call the next morning on the Congress delegates at the Del Prado Hotel where they were staying. ~~The next morning~~ L-9 seemed reluctant at first, but finally agreed to do this if he did not have any more luck in contacting the Cuban delegates some other way. L-9 proposed to visit the Embassy the next day and talk to JORRIN about the Congress. The Latter might be able to place him in contact with the Cuban visitors.

4. The undersigned met L-9 again on 22 March. L-9 stated that he had visited the Cuban Embassy early that day but had to wait for JORRIN who was out for about 20 minutes. The latter was ~~too~~ so busy after his return that L-9 had only a few minutes of conversation with him. JORRIN confirmed that the Embassy would not have a party for the Congress delegates "because of the Semana Santa," and said he did not know exactly when the delegates would drop in the Embassy following their return from Guadalajara. Upon leaving JORRIN, L-9 went to the Del Prado where he was told that the Congress delegates would only return to Mexico late that day. A few blocks from the hotel L-9 ran into Nicolas GUILLEN who greeted him by saying "here is L-9 in his ambiente Mexicano." The two men walked together back to the Del Prado. GUILLEN turned down L-9's invitation for a cup of coffee saying he had to visit someone. He did mention that the Congress, as far as he was concerned, was "una basura" and told L-9 that he had flown from Guadalajara to Mexico City (he did not say why) ahead of the other Cuban delegates who were returning by road later that day. GUILLEN told L-9 that he would be in the same neighborhood early next day and would be glad to have coffee with him if L-9 could meet him then. Anyway, he added, he would be staying in Mexico for another two weeks at the request of the Ambassador. They could see each other again later on before he left. As they were about to cross a busy street shortly before parting, L-9 took GUILLEN by the arm in a friendly gesture. The latter pulled away and L-9 had the feeling that GUILLEN did not want to let L-9 be friendly with him.

5. The next meeting with L-9 was held on 24 March. L-9 said that he had not been able to call on the Cubans at the Del Prado until earlier that day. He had run into Licandro OTERO while in the lobby. The latter told him he was about to leave. When L-9 said "already?" OTERO pointed out that he had been in Mexico for two weeks already. L-9 repeated the derogatory remarks made about the Congress by GUILLEN. OTERO said that, on the contrary, this had been a successful meeting. A letter of protest had been sent to President Johnson and the Congress had taken a firm position against the "Imperialists." After relating the above, L-9 recalled that a rumor circulated in Havana, shortly before his departure from Cuba, to the effect that

Marcia LEISECA, OTERO's wife (a woman of about 34 who worked at the Casa de las Americas) was about to divorce OTERO to marry Osmani CIENFUEGOS. L-9 added that Marcia had relatives in Mexico whom she visited in 1962 and 1965. After leaving OTERO, L-9 phoned CARPENTIER and was told by the latter to meet him the next day.

6. L-9 and CARPENTIER met for breakfast on 24 March. When L-9 asked him for news about the National Cultural Council, CARPENTIER said that L-9 knew certainly more about that then he did as he had been in France since last November. CARPENTIER claimed that he had been called in by DORTICOS last October and told that Baudilio CASTILLANOS, the current Cuban Ambassador in Paris, had requested his nomination to the Paris Embassy as Minister Concellor. CARPENTIER said he tried to get out of this two year assignment which he found too long, but was told by DORTICOS that there was no way out of it. The Cuban Government, said DORTICOS, was out to make it's representation in Paris "an absolutely first class Embassy". DORTICOS added that CARPENTIER would not be so busy in Paris that he would not find time to write. Whether he found time to write CARPENTIER did not say. What he did say was that the Ambassador, who was doing a very good job, did an enormous amount of work and usually worked late at night. He also mentioned that while in Paris or shortly before arriving there he had gone to Hanoi on an official mission. CARPENTIER gave no details other than to say that that horrible war was probably going to last, and that U.S. planes had flown right over his head during his stay. L-9 did not press him for more information but gathered that CARPENTIER remained in North Vietnam two or three weeks.

7. L-9 asked why VITIER had not attended the Congress. CARPENTIER replied that VITIER was "in a special situation in Cuba" as he was not in accord with the revolution. He had been given the opportunity to go to Spain for the Cuban Government but had refused to go. VITIER undoubtedly knew, from the background of the delegates, that the Writer's Congress in Mexico would be a leftist affair. CARPENTIER guessed that he probably declined to come because of this. Talking about himself, CARPENTIER said (without further details) that he would be going to Moscow in May. He announced that a film based on his novel "Los Pasos Perdidos" would be made this year, probably half in France and half in Cuba (negotiations with the French are still going on). Finally, he mentioned that he was trying to convince the Cuban Government to create a centralized publishing department and that as Director of the Cuban National printing office, before leaving Cuba, he had succeeded in getting some 70 million books printed. He mentioned, incidentally, that his publisher in Mexico is Arnaldo ORFILA, ex director of the Mexico City Fondo del Cultura Economica whom CARPENTIER said he was on his way to see to collect royalties. CARPENTIER said he would leave Mexico on 29 March via SABENA and agreed to get together with L-9 on 27 March.

B. LITAMIL-9. LITAMIL-9, who some years ago worked at LIRING, has now been back from PBRUMEN for about six months and has been reinstated by the Mexican authorities as a resident alien in Mexico. Although LITAMIL-9 has no intention to go back to PBRUMEN, he has done his best to keep the PBRUMEN door open. He has for example requested that his leave from his job in PBRUMEN (originally for three months) be extended to allow him to attend to private business in Mexico. The fact is that with each week that goes by LITAMIL-9 looks more and more like an exile in the eyes of the LIRING staff. Of the people who served with him at the PBRUMEN Embassy the Ambassador, the ex portero and one of the employees from the Commercial Section are left. Although LITAMIL-9 can still visit the Embassy and talk with the Ambassador, it is clear that his rapport with the LIRING staff will be more and more reserved.

Memorandum for the Record

9 November 1966

Subject: Meeting with LITAMIL-9

PER telecon on the morning of 8 November, the undersigned met with LITAMIL-9 at 2100 at the Gutenberg/Thiers' glorieta. L-9 was taken to the home of Gene F. BRADDOCK, where the meeting was held. The meeting lasted until 0200 on 9 Nov 66. NO SECURITY PROBLEMS NOTED.

An interesting and fantastic incident occurred on the night of 7 Nov. L-9 said he saw the undersigned walking by his apartment when for some unknown reason he got up to look out the window. The undersigned did, in fact, walk by L-9's apartment on the night of the 7th at about 2300. L-9 was, of-course, very impressed with this quirk of fate as was the undersigned. Three years in time, a city of 5 million people etc. At approximately 2245, the undersigned called L-9 and a woman answered the phone. Nothing was said by the undersigned and the phone was hung up. It is possible that this call, if the number was correct, had some influence on his appearance at the window. However, L-9 made no mention of a woman at his place but said he had been reading and got up to look out.

PERSONAL PROBLEMS:

L-9 is very concerned about having lost his Mexican residence permit. [illegible] According to L-9, the Mexican Govt took away his residence permit because he broke Mexican laws. L-9 travelled to Cuba several times without advising the proper authorities during the last several years. L-9 always travelled to Cuba as a Cuban diplomat and not as a Mexican resident therefore there was no record of his travel. This was obviously against the rules and L-9 has to pay for it. L-9 went to see Coty SOLORZANO re this problem and she told him to get in touch with Ignacio "Nacho" ACOSTA Lagunas. ACOSTA took L-9 to Gobernacion but he was unable to see the Oficial Mayor, GALVEZ, fnu. They talked with another official who gave them little hope. ACOSTA said he would go to see GALVEZ, himself, on the following Monday but again, he was unable to get to see GALVEZ. (Lic. Carlos GALVEZ Betancourt).

L-9 went to see Amb. Joaquin HERNANDEZ Armas after ACOSTA failed to help him and HERNANDEZ told him he would talk with Ing. Jorge TAMAYO, that TAMAYO was the man who would be able to help. L-9 is pretty shook up about this problem because he was told at Gobernacion that he would have to reapply again and therefore go through the same XXXXXXX red tape as before, i.e. five years, restricted travel etc. L-9, of course, has new hope with his contact with us but XXXXX XXX he was told that only as a last resort would the U.S. get involved in order to protect the operation.

L-9 again went into the business of his brother's request and that of his friend in the Lomas, who is financing the deal, for him to remain in Mexico as the company's administrator. L-9 stated as he has done in the past that he is being pulled in both directions, i.e. toward Mexico by his brother etc and XXXXX toward Cuba by the U.S. Govt. He did not make it clear which of the two pressures he expects to succumb to. The undersigned did not push the issue at this meeting hoping to get into this matter at a later meeting.

L-9, just before he got out of the car, mentioned that he was in need of money and wanted to get spare parts etc to sent back to Cuba with Orlando SUAREZ, who is scheduled to leave for Habana on Monday. The undersigned said he would get L-9 some money for the next meeting.

L-9 was in good spirits, very proud of his files and anxious to to please. HE described himself during the last year or so in Cuba as "un soldado en su puesto" ready to serve when the time came. He was pleased,of course,to have contact again with ODYOKE and indicated he was a little shook up because his brother was "all over the place" and therefore not a good contact point. He was concerned about how hewas going to make contact.

L-9's post with the Consejo is: Jefe de Protocolo and Liaison officer with the Foreign embassies in Habana.

7. Manuel VEGA Pérez - VEGA was named to his present post in the Consejo by Carlos LECHUGA. VEGA, although not a cultured man, has a "baby faced" charm about him that gets him through. I mentioned to L-9 that VEGA was formerly G-2 in Mexico and he agreed but gave little attention to this in terms of his new role.

8. Eduardo CORONA - L-9 said that the removal of CORONA from his post was looked upon very critically by members of the dip corps. CORONA, an extremely well educated and knowledgable type was replaced by Manuel VEGA Perez. CORONA, acc L-9, was removed from the post in order to give him more time to work on the new Constitution. CORONA is also a prof at the U. of Habana. L-9 changed CORONA's despedida address because, acc L-9, the way CORONA had written it, it looked a though CORONA had been fired. L-9 commented thusly to CORONA.

9. Carlos LECHUGA - L-9 said LECHUGA is very happy in his job and [illegible] his wife is a different woman. She is very much at ease, apparently the marital problems have been solved etc. She is writing articles for "El Mundo". LECHUGA, acc L-9 was appraently scheduled to go to Paris but CASTELLANOS went in his stead. LECHUGA was actually studying French for the job. LECHUGA comments often on the personnel who were in Mexico and are now in the CONSEJO. [illegible] L-9, Jose Luis POSADA, Manuel VEGA, LECHUGA etc. , among others.

10. Jose Luis POSADA - POSADA is inthe Consejo de Cultura and will fill in for L-9 while he is away.

11. Raul ROA Garcia - ROA is away down on the totem poleof power and has enemies throughout the govt. ROA was operated on by Dr. SANTAMARIA, fnu for prostate trouble.

L-9 said he "bumped into" LITAMIL-3 on the street and L-3 has been trying to talk with him. L-9 said he is somewhat embarrassed and asked about the propriety of getting in touch with him. He was told to go ahead but to merely discuss the amenities of life and not get into [illegible] discussion to which he agreed heartily.

L-9 explained how he requested "leave without pay" etc through Manuel VERA but this is spelled out in docs L-9 provided us on 8 3 November. Copies of all these docs re L-9's departure, militia etc will be copied.

12. Carlos FRANQUI - L -9 knows nothing about FRANQUI but did comment that when Wilfredo LAM, colored painter, arrived in Habana for the TRICON, FRANQUI was at the airport and in an aside told LAM that he should avoid getting [illegible] involved with Marty FRAIDE because she was [illegible] outspokenly anti-regime.

13. Marta FRAILE - FRAILE, acc L-9, is known to be anti-CASTRO and she makes no bones about it.

14. Fidel CASTRO - CASTRO, acc L-9, is in trouble but his security forces keep things under control. [illegible] CASTRO says, according CONchita FERNANDEZ that he has to depend on his young scholarship students. He can't trust anyone else. He is obviously turnigg toward sugar after having turned twoard industry etc. Graciela EISEE, demonstrated a bit of anti-CASTRO feeling when at 26 July fiesta the crowds applauded CASTRO. EISEE commented in a sarcastic tone: "Aplaudiran", aplaudiran" . L-9 recalls that CASTRO was operated on for rectum trouble but he does not recall when. He believes Dr. RORDIGUEZ Diaz was the surgeon.

PERSONALITIES

1) Teresa PROENZA - L-9 said that when PROENZA left Mexico for Habana she was very unhappy and was cursing everybody. When L-9 arrived in La Habana he was told that PROENZA had been involved in "un asunto grave" with ORDOQUI and that she was being held. He said the latest information, about 2 months ago, is that she is under house arrest at Santa Maria del Mar, a beach resort outside Habana. Little comment is made re PROENZA in Habana.

2) Joaquin ORDOQUI and his wife, Edith BUCHACA de O. - ORDOQUI is still being held but his wife is allowed to go out on the street, accompanied by someone.

3) Marcia LEISECA - According to L-9, LEISECA and Lisandro OTERO are now divorced and rumors have it that LEISECA is going to marry Osmani CIENFUEGOS. LEISECA, acc L-9, is an important personality, particularly in the cultural field, i.e at the Casa de las Americas.

4. Joaquin HERNANDEZ Armas - HERNANDEZ has been very friendly with L-9 since the arrival of the latter. HERNANDEZ acc L-9 is much more at ease now than when L-9 was here last. He is relaxed and sure of himself.

5. Pablo ALDAMA Acosta - ALDAMA was fired from MINREX and he was very unhappy about it. He does not have a job but is on govt payroll. ALDAMA told L-9 he was "teed off" and name Luis GOMEZ B. as the man who was getting the breaks and that GOMEZ did nothing for the revolution etc.

6. Evelio CASTRO Rodriguez - Acc L-9, CASTRO's name was brought up by Augusto AROCS, a cousin of Gustavo, when he was with Conchita FERNANDEZ XXX A. AROCS said it was known that CASTRO was going to "jump" and yet he was allowed to leave with his family for some unknown reason. A real enigma.

15. Gustavo ARCOS - Nothing except he arrested. Will query again re ARCOS.

16. Mercedes MORALES Carrillo - SecGen of the Casa Cuba/Mexico in Habana. MORALES acc L-9, cut him L-9 out of the Mexican picutre.

17. Gen. Fernando PAMANES - PAMANES is very close to Hilda de FRANCO in more ways than one. It is the talk of the town. In fact, it was rumored that PAMANES was going to marry Hilda PEREZ de F. He is with here frequently and in public.

18. Celia SANCHEZ - Acc L-9, SANCHEZ plans on inviting Coty SOLORZANO to Cuba sometime around end of year.

19. Haydee SANTAMARIA - SANTAMARIA, it is rumored, will take over Carlos LECHUGA's post at some time in the near future. At least, thatis the rumor.

20. Agustin GUERRA Piedra - GUERRA went to Spain recently with his wife, who is going blind. Acc L-9, Dr. BARRAQUE, fnu, of Barcelona told PIEDRA he couldn't do a thing for his wife, and GUERRA returned. Acc GUERRA, he wanted his daughter to accompany them to Spain but the Cuban Govt would not grant permission. GUERRA is anti-CASTRO completo, but he's going to stay through it all.

21. Mariano RODRIGUEZ - RODRIGUEZ is a painter who recently went to Rome. THE Casa de las Americans suggested he go Spain, France etc to make contact with friends of Cuba but Consejo turned the suggestion down. It was then given to the Foreing office and they approved the travel.

22. Xiomara SANCHEZ - SANCHEZ has been fired from MINREX and she is not happy about it.

L-9 has contact with the following Embassies in Habana:

Italy - Santoro and Roqui (sic) - Very good relations here.

Francia - Lecouye sic)

Beligica - FORMER Amb.

Canada - Amb/ McClean - Svododa (not fond of Svoboda)

Hungaros - Actay (sic)

Czechos -

Polish - Koboito - Second Sec/Cultural Att.

British - BELL

Rumanian -

L-9 said his relations with Italians is excellent. He has never been invited to the Sov Embassy , in fact, it's the only one.

The Casa/Cuba-Mexico

President: Juan MARINELLO V.
XXXXXXXXX Secreat Executiva - Mercedes MORALES C.

L-9 said the President of the Instituto in Merida was in Cuba, in July 66.

22 November 1966

SUBJECT: Fidel CASTRO Ruz

On 9-10 November 1966, LITAMIL-9 reported the following re Fidel CASTRO Ruz:

a) LITAMIL-9 was not aware of any problem that CASTRO might have had during the period May-June 1966, wheh he failed to appear publicly. L-9 believes that he would have heard about any serious problem through "Conchita" FERNANDEZ had there been one. On this score, L-9 said that we should not pay much attention to reports that CASTRO is losing power or turning it over to the Party because, although he remains out of the limelight for a time, he bounces back bigger and more popular than ever. L-9 did recall that CASTRO was operated on by Dr. RODRIGUEZ Diaz, fnu , for a rectal problem but he beliefes this was in 1966.

b) CASTRO has changed his mind about voluntary labor and now feels that those assigned to the tasks given them should get the job done without voluntary assistance. L-9 believes that Celia SANCHEZ reflected this policy when she recently told "Conchita" FERNANDEZ not to volunteer her services. Le9 believes that CASTRO has recognized his folly in the case of voluntary labor and realizes now that this merely provokes his minions into creating problems in areas where they should not be, i.e. lack of personnel in times when they needed in specific job. L-9 believes Cubans are taking advantage of voluntary labor to be missing frrom own assigned tasks in a form of clandestine subtle sabotage operattion. It is this that CASTRO is also beginning to realize.

c) CASTRO termination of militia courses per memo also shows a switch in attitude of CASTRO, who may also see conterproductive results of indoctrinating Cubans across the board. This happened about two months ago.

ASUNTO SOLICITUD DE LICENCIA

Estimado compañero:

Por medio de la presente tengo el gusto de dirigirme a Ud, al efecto de exponerle que con motivo de mis vacaciones, quisiera aprovechar esa oportunidad, para solicitarle se me conceda licencia para viajar a la ciudad de México por el término de tres meses y a partir de la primera quincena del próximo mes de Septiembre, al objeto de terminar los cuadros que se encuentran inconclusos en mi estudio de aquella ciudad, en razón de mi traslado a Cuba y de estar desempeñando funciones en el Consejo Nacional de Cultura, que con gran satisfaccion para mi modesta persona, me han sido encomendadas a los fines de mejor servir a la Revolución.

Aprovechando el tiempo que por vacaciones me pueda corresponder, le ruego atentamente, considere dar curso a esta solicitud, no sin antes según tengo entendido, si el tiempo solicitado no cubre totalmente las vacaciones que actualmente me puedan corresponder, se tenga en cuenta un anticipo, en base de las que me correspondan en el futuro próximo.

Al mismo tiempo deseo exponerle tambien, que los gastos relativos a mi estancia, no serían un obstáculo, dado que en México cuento con familiares directos y nacidos en aquel país. Quisiera que si se accede a mi solicitud, se me facilitaran o me indicaran los trámites usuales a realizar para poder pagar el pasaje de ida y vuelta en moneda nacional, así como la autorización correspodiente para poder llevar unos libros que he comprado, los cuales utilizaría para terminar los cuadros de referencia.

Con gracias anticipadas por la atención que preste a esta solicitud, me reitero de Ud, con saludos revolucionarios de "PATRIA O MUERTE", "VENCEREMOS",

* HQS proposal of secure reactivation LITAMIL-9.

1. FOLLOWING STATION VIEWS AFTER CAREFUL CONSIDERATION REF PROPOSAL.

2. ANY CONTACT INITIATED WITH LITAMIL-9 INSIDE PBRUMEN WILL BE INTERPRETED BY HIM AS A BREACH OF FAITH. STATION AGREES SUCH ACTION JUSTIFIED, HOWEVER, IN VIEW HIS PROBABLE ACCESS AND HAS BEEN EXAMINING MEANS EFFECT CONTACT. FEEL HE SHOULD NOT BE CONTACTED THROUGH PBRUMEN NATIONAL.

3. BELIEVE L-9 SHOULD COMMUNICATE THROUGH SOMEONE NOT SUBJECT TO ARREST. IF AMCRASH-1 USED AND PICKED UP FOR ANY REPEAT ANY REASON HE COULD BE BROKEN. L-9 WOULD BE DOOMED. WORKING ALONE L-9 WILL HAVE CHANCE SURVIVAL. AS MEMBER PBRUMEN NET OR WHATEVER CHOOSE TO CALL L-9/A-1 ASSOCIATION L-9 IS ENDANGERED UNDULY. STATION STRONGLY AGAINST ANY OPERATIONAL CONTACT WITH L-9 WITH ANY OTHER PBRUMEN NATIONAL. C/O WHO HANDLED L-9 1963-1965 BELIEVES L-9 WILL FEEL SAME WAY. STATION HAS UNEASY FEELINGS ABOUT AMMOON AGENTS IN VIEW CLOSE MHGUILE ATTENTION TO THEM. DESPITE A-1 SGSWIRL BELIEVE

Jane

TOO DANGEROUS EXPOSE L-9 TO HIM.

4. PARA 3 REF GIVES L-9 OPTION REFUSE OFFER IN COMMUNICATION BY OPEN CODE TO BROTHER (L-17). BUT NOT CLEAR FROM REF HOW L-17 CAN "SECURELY DRAW ATTENTION" TO ALTERED PASSAGE IN BOOK.

5. MOVING FROM NEGATIVE TO POSITIVE, ONE POSSIBILITY REESTABLISH CONTACT LIES IN USE LICOBRA-2 WHO IN NO WAY SUBJECT TO ARREST. ALTHOUGH L-2 HAS NEVER BEEN ASKED DO ANYTHING OF SORT, C/O FEELS HE MIGHT BE WILLING HELP OUT. L-2 HAS OWN COURIER WHO CAN CARRY SEALED NOTES WITHOUT PUTTING THEM INSIDE DIPLOMATIC POUCH. AS DIP COURIER HE NOT SUBJECT TO SEARCH.

6. L-9 COULD ARRANGE VISIT L-2 IN EMBASSY AFTER LETTER FROM L-17 OR PERHAPS PHONE CALL FROM L-2. FACT THAT L-9 RESIDED 18 YEARS MEXICO FURNISHES AMPLE COVER FOR VISIT AS L-9 COULD BE INQUIRING ABOUT RETENTION INMIGRADO STATUS. ONCE INSIDE, L-9 COULD BE GIVEN NOTE FROM C/O. FIRST LINE OF NOTE WOULD BE WARNING NOT SAY ANYTHING COMPROMISING SINCE EMBASSY PROBABLY BUGGED BY MHGUILE. NOTE WOULD CONTAIN PITCH FOR REACTIVATION AND OUTLINE COMMO ARRANGEMENTS. L-9 COULD MAKE WRITTEN REPLY AND GIVE TO L-2 FOR TRANSMITTAL TO C/O.

7. IF L-9 WILLING COOPERATE, COULD ARRANGE BECOME ACTIVE MEMBER MEXICAN/PBRUMEN CULTURAL SOCIETY FOR WHICH HAS EXCELLENT

8. BELIEVE C/O COULD ARRANGE HAVE L-2 AGREE GIVE L-9 ASYLUM IN CASE L-9 SITUATION EVER PRECARIOUS. THIS PLUS REVELATION TO L-9 THAT HE HAS 4,800 DOLLARS IN ESCROW AND PROSPECTS ADDING SIGNIFICANTLY TO THIS NESTEGG MIGHT HELP TIP SCALES IN FAVOR L-9 RENEWED COOPERATION IN PLACE.

9. PROPOSE PAY OFF L-2 BY ARRANGING FOR PROMINENT WOLADY VINICULTURIST TO VISIT L-2 VINEYARDS ZACATECAS ON ALL EXPENSE PAID (BY WOFACT) TRIP TO ADVISE L-2 HOW TO INCREASE YIELD AND QUALITY HIS GRAPES. NO MONEY WOULD BE PAID TO L-2 THUS PRESERVING HIS DIGNITY.

10. ALL ABOVE PREDICATED ON (A) SPECIFIC AGREEMENT BY HQS TO VIOLATION LNGOLD RESTRICTIONS ON OPERATIONAL USE MEXICAN DIPLOMATS, AND (B) ESTIMATE BY STATION THAT L-2 WOULD NOT TELL MEXICAN FOREIGN MINISTER ABOUT OPERATION. BELIEVE FLAP POTENTIAL COULD BE LESSENED BY HAVING BARKER DO PITCHING OF L-2 ON TDY TRIP AFTER LEAVING MEXICO PCS. OP WOULD THUS HAVE NON-MEXICO BASE WHICH COULD LESSEN CHANCES BLOWBACK TO STATION AND CHIEF LNPURE.

11. HQS COMMENTS WOULD BE APPRECIATED. SECRET

1. LITAMIL-7 reported on 6 May 1966 that Identity A told her a few days earlier that LITAMIL-9 is well, has put on some weight, and is working hard at Identity B where he works for Identity C. This information came as a result of LITAMIL-7 having asked Identity A about how LITAMIL-9 was getting along. The general tone of Identity A's remarks about LITAMIL-9 indicated that she seems to be favorably disposed toward him.

2. The Station has had no recent contact with LITAMIL-17 who is LITAMIL-9's brother. It is assumed that should he hear anything of interest concerning LITAMIL-9, he will report it promptly to the C/O.

3. It is recalled that when LITAMIL-9 left Mexico for PBRUMEN in March 1965 he told his C/O he would, by hook or by crook, find some way to get back to Mexico within 23 months lest he lose his inmigrado status in Mexico. It is assumed that he is exploring every angle to make his escape and one possibility that comes to mind is that he might try to wangle a connection with the PBRUMEN pavilion at the 1967 Canadian International Fair in an effort to break out. Owing to his well-known non-Communist beliefs, it would seem that he has almost no chance to secure a diplomatic assignment.

Estimado compañero:

Tengo el gusto de dirigirme a Ud, para informarle de dos actividades culturales que se llevaron a cabo recientemente por este Consejo, con motivo del 1ro. de Julio, Fiesta Nacional del Canadá.

Dichas actividades culturales se realizaron conjuntamente con la Embajada de ese país, como las tarjetas-invitación que se anexan lo indican, interpretándose por la Orquesta Sinfónica Nacional y en el Teatro Amadeo Roldán, en el concierto dedicado a la festividad de referencia, la obra Trois Pièces, del compositor canadiense Jean Papineau Couture.

También y con dicho motivo, se halla actualmente y en una de las salas del Palacio Nacional de Bellas Artes, una exposición de Grabados Esquimales, la cual fué inaugurada el 1ro. de Julio por el Encargado de Negocios a.i., de la Embajada del Canadá, Mr. Alan McLaine, y quien gentilmente destacó en su alocución su contento por la realización de las dos actividades de referencia. En su intervención, el compañero Dr. [illegible] Serena, a la sazón Director de esta Dirección, expresó, [illegible] a la fecha de celebración que estas dos manifestaciones de arte y cultura, estrechan las relaciones culturales entre los dos países.

El Cuerpo Diplomático, fué especialmente invitado, y recordamos entre los que estuvieron presentes, tanto en el concierto como en el acto de inauguración, al diplomático canadiense Mr. [illegible], de quien nos hemos referido; a los Embajadores [illegible] Bajos, y de Yugoeslavia; a los Encar-

A continuación traducción por Ud. solicitada de la carta escrita en inglés, y la cual tiene fecha 14 de Febrero de 1966.

Estimado Sr.

Nos tomamos la libertad de dirigirnos a usted sobre un asunto por el cual sentimos vivo interés.

Somos una Compañía, cuyo negocio conciste en comprar derechos, para producir obras, presentar actores, promover y llevar adelante Festivales en los cuales toman parte artistas extranjeros e israelíes.

Por lo cual le estaríamos muy agradecidos si nos expresa su opinión sobre que artistas cubanos podríamos invitar para que visiten Israel y actúen aquí. Nosotros podríamos encontrar la forma viable para intercambiar cantantes, músicos etc, y así ampliar las Relaciones Culturales entre Israel y Cuba, algo que mucho nos concierne.

Como para la próxima Primavera estamos planeando un Festival Internacional de Folklore, mucho lo agradeceríamos su pronta respuesta.

Estimado Dr. Corona:

Le ruego me excuse por mi tardanza en enviarle esta carta de agradecimiento a Ud. por el esfuerzo que realizó, e hizo posible pudiésemos tocar para su pueblo.

Aun conservamos plenamente, un vívido y feliz recuerdo del viaje. Las cajas de tabacos que Ud. nos dió en el aeropuerto, fueron sumamente apreciadas por mi maestro Efren Zimbalist, quien ha sido por años un apasionado del tabaco habana.

Para el próximo verano estamos planeando regresar al Japón, para una gira de conciertos, y la Sociedad de Amistad Japón-Cuba en Tokyo, nos ha ofrecido organizar la gira.

Me parece que si Ud, pudiese escribir una carta de recomendación o endorsement, con las impresiones de Ud. sobre nuestras actuaciones en Cuba, sería de gran valor para nosotros, para que la gira en el Japón se haga posible.

Le rogamos haga llegar a su familia, nuestros más cálidos saludos y muy especialmente para Elpidio.

Al mismo tiempo, reciba nuestros mejores parabienes y sentimientos de aprecio.

Estimado Sr.

Estoy representando la Hutchinsons Publishing, la cual está de lo más interesada en las posibilidades de publicar traducciones de obras de poesía y ficción.

Estas traducciones aparecerán regularmente bajo una denominación - posiblemente, "The Latin American Library", y con la continuación de series como la "Library" lo desea, creemos dará una coherencia a las publicaciones de Literatura Latino-Americana, de la cual carece al presente.

Por le momento estoy tratando de recppilar tanta información como séa posible. Le estaré de lo más agradecido por cualquier ayuda que me pueda dar. Preferentemente desearía los nombres de destacados autores cubanos - clásicos y contemporáneos - títulos de las obras de ficción y de poesía, y una información que indique hasta que punto pueden ser traducidas al inglés.

Doy a Ud. las gracias anticipadas por su cortesía y ayuda.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: LITAMIL-7

1. According to Gerald D. FAHLANGER, LITAMIL-7, who [redacted] LITAMIL-3 in approximately 1966-67. Although Subject was never a very productive asset, [redacted] provide information on activities of the installation and individuals working therein. In approximately 1969-70, Subject was retired by the PBRUMAN Embassy, ending her previous usefulness [redacted] In spite [redacted] loss of access to the embassy, she did continue to maintain contact with [redacted] the personnel, including the ambassador. For this reason [redacted] maintained contact with her through LITAMIL-3. However, this too was not very productive because she felt she had been treated fairly upon retirement, and felt a certain degree of loyalty to them. This was somewhat incongruous, since she did not feel such loyalty when she was working in the embassy.

2. Subject met FAHLANGER, as [redacted] approximately six times in [redacted] home. The last time she was told that in view of [redacted] retirement, which resulted in the loss of access to the embassy, our relations with [redacted] would be terminated. However, if [redacted] reestablished contact with the personnel, or was recalled to work part or full time, we would, of course, consider contact again. This, of course, never happened.

3. While Subject was not paid a regular salary, [redacted] did receive spot payments for the information [redacted] submitted. [redacted] also received occasional small gifts at Christmas time and on her birthday. The termination was amicable, and Subject agreed to notify LITAMIL-3 if she had any information of value to report.

MEMORANDUM FOR: CI/OA

ATTENTION : [redacted]

1. LITAMIL-9 returned to Mexico from Cuba in October 1966. On 8 November he was contacted and debriefed by Mexico City Station. Throughout the month of November he debated the question of whether or not he should return to Cuba. In the first week of December 1966, he decided to remain in Mexico.

2. Since it was believed that LITAMIL-9 would have little access to LIRING or to persons of interest in Mexico, he was terminated and the balance of his escrow account was paid to him on 9 December 1966. However, it has since become apparent that from time to time it would be valuable to WOFACT to contact LITAMIL-9 for information on PBRUMEN personalities. He is acquainted with a large number of persons who themselves are of interest to WOFACT or who could supply information on third persons on whom information is needed.

3. Therefore, provisional operational approval and subsequent operational approval for such occasional contact with LITAMIL-9 is requested. It is not planned to pay him a salary or formalize an agent relationship. LITAMIL-9 would only be contacted when specific needs for information arise and the possibility exists that he has or could obtain the information.
